Even as far back as 2004 i made a first and brief attempt to 'thin' zionism related bloggery from the regular mix

Elbit arms company HQ stormed in a second bold direct action -- 486 views -- Aug 7 --- Real Media - 7.69K subscribers ----- A week after visiting Israeli arms company Elbit Systems, the new protest network Palestine Action carried out a second raid, storming their central London HQ and leaving a lot of painted messages for their staff and others in the shared building. The action involved around half a dozen protesters, along with a passer-by who apparently saw it was Palestine-related and joined in! Several decorated the lobby while chanting and unfurling a huge â€"Shut Elbit Down" banner, while three ran up to the sixth floor and painted slogans outside Elbit's main office there.

The nineties was for me the time i took pride in creating looooooong and deeeep breath sentences. the first 5th [with present bg shade] lists all passages with the word 'jew' in'm [partial contexts] the rest cites my activities at mailing lists [full contexts]; hilites: Louis Proyect, Jim Craven ----- warriorlist: 20 Feb 1999 - factors, friction and fun [3 work thrus / work overs / expansions] ---- Sovereignty List [58X 'JEW' -- moved to this pile [taken 'apart' as it were] in februari 2021]

Gimme half of the defense budgets please. ----- .. I would settle for a blue eyed bastardjew movie directorship (shapetreaty tree treat) to show GI JoeBlow the way to gogogrow on fun and valour; multidimensionally embedded and multigearedly racy, let me (live on the net) lead a few to herds of inflammation suitably armed to douse with dust and dispense with seeds (not to mention defuse da militant's paranoia).

Such are the tactics of Esquire Magazine for example; no dew on greenery she calls her own and without which she should not only feel naked but skinned, instead there are diamonds, a jews jewels, hardest hat and slavish work symbolizing riches. A girls best friend?

Most people's propensity to describe problems and paint dismal pictures of the mechanisms in question taken to extremes, i o w: to steady as she goes consequences, may not have the avowed Jewish mother-vaccination function of deterrence and avoidance from defying and venting dredged up fear, instead this may feed and empower threats real or imaginary, which makes one gravitate to them.

Heavily traumatized Jews went to America, the worst ones are coming to Holland where worst means sausage. :: :

Funny enough, in 1917, the book 'Das deutsche volk in schwerer zeit' (Bartsch) shows Excalibur on its cover sitting in the sun and in a rock, .. the writers (a visiting officer from Austria who wrote a novel describing the Jews their undying ambition as well) 'good' side of the front, almost the very absolute opposite, dualistic deamon and mirror image of what concentration camps are famous for, almost, cause not exactly voluntary either, (though sounding like it for and from the captured yet converted nationals, amongst whom the English were the most incorrigible and ungrateful of course).

HC1

While hitchhiking I once met a man named Harold Cosand, who claims he actually was Elijah, he challenged wellknown politicians of the Arab and American world to acknowledge this, being willing to prove it in court with a call for fire from heaven to consume the imposters as prophecied, he told me his exwives took his legendary wealth in mining shares twice over.

His letterhead proclaims his Phd in mason-jew-cabalist cloak 'n robe of darkness discloser and unmantler, in other words expert relevant revealer of some sort. I forget the other vituperatives he chose for power, poison and unfair fight brokers.

He sure had a house full of the first extremist and militant conspiracy convert literature I ever saw, the whole mindboggling range at that, covered in greasy pipetobaccco, it blew my mind, those things hadn't come to my attention in Holland while I grew up, (see Jesus, Jewish Jesus and Jews in ch. 6 and bibliography).

: A kid born from the precipitous union of a faintly and fractionwise Jewish looking sickly sort a gal and a blue-eyed darkhaired go-getter who turned butchering into a thriving meat im- and export business directed from a shack at the abattoir, became what was fended off yet feared it would: an intellectual, interested in others (besides everything else) of the sort a war was weirdly ostensible enough, begun and done over, that is to say those who saw the ultimate consequences of reactionary tendencies, could think 'm through and spell them out satirically in defiance of horrible consequences and yet however mockingly, still help 'm along with perspicaceously descriptive lip giving services, thus provoking the reactionary wrath of others while not defusing or escaping but exercising their own (T Lessing for instance).

Such writs usually pre- and proscribe, hint at, allude to and picture their adversary's inhumanity, turning into their own demise when thinking tendencies through to absurdity, even when intended to defuse them, a Jewish mother effect of warning and deterrence is a myth and does not function any better than vaccination as I said before, besides, after a certain point the hunger for effective action makes you restrict your comment to, if not replace it altogether with 'taking to' direct spheres of influence, and yet, there is a time and place for everything, so it is not always a complete waste to spend them pointing at what is wrong and predict a steady state, on course worsening and acceleration of status quota unless no alternatives are suggested.

He says: But I can't betray my best talents just cause I need to work on my lesser ones to not lose sight of humility, these are the holy days for division of labour, cocksure arrogance and Jewish brands of Nazism, Walter Zanders notwithstanding, besides I don't mean dust to blow but grow up and around and that can't by any means lead to arrogance, can it?

Does anybody have the life story of Walter Zander? He worked alongside Beckerath but became engrossed in Zionism where his former focus found no welcome as far as we can tell from here, for now.

Pyrogen, a homeopathic remedy made of putrifying flesh, a dog's drug, stands my drizzly draggily drone brain to a-t-ten(t)sion in good stead, tis an intelligence drug, as is brain itself the best, once literally that forbidden fruit of knowledge if you can believe Oskar Kiss Maerth, who had 6 pages with 6 mugs on each of people and monkey species interspersed in such a way that they paired up nicely, he argues skullcracking was in fashion until Jewish golden ethics broke away from human blood sacrifices (something Graves praises 'm for but did it happen after they had gone too far in and with their lead already?) saying: "whoo, that's enough, too far already, steady steady, lets trade goods, wage war with whatever other means, but not use each other as drugs".

When they came to be envied and even hated for this progress, they were forced into trailblazing the next stage and paragon of wealth, concise symbolic representations of massification, jugular juggles or netweaves and casts, how's that for thoughtfood as insanity research input for you, proffie Gilman? (see Jews, ch. 6)

Another place so intensely foreign to me that being there was like living in a movie had an even more appropriate name for a Dutchman: Neversink, it was a place where such jews as I imagine Arnold Ehret was, could have felt at home, who's writs about paradisial diets, their rejuvenant qualities and his repeated falls in to decadence had fascinated me long before getting there and seeing for myself that it was a way of life hoards and loads of people professed, these particular ones were from NYC mostly Jewish and came to this Katskill resort I came by one day tired of peddling my bike, I peddled past know what made me stop there, probably the New Agey name it had, though I don't remember what that was.

I try to concentrate mine for cerebral charge building but I am not doing well at this Taostic sublimation due to a late start and bycause what Lyotard says about it in his seminal work "Economy of desire", he has me doubting the feasibility of fuelling anything but bloodlines with it, kinda like what Messianism meant to ancient Jews, simply their race, not some foolish figurehead.

The parable dressed in an orchard metaphor must be a typically Jewish, satirical way to joke, a melancholic sense of (and or banned by) humour which (nevertheless) shines through in their frequent commemoration of greenery and seediness while roaming the deserts.

Abraham started buying and selling of land but supposedly substituted animal for human (pr)offering, a 'progression' pioneered by Jews, for which they earned praise from Graves, who may or may not have known that those to start first are soonest satest?

SKIPPING ONE LINE

One of the arguments touted by white supremacist religious freaks and righteous scolders of mass society to impress me most went as follows: Jewish genes are dominant and can afford high dilution mongrelifying. If that is true though the holocaustic containment came about a multimillion years to late, give or take a few ice ages. I love 'm though, such lively ones sometimes, and how they pester each other pathetically, worse than the Japs I bet, maybe I'll have to go see how well ra is down there.

The protocols of Zion are also said to be a work by Machiavelli originally (and that can be true since he was a jew, just joking with you). It basically says that all imperialistically bent people must become or manipulate lawyers, bankers and doctors in order to swap opinion and gain global power. The ultra rightists who have almost a hundred publishers that I know of in the U S say things like: "whites are the chosen and threatened ones", so and so did this and that beginning with Adam to justify their genealogy of power centralization and claim the rights to it for themselves. Clear, clean, deep blue eyes are indeed as rare as proper forests, which may be the physical kernel of truth that fuels the frantic extremists.

I was once shown a Colorado room full of provocative protocols of Zion-type propaganda from hundreds of sources totally unknown to me up till then, a privilege of the hitchhiker with good ears (and that of my physiognomically speaking that is, his were even bigger) by a likable 60ish incarnation of Elijah, so he says, who was ready or a courtbattle to reclaim his fabulous wealth, was this the billionaire I had been standing by the roadside for so long for? see also: the end of the chapter called: "loquaciously perspicacious linguae"

????????? You defend mutability yourself and not only for the Jewish side of you but a lot of native peoples would call that cowardice and betrayal. Jesus is reported to have said that to change one law one needs to change them all. Don't you agree? How many issues do you think it is safe to try juggle without losing and having to let go all hopes of becoming to enjoy far out and wide enough support to at least get to delegate and dictate to a seccy instead of among your silly soliloquacious selves.

To play Adam and "The people" in its myriad translations, Don Quichotte, Tarzan, etc. and/or any other hero(in)s you care to commemorate/ revive and identify with modestly (=succesfully) enough with is everymans hope, burden and nemesis (except jews of course, they have earned it to be above it all and are taking a break just now). ----- Who are today's cipher giants? :: :: :: Ps while getting this file into shape (first editing since 2 months; I kinda relish it!!!): that same terminal described above is back with a vengeance: it is the best loaded engine for miles around, use is free but limited to half an hour a day per person when and if they cue. It is not reservable except by the user's own consensus process. Which has led to some interesting encounters and squarings already. It is the only machine with the sort of editing power I need and is on call constantly if no others users claim it.

duration of the page one seeks (this may have something to do with the size of documents, dunno) . This disease is one which the Public library's 11 new terminals have also. I wrote the system management a note but they are as little helpful as say: Nedstat. I'm getting the referral numbers

I take the following for a sure sign of syncs and/or secretly serving secretions: Last thursday I borrowed a book called: "the unique and the universal" by J L Talmon from the library. It is a reference from the book: "the imagination of an insurrection, dublin 1916" (the last few pages can be seen in my 'recent postings' file).

----- Interlude: Last night while reading the first pages it dawned upon me that such extremes (as the terms of this title and the concepts tossed around lately) are often examples of an unreal and absurdly abstract, divisive, dull yet dangerous sort of linearity (see the file dualities_and_genders.htm). And yet, their instability, potential, tensility and polarity must and luckily can be played off against each other in no finally neutralizing but vitally fecundamental solu- and salutive sort of way spinning off multiplicitous myriads of too big a bang avoiding diversification and complexity of choice for all stages of life, starting from the most simple most profitably, compounding the biggest factor. ----- Piet the pariah-parvenu is dead, long live piet to the Nth pow(d)ered 'n split splashed particulate splatter, distant relative of piet the pipe dreamer. ----- The highly private comfort zones of rock rubbed in and through the universal ice and snow (stand ins for frozen feelings irrespective of skin color) will get the science of aggression off of the schizo see saw which is now unhinging the world and onto the greening race tracks in one fell swoopily smooth sweep. Jesus wept; yes you swept. More about that book mentioned above: It sweeps through European history with very broad strokes never asking about (admittedly very elusive) 'hard' numbers and why exactly the absurdly subtle nuances between peoples ideologies, rhetoric, arms, dialects and circumstance enumerated should suffice to send 'm clashing, crashing, thrashing and smashing into each other. (I wish simple and plain ashing would be next). The revolutionary and warring antagonists do differ in grammar and emphasis as to how, where, what sort of and with who to strike the balance in nationalism vs solidarity, autonomy and socialism, but the whys of for example the French revolution are not deemed worthy of much mention and/or judged decisive for only a minute faction amongst contenders for prime public opinion pandering prizes. (I would advise going to see the end of part 5 of "compensation money and public insurance" in my guest appearance directory /guest_appearances/ for a digest of the little known but decisive role money played in it).

----- I'm only on page 50 and Jews will be subject matter quite a lot later on. I can't wait to read on. I'll keep you posted.s just bound to be a few hints of that precursor for the raging present day popularity of alien hypes due to secretive arms developments, still so much in tune with the concomitant secrecy of that hijacked freedom ammo known as money. Egon Friedel mentions it in his massive cultural history volumes: the rumour spreading through Europe in the early middle ages when money had started class society, throttled spontaneous wellbeing, etc: the jews had poisoned the wells. ----- As I see it and as Karin Zimmerman recently hinted at the hypocrisy of it, violence was banned from a society which as a reward for building better arms received, besides other more obviously social benefits, also the peculiar one to not suffer their presence and employment too much; this squeezed profits to a trickle but spun off a way to delegate putting up with the adventurous, ballsy, militant warriorclassed, aged and/or 'willings' and all the dirty fighting europe had suffered and gotten sick and tired of, to more lucrative shores.

----- Some thoughts about how to move the About the indiginous rep-rap presence and investment with authority forward: Public records shall be kept. public records shall be kept publically. public records shall be kept, made and keep on being made public. Authority over the pentagonal assets shall be transferred to a counsel of elders; one each from each tribe or federation of 'm if they manage to agree on one for all and all for one. they will be given and taught how to use the highest tec stuff, so they don't have to go and be cooped up in stuffy, too tiny rooms just cause some irate and selfish brothers are occupying the very place they hope to get a say and seat in, but can stay home instead. All their deliberations can be followed live at all times of convening.

----- The world divided into old prenatal tribal grids communicating globally. Virtual commands by collections of elders evenly spread out over the globe and connected with top speed cables (fuck rocketry an satelite-loadlads. They will be our collective downfall with their monstrous demands and 'investments'). ----- Hearing someone defend the bible code made me aware of how crooked our use of such an apparantly honest science as statistics really is. ----- Brainstorming for a remedy: Monitors can be cast by lot perhaps, lists of volunteers kept handy. Free lance turfer/ tabulator/ predictors after plugging away for a while can gain standing when their publicized records are verified; thus their turfing is rewarded and/or subsidized according to retrospective accuracy by the general public rather than allowing them to one way or another influence the future and cash in big once they manage to 'bug' it succesfully.

----- Date:Sat, 20 Feb 1999 11:48:46 -0000 Subject: factors, friction and fun: The stockmarket is inadvertently and perversely led to parody and suffer what it has marginalized and left its hosting bands and tribes (some hostile (keeping each other on their coupy-toes) some federated) to and with: vulgar, dehumanizing, reckless and high stakes gambles. I understand gambling was a morphological short term memory game once but now all stakes, chips and fruitbaskets are standardized in favor of being lost in lottery, a massively monstrous, remote game one must resign oneself to. And as in the beginning of the astronomical flights of calculation power and star travel; huge sacrifices were required to prove the symbol shuffler weal over substance, it's border budging friction affliction and subjecting power.

----- Date:Sat, 20 Feb 1999 12:02:50 -000

Subject:factors, friction and fun part 2: The universally accepted and more and more craved for means of payment harnessed and perverted it's logical counterpart: universal values, truths, rights, duties, pleasures, laws, etc cause it was tainted with transgressively trespassing tribal arrogance which ballooned into a kind of imperial patriotism, all the while pulling the wool over the substrates state, station and stettles eyes. First of all by the unassuming modesty of ghetto's. Or maybe I should say by the determination to harden and shape up on a very long term basis. If administration and disownment mechanism were learned and exercised in the Nile Delta (with ramifications to Timbuktu etc), to the point of a mighty civilization's collapse, necesitating a stop to sedentary life and a change of adress, the next step was weeding and pruning out the old and weak so that a fighting machine good enough to simply occupy places they were promised (anybody know what that means or am I being too obscure again?) to complete! and/or start the ripening of tribal arrogance into the kind of imperial patriotism that has backfired so badly. ----- That said it is questionable wether Jews themselves found this backfire a confirmation of their progress, took it as a matter of course, proof of the fact those lucky few from amongst them, those fervently hoped for, banked on, etc, had ensured the securing dynasty ammo Now all these monies are used once again to notch up the magnitude of morphological lies and manipulation. The preferably traditional, but now coerced and involuntarized (There are those who argue less and less peoples are coerced and involuntarized, bycause choice and education are on the rise). though still [[by genetic right of momentum or maybe I better say: by right of genetic momentum, however much we try to feverishly prove tis but an arbitrary thing and sure enough it causes untold and arbitrary harm already]] undoubtedly pervasive, tonesetting, influential and enabling, in other words founding yet subjected peoples, originally monkeys, fruitarians and hunter/gatherers; all still notoriously modest when it comes to number of offspring and if not, at least selective, their chance and danger of dying, of being weeded out falls in their early and extremely young days, mercifully enough, rather than on a battlefield.-

----- draft 2 of the earlier fff part 2. (Most of my work goest through about 15 drafts before I am satisfied with it and even one step along the way shows the following wildly unpredictable changes of course on this racy rat(wheel within wheel)filled race track negotiated by yours truely still struggling.) So why do I confront you with it in immature increments?Specially since I realize the block sender function may not work well when trying to block a list member (now, that would be a formidable job for the CIA: play central list mom and keep tempers from picking up steam in any other than the 'right' way - friction fraction factor I shall for once not elaborate on here). It's the spectacular and playful rider who catches the eye before the cautious perfectionist. All right, onward with the further and amended (second draft) reflections inspired by the head-spinning swirl of contradictions and paradox containing book: "The unique and the universal". Long before white western supremacist history started running its course a more and more universally accepted and craved for means of payment (gold) distracted from and perverted the logical and happy mediation between symbol/substance: the rate and diversity of (mineral metabolism/ fresh air 'mining' (sculpt/smoothing a few jags in the mountains should do the trick), in other words:) photosynthesis. The malleable precious metal became displaced in turn by "flags that don't cover their cargos" as the Dutch so aptly say. This counterpart media of the diffuse concentrated and circulating and facilitating the circulation of vast amounts of everything past potlatch splurges, Surplus shifting, usury lustages, and you name it? The incorruptable, durable and blessing sun not to mention effect thereof. (in dutch the word effect is used for share as in stockmarket share). 'Universal' values, truths, rights, duties, pleasures, laws, etc, were originally all based on some local, vortexual fulcrum focus, a kind of universal yet immediate and definitely not distant or wide lensed intimacy which caused no end of fascination to Herder who, along with Nietsche, claimed to see viability proven if it (a culture) was in an expansive mode (not through booklearning but by way of celebrating and upping metabolic circulation - a weird blend of red and black, guts, glory plus plodding scribbles); neither are known as antisemites yet tragiromically both got employed (or hijacked rather) by people of such (non?)sensibilities who claimed jews more than others were tainted with transgressively trespassing 'tribal arrogance' which ballooned into a kind of 'imperial patriotism' (terms used by Talmon), but these accusers tried to catch up with them and/or exorcise them in the same breath, anyway, no use, the damage was done.

----- I love examples of how all the while revisionist Jewry pulls the wool over the substrates state, station and stettles eyes, though not more than they, including me, delude themselves I might add, even if only to defuse accusations of anti-semitism. My favorite one, about Noah representing the woodchoppers causing erosion and floods is the prototype for lucky luke who shoots faster than his shadow draws; Noah sailed before the deforestation caught up with them. I don't believe they are any more so than others but may have been at it longer and/or luckier.---- At some stage this happened by the deceptively unassuming modesty of ghetto's for instance. At an earlier one the determination to harden and shape up on a very long term basis (40 years; killing off all old and weak specimens while steeling the survivors was more along the lines of what Nazi's had in mind and Zionists have been about repeating).---- Just before that long walk sedentary skills of administration and disownment mechanism were learned (witness Gesell's sharp insights concerning the famous stockpiling and then selling back at disowning prices of grain by Joseph). All the while Egyptians were sent into stargazing crazes so as to lose the living rug from under them. Then the succesful parasite changes host, habit, etc as described above. The harder the pyramid grew, the higher and more far seeing the jewish eye spied, the dryer the desert died.---- So the exercises in the Nile Delta (with ramifications to Timbuktu etc), to the point of go no more, a mighty civilization's collapse, necesitated a stop to sedentary life and a change of adress. --- And yes, their fighting machine grew good enough to simply occupy places they were 'promised' (anybody know what that means or am I being too obscure again?) and to complete and/or restart the ripening of tribal arrogance into the kind of imperial patriotism that has backfired so badly.

----- fff (factors, friction and fun) tack on: From the wasted waves of sperms fired and shot rise but few who's lot include a decent plot worship that one and only in a million and use the rest for one that's been said that women's highly private mores wouldn't be up to any cross the board humanitarian chores but I wonder who's setting her limits. Starlings beautiful, arrogant and noisy; they astound locals as confident though newly arrived, admirably industrious citizens (have I seen that in Australia, Amsterdam, NY...I wonder who, if it wasn't a Jew set the tone there and why that and personal freedom are the things I like about 'm). Yet, I wonder even more if they are worth the sacrifices and serfdom for the sunless at the bottom of this hierarchy, stripped of heritage, turf and dignity, the squeezes in place and the setter-upper-setter-jettlers gone to conquer new colonies to be turned into 'hinterlands even faster this time if possible. The mythical and choice (not mine though) few from amongst the chosen ones think it good sport praps; J L Talmon calls it the neurosis of choice. David Gates is a Jewish joke(r). Tis easy to condemn facts and turn around to direct the stare into egoswelling freedom. Violence is not a good trendbender mender but it has the intensity of the cutting edge between life and death and that is attractive, so there is money in it. Instilling capitalist schizophrenia is an even better bet. Egyptians, marxists, technocrats, one and all were human till a touch of Jewish text and tutorship, with or without live rendition, or even lively renderer sent 'm into crazes one and all, a star gazing and coveting one for the EyeQuiptians (Bauval) for instance losing the cornucopious rug from under them all the while. Allow me to make some defence.

----- Yall wrote: We have banned helmetless riders because of the selfish cost they impose upon others. Cyclists without helmets cause an enormous extra cost to the insurance system that is passed on to other sensible drivers/riders.

----- me: Seems like a sensible statement at first site but under slightly intensified magnification one sees the absurdities spinning out of control (hopefully); take the case of feeling secure because one drives a tank for starters..... One must give people around one a chance to flex their ire upon one and prepare to profit from it whenever possible.

----- It is the equivalent of arguing for the elimination of laws against drunk driving because the cost such idiots cause end up being passed on to others and, in our case, to the health system which must be paid by everyone. I am all in favour of individual freedom -- up to the point that it begins to destroy other, innocent people's freedom. Helmet and seatbelt laws are the beginning of freedom for others on the road.-

----- me: One cannot rig the demand for respect, only give it and helmet or no helmet is not the issue there, is it? God's and the Great spirit's divine justice tools buried in genetics? Ha, we'll crack that code with one hand behind our back (meanwhile employed in the encryption monopoly business. Playing God has always beat playing doctor since people can't seem to invest their children with themselves fully enough anymore).

---- In so far as daredevilry and defiance comes into it; yes, this escalates damages but again relatively independent of implements, only inert till it comes to implementation which gives us escalation squared and powered up out of sight to the point of pulverization if you like. Witness again, security derived from a highly destructive 'protector': the atom bomb.

--- In my case, the umpteenth tickets I collected for the said offense were idiotic. ----- 1] I peddle away under the blazing Aussie sun and a helmet makes your head boil and blurs the sharpness of your senses.----- 2] I do not put a helmet on and depend on it in the sense of affordable laxness cause you are more 'liable' to do than to suffer damage. I concentrate on my surroundings in a hyper defensive mode and in thicker traffic will swerve like wildwater flowcourse, ready to hit the ditch any minute and using the narrowest gaps. Out of sight before you know it. My 1/64th drop of Jewish wonderlust? That is not to say I trusted all truckers coming up behind me Stateside (where I peddled crosscontinent on an abandoned bicycle using dumpstered spare parts using freeways a lot) to toe the line as well I did myself and they could see me hog the white line from miles away, so they stayed in their lanes confidently which gave me a hell of a boost from slipstream currents. I was weighted down enough to not swerve at all from that.

3. I do not buy the parallel with forcing people to eat broccoli etc or banning liquor or tobacco consumption as some have suggested to me off-list. First of all, we do try to compensate, in part, for the costs of tobacco and liquor in our health costs by "sin taxes" which are paid only by those that indulge. And indeed, in the case of tobacco, restrictions on its use are becoming more and more common -- e.g. at the University of Manitoba, smoking is banned in most if not all the buildings. This is true also of all government buildings and in all stores. In some Canadian cities, smoking is also banned in restaurants. Nor is this just in Canada. -- The alternative to helmet laws would be to charge an insurance surcharge to bikers who refuse to wear helmets but the cost of enforcement might be prohibitive, or the cost of the insurance might then be prohibitive. That still would not compensate the 'innocent victim' in 2 above.

----- me: The sin to be paid by gullibles? Can a river protest to dumpings. The sin is making a lot of money from all sorts of nonessential dependencies. -----

Further, driving/riding is not a necessity or a basic human right -- it is subject to certain rules -- that you have a valid drivers licence; that if you eyesight is impaired, that you wear corrective lenses; that your vehicle meets certain safety standards; that your vehicle is equipt with certain safety and environmental protection devices, etc. Helmets can be seen as just one of those safety protection devices.-----

Oh yeah? Standardization one size fits all monopolies commonly sensual diversity gone haywire and widthbanded about ...is that so great? Mass society likes a snug fit and intensification, how else could you concentrate enough to have an orgasm instead of just howls of laughter in its own good time cause we just saw a pricelessly cute mad max vehicle go by? Speaking of which, you know the 17th century type sailing ship model. some more helmet law ideology: Wed, 24 Feb 1999 11:27:04 -0000 subject: born to set the helmet on the run: this morning I walked to the corner of my relatively, to the real busy street (behind which lies the park), so I swerve with, were it not for my routine and virtuoso expertise, daredevilish narrow margins. By the way, there are none such in places like berlin, America, australia....once the traffic roars off between full stops [[none of which I need do in A'dam neither]] one just has to stand there and let the waves of poisons flood one's senses, for once, since I lost the key to me bike lock, and near that corner there is a fighting gear shop, you know the amateur sportsy spectacle type. Well in the window was a very dark purple, undoubtedly nice and light modern boxing helmet with lines, curves, even airholes, and get this, it said it all (a confirmation of last night's efforts at least), the brandname was: macho warrior. ----- Now for the record I better confess I once flew off a 50 cc souped up "crosster", my nickname "piet sputter" at the time, and woke up hours later with a scraped back but without a personality (or with a clean slate one); it decided to come or was sent back (after postponement of some final either/or knot netting praps...) some hours later leaving my folks in all states at my bedside in the mean time. ----- -dear ozi, especially in the case of contexts, assuming you can concede and presuppose there is one (as when you visit a fascinating stranger and he allows you to survey his apparant, yet on close inspection merely apparant chaos) it is important not to disturb sequences to much, even more especially in a public forum where things get shuffled around by different people. This is ultimately the meaning and wisdom of babylon, bioregion and dialect formation: avoid static and distortion by an observance of proper scale; of course megalomarxists and all permutations thereof think they have the glitches taken out of those objections to global harmonization but who wants to sit in front of loudspeaker to attend a jamsession with participants from all satellite and/or cable-enchained corners of the globe, no matter how well delaycorrected it will never beat the real thing while doing the right thing and that's paying attention to the little things: puttering around one's (b)eat. What I meant to say is that in the quote constellation you construed and collated the deceptively projected prejudice that I probably don't like Jews is trying to justify and assert itself as a foregone conclusion. ----- The similarly adamant and assertive judgement actually preceding my "at's right...." response (see next aline) was: "you are no poet, piety" --- at 's right, most of the time I am not; less and less anyway; never much to begin with. I get my inspirations in open places, at Rainbowgatherings especially, running wild, in the countryside; or at least doing laps in the Vondel park; my trips to the country have become fewer and farther between. I am certainly not indifferent to Jews but have so far managed to avoid visiting israel (cause ra is not very well though good enough to throw a spell) Kibbutzes got milked; money siphoned off, etc. ----- The above quote is antidoted by remembering that Saint Simon was a big inspiration for jews (don't know if he was one or at least 1/128th of one; a little goes a long way....) and I will concede that the majority make the right choices, more than your average people do, but the worst have a similarly disproportionate and all the more unjustifiable clout. I just recently found 1 year old hard wood windows, huge ones, in a dumpster, never buy clothes here; perfectly usable ones on the street every week, etc.----- As an activist, it seems that one can be spread too thin and must do some sort of specialization if you are to focus. You can see it everywhere on the web. I went looking for some sort of "catch all" type activism group and was quite surprised when I found none. hi trudy and rod, I thank you for replying and admit you are right, especially since I found a very faulty formulation within the first couple of sentences, it's been at least half a year since trying to correct it for the umptyeth time (see the PS for the latest attempt). ----- Reading the rest of your reply, the mention of secrecy struck the following thoughts out of me: A large amount of the trouble and success Jews and fellow desert peoples got themselves into with, despite and at high cost to surrounding ethnicities stems from their personality cults; saviourisms; messianisms and leader worship. Of course heroism is an indelible and recurrent aspect of cultural cycles and belongs on the zenith rather than decaying side. ----- It takes an enormous amount of reserve, privacy and egoism to command multitudes unflinchingly and Jews have been working up to it for centuries. The impossibly large and unbearable burdens of responsibility and power delegated to the sub/objects of their, thus sterilized and dangerously lifeless affections, have slipped, leaked, escaped and manifeste(re)d into endowing an inanimate, ungraspably fluid force such as money with peoples and borderstones moving powers. ----- The secrecy/ignorance dichotomy is not necessarily inherent in dividedly labouring, segmented and specialized societies but it has always and will always be to the benefit of a manipulative elite few to pull the wool over people's eyes. ----- As far as I can tell, aboriginal insistence on secrecy is perhaps at the beginning of a similar cycle? I admit I haven't even read Robert Lawlor, whom I consider an authority, closely enough to say whether or not he even mentions secrecies and meanings thereof but I feel I understand some universal principles of it well enough to say the following: Like Jews subjected to a formerly powerful empire, other now oppressed and decimated peoples too may comfortably cling to a secretive and private sense of identity (often all they are left with) even though it is but a miniscule concept and imaginary in the sense of being invisible to the naked eye but God forbid it gets fleshed out as far, wide and/or intense as the Jewish version did, their sense of preciousness has indeed a global reach and their talk of new earth, new heaven is only fadfeeding sentiments deeper into space exploring denial. ----- Personally I have more respect and admiration for those who don't tolerate captivity at all like the Tasmanians reportedly didn't. ----- What I mean with desert folk influencing migrations and displacements, primarily cause they suffer from these 'mechanism of marginalization' first before in- and affecting others with them. I think that's what happens when empires start cycles of trade degenerating into the use of force and exploitation. It happened to most very ancient African civilizations, then to Middle eastern ones. An indication is given by the book: "Savages and civilization" by Jack Weatherford, an extensive travellers with a sharp eye for indigenous tribulations. For the english it is another story altogether and that I have tried to define. Sovereignty is under threat all over the world and not only in Gondwana land. crystalizing tricks. This holds for countries and ethnicities as well but of course with diminishing returns. In the latter case they have even been disastrous for centuries and especially in resource rich areas, continue to be so. The fact that here and there the topic of indigenous integrity, modesty, self-sufficiency, sovereignty and autonomy is coming to the fore and awareness of a rapidly growing audience along with many other issues concerning social safety nets in a wider sense than previously found put together and in a more gelling, smooth and comprehensive constellation makes for a bit of a shake up in power lines and allegiances.

----- Even though 'webonomics' author E I Schwartz, still confuses and misformulates (in one and the same breath and sentence) the value based individuation and character growth potential of large conglomerate if not corporate bodies with their (continued) ability to sell their consumers "almost anything"what he really means to say is that dumb consumers (those adrift ones referred to above, the ones deriving their sense of worth from the size of the company who's products they wear, brandish and joust with) are indeed capable of doing "almost anything" for them, including bloody murder..... he is right in that tragically, they are only following their surrogate image/attitude educator's example. For more facts on this problem see the Clean Clothes Campaign. During my 10 month visit, Australia kept me riveted on and astounded by the rapid fire of "tellurevision", between the news items on essential and indispensable prostheses like cars and computers, moneyspinners like mining, beef breeding and such staples as science fiction they intermittently pretend to dredge up and redeem drowned skeletons of traumatic, holocaustic, suppressed and censored memory regarding the massacres and stolen generations, practically without success but this circumscription of real issues with prejudices drags on endlessly and costily, keeping papercompanies and their dozing bullies happily tearing down the last remnant 3 % of tall, alive and tensile stellation with plenty to spare for shipping to Japan where it is put to serve similarly useless purposes. One could argue that this deadlock labyrinth is like having concrete poured into the chinks and channels to discourage purchase and leverage on the entrenchment of all the Native Title legislation which never concerns or even mentions any land more valuable than the merely marginal kind in the first place, which is no surprise, coming so short on the heels of an only just annulled Terra Nullius but Eddy Mabo day, the second of June, happens to be my birthday and I am confident it shall spin the issue into a more momentous orbit than it has already done with the wasteful and shameful results I alluded to cryptically. The reaction from short term snap shot observance of the issues by some of those involved is: 'hey, the abo's are being favoured', this faction is being hyped by the leftist reaction to it in turn, cause they cry: 'here is a new Hitler who used to fry fish'. All this is a bit like in Germany, where only the communists are lending weight to Nazism nowadays, by taking it really serious still. Subjective, in your face sort of passion crimes are infinitely more popular than the creepy, remote, large scale, painstakingly and premeditatedly plotted ones. >> Epilogue: > Now a year later the situation is unchanged but the (understaffed) pressure rises..... > I am very sorry, the United Nations committee is so hard on poor white Australians without being equally critical of their poor white brothers, cousins and assorted mongrel kin in America for the same reasons (and preferably at the same time).

I guess the United Nations, just like the European Union have too few people to do their job right...both have taken on and/or are saddled up with too many responsibilities and problems. I volunteer to join both posses "sharing out" as the dutch so jollily say, tickets and fines for obstructing access to information that concerns the past and/or public. If on the other hand access and installing simple mechanisms to make relevant stuff an open secret are not denied I shall consider my job a pleasure and privilege to the extent that having it is reward and honour enough. Any public office should only be filled by those who can prove to have no stake in, nor to be dependent on (more or less exclusive advantages gained from) the specialized policies pleaded for and implemented; basic ones guarding and providing for quality of air, water and soil excepted. ----- reflection on aeon old liberation struggles (reply to report of 200 protesters 'occupying' Pakaitore and ensuing court cases):

-- tsjees, you guys, I used to be suprised at the constant stream of valliant acts of defiance reported in such a dry, matter of fact and exact english. That combo struck me as quaint and hopegiving somehow. ----- But since reading lanternari's book on Messianic cults from around the world wherein those (cults) you guys sported were, even more than most others occuring in reaction to white 'presence' and imposition, modeled on Jewish struggles. Of course this book, called: "the religions of the oppressed" contains the famous quote from Africa:

"When first you came with the bible, we had the land, since then the situation is reversing".

----- It occurs to me now, that a perhaps not invalid way of describing what transpired with Jews goes as follows: they caught an ailment called displacement, an enforced marginalization (no suprise somebody had to go in a region that spawned the birth of manmade deserts) and they went around the world in search of a cure, (perhaps even to warn everybody, more likely suffering from sad and saddening automatisms willy nilly, holy and/or wholly horrid book notwithstanding) never finding one, just infecting everybody else; If you had to, could or would believe the arguments of books like: "the key" by Cohane who supposedly found traces of Semitisms (hav = feminine; oc = male, oak) all over the world from before the last one, Hitler came a few ice ages too late, not to mention he became a bit too violent, my misquoters won't; my doters will.

----- It stands to reason that Semites who couldn't abide by a progressively treeless and more droughtprone environment would have become disenchanted with their native grounds and made an early exit.

on bushfood: the first day I spent in Australia I was amazed looking at a big illustrated book with bush foods. The botanical knowledge of native peoples is astronomical even in near desertlike conditions; what to make of the 600+ kinds of fruit growing in a rainforest? ::::::::::: On a somewhat bizarrely related note: Aart Brouwer, a Groene "Amsterdammer" journalist who acts lightheartedly in their electronic 'leg' comes out this week with a semi-standby in the case against LM (living marxism). He even drops the following bombshell quite casually: De Groene published the story before LM did.

Antedating all historic systems is the Ancient Oriental science explaining that living creatures are energized by the five vital elements of air, fire, water, metal, and wood. The vital elements are expressed by the five organic systems of the human body, : cardio-vascular-pulmonary : : : motor : : : glandular : : : skeletal : : : : : and the nervous Oscillating between the poles of yin and yang, the vital elements are represented in the ten Signs of the original Zodiac. Like the fairies bestowed virtues on the infant Princess Aurora, the nervous system imbues intelligence, the glandular system provides gusto, the motor system produces strength, the circulatory system generates energy, and --- would you believe --- the skeleton determines pulchritude --- ask a glamour photographer. : : : : The spiritual elements are manifest as the five stages of human Consciousness, : child, adolescent, adult, society, and divinity; these stages are expressed in progressive moral development, from amoral to might, law, choice, and conscience. Genetic frustration is felt as the five emotions of grief, denial, rage, bargaining, depression, and resignation. All of these systems of vital elements correspond with the hypercube and the four main hyperharmonic cubic overtones which Plato chose as his pentatonic scale of solid music, the octahedron, the tetrahedron, the icosahedron and its couple, a pentagonal dodecahedron. : : : Life comprises five harmonically integrated fields, : : the metallic sonic : : : the earthy gravitic : : : the fiery electric : : : the watery magnetic : : : and the wooden etheric field of light. : : : On the face of it, it seems likely that: : : : culture and personality are determined by the icosahedronal sonic field, : : the conformation of the body and its material possessions are shaped by the cubic gravitic field, : : the carnal emotions are supplied by the tetrahedronal electric field in both positive and negative sexes, : : the senses are octagonally magnetic, : and the mind is a luminous dodecahedronal hologram.

It is a sin to commercialize and privilege information for hypey or woolly over eyey pulley profit as a play on people's depravity through advertizing without the nitty gritty specs attached and clickable in the corner for starters in the age when more and more aspects of changes every region is going through can be logged from as many viewpoints as care make the effort public. : : That might just be the trick to help come to our common senses, pubic spaces, soily secrets and the mystic webs of wonder continue to be well guarded and zealously watched by ever lengthening strings rather than jostling chains of ancestor and progeny alike. : : : I suggest we get back in touch with them as soon as possible. : : : : PS on the corpcontrol front: rule of thumb must become: CENTRALIZATION IS OK WHEN AND ONLY THEN IF it is purely passive, open, accesible, used and useful to registrate, tabulate, resonate and disseminate current and up to date state of art from the heart struggling and groping for a 'destraint' (soilbuilding rock li(m)beration) stage sequencing, become well trained in matters and methods of serving such purposes as stimulating photosyntheticization , relative and coordinate succes rates, measurements of which is as tumulticultish as we need to get in our (un)learning efforts to make adjustments in the processing price and grok of soil/wealth x bank/rock.

Well, we are all talking about increased options and greater freedom... Does that, alone, qualify as NeoFourierism?

: : : : "Fourier's ideal harmonious state was to be accomplished by dividing society into cooperative communities, called phalanxes, each consisting of about 1600 people who lived in a vast communal building in the center of a highly cultivated agricultural area. Elaborate rules of conduct would be established, and work assignments would be based on talent. Communal wealth would provide liberally for the basic subsistence of individual members. Some phalanxes were founded, but very few were successful." pagesz.net/~stevek/intellect/fourier.html The passions, believed to be the enemies of concord, in reality conduce to that unity from which we deem them so far removed.

it seems i can do much closer (though slower and definitely much more tiring) reading off/onscreen since, as i go through quickly to retrieve similarly 'fresh' 07 remarks i find a section only few lines on (still 13th_log), worth quoting after all. It is Fourier speaking:

"10th. THE CABALIST is the passion that, like love, has the property of confounding ranks, drawing superiors and inferiors closer to each other. Everyone must recall occasions when he has been strongly drawn into some Path followed with complete success. : : : For instance: electoral cabal to elect a certain candidate; cabal on 'Change in the stock-jobbing game; cabal of two pairs of lovers, planning a partie carrée without the father's knowledge; a family cabal to secure a desirable match. If these intrigues are crowned with success, the participants become friends; in spite of some anxiety, they have passed happy moments together while conducting the intrigue; the emotions it arouses are necessities of the soul."

The limits of tolerance or optimal tolerance imply critical limits which can be just about any mesh for shifting; all means for transforming but all imply a certain uncrossable range if the term is to have any meaning at all; therefore stability and sustainability; self reference and maintenance do not exclude (nor necessarily imply) utter conservatism for the sake of continuity. : : : : : It also implies (especially in technology) a surface of high friction and activity, for instance atomic shell cascadeness rates. Lots of, however subtle transformational cell surface interactions like cation exchanges; bump and barter, grind and mind. Tolerance is circumscribed in that the harder 'its' material, the narrower its 'comfortably timed 'need meet limit (in case of a living being) and the larger its metabolism (besides requirements, preconditions on cultural intricacy, etc). The dutch word 'speling' is a good crossing/connecting term but in practice the avoidance strategy fractures where tolerance leads, unlike when applied to rocks and ground-dispersion, to incoherence and friction rather than the tie in one achieves where tolerating (=loosening) rock is practiced.

Dunno what made me state it in such uncertain terms back then, but only some weeks ago i wrote a line thanking Louis Proyect for pointing me, albeit indirectly (Shulevitz at Salon on Irving's trial and Kevin MacDonald's deposition defending him weakly) which led me to write the "most impactful" and pithy lines i ever wrote in terms of wholly changing my outlook (til then based on dutch left leaning zionioia indoctrination) on Jews away from the Robert Graves / George Steiner Theodor Lessing 'axis' and onto the Klages, Lazare, Lagarde (still not read that one) 'line', anyhow, whichever way i got there, part of exploring who resulted in reading Schüsslburner (synopsis: Robert Hepp und Schuesslburner seem to argue that Hitler was an anti-bolshevik before he was an anti-semite; he became the latter because he was the former). I am reading a follow up of sorts confirming Schüsslburner's conclusions now as a matter of fact ('200 years together' about Jews in Russia - not available in English and Dutch - by Alexander Solyhenitsyn).

Hi Poetpiet, my name is Michael Ganzfried, I'm 33, from Zurich (Switzerland) and I'm working on a dissertation in social anthropology on Western civilization which made me stumble upon a problem which I found riveting. I found a text of yours (tisateasytwister), which made me think you might answer something nobody ever answered to me yet. In his books "Die Gesellschaft der Gesellschaft" (will be translated 2002 by Stanford U.P.) and "Die Religion der Gesellschaft" the recently deceased German sociologist Niklas Luhmann inferred (or rather asserted) that because the torah is a self-referential text, Jewish tradition assumes that the world was created according to the text mentioned in the toras. :: :: :

Piet: the most recent and new to me views about Torah I was 'confronted' with (reading through a classic on anti-semitism by Lazare) says that it is a 'polemicompilation' which came about as a reaction to christianity riding piggy back and slipstream on Judaism initially. :: ::

I know very little about Torah but your refferal to the term 'self-referential' reminds me of the use Daniel Winter and Stan Tenen make of it in reference to Genesis and lettershapes, world creations, etc. :: :: :: :: :: :: I.e. the torah existed BEFORE the world did. Although the train of thought is compelling :: :: ::

Piet: strikes me as ridiculous but . . . go on ::

I never found a Jew to confirm this so bluntly. :: ::

In connection with this observations. I have two questions, which I hope you could answer: 1. Is this just some kind of esoteric minority view among Jews, :: :: ::

Piet: surely, since there must be a faction or fraction of them to claim one thing after the next thing under the sun :: :: :

which Luhmann wrongly took for a mainstream notion? 2. Do you know some interesting (theological) texts concerning this question? With kind regards, Michael :: ::

Piet: That Lazare I mentioned is certainly paying more attention to dogma than to dough and he does cover a large expanse of time throughout which he pinpoints and drops names left and right; may not be much use to you though. Other than that, I don't I guess and theology is not my poison anyway, I try stay away from the stuff but good luck.

I had a thought this morning riding the train to Amsterdam: what is the best argument against free trade and hauling foodstuffs long distance besides the fact that it looses freshness as one aspect of nutritional value and causes loss of diversity necessary to create the full spectrum of it and in it? No, it's not saying that that sort of thing ought to be an enforced human right, duty and pleasure rolled into one (human beings are alienated enough to not notice they are sorely missing out. Taste and habit are numbed, jaded and rutted so easily what with our lack of ritualized in touch keeping with with death). : : No I thought of making the problem clear by depicting an absurd example (which carries the danger of souffleurage breathing life into what was meant to help repent from sheer shock and confrontage). : : : : : Anyway, here goes: imagine a human breast's effusions being piped to a point out of sight, touch, and scent, iow: a remote babe. NOT ALONE is contact robbed of everything but it's most vital content; the cost of the piping system must be born. : : The flaw in this simile is that people don't associate far away peoples as close relatives. : : : PS [YEARS LATER]: there is a book in german called 'not saved' trials/attempts after Heidegger (2001) by Peter Sloterdijk which has a remarkable little closing chapter about our abuse of space /PS : : : Fruit, deserving of utmost care and reverence is one product illustrating the wastefulness of free trade: most of it suffers all sorts of miscalculations and mishaps so that when it gets to market in say Rotterdam (a lot of exotics do) its potentially most uplifting qualities have perversely been aborted and much else lost sometime before or during a flight which is, in the former cases, of course fruitless since it cannot add an already misfiring quality.

As you know, LM (formerly Living Marxism), the iconoclastic British magazine edited by Mike Hume, was found guilty of libel against ITN, the British news station. LM has been ordered to pay $580,000 U.S This punishment is an attempt to crush the LM journalists for criticizing the ITN film about Bosnia made by Penny Marshall; LM exposed the cheap visual tricks used by the ITN film crew to insinuate that the Serbs engaged in holocaust. -----

Piet: LM's trial and bankruptcy by means of an effective libel claim against them, salient detail: the judge admitted their evidence to be right in as far as it uncovered extent, though it disallowed accusation of intent since evidence for that (premeditation rather than improv dramatization and hyperbolic extrapolation) could not be produced while nevertheless and on the oh wondrous other hand, condemning the intent to ascribe without being able to expose intent, iow, slander. Court madness replaces court fools. Actually, this reminds me of the phrase (law actually I guess, perhaps even a karmically and though unstated, instant one i guess) that one is not only responsible for one's intent but equally if not more so for unintended consequences. If such noble law were enforceable we'd soon be rid of all the schizophrenia in this world you know.

it is imperative to play law enforcement and police our own ranks and so exclude, contain, prevent and defuse each and every provocative can spray and even trash can overturn in order to sway public opinion about their support, otherwise it sides with the police (only doing their job after all) and they don't need (more than) a glimpse to know what is really happening besides all the cute puppets and people sitting down or something. Not until such containment succeeds will a batallion of media gadgets be of great or even any real use and even then it is only gonna straighten out the reactionary part of the story; which does nothing, zippo and nada for the construction of alternatives!!!!!! ----- Sorry, but like I said about religious confrontations much earlier, it is not a matter of lifting the pentagon out of it's strategic entrenchment, let it sit and molder right where it is, what really matters and hurts 'm is the ability to feed itself, it is not the position of Jerusalem or any such holy dogshat place, it is the flow of things into it that need redirection and so do the idiots who like to go bust their heads upon some police force or other (thus justifying bigger investment in the very things the love to hate). . . . Yall write:

Using the internet and other communications technologies we are able to reach a wide audience and break through the corporate media blockade.

. . . sounds right and really macho, gets a lotta boys with a militant and heroic streak in'm hot and bothered but. . . wie niet sterk is moet slim zijn (those not strong have needs to and perforce must be smart!!!!) ----- Lemme try restate this in the form the recent intro to my big linklist in /Blabsabs_Index.htm: The sitemakers on these wide ranging (eclectic) lists oughta nevertheless make a fist . . . (at least temporarily) and for starters at the strategically decisive moments of protest for which massively popular support can only be mustered when general populace can feel save and entertained. So in order to expose and show police up for the repressively souldead interest protectors they can turn into on protest occasions (and exclude their alas often justified property protective role) we first need to make them superfluous and look ridiculous in the eyes of the people, stop the reasons for funding them (and entire armies) with public monies, show how they are the strong arm (all discipline, no decency) since abused to camouflage the insecurity of a bad and/or no conscience, iow ruthless lordshiperry. ----- There are no invisible hands (save an image nation, fast fingerjoints perhaps) Just make sure the feeding hand gives no occasion to be bitten. Easy enough if the peaceful majority keep total tabs and closed ranks around the unruly factions within them. Run the camera on this

(think of funny ways to show that brawn, macho and muscle can be steered to have a common benefit, for instance with Rock grinding shows or if it can't be helped yet, invite some Nazi's or hoolies for a bare hand fight, allow news and sport channels to tune in for hefty sums flowing into the trusts of the participatie(r)s, etc) prove once and for all police are just elite turf defenders and public opinion is ours.) . . . with some sort of an if need be sliding scale endorsement affiliation scheme. To see something as an obstacle (nuclear reactors and all other secretive and harmfully centralized rot) is what counts (ways must be found to do that especially and) even when coming from different places. No matter! Nor where to and wither they all afterwards scatter (during the removal stage they do merit and must be counted together).

----- 11th log provoked the following fresh additions (started in 07, last expanded 600% in 08): At issue is the usance of issuance - Exactly the fact that Legal tenders abort rather than accomodate most 'issues' (clarity crystalizing differentiation; infraregional, confessionary excellence, jewishness for everybody, the leaven equitable distributed, everybody fuck like a jewish princess having escaped the clutches of orthodoxy) covered over and up with the 'one' (but far from unifying) one (which due to the hi price turf jostle, too highly concentrated, too narrowly cast frontline and opportunity window for decisions, funding approval finalizations after several satisfactory runs through a fault finding gauntlet. The legal tenders of modernity enable hiding of criminal issues legal within issue, pollute parties within parties, destroy parities of profit, re- and displace apportionage, participation with polarization) -- to see documented proof of all this visit the page of Roy Davies.

If one takes into account the dangerous tensions which technical mediatization and its consequences have engendered in the vast masses --tensions which, at the critical stage, take on a psychotic character-- then one cannot help but recognize that this same technical mediatization has created as protection against mass psychoses psychic inoculations via those films in which a forced development of sadistic fantasies or masochistic delusions can prevent their natural and dangerous ripening in the masses.... The monstrous mass of grotesque events which is now being consumed in film is a drastic indication of the dangers threatening mankind from the repressions which civilization brings with it. American grotesque films and Disney films effect a therapeutic detonation of the unconscious. :: :: :: :: :: :

The Wisdom of Leopold Kohr: In this article, Ivan Illich discusses one of the first economists to question modernization and growth by emphasizing the importance of small scale.

i resent my earlier (see 8th log) letters (consisting of the quote concerning Jews from a letter to a lady in 14th misc.) to Norman Finkelstein since I found a more personal sounding E-mail adress for him and also bycause he will be appearing here in A'dam tomorrow in fact. This was the last line of that fragment: (found 4 other pieces by the same man (Josef Schuesslburner) today; jippie). I added this: Ps: that last jippie turned out a mere anticipatory one and largely unjustified since the author is very heavy on the legalistic and brittle jargon in 'm.

:: :: :: :: : Since I am in Amsterdam and not sure if you got to see my earlier relay of this same material with a few more brief letters added that I can't find quickly at the moment which were sent to info@ per your site, I thought I would try again. :: : References to jews are sorta rampant throughout my list_post files and a piece I am particularly fond of lives in /loquaciously_perspicacious_linguae.htm

Norman's extrapolation of the hollycast holocaust tendencies to make all (at least more and more) jews victims is, I feel, a perfect inversion of the naively inselfconscious and innocent truth grain (heaped upon the smoldering lies ready to turn a promise of life into suffocated and short circuit fuel) which is that indeed, Jews like to be incomparably good at what they do (shopping around, comparing and contrasting in Finkelstein's words), wether that is holding out or up against something or overrunning surrounding heathen while at the same time setting themselves apart. Finkelstein seems to be a lone scout for a future front where Jews will pursue the abandonment instead of the support of Jewish ways if not the (God forbid, once again readied to be culled part of the) protagonists themselves. :: :: :: : He used the word animus a lot in the sense of animosity. A book with around 20 contributors on the question (also the title): "der Jud ist Schuld ? (jew to blame) is concluded by Theodor Lessing, a man I admire and am intrigued by immensely (even though he doesn't seem to know the first thing about economics) who claims that Jews are the arche- and prototypical, even eternal scapegoat (since they are so far ahead of everybody; the biblical leaven and vaccine theories) and that the Jewish question is irresolvable. He makes this obvious by summing up the amount of times the ideology / identity pendulum swung and polevaulted across the good/bad divide with Jews invariably ending up on the wrong side of the fence. The borish brother desiring the playthings of his sibling who charms everything he touches????? :: Some of the other 'foute' contributions are nevertheless impressively accurate, especially when one discounts the fact that they try to show reality in a 'bad' light. But is Norman Finkelstein not a modern heir of most of these people saying "Antisemitismus ist Notwehr" self-defence?. Old answers don't usually come to terms and grips with new questions that make and kindle demands for 'degenerately' individualizing, gender muddling and globalizing gimmicks, gadgets, golems and molecule minutely monitoring media glorification. Parool has a Jolanda de Vries column in which she reports having taken fright from //jewishwatch I would not advise her to start on Hans Blueher or Ferdinand Werner or Ottokar Stauf von der March or Gottfried Feder. All of these folks are in the discussionsbook compiled by Hermann Bahr which concludes with the Theodor Lessing article I referred to and which argues the Jews' adaptability (both victim [[the butt end of ethnic wrangles]] and invincible [[they are harder on themselves than any of the rest]]). Theodor Lessing gives his own schizophrenia away beautifully in this phrase: "mankind is the crossroads of circles exclusive of each other" if you look at it logically (body and soul and the like), yet living actually (magically engaged, "eigenseins", eigens eins) obviates all the unreal problems. He has a warning for our buddy Finkelstein too: "call a man a dog and he is sure to become one", that is, scold him long enough and he starts to oblige and act like one. Right after that: "Man is a prevented beast. Conclusion: instability is risk and risk is chance and being tough on yourself and yours is for the better in the long run.

..... the fourth of october 2007 very early (on 'wereldnet') i hear about floods and homophobes in africa, later some reports about the dutchman who 'doesn't exist' (our 'queen to be' said so herself, endorsing a fresh wwr report with that conclusion) and the usual set of lies and pernicious distractions prevalent these weeks, months, years and centuries: instead of acknowledging and learning to mourn the fact that the dutchman doesn't exist ANYMORE -- and is probably gone due to genocides of the kind that haven't stopped destroying indiginous cultures since the invention of tall gravemonuments, deserts, and high birthrates (in one word Abrahamicisms) -- we get wel en nietes stories about the champions of the moments, sounding like sportsreports including teamswitches and leaving the public opinion 'prevelers' (prevalators?) pundetering participants quite as mute(, mum and miserable), give or take a one-liner or two. And instead of learning about the stuff people like me learn about (as much as i can help myself), youngsters are admonished to learn about alcohol. ----- Of course the space exploration discussion we had was still too fresh and smarting for me to feel more positive, but the statement itself is quite neutral in that sense and therefore one can be cautiously optimistic about it, since individualized family treehousing of many centuries old and stories high is a costly enough procedure to make AA's assertion turn out nothing but too true. if i feel up to completing the set even more i should go hunt for quaint turns of phrase in CASA-space-explorer-contested.htm

Dutch newspapers -- A while ago one of the biggest center-right dailies here had a running polemic giving prominent citizens and bestsell penners a page each after some old guard type, I think it was Koesbroek, had used the word, which I chose as I subject lest it choose me as one, as a stand in for the commercialization of everything and he claimed it to be driven by the US; a young Dutch-jewish fella, who sells real well but I puke from his writings just because they represent sentiments quite natural to his age but the old school adage that kids should be seen though not heard (unless the qualify for the choir) has shaped my sensibilities too. Anyhow, the thing dragged on for over a month I think. Koesbroek is a Dutch man who grew up in Indonesia; I came across a snippet of one of his poems at the cemetery once and it made me cry, it has long since faded cause it was done with varnished paper. The young fella, who's name is Grunberg (ugly as the night though skinny) is living in NYC for a while already now and of course he defended the 'freedoms' of materialism; the freedom to materialize once one isn't too bashful about rearranging some stuff drastically. -- -- Ger Groot in the NRC, the same daily as above, had some pertinent things to say too this past first post terror strike saturday (I am glad at least half the (s)lightly left leaning mainstream Dutch and widely published journalists feel the same way).

Quote: 'The attack breathed the will to totally annihilate all America stands for and dealt a blow to the gut'.

He further claims Islam feels like the doormat (voetveeg) of the West; I think that may be true for those who see the US bribe the homeland leadership with luxury in exchange for effective enough repression that keeps the oil flowing nice and easy. The article starts below a picture taking up half a page. It shows an arab slugging down a coke smack in front of a huge billboard from said brand in turn (I wonder if this format, though not unusual is a concession for the implications made in the text?). These excerpts I found to be the weakest points in this, once again, otherwise excellent, unfortunately not online (yet? check nrc.nl for a shot at a translation), article, representative for at least half of the semi-sane press as far as I can make out; the dropped stitches are not quite so far from truthful as to perfectly contradict and mock it (which would make bringing it back around to close enough a mere mirroring matter, a 'set straight by simple inversion' routine, as denial born distort-and falsifications are wont to allow). Now, regarding the treatment of Arabs like doormats, the silent majority in Holland (but watch out, a heavy calibur voice giver (Pim Fortuyn) has just entered the political arena after some years of independent columning) feel our Dutch 'guest workers' have been pampered and spoiled (by leftists who are utterly unconscious of the turmoil they thus cause, either that or acting out repressed addiction to turmoil, friction and mayhem) with a zeal that would make one suspect these do gooders feel they can thereby expunge and make up for all wrongs from our colonial past in one swell foop, yet most measures seem to accumulate ever more misdirected complications (Dutch choke touch?), for instance, some vocal not to say riotous factions and fractions of these, our own soon overshadowing naturalized immigrant populations (from former Carribean colonies, Marocco and Turkey) don't even feel justice was done to them, let alone that they would feel such enthusiasm about their (cross-)cultural acquisitions to want to go back and impart some of it to their peers (beneficiaries rather than fellow degradees for sure) with them; no, on the whole we have created a whole new class of dependants who are split due to an unwillingness to integrate and a reluctance to repatriate, thus chronically frustrated and unhappy. As I said already, many more traditional 'natives' feel the incoming arabs are spoiled (not to say opportunistic) and ungrateful (ironically this is the very judgement that created an opportunity for them to come in the first place but back then it was aimed at Holland's own flesh and blood, the generation that wanted to be left alone, drop out or at best, demanded big investment in clean up jobs, if only better wages say). A fine distinction an doubly final remark: from Groot's characterizational 'voetveeg' to what I would call: schoorvoetende vegers (reluctantly drag [[shuffle]] one's feet) is a slight adjustment with remarkable dividends in terms of our focus. If one sees an Arab as somehow held back by and yet, though remaining here holding on to his cultural habits and inhibitions (through 3-4 generation by now for which the high influx must be credited more perhaps) as much as he (girls fare better but that makes it all the worse for the hims) is held off with our reluctance to start competing on their terms, it is no wonder that all cropped up frustration is bound to blow up in spite of the (lots less helpless than huge) parts of themselves willing to adjust. ----- There is another snippet on a long Dutch polemic concerning commodification and satanic globalizers/ viruses, etc in a recent file called <http://poetpiet.tripod.com/2001/indy11.htm> <<<<I posted the story on this story at one of the major threads (called coca) at guerilla news

-Uri Avnery gush-shalom.com -- this fella organizes a lot of action in the disputed and fought over border and 'settler' areas in palestine; he has some sensible things to say I think; it invalidates your motherly impulse to simply punish the culprit; there is no such thing. Certain long adhered to wether idolized or mindlessly applied principles have set the stage for this ripening of their (viable seed containing?) fruit. Drastic rethinking about what one calls one's own and one's own culture would be best. Check all the militant activist indy sites; they all say so while the majority wants to go to war? Is the latter part of this line your impression. ---

No fighting underground can operate without popular roots and a supportive environment that is ready to supply new recruits, assistance, hiding places, money and means of propaganda. An underground organization wants to gain popularity, not lose it. Therefore it commits attacks when it thinks that this is what the surrounding public wants. Terror attacks always testify to the public mood. That is true in this case, too. The initiators of the attacks decided to implement their plan after America has provoked immense hatred throughout the world. Not because of its might, but because of the way it uses its might. It is hated by the enemies of globalization, who blame it for the terrible gap between rich and poor in the world. It is hated by millions of Arabs, because of its support for the Israeli occupation and the suffering of the Palestinian people. It is hated by multitudes of

Muslims, because of what looks like its support for the Jewish domination of the Islamic holy shrines in Jerusalem. And there are many more angry peoples who believe that America supports their tormentors.-

When public authorities on any scale of magnitude have clauses and signatures which prohibit 'use' of their content at the bottom of their communication with the general populace one has to wonder where that bloody open society even exists at all yet

apart from beneath the pipedreamer's cap. Even consensually constituted currencies which state money can soon become (simply allow people to allocate their taxes to targets of their choosing) will have budgeters drop plenny a stitch in their projections, since articulating goals times material costs minus learning money leaves gaps rifts and rooms for misunderstanding as it is; since practices as just cited happen a lot, in Amsterdam for instance, the appalling meaning of my title doesn't show up as an eyesore when we haven't much to contrast it with. Once that minor yet momentous glitch is rectified we will see privatization become what it should be: risk bearing (1) play money for (1) and of the steepin rich BUT with the grand difference of not existing at the cost of us more modest plodder ploppy plish-plash pleash our soakers and stoopers.

No less interesting perhaps is what happed over last weekend here in Holland: the most right wing populist rising (cometlike and also a gay person) has led into a battle his party couldn't keep up to: immigration stop and repeal of discrimination law cause it doesn't stroke with free speech; his plan is to allow the mullahs and imam to go right ahead and compare him to a pig (pigs homo's? Hosking [excerpt] Solzhenitsyn's revision of the traditional version Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn DVESTI LET VMESTE 509pp. Moscow: Russkii put'. 176Rs. 5 85887 110 0 In spite of mounting evidence to the contrary, we are still inclined to think of Russians as congenitally anti-Semitic. We carry mental images of Cossacks with whips charging Jewish crowds and smashing into Jewish shops. Yet in 1915, at the height of the First World War, when Russian mobs in Moscow were trashing and plundering German shops, Jews - whose surnames were often indistinguishable from German ones - would hang notices outside their enterprises saying "Jewish shop". It is reported that the hooligans would then pass them by.

:::- X :::- :: Sol. is not known in Russia as an anti-Semite. He's known as a lot of other things -- hack, pompous ass, traitor, society's conscience, back-to-tsarism lunatic, irrelevant anachronism, depending on the person -- but not as an anti-Semite. This puts me in mind of one of those anecdotes I'm fond of recounting: I was, um, imbibing with a friend of mine, a Russian artist in his early 40s, when we began talking about Sol. He said, "I remember back in the 70s Solzhenitsyn could do no wrong. Electronic means of communication make Direct Democracy possible. Direct Rule by all citizens can be implemented TODAY. All citizens can decide all political issues and be the government. This is government by the governed. Rule by the ruled. The ATMs make no political decisions, they just receive, record, and add decisions made by owners of magnetic cards. Today millions of financial decisions are added up in seconds by networks of ATMs. Bank managers can watch totals any time in their offices. This technology proved itself reliable for handling our finances. No Bank or Supermarket can function without it. The same technology can also handle our political decisions. It can add up and display totals of millions of votes immediately. This was impossible in the past. Representatives were needed while it was impossible to vote, and count millions of votes, in seconds. Today, when this is possible, representatives are no longer needed. We need not put voting papers in ballot boxes and spend days in counting them. We can insert a magnetic card into an ATM, key in our vote, and see totals immediately on TV. When millions of votes are added up, and displayed on TV in seconds, representatives for making political decisions are not needed. Instead of voting for political representatives every citizen can vote directly on every political decision. Why be represented rather than be present ? EVERY CITIZEN CAN PROPOSE, AND VOTE ON, EVERY POLITICAL DECISION. ----- me: I call all this naive cause there would have to be a limit to mixing incompatibles; take a situation where ten factions each manage to garner around a tenth of the vote on various issues; who is going to help whom move to a location where they find more consensus? I mean each potential is a much qualified thing tied to time and place, a mango seed is not gonna do much in northern Latitudes. Take a consensual community with a 10% components of aliens; how many of either will, unless convinced they are blessed with and/or guests of people to learn from and become like, pool resources to help either reach a higher level of consensus; so the migration question is a tangley one (apart from the dearness of connectedness what with the opposite of Soviet haydays happening and hysterically massive but not unified claim staking on a basis of vastly improved 'futures' for ambitious segment in question which in fact sabotages all others).Real glad I have to do with simpler material mixing very easily (a volcano blesses with a blast of mist-tributed formation that can fullfill trace mineral requirements for centuries in thus most favored locales) ----- 144753 <http://ni4d.org/> national initiative for democracy and //voter.org --- You might like to try this too: /deep_e_muckcrazy.htm

144874 + none -Like Shooting Fish in a Barrel in Palestine by Zeeraf Duossam 11:53am Tue Mar 5 '02 End all aid to Israel, remove Israel from occupied territories and let freedom ring. The absolute next best place for the U.S. to take its screwy war on terrorism would be the portion of Palestine occupied by the Israeli military and settlers and chase the Israelis out of the region like they turkey shot Saddam's army out of Kuwait in 1991. All available force should be directed at the evil-doers in Israel to end the occupation. Then, we could let a separate state of Palestine emerge and if it's not democratic with a small "d" then we could apply peaceful pressure on the Palestinian people to make their new state as free as possible. Before doing this, though, the United States needs to practice what it preaches and turn itself into a true democracy, not one dominated and corrupted by one-party Democrat-Republican dictatorship. So, in summary, end all aid to Israel, send the troops currently stationed elsewhere in the region to Israel, drive the Israelis out of any land it's occupied since 1967. This noble action would immediately impress so many of the impoverished, destitute, dispossessed people of the world that so much of the hatred for the United States would end as soon as the mission to free Palestine began.

War by Assassination John Filiss ----- Summation: It is not the author's intent to emphasize a particular approach to warfare as an adjunct to conventional warfare or warfare by any other means, but to elucidate a method that effectively targets the individuals concerned with creating war, thus giving them a powerful incentive to avoid war, including war assassination, altogether. In upping the ante by making the act of war more personal for those involved in its initiation and maintenance, it makes the use of diplomacy and a more considered foreign policy far more appealing to a country's leadership. At its best, the acceptance of war by assassination is a powerful check on the growth and depredations of governments. At its worst, it is a sometimes useful tool to avoiding the needless deaths of innocents, i.e., "collateral damage," when nations clash.

OK, here goes:

: : : : : Mike's argument (perfecteconomy.com) is a common one in disgruntled econom^(on)ist truthdefyer fields where they say: banks give 10 and want 11 back which surely and slowly pulls all property and profit within their purview; credit rating, worthiness and identity are thus more and more dependent on not mores but number jugglers and folks who manage to draw lines right through things that die due to it unless they move out (sometimes suitable compensated by magnanimous father state (Betuwe lijn), etc). The factors left out of this picture are: risks and their costs for both ventures and their capitals (write-offs, defaults), not to mention environment etc.

2]: default. On top of that the truly pernicious rates at which banks don't just get know, judge and help business out but come to outright own them is due to and can only come about when virulence of the above is guaranteed by living under monopoly conditions, legal tender laws which allow no competitors like the ones this Mike person wants to propose. So yes, a point is made but without reference other than the Am Rev one must conclude Mikey is too deeply nostalgic to come visit some modern linkage (openmoney.org, potlatch.net, transaction.net, etc) with me and guarantee a currency competition to prevent the ones in fields that don't deserve them like care and communication along with countless cascades of common congress. ----- Perhaps I ought to mention that the actual proposed cure: (make money emission keep pace with new wealth creation) is unclear as to whether that includes anything little tangible (less than tangibles) like a mere strong resolve (that which people agree on being promising and contractually commit to .. perhaps only to realize they fell for a hype and overblown popular sentiment). I get the feeling Mike would like to be on the safe side (like a person choosing a profession to do with food in hopes of never needing to starve) and stick to monetarization of goods, forget thinking thanking, R&D, etc, maybe even throw out politicians other than those with a calling (to find[grind], found[ground] money for pipe dreams or something)

I am missing a few ingredients in the comments here for fuller range of obviously conflicting aspects. I don't know what the vanguardnewsnetwork(.com) purports being justifiably emphasizable textwise but I expect their argument could go something like this:

----- 1] What were jews doing in all these places in the first place; what is or became of their own first place before even starting a count (down)?. Was a mishap forcing them to migrate? How come they seem so much more prone to than any other hominids? Sure has been common enough throughout their 'sojourn' to be portrayed as parasites shapeshifters who come, commercialize and take over till built up tension explodes which is when it is time to bleed, throw up a smokescreen or leave some bait / sacrifice (Schuesslburner makes a plausible case for the word Holocaust to mean just that, serving to deflect attention from Soviet jewed mass murders) / decoy to get hounded and scapegoated (allowing more clearly identifiable rootstock and core, pride of the people and/or the quicksilverer kids to make their get away). This buffering to absorb the rage turns into an exploitable guilt feeling since it grows big enough to prompt the decennia long look away even when that rage is recognizably mimicked and taken on for all the world to see as now in Palestine.

----- 2]: Or one could examine the persistent and tenacious superstition and selfjustification making Israel out to be the leaven to make mankind's dough rise (while it's spirit sours?) which could be coupled with the billiard/pinball push around Barry Fell (finds Libyan language as far away as Melanesia), John Philip Cohane (finds placenames in Hebrew around the world deposited' in pre-Biblical days) and perhaps Cyclone Covey (who digs even deeper) are on about but I have a question regarding those mixages: How if all this cross-cultural fertilization was so frequent and prevalent, were the big epidemics wiping out the pops of entire regions possible? Apparently the lag times between contact can cause any meanwhile occurring divergence to turn out deadly on the next round. And what makes Jews different is probably the matter of a simple routine gone haywire (see Sadie Plant on pea(cock)hens and the rift between sexes, throw in a little Weininger and voila look no further for worldwide tragedy). Ever so skilled in administration (*with it's implied solidarity vs dispossession potential depending on which way the wind blows into that ever ambiguous flag covering or mislabelling cargo. Chris Doss The Russia Journal on Solzhenitsyn ----- I haven't read the book, and probably never will, but I do know Sol. preserves the distinction between the "Russians" and "Jews" and points out that ordinary Russians have suffered just as much historically as Russian Jews (he may have a point there, what with most Russians up until the mid 1800s having basically been slaves). Sol. is not known in Russia as an anti-Semite. He's known as a lot of other things -- hack, pompous ass, traitor, society's conscience, back-to-tsarism lunatic, irrelevant anachronism, depending on the person -- but not as an anti-Semite. This puts me in mind of one of those anecdotes I'm fond of recounting: I was, um, imbibing with a friend of mine, a Russian artist in his early 40s, when we began talking about Sol. He said, "I remember back in the 70s Solzhenitsyn could do no wrong. But then I read an American magazine that had somehow been smuggled into the country, and Solzhenitsyn was basically arguing for a nuclear first strike against the Soviet Union. 175267 Palastians need to learn from Native American history --- Andy munger 5:43am Tue Apr 23 '02 andrewmunger@yahoo.com The connection between American Indians and the palastianians has been made by several writers on the internet. While it is somewhat valid, there are alot of differences between the struggle of both groups for land they believe belongs to them. Both American Indians and palastianians fought wars to preserve their historic lands and lost. Despite this, Native americans have citizen status, while thousands of palastians are seeking a state of their own. The 1993 peace accord provided a promise and hope for this. American Indians were promised this only to have the many treaties broken by the U.S government. American Indians will never have their own state. Israel is currently waging war and destroying property of palastians in the west bank. the maerican indian fought his last war with the U.S Army over a hundred years ago. Both groups have considered the Americans has their biggest threat and enemy. America's support for Israel has caused the palastians has much damage as the English support for The easly colonial wars against the eastern Indians of North America. Both groups have waged conventional war and guerilla war. The Arabs were once a conquering people. The American indians have traditionally been the conquered. Where as today there are afew million native Americans, there are over 300 million Arabs in the world. The main difference between the Indians and the palastians is the presence of Islam. Muslims can not truely ever be assimilated in the jewish state. American indians have been mostly assimilated once they leave their reservations. They had to forgone and distance from traditional culture. Had the Native American had the uniting force of religion they may have prevented the conquest of their continent. They were a scattered disunited people not too different than the Arab world pre-Muhammed. Muhammed was able to unite this small tribe to capture sand spread all over the mideast. They defeated, took land, and assimilated people much like the way the American west was won. Now the foot is on the other end and it is the Palastians fighting for their survival. The Jews feel their survial in israel is also at stake. This conflict will only end when one side gives up and accepts defeat like the American Indian did. As long as the palastians have Islam and millions of fellow Arabsthere is little The United States and Israel can do short of extermination. Foir those who think this is impossible and would never be done, they can only look at the history of the Native American. This may be the "final solution in this culture clash and couldbe the reason America is so worried about a strong Iraq. Presently, a united Islamic world would be about as effective in resisting this as the American Indians efforts were against the superior technology of the west. Yassar Arafat and the palastians need to be careful or they will end up like the native American. ===== yeah wonderfully levelheaded . .butpiet 11:30am Tue Apr 23 '02 comment#175362 let's look at the differences; although the expansiveness of europe spilling into (and the blood of) native america was set on similarly innocently unconscious and adventurous empire chasing relayboost as the us seems to be, benefiting from soul simplifying blood mixing and unmolested soils, the (euro and us) exploitation and poisoning now seem roughly comparable; leaving the abuse of the cultural shallows (american naivity) as the workforce set to secure oil access, no less a 'propellant' than the hunger for gold once was, the present setting is totally different. We lost our eco innocence. For those not blinding themselves and shortcircuiting other senses taking in impressive changes it becomes less and less hard to accept that 80 - 90 % of deserts are that on account of man In that respect the ME tops the ranks of regions with in this respect heaviest karma on record (on a par with the aboriginal one perhaps). There will no doubt be a 'time station' in the near future where the dutch experience range, captured in the adage: 'pump or drown' can be put to use, modified, revalued and updated to 'pump or dry out'; I think the vital sober up aid for Zionists to remember the greener bible passages would be having their funding flow suffer a redirect from arms to solar and other greenist gardentricks (like my marxists.de/middleeast/ironwall/index.htm Here is a conclusion of part 2. Russian Zionism: Treason to the Jews Conclusion Can we today applaud the role taken by Zionism in the theatre of the Romanoff empire? We cannot be kinder than its own reviewer. What Weizmann said of Herzl's cabal with Plehve applies to Russian Zionism in full sum: humiliating, pointless and disillusioning. Who today could try to justify any movement that had an audience with Louis XVI on 14 July 1789? Ante-bellum Zionism had the traitor's part in the revolutionary play, as insensate of the life problems of Jewry as the local Theosophists or Esperantists. Only with Zionism we hear off-stage whisperings and treacheries in the ministries of anti-Semitism. For Zionism to have ever been correct politics we must believe, ipse dixit, that the eventual creation of a revived Hebrew state should have been the prime political concern of flesh and blood Jews. That was nothing better than ideological future-music. Drowning swimmers need dry land, not the Holy Land. Magnification of things Jewish and of the past homeland of the Jews, tells us that we deal with philosophers intently gazing through the wrong end of the intellectual telescope. What must be said of the movement must stand for one of its leading protagonists. Goldmann summed him up quite simply and well: a monologist. The truths of politics are always as simple and common as the simple and common people. Yet fanatics of all persuasions live as if they have a superior wisdom all their own. It is obvious that people prefer to speak the tongue they already understand 'which is of use to them' than the language of their ancestors 20 generations removed. Such extravaganzas are the metier of the educated. In no country have poor Jews been the base for the Hebrew language or Zionism. Vastly more economically secure than the people, an accomplished linguist and literary wordsmith, Jabotinsky was totally estranged from the masses. Always at the podium, a spieler, a talker, for him Zionism was the word from on high and he was the Moses of Odessa, trying to lead a stiff-necked nation out of Egypt. In the real world he was doomed to see the educated youth of Jewry reject him and his ideas and join the ranks of the revolution.

175768 Hurray for Growing Anti-Semitism???? anti-nazi 11:46am Wed Apr 24 '02 comment#175803
Once again, Bill Royere shows his hatred of Jews. Readers, please be advised that the person who posted these articles is a white supremacist named William Randolph Royere III.

(Yes, another Nazi named Bill. But this one doesn't seem to be the infamous Bill White.) Royere has chosen to hate Jews, not Zionism. In fact, he makes no distinction between Jews and Zionists, writing "Jews and Zionists and Zionists and Jews. For my money, they're all in the same basket." (see article 166524). He pretends to support Palestinians in their struggle against the Israeli occupation. But he actually does not respect Arabs (see article 164323). Previous anti-Jewish posts by this Bill include article 169268 and 169272, in which he says "Kill the Jews." More of the same is at 168165, 168200 (in which he wants the US to start building new gas chambers), 166238 in which he spreads the urban legend of an anti-Jewish warning falsely attributed to Ben Franklin and also spreads the erroneous notion that Jews killed Jesus Christ (when actually it was the Imperial Roman occupiers who did, 165882, and others). In 171734 he describes his support for inherited monarchy. (Yes, a monarchist at Indymedia!!! Will wonders never cease?) His claims are rebutted at 171811. Royere has a preference for copying stories from World Net Daily, a right-wing, Christian American news and opinion website. He often adds his own spin in the summary section of his IMC posts. Please take this into account when you read his posts. I believe I entered a civilized sounding piece of mr Royere along with a comment on his strange website in my last indy issue. Goes to show what difference 2 pairs of eyes make of one single complex fella human being.

<http://tuxedo.org/~esr/writings/> from hacker revenge: 5.1. 1. Forget bottom-up; work on top-down One of the things that seemed clearest was that the historical Unix strategy of bottom-up evangelism (relying on engineers to persuade their bosses by rational argument) had been a failure. This was naïve and easily trumped by Microsoft. Further, the Netscape breakthrough didn't happen that way. It happened because a strategic decision-maker (Jim Barksdale) got the clue and then imposed that vision on the people below him. The conclusion was inescapable. Postscript by Piet: Ya know, I had second thoughts by now (some days later): picking (fights with) closer of kin makes the match a potentially fairer as well as more deadly one. When this antimonopolistic blessing (rather than bias - in my eyes at least) gets/is overruled by a stand-off ritualization [\[\[symbol swing origin??\]\]](#) the crashclash turns from deadly and debilitating to expansionary bounce, the stuff of conspiracies, non sportish teamwork and the more so the less lebensraum is left for a gracious retreat; evolutionarily speaking such family squabbles must be the driving force behind the instabilities that occur the more dominance gains dominion. : : : : Either way I give you this tangential follow up to contemplate: the 28th of april was the 128th recurrence of it since Karl Kraus was born. He put out a tremendous amount of his own writing (being independently wealthy, all he ever earned [[for won in his many many lawsuits]] was given away to victims of the exposed trouble in question). It might have been (*t*his work which inspired and pumped up the courage of the reading populace (to the point where it arguably [[if you allow me to characterize him {{{and us}}} as a cataclysm catalyst]] culminated in the uprising which set fire to the justice building and cost 88 mostly innocent bystanders lives) in that he gave them a way to articulate their feelings (even if only in a borrowed fashion build pressure over and vent frustration with the masterfull if reactionary, idealistic and indignant use of language [[spread in a {{{red}}} periodical which was as thick as a book]] and in occasional performances of his own and the works of Shakespeare, Goethe and some few others). Elias Canetti fell under his spell for years (and found his wife that way); he called Kraus the master of 'entsetzen'; I think I went and elucidated some connotations to this word (roughly meaning indignance, outrage) elsewhere recently. I put and pone it to you that he was the prototypical indyan; sharply satirical critic of corruption, power and personalities with a special focus on the justice system, in his view all the soldiers from the imperial era were merely redressed as policemen to continue the same prostitution of opinion. One might argue he was not like indyans in that he was against freedom of the press (but that would be a superficial way of taking him by his word; his frown on press freedom concerned its ability to take bribes, prostitute and pimp itself to all sorts of commerce) nor are his awareness levels of and regarding selfdestructiveness and ultimate futility of his passion (which he calls purely personal at his most defensive) comparable (one wonders if that's bycause he was so committed to the type of passive aggression wielding a pen lends itself to). Oh, by the way , little Karl complained of his work being 'totgeschwiegen' = silenced to death, censored and ignored; sure enough still holds where it hurts (although Karlchen was pretty sure of his posthumous fame) one can't even get a sign of life out of the list dedicated to him (I asked to help retrieve the passages where he weaves 'philistine' and derivatives into his metaphors [[mostly conventional ways except for at least once]] which I failed to relocate and retrieve to more purposefully resthumble myself in front of it and now haunts me). If you should like to know a little more about him (his aversion to psychoanalysis is what he is most famous for) come this way ==>>

Let's have an online poll. Yesterday I posted a story called "The deterioration and decline of Indymedia." I noticed that it was commented upon more than any other post during that 24 hour period. Virtually every comment agreed with the main point: Indymedia has become less interesting and very staid as a result of the recent change. Virtually everyone agreed that the open wire was not well displayed and that it should be placed on the main page. I think the Volunteers who organize indymedia should poll the readers and participants. Please register your own suggestion below. === Yes, do a poll! One of your respondents from yesterday 4:45am Sat May 11 '02 address: NZ comment#179462 I've just returned from out of town (i.e. its really late at night here, but had to check 'the world')and found the news wire still showing about 10 items I read this morning. I frequently posted stuff, but lately (post-change) have not really felt the same inclination. Even when I spotted something really worth posting, I frequently lacked the enthusiasm to post it, as the wire lacked its formal vigour. Perhaps others also felt this way, and maybe that apparent general loss of enthusiasm (due to the change to the news wire) is part of the problem. If I post stuff, I do so because I value the contributions others make and do my bit to help. So please, IMC staff, set up a poll and let us have a say that WE can make judgements from. And also tack it onto the current homepage, for others who have yet to find the new news wire link. The porno and crazies were certainly an irritation, but I'd sooner sift through the rubbish than to see this resource lost. Thank you comment#179465 This is an administrative comment while at the same time merely a comment to another administrative comment. And so, not a news article. It's has been hidden to respect the spirit of the Indymedia newswire's editorial policy. Any questions? Send them, along with the article id # in question, to www-newswire@lists.indymedia.org And please consider getting involved generally around <http://lists.indymedia.org/mailman/listinfo/www-newswire> If you have questions about the feature wire, go to: .../syndication Since being implemented it has shown itself to be even more effective than we had originally hoped for. Dare I call it beautiful? It will be fine tuned over time based on input to that list, but it will not likely be scrapped. With all due respect, I must say that if you read a few of the messages in the archive to either of these two lists you'll probably be compelled to "just shut the fuck up." Venceremos, marco =====

comment#179467 While I have a couple other minutes I can spare, I'll mention the following. People can find the duplicate you referred to here in an attempt to make this look like news at: 179032 J, either you - or one of the many people commenting to you who have your exact same writing style - mentioned that there's nothing along the newswire but Israel/Palestine issues. I would say that some of that is to be expected, but at the same time I would say you're exaggerating greatly. It's actually much less fixated on Palestine/Israel issues than: ----1] one would expect, given current world events ----2] prior to the featurewire implementation ----3] you, JC, and Bill White were duking it out over with c0int3lpr0 tool, Bobbydroppings and triple anon in the fray. So again, let me try to find a respectful way to just generally say, "shut the fuck up." peace and carrots, marco ps: if you need quick proof that the past week or two has shown some really great newswire articles having less to do with Israel OR the Untied States, check out: 179279 It's still got a long ways to go, so to speak, but the newswire rawks now more than it ever did. Oh lastly, I must say right this moment I count 6 stories directly about israel out of about 30 articles. I think twice that have to do with the United States, so if GLOBAL newswire needs any urgent attention, I'd say it's MORE in the direction of articles about other international topics including Israel and LESS from its typical habit of being overly UScentric. Of course, you would hate that, huh?

That very moment a man dies and the next thing dad does is call my nephew who lives in the local hollywood and was one of the first to hear of the brutal murder. Spooky no??? Aye aye, patronyms and patriation Helder (Rural Route Ringer, too remotely controlled by the dutch govt) and Graaf (killer of a fast rising Dutch politician who was set to stop leaks, hemorhaging and insults to dignity unless merited) now both in custody. It bothers me more than I can say to see two solid dutch words 'owned up' by young people turned criminally psychotically (shades of world's end [[or was it devil's end]] by Coraghesan Boyle; riveting writ). I will speak of the case I know best. The cometary tale of Pim Fortuyn, like in a titanic battle, the one between form and style or content and appearance, Graaf (hyper formal legal nitpicker) and Fortuyn (semi scholarly too but on top and/or despite of that, a styling strategizer, genre mixer, playful debater and sparkling emoticon battallion all by hisself) seems to have had an invisible but meddley tentacle or two to spare when it came to helping the latter into a very dead darkroom (visits to the aboveground variety are as happy and open a bunch of proudly flouted memories to him as those illustrating his catholicity) fullfilling condition and complement to attaining his (other) halflife aspiration: sainthood, a present status pursued in a public eye he knew how to keep hungry for him on the strength of his sheer against all odds (including things like his bentley, etc)

egalitarian joviality and of course because street campaigning got hell to break out (he wasn't even going to go home that night cause of the incidents and the guilt question about demonization of his controversial self rages). This archaic tug-of-war hijacked the democratic process as it should be: each and every bit of POLITICIZED money (SEE ULRICH VON BECKERATH) voluntarily parted with and accepted while passably well enough informed about those affected. The generated interest is booked on the account of taboo-breaking democratic processes but to me these antics emphasize how much personalities and charisma-related phenomena belong in the theatre (outrunning market speeds by EMOTO factors that mock those of lightning magnitude) whereas politicized, they constitute a pretense and make believe posture of ability to freeze, monetize and weigh moony moods down with pontifical assurances meant to legitimize a next (in)stallment of stability (as if production cycles were really stuck on some sort of olympic periodicity), possible to the extent of cultural savvy that got and gets lost: know/remember how the magic words open and direct once kept and must now squeeze out parasitic spaces for capital flight, ego bloat and impersonal deception. Antipodal resonances drew v/d Graaf en Fortuyn together, one of them seems to be a degree of dedication perhaps (never mind the possibility of them being victims both, the as of now still silent perpetrator of this onerous crime having being hypnotized into his onerous deed). Anyway, yet another great loss. A person can be a complete idiot on most issues but be (s)he right about the most pressing problem? Useful, perfect even. I am mortified. I know I could have seduced the man kept him from harm and infused some sense in him .. I fancy

Bush, cynical realist that he is, has little faith in his country's saintly status and compensates with extorted, bribed and cajoled contracts, treaties, etc; International Courts like the one in The Hague are nightmares to fortify against; The Spectator (first of june this year) features an article by Paul Gottfried, a Penn prof, claiming that the Atlantean gap in mutual sympathy (for and from both sides) is widening and cites Goldberg (who I noticed got posted here regularly) saying "America really doesn't have a colonial past like Europe". Very true it's magnitude is very much greater, more vicious, etc. I will quote from Louise Erdrich's new book 'The Last Report on the Miracles at Little No Horse' Chapter 5 Spirit Talk 1912, to illustrate the simplest components making the difference between trade (as which much of euro colonialism started) and staying 'for good': ... snip

Gottfried calls Goldberg colleague VCHanson 'an even

I tried to inspire the clerks to make a personal response but so far (after about 7 attempts) no luck. 188994 cattle mutilations, silent heli's and a sensible reply: There IS something going on anon 12:15am Sun Jun 30 '02 comment#189089

--- me: (the fact that cnn does this sort of thing confirms it?!?!?!?):

I'm inclined to believe that the phenomena of cattle mutilations is real because I knew Special Ops guy who claimed he participated in this activity. This guy was active around 1980, and his 'mutes' took place in the area of rural Pennsylvania. He didn't relate this directly to me, but I got the story from his wife who was in the process of leaving him because he was such a creep. On a related note, I've heard that the defense contractor Teledyne Ryan builds a top-secret stealth helicopter made from composite materials. It is stealthy in the radar sense and more interestingly, because it emits a very low noise. There's speculation that its rotors are driven by an electrostatic charge instead of the usual jet-mechanical linkage. As to the purpose of cattle mutilations I can only guess. I favor Greer's hypothesis about a program to instill popular fear of UFOs / ETs. I've also wondered if there is an ongoing covert germ warfare or DNA research project for which they require these tissue samples. A search on Google using the terms 'mutilations' and 'Special Ops' or 'Special Forces' turns of a bit of material

Tue Jul 9 '02 The elevation of the open publishing format to the level of a principal that nullifies responsibility for content is a sham The IMC allows their technology and the labor of all who contribute to the public space that exists here, to be exploited at will, by bigots, sectarians and anyone else who seeks to oppress, harass and incite violence against innocent human beings based on constructs of nationality, race, religion or sexuality. This condition is portrayed as freedom. A confusion this profound can only arise from a sheltered living condition, a place where one can afford to calculate the finer points of morality with little chance of being gunned down, beaten, enslaved or dying of hunger in the process.
Words have power, media has power, those who use positions of power to oppress other people will meet with opposition. Does the IMC think it's Switzerland?

Introduction iSee is a web-based application charting the locations of closed-circuit television (CCTV)

iSee, users can find routes that avoid these cameras - paths of least surveillance - allowing them to walk around their cities without fear of being "caught on

"It's the rejection of the legitimacy of the state of Israel itself which lies at the core of the Israeli-Arab conflict."

Afshin Ellian who has been harsh on fellow arab immigrants with some consistency has found this sort of most poisonous mud to fill his pen with also. I just don't get it; is all of arabia not big enough to find cheap empty land in. What would have prompted Zionists to refight and relive the bible? I want to bury that book so deep nobody remembers a shred of it????
Anyway, how do yall like that liddul quote jumped down my synapses What this means is that the ageold poor powerless penman will try to figure the ins and outs of legitimacy as surely as a more barbarian brother of his will aim flame at his eyesores. what is 'legitimacy' in the face of irrefutably harsh reality? A similar poor mans bottle message. What the Hague vs Pentagon? A farce. What the UN vs a 'single' people's prideful pack of hijackers? The passengers on a jet heading for the tenderest of Toonders To grit ones teeth and be an indian disregarding pain as much as Sharon, cronies and sponsoring 'supporters' take the collateral damage route as one to derive motivation from for more cruelty; my, astonishing how they suffer and still the deathdollars roll in the chores at these rotten cores is having equality before law, under sun and in battles of riddle rattles such as these perfect pieces of ammo that are founts for the opposing parties both.

But polarization is only useful (and indeed possible only) in abstracto, not where you need to maintain a modicomely decorum of eye to eye contact (the volume flashing opening) which doesn't require adaptation nor would it impose anything but a feminine valourless back turning would be averted and the flash would tell both how deep or high the limits like softy blankets and proud leashes need stretch to keep the bipolar eclipse from eclypse and collapse. Arafat and Sharon in the ring at a reasonable price: all middle eastern weaponry and explosives; only indians and other legendary but alas exterminated since not massive enough barbarians were capable of such elegant solutions. ----- boly hooks polipiet

208882 on jews – a few comment there: Like most 'conspiracy theories' .. it's BS Nazi Punks, Fuck Off!
7:18pm Sat Oct 12 '02 comment#208894 The reason there are a lot of Jewish people in 'status' positions in the world is that generally Jewish families see higher education for their children an absolute must. This is not a stereotype.. you see, when a people have suffered racism, mob violence, and the near destruction of their culture .. there are only two ways to go, self-destruct as a result of a lost identity, much like what has happened to too many of the native American groups, or struggle to retain that identity, and despite all resistance, to prosper and survive. There is more to it than that of course, but basically that's the thing. Other people might point to the traditional roles for Jewish people after the diaspora, and all that.. but.. hey, who's got the time for all that? ;-] It is not a 'conspiracy' if large numbers of individuals do what is in their individual best interest, and that just so happens to coincide with the interests of a large number of other individuals. The result might be the same as a conspiracy, but there is an absence of concious subversive .. uhh.. stuff. Anyway, feeding the hatred of a minority by saying they are conspiratorial 'by nature' is just not right. When I point my finger and say that group is behaving badly, there will always be specific and obvious reasons to do so. The criteria for membership in that group would be guilt of course, not guilt by association. For example, many say, and I am in total agreement, that the Israeli 'state' is guilty of fascist aggression, racism, illegal militaristic expansionism, and a slow genocide of the Palestinian people suffering under it's brutal occupation. Many Israeli Jews support this, and many Jews around the world support it, but so do a lot of non-Jewish fascists. Therefore, it is not accurate or helpful to make an obviously incorrect statement like .. 'Jews are fascists', because it automagically illegitimizes your legitimate claims. Kind of like the Israeli fascists committing crimes against humanity, in order to do wha? .. prevent crimes against humanity? --- At least with Islam you are required to be charitable, I'm sure it will last far longer than any Hebrew doctrine on the timescale of mankind, perhaps longer than christianity??-----

Dov Ivry wrote: If you don't mind me saying so the article sounds like standard election propaganda crap. Mitzna has the same chance of winning in Israel as he has in Holland. None. ----- my answer: labour nearly won a few weeks ago here -----

The Labor Party is not a left-wing party, rather the representative of the moneyed classes. That came through very clearly in the Sharon-Barak contest when Barak in being clobbered held only places where there were concentrations of rich people plus some Arab areas. The Likud on the other hand has very strong roots among the common people. They lost twice in the 90s, both times because the large poor new Russian component went for Labor's promises of jobs and prosperity (Rabin vs Shamir in 92 and then Barak vs Netanyahu in 99). Rabin at least tried (by printing money and Meridor had to make massive cuts to save the economy when Netanyahu went in in 96), Barak was an outright liar. Now the Russians have swung over to Likud and if it weren't for the many corruption scandals in the Likud, they would have had a huge victory. As it is everyone is expecting them to win.

my answer: thank you, that seems clearheaded enough. -----
The mention of the Holocaust as a factor is very much exaggerated. ----- my answer: I recently came across Gene Hoffman's 'two traumatized people' at wagingpeace.org/articles/03.01/0123hoffman_israel_palastine.htm an important document I should think; it prompted me to make the following comment at an indy item indymedia.org/front.php3?article_id=232080 (above)----- by the way, before I go on answering your letter, a question concerning another yesterday comment i made and about the subject (a horse for jesus)of which you may know more: 232052... dhushara.com/bo-od/joysects/joy.htm - 14k - cause I could really use some help solve this riddled rock -----

The vast majority of the people here are Sephardim from outside Europe, Russians with no awareness of Jewish history, or second or third generation sabras who pay no attention to what happened in Europe. The question is one of borders. It took France centuries to set their borders and Alsace-Lorraine was still causing problems in recent times. It took the Americans a couple of hundred years. The border problem will not be solved overnight and there is no quick fix. --- The main issues in the election are personal security and the economy. The influence of any esoteric philosophical considerations is non-existent except for the secondary but permanent tug-of-war over changes in the religious-secular status quo. ----- my answer---- There is one persistent poster at indy who adheres significance to moon cycles (as you seem to too so you might know him, markamook at geocities) and numbers such as 50 bush nato etc come to that apparently. i call him murkymark - I personally met the author of 'the language crystal', that was pretty exotic and esoteric. ----- Mitzna is a pathetic gimmick, nothing more. Ivry Dov: Those on the other side are colonists who arrived under the Turks or under other imperialist adventurers some back to the Romans. But that's only 2,000 years. Territory as always comes down to a question of numbers. If the invaders can outnumber the natives as in America, they take the land. If not, as in most of sub-Saharan Africa, they don't. These people did manage to outnumber the Samaritans, still there, to the point where they could ignore them but not the rightful owners, us. Quirk of history. The territories in question were illegally occupied by Egypt and Jordan in 48. The Egyptians persecuted the "Palestinians" into the ground piet again: so, that would have a third time in theaux's recogning (just trying to keep time track .. prefer timed rock though) but don't people like Rosenstock-Huessy (has a yahoo group too; I contributed there once upon a blue moon) argue that Israel radically broke with all this starry eyed idolatry?) ---- and the Jordanians made no attempt at social development treating the lands as a warehouse or a real estate investment. Syria if they had succeeded in breaking through in their three attempts would have simply annexed the territories without further ado and will still do that. During the actual illegal occupations of these lands, no one in the world opened their mouth in protest. It was only after the Jews got there that the current cacaphony began. Oil money talks and the Jews being there is bad for big business. The whole thing is a question of borders and it will be solved eventually but not at the point of a gun and not through a total capitulation on the side of the Jews as our enemies and their mouthpieces such as Knudson Hoffman advocate. ----

Oh come on, you know better than put hysterical words in an essay soaked in selfreflection and with no other aim. As for solutions, what amount of land and watering systems could all the money now poured into arms buy???? ----

The facts are that the Arabs made three attempts at a war of annihilation in 48, 67, and 73, and got the piss beat out of them every time. We were hit by scuds all over the country in 91 and we may get hit again, but all this is taken in stride. Barak met 90 per cent of Arafat's demands in 2000 with the backing of Clinton in return for a peace treaty and Arafat's response was to launch a wave of terror. If Arabs are getting hurt they have no one to blame except their own leaders. ----

2 Mitzna in 1982. All the "documentaries" -- translation: celluloid bullshit -- that popped up when Sharon won the last election are the work of hostile elements. That episode was the subject of a full judicial inquiry, the findings based on the facts were not flattering to Sharon but it was a matter of taking ministerial responsibility for what happened in an area that fell in the province of his department. No more. The judicial report is open for all to read. Sharon sued Time Magazine for printing some of that bullshit back in the 80s and won big in an American court. Mitzna at that time was an army officer. If he testified it would have been during an internal military investigation never open to the public nor any protocols. But since no Israeli soldier committed any crime in this episode -- the Israeli army wasn't even present -- there were no trials so where would he testify? The entire "case" against Sharon rested on the fact that the Israelis were not there as a police force and he should have anticipated trouble given the fact that the Muslims had carried out a series of massacres of Christians prior to the arrival of the Israelis in Lebanon. The intelligence service let him down in not warning of possible revenge killings but he was the minister. The chaotic reality in Lebanon, then in the midst of an ongoing civil war, was such that no one except a brutal regime cancelling all basic freedoms could prevent random mayhem. The Americans came in shortly after that and they were blown to bits in large numbers time and again and finally ran out. The Syrians brought order after that through police state methods. In short. Mitzna was subject to military discipline. He couldn't accuse even his superior officer of anything let alone the defence minister except if asked in a private forum or he would have faced charges himself for insubordination. Beyond that no one in the army, especially high officers, is permitted to make political statements and this is what you are suggesting. ---- piet: I am not suggesting, just relating what I gathered from the documentary. From my vantage point I must equate the validity of both (pro- and consharon) positions till further notice but in suspect blemishes of bias . . . ----

I'm from New Brunswick in Canada but have lived in Israel 20 years. You seem to be talking about internal Israeli politics. The party that blatantly opposes the resettlement of our land, called Meretz, dropped from 10 to 6 seats -- and they were lucky to get that but they are support by a large kibbutz movement. In the general population their support is negligible. Mitzna turned his party in their direction and that cost him dearly. In politics citizens may express any view but this one, that Jews unlike other people in the world, have no right to live where they want, has only limited support. --- 4: "Frightening the fearless."---- Didn't understand the sentence. ----

I'll get back to you about that fright/frigid conundrum; not only did you quote only half of it back to me but did not even try to make out what in your initial assertions might have prompted such response. If you care to see it again you can look at it in the same place (here): ----

6: "starry eyed idolatry."---- The break with idolatry as I put it came with the story of Esther, which is Ishtar. There hasn't been any since then. ---- 7: "hysterical words." ---- I agree with your assessment but what's his motive? ----- "money for arms." --- I agree with that too, and we pay a heavy price socially for our military spending, but there is no escape. The moment Israel weakens our neighbors which include Iran will try to wipe us out in three seconds flat. ----- hope that's not your holocaust syndrome speaking. ----- Not anything to do with the holocaust, but a realistic assessment of our situation. Arafat rejected Barak's peace offer because -- this is from Barak who met him -- he doesn't want peace. His grand strategy is to cause as much trouble as he can so that at some point he can drag in many Arab and even better many Muslim nations in an all-out war. He's looking at the very long run but his plan got a huge setback on Sept. 11/01 since terrorism, which the world condones against Jews, suddenly struck someone else. ----- 8: I don't agree that Sharon is harmful. He is the first prime minister in 20 years to win re-election. The people would not vote for someone (such as Barak) who they feel brought harm upon them. ----- 9: I agree with the part of this sentence I understood. "The Jews have a right..." I think I said that earlier. ----- 1: Yahoo groups. You must not be going to the adult section. You have to pass the filter to get in there, all the groups. ----- 2: Pro- and anti-Sharon. Before the internet I assembled a library of some 3,000 books and have read most of them looking for facts. The theories are without limit. If you have facts about something let me know. I saw the name Aknaton. This means they are following Freud's "Moses and Monotheism," which is worthless. Freud wrote this at the end of his career and it is absolute garbage. Therefore I skipped the rest. If Theux has been sucked in by this, he's not worth reading. ----- As for Egyptian chronology, I follow Velikovksy more or less -- he hasn't got the whole story but has made a good start -- but he starts from the Exodus out. I came in from the other side and linked up with him. If you want Israel's doomsday date, essentially on the basis of Velikovsky's work, it's here. root-1.co.il/matriarchy_temple.htm Ivry

Next volley: To put this into a nutshell. @1 If anyone in discussing Egyptian history inserts Aknaton's name in the discussion, I stop reading. This comes from Freud. He didn't know what he was talking about. If you are trying to link Egyptian and Hebrew history, which is what Velikovsky did best, Aknaton has got nothing to do with it. -----

Even the people of Haifa, which always in the past gave large majorities to the Labor Party, voted for Sharon against Mitzna this time. çmade the latter step down". " ????? I have no idea what you are talking about. Mitzna went from being just another army general to mayor of a small city and had no contact with Sharon over the years nor with anyone else on the national political scene. He is a nonentity in way over his head. If you referring to Sharon's term as defence minister in 82, he resigned because of ministerial reponsibity after the Christians massacred the Muslims in Lebanon which was done in retaliation for repeated Muslim massacres of Christians in the previous months and had nothing to do with the Jews and nothing to do with Israel. ----

The documentary I think I referred you to earlier (in case you didn't see it yet here is my intro, the one translated from the dutch site and the links to the Realplayer video): indymedia.org/front.php3?article_id=213458-- it argues that indeed sharon was in charge at the time and was accused of the equivalent of malpractice by Mitzna causing his step down (rather than 'ministerial responsibility', he had one didn't he?) ---

After that he served in a number of portfolios always with great success including a fantastic stint as housing minister in 92. When the Iron Curtain fell the Russians and others flooded in and soon tent cities of homeless were popping up all over the country. The homeless included both Russians and veteran Israelis shoved out of their homes by landlords seeking to exploit the situation. No one knew what to do and the situation was getting worse. Shamir turned to Sharon and he found housing for everyone in three months. That's just one example of his many contributions to Israel over many decades and why he is so highly regarded. ----- Allow me to cite (from memory) a few recent docu's conveying irreconcilable interpretations from whatever you seem to be 'getting' (Brunswick is it? Or are you hooking into Israel tv via 62225 dc Archive of quotes on US support for Saddam v.2 by Troll-Free Call 4:03pm Fri Apr 4 '03 Sorry...I foolishly forgot to post this as html the first time around! This post contains a lot of quotes and documentation on US support for Saddam Hussein from 1980 to 1990. Some of these sources may be familiar to most readers...some may not. In response to an earlier post where I remarked on the decade of US Republican support for Saddam, the nitwit troll Captain Fantastic asked me: "How long are people like you going to flog the lie about how we supported Saddam?" Obviously, he's either an idiot or he's being disingenuous. But in light of this "strategy," I thought I'd post this stuff for anyone who needs quick access to some in-depth Iraqgate info with lots of citations. I've gone out of my way to use mainstream, government, nonpartisan, and right-wing sources for this info, lest some troll accuse me of frequenting "hippie websites." Save this link...you might want to dredge this stuff up at some point!

Jews and Moslems have so many problems between each other because of these people from other parts of the world playing arming and aiding games with one or

For those not in the know, Black also owns papers in the US, Canada, and the Jerusalem Post. He is a rather hysterical ultra-Likudnik Zionist and brokers no criticism of Israel. I would like to think that he would be responsible enough not to interfere with his editors and papers, but he and his wife have publicly attacked their editors and reporters for what they see as an anti-Israel bias in reporting, in one specific case, on the suffering of the Palestinians and the suggestion that maybe, just maybe, the Israelis use too much force in civilian areas. Anyway, it will be interesting to watch this - libel laws in Britain are on the side of Galloway in this one. More on Conrad Black: <http://slate.msn.com/id/114605/>----- comment#315002 IMC Palestine unfortunately seems to have fallen apart some time back as a collective. Those with the password lack the technical competence to manage the site. Their penchant for one-party rule drove away those who helped get the site up and running and discouraged others from getting involved. With no apparent policy to weed out the neo-Nazis and hate-mongers posting trash that discredits the Palestinian cause, the site basically became a cesspool where the lowest dregs of the internet collected. This is most unfortunate as the Palestinians need credible means to post news and commentary. What it has become is anything but that. There are significant reasons to believe that IMC-P is no longer run according to even the most generous reading of the IMC Principles that could be made. However, the IMC network has no effective provisions for dealing with such a situation. It might be best at this time if the present IMC Palestine becomes a dead link, to be replaced eventually by another credible and diverse collective that adheres to IMC Principles, but that is just my opinion. How that might come about will surely be the subject of lengthy and contentious discussion.

315222 (excerpt): This has lead me to wonder if, in general, a worldwide "currency war" is currently being waged behind the scenes between the US dollar and the Euro to determine which one is going to become the global dominant standard, with the economy of the loser in this war essentially collapsing. One way to determine if this is true is to figure out which privately owned international banks stand to lose or gain based on the outcome of this conflict as a result of which central banking systems (and currencies) they control. This point is interesting because Wim Duisenberg, who runs the EU central bank (was he replaced recently?), has a wife who is notorious in the European press for constant Jew-bashing and rhetorical attacks against Israel and it is well known that Jewish interests control the American Federal Reserve system (the Fed is a privately owned corporation) and probably the British central bank as well. It does not seem possible that the European central bank could be Jew-dominated if someone like Duisenberg was given the senior management over it, but I don't know if this is true. It would be interesting to know more about what private interests, if any, currently own the EU central bank and what effect did the conversion of Germany away from the Deutsche Mark, and France away from the Franc, to the Euro have on banking dynasties like the Rothschilds, Kuhn Loeb, Lehman, Warburgs, etc. (who own the US Fed)? ----- Global Oil, Dollars, and Euros--- re-search 9:29pm Sun Apr 27 '03 comment#315262 OIL, PETRODOLLARS, AND THE OPEC EURO QUESTION <http://ist-socrates.berkeley.edu/~pdscott/iraq.html> --- Dollars, Euros, and Oil http://ming.tv/flemming2.php/_show_article/_a000010-000538/ ----- Excellent article by C Nunan: "Oil, Currency and the War on Iraq".

The elfers find their justification in just this part of reasoning, though it's only good for drawing (nevertheless much needed) attention to a problem in the ol' eye for an eye fashion, sure as ever to escalate and ravish life far beyond contestants (perps, victims and champions alike). Animals are gullible, easily duped, quite like humans in fact. Can't even really say that they are more so (look at the bees and ants). So it is not fair or more verifiable than not to say they would never abuse it as massively and opaquely hierarchical as humans do. Not on that ground could Orwell's 'animal farm' and the little known but in my opinion better (besides much more massive) Maarten Toonder's work (spanning decades of illustrated animal farm type stories) be called unfair. But what is decidedly different is the organicity and inoffensiveness to biology of animal behaviour; I like to think animal bioindustry receives the punishment of miniaturization, nature's way of literal belittlement; I think Japan as the world's oldest island culture is showing signs of such anaemia. ----- Human's are reckless and inconsiderate on a massive scale though. Their massive firepower meant they won any set-piece battle, but it also meant that they accidentally killed so many Iraqi civilians that they were the recruiting sergeants of the resistance. The army denied counting Iraqi civilian dead, which might be helpful in dealing with American public opinion. But Iraqis knew how many of their people were dying." ... concluding paragraph: "Almost exactly a century ago the Russian empire fought a war with Japan in the belief that a swift victory would strengthen the powers-that-be in St Petersburg. Instead the Tsar's armies met defeat. Russian generals, who said that their tactic of charging Japanese machine guns with sabre-wielding cavalry had failed only because their men had attacked with insufficient brio, held their jobs. In Iraq, American generals and their political masters of demonstrable incompetence are not fired. The US is turning out to be much less of a military and political superpower than the rest of the world had supposed." ---- Patrick Cockburn in the Independent may 15

http://search.news.yahoo.com/.news_photos One of the tragicomic ironies of history is that hardship induced migration causes farreaching demographic tremors in turn. These shifts are misunderstood due to gigantic reversals taking place in the process of relocation. Let's for example project/transpose/reflect middle eastern conditions upon a country like holland: the immigrants in the latter, though they sympathize with the palis, actually behave more like the USraelis. This is not at first sight apparant, the fact these parasites take pride in calling themselves hollanders and in shaping their destiny (rather than distorting that of their host) and the merely modest means used are deceptive since not a matter of choice and ethics but expedience, a making do with what happens to be at their disposal at this time -- the warfare of cowardly goodfornothings and unfortunate folks whose decent folks were robbed of all dignity honour and sovereignty alike is usually of the farming type that comes easy: methodically praise the planting of seeds ... in bullied women's wombs at the highest rate possible; since the routine such dominance serving offspring are bred to learn follow and live out is destructive to earth's carrying capacity this demographic cheapens a man's life to the effect and extent that the pool of prospective and desparate martyrmeat will be at all times replenished ... just like capitalism chases folks off the land into the cities, out of autonomy and sovereignty into the overflowing army of labour prices lowering 'reservoir' of the unemployed' (constituting a nice reason to further the development of surveillance and control tec).

What is this obsession about left guilt? 50 years ago, Harold Rosenberg (no relation) wrote an essay titled Couch Liberalism and the Guilty Past:

"Half of Fiedler's book is devoted to an essay apiece on the Hiss Case, the Rosenberg Case and McCarthy, in each of which it turns out that we intellectuals with our "shorthand" that the people cannot understand aredeeply implicated: the rest of the book consists of literary essays with a strong discovery-of-the-true-America motif.

"Fiedler's essays blend the new fake-liberal "we" with that of the old fake-liberal fellow traveler to produce a "liberal" who shares the guilt for Stalin's crimes through the fact alone of having held liberal or radical opinions, /even anti-Communist ones! /For Fiedler /all /liberals are contaminated by the past, if by nothing else than through having spoken the code language of intellectuals.

"Fertilized by Left-wing sophistication and by Freud, Fiedler's essays are confessions on another plane than autobiography. He has no facts to relate—one does not learn that he ever did anything in politics. The guilt he assumes is that of an essence; he confesses for the guilty "we" without an "I." His theorizing about American politics derives from a vision of wrestling stereotypes, Right and Left wing, in which the collective Left sinks under a bad conscience. As one of our new volunteer cultural ambassadors "explaining us" to the Europeans, Fiedler must have done as much as anyone to confirm the belief that everybody in America lives on a billboard...."

----- Blast from the past Mark Twain
"If the statistics are right, the Jews constitute but one percent of the human race. It suggests a nebulous dim puff of star dust lost in the blaze of the Milky Way. Properly the Jew ought hardly to be heard of, but he is heard of, has always been heard of. He is as prominent on the planet as any other people, and his commercial importance is extravagantly out of proportion to the smallness of his bulk. His contributions to the world's list of great names in literature, science, art, music, finance, medicine, and abstruse learning are also away out of proportion to the weakness of his numbers. He has made a marvellous fight in the world, in all the ages; and has done it with his hands tied behind him. He could be vain of himself, and be excused for it. The Egyptian, the Babylonian, and the Persian rose, filled the planet with sound and splendor, then faded to dream-stuff and passed away; the Greek and the Roman followed, and made a vast noise, and they are gone; other peoples have sprung up and held their torch high for a time, but it burned out, and they sit in twilight now, or have vanished. The Jew saw them all, beat them all, and is now what he always was, exhibiting no decadence, no infirmities of age, no weakening of his parts, no slowing of his energies, no dulling of his alert and aggressive mind. All things are mortal but the Jew; all other forces pass, but he remains. What is the secret of his immortality?" Mark Twain

----- my answer: thanks for thinking of me after all this water under the bridge; funny thing I should have cried yesterday seeing Madonna name a falcon as her favorite animal in a live, and participating, audience MTV interview/performance. You see, I mentioned that very name as the brand of the cicle that got me my cheapest cross country trip (sometime during the 80ties) ever somewhere in my pages. I found this to have odd echos with the fact that I sent her a fax mentioning Lourdes as next destination from northern Spain while she was in the southern part of it to do her bullfighter affair. 9 months after she uses that word to name her firstborn. I think it's all a little too heavy for me, for you and probably for us combined; why not throw notorious whorehater Mark Seeley in for good measure? Long live idiot savantry. On the more serious aspects of life, poly-ticks. The amputated but nonetheless principally the same as ever so many and invisibly handed clockwork has been exposed to have a lot of vicious and shortcircuitry on top of its already crippling handicaps here in Holland; Gerard van Westerloo's new book tells of it. I don't expect to see it translated any time soon. Another real shocker in the media yesterday was a BBC program by Ronen Bergman (israeli journalist looking into radiation dangers) appearing in a documentary on Vanunu [vs Hoviz], etc, made by Olenka Frenkiel and Giselle Portenier. Seems like an angel vs devil or reformed vs orthodox devil deal rather. Do you think he will live to tell; the adoptee parents of his ended up getting to see him (recently, during this, his last of a 16 year sentence) and hearing him optimistic about leaving Israel. Hoviz let it be known that left up to him (it seems to be) it's a nono. He already has everybody else scared enough. A big Dutch daily has exposed the late Aflaq as an evil Nazi and carried a gripping story about a Bin Laden bodyguard who ended up top secret spiller for the justice system in a country where he had sold his body for a while before bigger and better adventures. Apparently he had soaked up enough love to balk at the missions he was expected to partake of. On this note, I wonder if foreigners entering Israel in order to victimize some of its inhabitants along with themselves will become a trend. I often see similar prospective and/or post inductees and assorted candidate terrorfodder folk sitting around in the central university library (quite peaceful a lot of the time, till they vent their irritation). Dutch Arab Euro League leaders are shown up to be fully ensconced in massive crime operations (selling stolen Dell's by the dozen on day, selling them via google groups using their own e-mail, plain for all to see, the next, without apparant and expected consequences). The arab has perfected the art of sounding pissed off (and 'verongelijkt' = literally: inequaled, in the sense of discriminated against). Eminence front, it's a put on - isn't that a pete townsend line or am I mishearing once again?

----- by the way, I missed the beginning of that tv program about israel's nuclear ambiguity and capabilities; I came in at the moment where the narrator goes: "when kennedy died pressure on israel fell away" that makes on think don't it???? I mean up until that point israelis managed to hide a number of stacked stories into the ground below their little experimental station, much like the Damanhur community hid the many stories of their temple dug into the ground; funny how rockets seem to be spawned underground all the time . . . -----

Ivry Dov: I don't think Kennedy or no Kennedy could have stopped the Israelis in those days. They were expecting a war of annihilation from Nasser with the support of other Arab nations and it came in 67. The idea then was before the country falls someone will get a mushroom up their ass. But as it turned thankfully it was a short war in 67 and mushrooms weren't needed. Besides this Kennedy was the one that dragged America deeper into Vietnam and the Americans' whole attention was focused on that war throughout the entire period and the closer threat of Cuban missiles. I think we have 100 warheads today if I recall the last published estimate. But you can probably get this information from someone like Jane and I am sure the whole history from objective sources is floating around the Internet as well. ---- At this point I don't think anyone is going to bother Vanunu. If he's done his time, he can be on his way. I'm sure people, and they seem to be many these days, who are looking for weapons of mass destruction in the Middle East will be happy to talk to him. But we're not North Korea and ours aren't aimed at the Americans so I don't think he'll get much of an audience there. When I did my stint in the reserve army -- I'm too old now -- I was in the chemical identification section. So we got called up during the first Iraq War and the idea was that if a chemical missile landed, and it was in our sector, we had to identify what kind of chemical it was. Every time a scud came over we had to jump up and put on our space suits and run for the trucks. But only once did the trucks roll out -- I was in the north, not a highly-hit area.. During my training the 80s it was explained to us that Syria had these chemical weapons and the delivery systems (Syria was a Soviet client then) and that's what we were preparing for, not Iraq (which was occupied with Iran at the time.) I'm sure they still have them regardless of what Assad Jr. tells Powell. The son, of course, is not the father yet. He seems to a fellow with no particular bent on evil. Assad Sr. on the other hand once wiped out a city in Syria of 100,000, killed them all, because they were criticizing his regime. I think the whole situation in the Middle East has now changed for the better and if the Iraqis choose to adopt some kind of democracy even at the level of Turkey it would make this part of the world much safer for all concerned. Way back in 82 when Menachem Begin knocked out the Iraqi atomic plant which was on the threshold of making a bomb, Israel got criticized by the entire world. The Americans posthumously thanked him in 91, but if he hadn't acted, all of history could have been much worse. Jonathan Pollard, I don't know if you know his story, is paying a heavy price for his role in keeping Israel informed of developments during the 80s in Iraq

among other places. Unlike Vanunu he will not be let out at any time soon. We get two kinds of foreigners here coming to express their political views against us. The first simply go into the Arab territories and try to help the people, which is laudatory, and as long as they stay out of the way, nothing will happen to them. If they lie down in front of tractors they're going to get run over. They have no one to blame but themselves. The other kind, going back to the Japanese Red Army airport bomber in 70s at least, come here to cause mayhem. Our forces try to catch these people before they can execute their plans but every now and then some do succeed. On the Arabs generally. I know many and I've worked with them and as a rule they are a very nice group of people, cultured and polite individuals. But the representatives they send to the legislature are the most radical, unstable, loud-mouthed bunch of provocateurs that you can imagine. There is an explanation. The Arabs are always complaining that they are being discriminated against and receiving inferior services from the government than the Jews do. This actually proves it. The government does not build enough mental hospitals in the Arab sector so they don't know what to do with these people so they send to Jerusalem to the legislature. (That's a joke by the way). ----- If you get a chance or you have some spare change to buy the CD, I recommend this movie "Raging Dove" on the career of the boxer Johar Abu Lashin, an Israeli Arab who won a world professional title in 1992.

nfct.org.il/movies/Raging_Dove_e.htm This gives you a very good insight into the Arab society in Israel. Johar was almost ignored by the media in Israel and he attributed it to the fact that he was an Arab but this is only partially true. And I told this to his current manager in Cleveland. The fact is that the Israelis are interested in only two sports, what you call football and basketball. Anything else simply does not hold their attention span. Had he been a Jew he might have done better with the media but then again if his personality had been different he might have done better as well. I say that because there are a number of top-flight Arab soccer players and they play for the national team and receive all the accolades the Jewish players do. But it is an excellent movie. ----- If you are interested as well I've got another essay up which is called: Why Jews are in the world. root-1.co.il/jewishrole.htm

gosh, and I thought this was about timing tricks too. this is his latest, including a solution: the pink swastika (he is all for israel by the way, claiming it's the only country with a legit deed to their land; go figure):

Big bodies and little brains, on dinosaurs and humanoids The Sadducee Printouts, the book that is the core of the site, was completed in 1996 before I was aware of the Internet and revised in 1999 before I got on to it. So it's set up as a conventional book meant to be read consecutively from start to finish and structured to work in that fashion. But the Internet is a medium that functions by different rules. The topics have to be served up in bite-sized morsels or they simply are missed as often as not by the search engines. What I've done to adjust to the demands of the Internet to write short pieces on specific topics found in the book and these seem to be meet the algorithmic demands on this medium far better than the original. This piece is another one in this series. The page explains how I perceive the role of the Jews on this globe and also why I think Velikovsky's revised Egyptian chronology is right more or less as it relates to the Jews. He started at the Exodus; I came in from the other side. I'm giving you this here in a summary fashion. If you want the details and explanations I'm afraid you are going to have to read the book or at least make a start. 1. There is one Supreme Being but Her gender is feminine, not masculine. This comes through when the Hebrew word "Elohim" is translated correctly into all other languages. It's Goddess outside Israel, God inside. This sets up what I call complementary thealogy. 2. Israel has a contract on its land. All other lands have been taken by force and are held illegally. Israel's is the enabling contract. The other nations receive their deeds from the Goddess at the Temple in Jerusalem via the high priest, who has the Peace Covenant for the world given originally to Pinchas, whose name is Egyptian and means Negro. Negro is the Prince of Peace. The size of the other nations is fixed to Israel and once everyone have their contracts with legal boundaries there is no further cause for war. 3. The new nations are matriarchal under Goddess. All existing nations are swept away. Israel is here to provide a contra in the global structure, and in practical terms, to manage the Temple. 4. There is no such thing as religion, there is only calendar. The three working possibilities are solar, lunar, and lunisolar. Belief in material (read: imaginary) gods is determined not by human consciousness but by the atoms which make up the being. They turn naturally to the most powerful forces, which are the Sun and the Moon. A solar calendar produces a masculine god at the top of the pantheon, the pantheon reflecting the rest of what's in the heavens; a lunisolar calendar will produce first a masculine god which will go to a feminine goddess in time meaning it's the night Moon. But if it's a day Moon on the pure lunar calendar, the god will remain masculine. 5. The Israeli calendar is not fixed on a material body rather on a cessation of work at a periodic time. This is the mark of Goddess so that the human consciousness can come to the fore and the dog can start wagging the tail, a complete reversal from the existing state of affairs. 6. The greatest danger to humanity is the solar calendar since it leads to total destruction. The atoms are incessantly driving towards turning the planet into a little Sun. It's only natural since life itself is a disturbance of the prevailing dead order of things. The lunar calendar simply supports the effort. The societies produced by these calendars go under the heading of Patriarchy. <http://www.root-1.co.il/jewishrole.htm> -----/IVRY part 2

Are they accurate? Wounds 3 and 4 were created by the towers collapsing, so they can be listed for every floor. Here they are only pictured for the base to conform with the picture that matches the reported wounds of Jesus. Wound 5 is a neighboring building. Many neighboring buildings were damaged. If the collapse makes it a wound, then consistency would place the wound at the base like with the two tall towers. Mark Seely is making noise to make things fit his view. He accuses others of being vermin for doing less. ----- Should Mark Seely be excluded from society? ??? curious 10:14am Thu May 8 '03 comment#317856 Hey Seely, where's this picture from? I don't recall the WTC being right on the shore of the Hudson. ----- Response to good questions Mark Seely 12:53pm Thu May 8 '03 comment#317902 The placement of "wounds" 1 and 2 are estimates. I used a ruler to estimate the 80th and 60th floors, out of 110 floors. The placement of the "wounds" is not what I consider to be most important. Rather, the number of wounds, five, is what I find to be compelling; that is, the two airplane strikes and the three (most talked about) building collapses--towers 1, 2, and 7. An argument can be made for the placement of the wounds, however. The airplane strikes are near the "hands," and a building collapse implicates the base, and so that is near the "feet." And an argument can be made for the "wound" of Tower 7 as being off to the "side." The times of day of these five events were presented on the website RumorMillNews.com within days, summarized in a table-like manner, which raised my suspicion. In other words, I was suspicious of this presentation of information as being strange. Therefore I decided to look into the timing. It took me eleven months to find that the average time of day of these five events (as reported by the Washington Post and RumorMillNews) was 666 minutes into the day, 11:06 AM. It only took me four months to calculate and publicize this average time of 11:06 AM, but I did not recognize at that time that this was 666 minutes into the day. When I publicized my preliminary findings in January 2002 (minus the 666 info), the website American Patriot Friends Network deleted my posts and stopped accepting all posts from the public, and the website RumorMillNews deleted all of my posts from the previous few years. (I must say here that my publication of my findings was in the form of a hoax email made to look like it came from RumorMillNews.) The old imperial cry of "you can make numbers do anything you want," or whatever, is a lie, pure and simple. They say that to cover their asses, because they are indeed doing things like 9-11 by numbers. The more little bitches among the public that they have trying to beat down people like me, the less challenge there is to their power base. I am trying to wound their feet, do you hear? "Ask me about how the Pope endorses a movie that says '666' is God" <http://www.angelfire.com/moon/busta/> ----- I forgot to mention (english) Mark Seely 12:59pm Thu May 8 '03 comment#317905 The placement of the "hand" wounds is indeed important in this way: the midpoint of the two airplane strikes is 63% of the way up the towers. That is a typical dimension for a Christian cross, which I have found varies between 63% to 67%. There is more about that on my website

. -----scarecrow in state of undress and (english) piet 1:20pm Thu May 8 '03 comment#317914 demotion in order to rack up the credit for coming back and bring 'the' judgement is a poor anthropomorphosizing simile and personification for a sun that grows more and more 'naked' and severe under patriarchal conditions, that is those which 'stimulate' surroundings to desertify fast. In that sense allow me to cite once more:

<http://www.root-1.co.il/jewishrole.htm> 14. Cleopatra, the last native pharaoh, gave the solar calendar to Julius Caesar, the leader of Rome. Very soon the swastika appeared again over the Jews as the first symbol of the new solar calendar god known in Greek as Iesous who would headquartered in Rome. This is the scarecrow the Christians worship. The thing probably came from Egypt as well. "Iesous" was a common name in Greek and had a routine corresponding name in Hebrew, "Yeshua." In Hebrew all names have meanings unless they are taken straight from a foreign language. This Greek god Iesous became known in Hebrew as "Yeshu," a meaningless agglomeration of letters. This means that the Greek and the Hebrew line up with a third language and that could only have been Egyptian. A millenium of darkness ensued with the coming of this idol. 15. The second coming of the swastika happened just the other day. As in the first coming, it was a catastrophe of boundless proportions. The meaning was the same as the first time: No progress had been made against ridding the world of the solar calendar. 16. The Sun shares the sky with the Moon but during the day it's not seen and so those on the pure lunar calendar do not employ images of their god, which is a meteorite. But this lunar calendar is a wholly owned subsidiary of the solar calendar because the Sun rules the day and the drive here also is to the final destruction. ---- 24. Then there is the question of who is the Messiah? The concept of Messiah is about as useful to the species a fifth wheel on an automobile, but it has a practical purpose as a trap. Since gods are merely empty words it was recognized that if the Tanakh, the Hebrew Bible, were ever translated from Hebrew into a masculine-based language, inevitably words taken from it would be made into gods. The Tanakh gave them "Messiah," which went into the Greek as "Christos." This word was then made to represent a scarecrow who became the pillar holding up use of the solar calendar. The Greeks fell for the ruse since the real Messiah in Israel is a female since her role is to help bring about the Matriarchy.

There is no shortage of anti jew/arab/gay/women/etc posts that are regularly hidden. The site editors don't even come close to being able to monitor all posts all the time, so letting us know is very helpful. If you poke around the Indymedia mail archives you'll find discussion at various times see discussion on Google news and why it picks up Indymedia when searching for Nazi posts. Someone looked around and found that most of the posts that Google News was indexing were from the SF IMC site and that they were hidden posts. A link to hidden posts is on the SF IMC front page making them more findable by search bots than content hidden in the site. It is also probably true that most of the rest of the sites indexed by Google News do not contain any anti jewish postings, thus making Indymedia stand out when searches are done. This makes sense, as most of the rest of the sites are not open posting or are moderated more heavily. There's some discussion of Google's attitude toward Indymedia (and Infoshop) here: infoshop.org/inews/stories.php?story=03/03/21/6866697 Google at least claims to be making the call based on original and edited content, not the political persuasion of the content. -----

If the current terrorists who have run Palestine for 40 years are allowed to control the state, then once it's a strong state they'll probably just go right back to attacking Israel, resulting in a giant war, which no one should want. -----

69488 dc (left column in table before last above, continued): Michael Hoffman?!?!? by Troll-Free Call 12:50pm Fri May 16 '03 With friends like these, Indymedia's bright future is assured. Of course, anyone can recommend any articles by anyone, any time. Viva free speech! But I just have to say that in my opinion, Hoffman's views on Jews, blacks, and just about everything else comprise about as crazy a collection of fever-dream gibberish as I've ever seen in my life. Entertaining, sometimes...but completely demented nonetheless. And the "Talmud" argument--while cute 'n' clever--is about as impressive as the extreme-right Social Darwinists who attack the Constitution and Declaration of Independence for not providing for the laws of eugenics, and therefore being hateful "anti-life" documents that have saddled humanity with the political sophistries and social costs of the weak and infirm. It's pretty easy to write things. And it's pretty easy to find evidence for what you believe, no matter how perverse it is. The ways in which this can be done, and the ways in which the knots of logic thus formed can be unraveled, are interesting. Which is why Hoffman and his ilk perform a valuable service, by demonstrating the fallibility of logic uninformed by compassion or wisdom. And I suppose that in the end all of our houses are built on sand to a greater or lesser extent...even those of us who lead lives of simple Piet(y) are prone to spout nonsense...so figures like Hoffman are useful as a sort of lighthouse warning us away from the shoals. Just one man's opinion, of course. ----- Troll-Free Call by Jim Moran's Fat Ass 1:41pm Fri May 16 '03 You're starting to sound like "Leftist Bitch" and "Gringo Starrs is a PA-Tool", not to mention the legendary, "GRINGO STARR is a Nazi" or for that matter, "Captain Fantastic". Respectfully, Jim Moran's Fat Ass ----- Thanks for the warning, JMFA... by Troll-Free Call 6:30pm Fri May 16 '03 But I'm afraid I'm not yet qualified to join the ranks of the elite thinkers you mentioned. Because even though anti-Semitic, anti-black, revisionist lunatics like Hoffman offend me, I'm also offended by people who try to deflect principled criticism of Israeli policies by cynically exploiting the tragic history of the Jewish people. There's something deeply immoral about using the Jews' centuries of suffering and oppression and victimhood in service of a petty criminal like Sharon. I see this as deeply disrespectful to the memories of millions of martyred human beings. And I also think that by trying to deny Jewish progressives a voice in the direction of Israel--by calling them vicious names like "self-hating Jews," simply because their use consciences will not permit them to accept a particular extremist worldview--far-right Jews are themselves guilty of selling out traditional religious AND secular Jewish (and human) values. (For example, I know an American Jew who fought against Hitler in WWII. And while in Germany, his company took over Himmler's summer villa. His fellow soldiers pulled all the books off the shelf and started to make a bonfire, and my acquaintance told them to stop, because he felt that burning books was a behavior typical of Nazis, and as such was beneath the dignity of good men. There's no need to describe here what this deeply honorable man thinks of John Ashcroft.) It's not really a liberal/conservative thing with me. I know conservatives who are honest and moral, and I know leftists who are vicious and dishonest. And I don't know anyone who's perfect...least of all me. One excellent litmus test for people's philosophies is whether or not a given person will use his or her beliefs to justify cruelty to children. When people see a child's body bleeding on the ground, I don't want them to invent a narrative that "explains" or justifies it....but to consider the possibility that humanity en masse has taken a wrong turn yet again. Which makes me a typically naive leftist crybaby, I guess. I don't want to see Israeli children blown to pieces, or Palestinian children being shot in the head. And to the extent that people can explain such events in "rational" terms--anesthetizing a wound that people OUGHT to feel--I think they've forfeited their humanity. And at that point, they're capable of just about any evil imaginable. I know this kind of talk doesn't impress you much, though....so I won't waste any more of your time! I will take your comment as a compliment, though...inasmuch as whatever else you might despise about me, you at least concede that I'm not a "Jew-hater." An inch or two of common ground comes in handy, sometimes. ----- Ha ha, good one, TFC by Jim Moran's Fat Ass 9:09am Sat May 17 '03 "Because even though anti-Semitic, anti-black, revisionist lunatics like Hoffman offend me, I'm also offended by people who try to deflect principled criticism of Israeli policies by cynically exploiting the tragic history of the Jewish people." Thanks for heads-up that Indymedia is the place to come for "principled criticism of Israeli policies"! I guess the subtle nuances of the Indymedia "anti-Zionists" eluded me. ----- and... by people 1:28pm Sat May 17 '03 Of course, not all criticisms of Israel that get posted here are, in fact, principled or free of anti-semitic motives. And while the history of the holocaust can be misused in such debates, it's also sometimes pertinent. I'm not disagreeing with you: plenty of criticisms of Israel are justified and have nothing to do with anti-jewish sentiment. And yes, the holocaust is at times misused in deflecting these valid criticisms. I just wanted to point out the complexity here. ----- People / JFMA by Troll-Free Call 2:23pm Sat May 17 '03 Thanks, People, for making a point that I should've been careful to make at the outset, knowing how trolls operate. Of course Indymedia is not THE place to come for principled critique of Israel, it's A place to come...one among many. Some of what is said here is principled, and some isn't. Trolls, however, make a knowing attempt to blur the distinction between principled and unprincipled criticism...which was the point of my remarks. Bringing up anti-Semitism, the Holocaust, etc in response to an anti-Jewish post is perfectly reasonable. But that's not what I was talking about. I was talking about bringing these things up in response to principled critiques by honest people, in order to tar them with the brush of anti-Semitism and defuse their arguments. This is what I was referring to as disrespectful to the memory of martyred Jewry. In some ways, People's right: it IS complicated...and at the same time, it's really not. No government can represent a race, and no race can represent every individual of that race. Every race consists of people, and people vary. As a state, Israel cannot represent all Jews, and no subset of Jews can represent the views of all Jews. The subset of Jews who admire Hitler is going to be vanishingly small. But the subset who dislike and distrust Sharon, or who are anti-Occupation, is by no means negligible. All of us understand that the Christian Right doesn't represent all Americans; therefore, all of us should understand that the Likkud party doesn't represent all Israelis. All of us understand that criticising right-wing politicians isn't un-American, therefore all of us should understand that criticizing Likkudniks isn't anti-Jewish. At the same time, the massive fact of Jewish suffering requires us to be very careful of how we frame critiques of Israeli policies. I've argued in the past for using terminology like "far-right" or "extremist"...rather than blanket terms like "Jews" or "Israelis," which are open to misinterpretation even by non-trolls. Even criticism of "Israel"--which criticism should clearly refer to the policies of a specific government, rather than every citizen of the country--is subject to this misinterpretation. Using terminology carefully is useful for taking a potent weapon away from trolls, and for keeping perspective, and for respecting both the suffering of Jews and their huge contributions to social justice movements (including the anti-Occupation movement).

It is unfair to tar ANY IMC with the brush of anti-Semitism. Most IMCs have policies that deal effectively with much of the garbage that washes up on the internet. A few do not do as good a job as they should, somehow believing that they cannot make a judgement about a few bad actors who specialize in shading their material just enough to leave doubts about what they post that are wide enough to leave this crap up, making it too easy for people to spread hate. Most every IMC does hide the more blatant attempts by hate-spammers intended to exploit our network for their own perverted purposes. It is unfair to charge the IMC network with such crap because of a few posters (and it is really surprisingly few people who engage in the vast majority of this sort of behavior on IMC -- just that those who do use multiple screen names and anonymous proxies to make it seem like they represent a far larger proportion of IMC readers than they really are) on the Open Newswire. People, here's the thing: Okay, sure, IndyMedia isn't a true news source -- it probably doesn't deserve any more of a role on Google News than Little Green Footballs. BUT: Google News continues to host ChronWatch, among other nutty non-news services. ChronWatch, from all appearances, is three or four angry bloggers who hate the San Francisco Chronicle and think it's funny that Rachel Corrie got run over. I wrote them a couple times to ask them why they'd host ChronWatch if they don't host blogs, generally speaking, on this ostensibly news-oriented service. They said they'd remove it, actually -- and they haven't. This was a while back. Interesting that this discussion should be taking place as Google is considering moving blogs out of its main search area, don't you think? In any case, Google News's index is funky, and IndyMedia is hardly the only oddball choice included that isn't a real news service. There's one called GOPTx or something like that -- last tiime I checked, the headline was something like "WHHHHHHHHHHEEEEE-HAAAA! We

"ChuckO wrote a good article some months back about how some Indymedias allow too much racism and sexism and other terrible things to go on in the interest of "free speech," which winds up playing into the hands of the Nazis and the sexists

Complete crap! Truth is that the right and often racist plus respectful regarding sex differences that apply to the vast majority (and the more so the more you separate/specialize) don't have anything close to mainstream outlets; they are left with borderline prosecuted and/or offshore places and hence seem (to be and come) thicker than they would under better conditions. This builds the sort of tension which when, even though too little too late, lucky enough to find humane 'remediators' (pim fortuyn!!!!) able to fit and work a valve to defuse the most dangerous levels, shocks the pc mainstream half awake plain and simple, plus it sends its vanguards and shocktroop 'radicals' into murderous spasm. With few free speech outlets available it is no wonder you will see a disproportionate amount of frowned on and indeed questionable stuff; but what do you see when highly massified societies delegate the upkeep of defenses???? Their members are shekel slaves shackled to work routines 'necessary' in order to keep up with payments (pulled from them by a giant labyrinthine 'suckstitution', groundrule of which dicktaters that you can't want cheaper and better and fails to confess that this rule only applies when you want more of the perniciously same thing) that buy the illusion you payed for space under an umbrella offering expert protection. Leftists claim to look (out, after, for) what we truly share but even the greens have leaned into the mainstream left (in order to 'govern', a fall in a deep trap in itself) and stare at real or imagined privileges rather than basics. Most likely development down the road is the greens becoming mainstream when little real green left; like islam (the religion of restraint emanating from what was once the most productively perpetrating all manner of the most lavish among luxuries) into pressure building and spasmodic release under general conditions of cruelty. Human beings are serious failures and not just those that are not ashamed to being racist and sexist but not going about it very tactfully. the foregoing was a response to some fellow participant's chuckin up a quote. Instead of constructing vacuous universalisms, which had inadequate popular appeal even before the USA launched into its post-9/11 wave of aggressions, I suggest you try harder to find something good in the various nationalist oppositions to US hegemony. We see that in the late 1980s, Ramsey Clark championed Linnas, defending him against deportation, flying to his deathbed in Leningrad and later using his case to appeal for compassion for East European Nazis. In making this appeal, Clark outdid the Reagan administration official, Pat Buchanan, who, in the 1980s, was a ferocious defender of East European Nazis. --- My Weasels Tell Me Jared Has Sold Out Rowan Berkeley 11:35pm Thu Jun 19 '03 comment#327747 I became a fan, briefly, because of the exposures of the bogus nature of the Srebrenica massacre and NATO's pursuit of Serbia. It seems to me that Israel (and by extension the war on Ismalist terrorism) is the subject where Jews can go and feel safe with the American right wing. They know the right is a bunch of bigots but Israel is that eye of the hate storm where Jews can bond with the American power structure. By Steven G. Kellman In "Lost Tribe: Jewish Fiction from inspiration for his collection of 25 stories originated in

organized at the KGB Bar in New York's East Village.
Given the Jewish contribution to ethical thought and the hypertrophied superego found in many children of Israel,
"bad Jew" seems like an oxymoron. But Karl Marx, Sigmund Freud, Emma Goldman, Groucho Marx, Lenny Bruce, Bob Dylan and others have also made the term a tautology, as if the only good Jew is a bad Jew, a creative troublemaker. The only good writer, Jew or gentile, defies conventions and scorns cliches.

fordham.edu/halsall/jewish/lazare-anti.html Jewish History Sourcebook: Bernard Lazare: Antisemitism: Its History and Causes, 1894 -- Note: Bernard Lazare This public domain text, in a messy format, was made available at an anti-semitic website with the following note:

This book overturns the ideological basis of both antisemitism and the Jewish apologetic literature. Its starts from the facts and athorough study of the relationship of the Jewish communities with their non-Jewish social environment. It is a REPLY to Drumont's confused antisemitism and to its mirror image in the fantasies entertained by many Jews on their own history. LAZARE died in 1903, before he could assess the development of Zionism, of which he was both one of the builders and one of the first critcs. One will find Lazare's book cited at many anti-semitic websites and in in anti-semitic publications. The reason for this is that Lazare conducted a major reveiw of the history of anti-semitism and, to a very large decree, can be read as having put the blame on Jews themselves.

This, however, is a misreading of his work. From the way he is cited by anti-semites it may come as something of a surprise to note that Lazare, a journalist, was famous as the first defender of Captain Dreyfus - the first Drefusyard. Moreover, he was perhaps the first French Jewish intellectual to commit fully to Zionism as a political solution. Here are comments by Aron Rodrigue. Bernard Lazare has interested commentators and historians not only for his contribution to the revision of the Dreyfus case but also for his distinction as the first French Jew to make the transition from an almost self-hating endorsement of total assimilation as a solution to the Jewish problem to a full embrace of the cause of Zionism. Lazare's deserved reputation as the first Dreyfusard in the public sphere became magnified by the extraordinary pen of Charles PÃ©guy, who elevated him to the rank of a Jewish Prophet, an incarnation of the essence of the Jewish "mystique," of the Jewish "prophetic" tradition. - Aron Rodrigue. "Rearticulations of French Jewish Identities after the Dreyfus Affair", Jewish Social Studies Volume 2, Number 3 [online at indiana.edu/~iupress/journals/jss-art.html]----- The material presented by Lazare is a valuable addition to online data about the history of Anti-semitism. Many of Lazare's explanations can be, and should, be challenged. But this is the work of a man trying to understand a phenomenon of hatred, not the work of a self-hating Jew. Paul Halsall

Sophie's place Sophie's Choice has been ranked among the hundred best novels of the twentieth century.1 But though it is a striking effort to write a modern tragedy, its historical importance owes little or nothing to its literary quality. William Styron's novel was William Styron a pioneering dissent on the Holocaust, a forceful challenge to prevailing opinion. Belonging to the second wave of Holocaust fiction in America, it was published in 1979, the same year as Philip Roth's Ghost Writer and Leslie Epstein's King of the Jews. Just the year before, NBC's miniseris Holocaust reached an audience of 120 million and Jimmy Carter also established the President's Commission on the Holocaust, which would lead to the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum. According to the museum's historian, these highly public events of 1978 "signaled that the Holocaust had moved not only from the periphery to the center of American Jewish consciousness, but to the center of national consciousness as well" (Linenthal 12). If the term had not been corrupted by neo-Nazis who deny the Holocaust, Sophie's Choice -- along with The Ghost Writer and The King of the Jews -- might appropriately be labeled revisionist accounts. Together they express irritation with the uncritical public reception of the Holocaust, which propelled its movement to the heart of the culture in the late seventies. Each novel sets out to epater les pietistes. Roth's fantasy that Anne Frank survived the war to become a creative writing student in America dispells the aura of sanctity surrounding Hitler's most famous victim; Epstein's portrait of a ghetto dictator punctures the assumption that under the Nazis every Jew was an innocent victim; and Styron's novel about the Polish Catholic woman who survived Auschwitz only to die tragically in America puts under interrogation the claim that the Holocaust was a uniquely Jewish catastrophe. Styron aims to show that some Christians (in his phrase) "suffered as much as any Jew."2

-- 359150 another Charles effort: There are certain predictable symptoms to watch when a widespread amorality begins to infect a postmodern society: cultural relativism, atheism, socialism, utopian pacifism. Europe's next two Muslim generations might well pursue the path to full participation as good Italians or Spaniards. Likewise their anger as a great, indigestible community of true believers might, as Schwartz suggests, tear apart the European Union. But there is a third way, a la Ottoman -- unexpected, but not unexampled. The first question is, why? We know what the Ottomans did, but what motivated them? The Ottomans after all came as conquerors: they could do as they pleased. Why would they recruit, elevate, and embrace the very people they were conquering? Perhaps they had no choice: they were but a tiny minority entering the Byzantine world. A melange civilization was a strategic necessity for the Ottomans. Arabs in Roman Europe have arrived not as conquerors but as lowly immigrants. They have lived at the margins, isolated and kept down. Of course they want to break out of their dead-end ghettos and share in the good life of French and Spanish and Italians. Ramadan enjoins Muslims to reform Islam and integrate into modernity and become full European citizens. But why must this be the only path of betterment for Europe's Muslims?

So why bother?Rowan's closing argument: Could it be that the Left is pretty much controlled by Jews, who in their age-old internal struggle against their own Right-wing (which means largely the Zionists), have adopted great hunks of Stalinist anti-German propaganda as a club to bludgeon all nationalists with, everywhere, for ever after?

1673003 Anti-Semitism vs. Anti-Zionism by Uri Avnery
With all due respect, etc., etc. by Angie Tuesday January 20, 2004 at 06:18 PM No one has to ask Uri what he is. I asked him already, and I presented his response here on the Board a few months ago. Rather than add to my leading total of "page cannot be displayed" episodes, I'll not give the URL for that particular thread from a few months ago. Uri said he was "a post Zionist". He also suggested I read his additional views on Zionism in his "80 Points" overview which can be found at: gush-shalom.org/archives/80points_eng.doc And he suggested I read "Israel without Zionists", his 1968 book dealing with the 1967 war, and which I'll keep searching for until I find same. And before anyone wonders whether or not he feels Gilad's comments were anti-semitic, I've asked him that too, and thus far, he has not seen them. I hadn't read the comments in this particular thread until now, having read Uri's column on Friday, and I've been extremely busy over the weekend. I'm astonished at the content of some posts with respect to Uri. Astonished and, yes, bewildered, and equally disbelieving. Like, excuse me, are we talking about dear Uri? The same Uri whose autographed photo I see whenever I glance up from the keyboard? The same Uri who, together with members of the international community, rushed to Arafat's dilapidated hovel in Ramallah following Sharon's announcement that he planned on expelling him from this world, and who intended to stay there for as long as it took, acting as human shields? THAT apologist for the terrorist Zionist Jewish state of Israel". Are we talking about the same Uri who, a few months ago on this board, was referred to as a self-hating Jew and terror apologist? Whose weekly columns loudly and clearly denounce Israeli atrocities of Palestinians and has done so for years? And whose condemnation of the "evil wall" is loud and constant?

Finally, I will cease to refer to Uri Avnery and other such left-wing Zionists as "so-called peace activists" when they demand without compromise the one-democratic-state solution of Palestine-Israel, where Israel is to be transformed into a true, secular democracy with completely equal rights for all regardless of religion, ethnicity, race or gender, as well as for the right to return of all the Palestinian refugees to their ancestral homeland of Palestine-Israel as it is their right according to UN Resolutions, International Law and world opinion. ----.Wendy

On Anti-Semitism by Gilad Atzmon by Gilad Atzmon Monday December 29, 2003 at 09:08 AM This is the original article, an excerpt of which has caused such consternation here lately. At our request, Gilad himself has supplied it to us via email. In the light of the growing discussion initiated by Israeli politicians and Zionist enthusiasts regarding the eruption of new anti-Semitism I am here to announce as loudly as I can:
there is no anti-Semitism any more. In the devastating reality created by the Jewish state, anti-Semitism has been replaced by political reaction. I am not suggesting that Jewish interests are not being mutilated and vandalized. I am not saying that synagogues aren't being attacked, that Jewish graves are not brutally smashed up. I am saying that these acts, that are in no way legitimate, should be seen as political responses rather than racially motivated acts or 'irrational' hate crimes. If Israel is the state of the Jewish people and the Jewish people themselves do not stand up collectively against the crimes that are committed on their behalf, then every Jewish person, Jewish symbol and Jewish object becomes an Israeli interest and a potential terrorist target. It is up to the Jewish people to take a stand against their Jewish state and to disassociate themselves from their zealous national movement. ... snip >>

'I have created this web site in order to make public some of my writings, especially those on the Middle East conflict. I want to reach Palestinian people in the hope of providing some comfort: I am a Jew and former Israeli who sees their suffering and acknowledges its origins. I want to reach Israelis in the hope that my views and feelings will perhaps help to free them from their trauma, enough to see the situation more clearly, and not only through the distorting lens of their fear. This site is also for the rest of the world. There is a lot about the Middle East conflict that is confusing, and I believe that my unique position allows me to cut through the confusion.
The Middle East conflict has implications for everyone because its origins lie with the trauma inflicted on the Jewish people in Europe by centuries of institutionalised persecution, racism and discrimination. If there is a lesson to be learned from the current situation in the Middle East, it is that trauma breeds trauma. If we want a safer and better world for everyone, we must stop all actions that inflict trauma on anyone anywhere.' ----- Anyone with half the sense of a worn out floorboard by M Greene Tuesday February 03, 2004 at 07:45 AM Dear Nessie, Like Atzmon, I am a severe critic of the Israeli government's current policy towards the Palestinians. But, as you so delightfully put it, "anyone with half the suss of a worn out floor board" realizes that he is an anti-semite - so let's at least agree to call a spade a spade ! Atzmon has made it perfectly clear that he hates Jews which is very different from hating the opinions of some Jews or the Israeli government. I would not be the least bit surprised either if one day his views cost him his life - that is precisely the point I was making in a previous message.
He is a complicated character and I can't help wondering whether dying a martyr to the anti-semitic cause may be exactly how he sees his fate, otherwise why on earth does he like to stir so much shit when he knows that it will only harden the resolve of those he detests so much and will never bring peace. His aggressive style contrasts markedly with that of the other ex Israeli referred to here - Avigail Abarbanel who, unlike Atzmon, IS a peacelover and knows how to talk peacefully while still maintaining her anti-Israel government stance. -----

2003/12/1668878.php ---- I, personally, am also fed up with being criticized as "soft on Zionism" just for letting you *sshholes spew your racist filth here at all. My rational for doing so is simple. You're too well armed to receive the serious butt whupping you so richly deserve. So, since the world can't force you to behave like decent human beings, I believe it behooves us to try to talk you into it. I must admit, that two years of trying this here, it has been a total failure. It's like trying to reason with Nazis and Klansmen. The only reason that a few of you are still being allowed to appear here at all is that by revealing your true nature, your own words do more harm to the Zionist cause than could ten thousand suicide bombers. ----- However, people whose judgment
we trust, and whose righteousness is beyond question, strongly criticize us, and me in particular, for allowing even that. So I give you fair warning. The interface cease their spamming, their trolling, and their racist invectives, and confine themselves to constructive discourse aimed at a just and lasting solution, they're out of here. ----- Now let's get back to the topic.

net.religion.jewish on Usenet (1984-87 or so), there was a fellow in Boston named Joachim Martillo who, from his postings, would best be described as a "sefardi supremacist". He used to post at length about "vuvvus Ashkenazic scum" and how Sefardim were much better. It was offensive and there was a fair bit of flaming, but I think most people took it in good humour. The phrase
"vuvvus Ashkenazic scum" thus entered our family vocabulary (my wife Simone was on Usenet at the time as well), and it comes to mind periodically when I say "vus?
vus?" to the kids (which I usually do if they start speaking English -- I profess not to hear them until they switch back to Yiddish). Any other Net old-timers remember Martillo? I was going to meet him when I was in Boston in 1987 for a conference, and we spoke on the phone but never connected in person. (Hmm, just checked dejanews and he's still very active on Usenet. Israel Shamir and Gilad Atzmon Share Their Views on Mel Gibson by Peace & Justice & Liberty for ALL Sunday February 08, 2004 at 02:16 PM ---- Mel Gibson's long-awaited controversial film "The Passion" will be out in theatres starting on Feb. 25. The Drama swirling around it continues... Take your kids to the movie by Israel Shamir --- The film of Mel Gibson grows into an important, maybe the important event of the year. There are unpleasant rumours (in the New York Times) that Mr Gibson gave in and decided to censure the Gospel. I hope it is not true, for a man who can give in and cut the Gospel is not worthy to make a film about Golgotha. 'To change even one letter in the Bible is like to destroy the world', says the Jewish wisdom, and I concur: if the Gospel, the most important part of the Bible, tells us of the High Priest of Jews that he accepted his responsibility for the verdict, Mr Gibson is not entitled to change it, even he were to be crucified himself. -- Naturally, the High Priest of antisemitism fighters, Abe Foxman, the guy who took bribe from Marc Rich the thief, is not worried about placid American Goyim attacking the innocent Jews. First, it is not bloody likely. Even if the Jews were to crucify Christ today in prime time on CNN, the Americans won't dare to object. Secondly, every attack on a Jew brings cash to Abe Foxman; he thrives on strife. He is worried about something else. <><>snip<><> The Washington columnist Joe Sobran wrote to me:

'the Mel Gibson's movie is being accused of "antisemitism" just for presenting the Gospel story. Have you noticed that Christianity, the Catholic Church, the popes, Martin Luther, many of the most eminent Christian authors, and the Gospels themselves are constantly called antisemitic? But not Jesus himself! Why not? Obviously someone is trying to tell us something with all these charges of antisemitism. Here is a man who antagonized the Jewish authorities of his day, incurring all their fury, and who has inspired TWO THOUSAND YEARS of antisemitism! Why does He get off the hook? Why don't they just come out and accuse Him? That's plainly what they're driving at. So let them say it. Remember, when they talk about "antisemitism" they're really talking about Jesus Christ. If they won't say it, we should'. -----

Indeed, this film can wake up the American Christians to the supreme sacrifice and glory of Christ. It will bring American 'Jews' to the crown of their long assimilation process - to the Church. It will set them free - for Christianity is freedom, first of all. And then the Holy Land will remain the socle of the Cross, not the base of Antichrist. -- Mel Gibson and the Judo-Christian myth. ----- By Gilad Atzmon

"I hope and I pray that you will join me in setting an example for all of our brethren; that the truest path to follow, the only path, is that of respect and, most importantly, that of love for each other despite our differences." (Mr. Mel. Gibson, Hollywood director, responding to a letter from Abraham Foxman, national director of the Jewish Anti-Defamation League who demands some cuts from so-called inflammatory scenes)

----- I find myself wondering whether it is possible that Mr. Foxman is really so concerned with the growth of anti-Semitism. In practice, it is his own reaction to Gibson's film that fuels far more anti Jewish feelings than the film itself. In a non-Jewish perspective, Foxman's intervention into aspects of the Christian historical narrative is pretty bizarre.

(look for an excuse to) oust me have texts and/or blogs on the net anyway. One more reason would be the fact that open domain texts do find their way in no prob and so, to be fairly (and unresistingly rather than subterraneously and/or unwillingly) twoway about it I should think no hoarding is healthy; but hey, emphasis with Rheingold is on tec and secrecy (encryption in service of crowd control and profiting thereby but windowdressed and disguised as 'collective action', ([nest]warmth complete with safety and comfort of spontaneity) and it's no wonder zionists flock to his place. I dunno if I want to come back. And besides I am not sure I can earn the right to be welcome again by removing texts (directed at myself by the way so that should have been a clue to everybody right there) since I made the whole shitstory into a comment at sf.indy and I am not going to twist the editor's arm to remove it.I'll tell you what, your mail and my reply are going there too and ... hey NESSIE! Have you got a minute buddy? Remove that earlier comment of mine on this item and I can go back throwing the truth onto the screens/veils through which many a zionist peers out at their world, whadaya think????? ----- to cori: I have done what I should and could (removed the names of offended people from my blog (should be online tomorrow)) and written to the editor of the indy site where I posted the ridiculous wanna be bilderbergers' whining): the editor there has enough on his hands without this for him offsite trouble. -----

"whadaya think?" by nessie Thursday February 12, 2004 at 08:08 AM - I don't even know what you said. Say it again, this time in prose, one hundred words, no commas, no adjectives. Then I'll answer. I don't have time rambling and metaphor.

According to the teachings of their spiritual mentor, Rabbi Tzvi Yehuda Kook, the Gush, or at least the rabbis who lead it, are themselves the collective incarnation of the Messiah. Since, in biblical prophecy, the Messiah was to appear riding on an ass, he identified the ass as those errant, secular Jews who remain in stubborn ignorance of the exalted purpose of its divinely guided rider. In the shape of those early Zionists they had, it is true, performed the necessary task of carrying the Jews back to the Holy Land, settling it and founding a state there. But now they had served their historic purpose; now they had become obsolete in their failure to renounce their beastly, ass-like ways--and to perceive that Zionism has a divine, not merely a national, purpose.

Re: Met him pike hoses? ----- Metempsychosis - I look at it from a different and complementary angle, which would be expected given the text's protean qualities... ----- I suspect that the family cycle of FW - and the Bloom-Odysseus and Stephen-Jesus characters of Ulysses - reflects in part a genetic carrying forward of ancestors' genes. The Jewishness of Bloom, for example, harks backs to some ancient Yahweh Ur man of a Semitic oral tradition - the father of the christian son. ----- The religious element of this genetic process I think is somewhat Freudian - the guilty memory of ancient founders - and also historical - former inhabitants/rulers slaughtered and usurped. The grave crimes all of our ancestors (in all probability) committed, let's face it... These conquered people, FW suggests, survive at the bottom of the new social heap and then over the generations regain ascendancy - the black Shem for example?? --- In FW or Ulysses I don't see that the structures of godhead are fixed - ---- question of exactly why Van Indy has become such a haven for posts which are obviously made by genuine neo-Nazis and obviously made for no purpose other than attempting to defame an entire minority group- an objective which clearly would not be tolerated were it aimed at anyone other than Jews." ----

The answer, apparently, is that all you need to do is anonymously whisper "it's really just the Zionists posting stuff to make VanIndy look antisemitic," and this somehow passes as sufficient justification to leave it up, or at least to preemptively presume that it's -- in nessie's ritual counterattack -- "black propaganda." They're starting to take editorial advice, in other words, from nessie. This way, the neo-Nazis get to attack the Jews, and then the editors get to blame the Zionists for it. It's a neat little symbiotic relationship, but it's not one that does Indymedia any credit. But nessie could never see that on his own home base, so why expect him to see it here? @%<

Greg Estabrook on Israel: With respect, this is nonsense. The state that Israel most resembles is its former ally, apartheid South Africa. It privileges one racial group and discriminates against others, a racial group being defined solely by descent (i.e., one is a member not on the basis of what one says or does, but who one's parents were). Israel is a uniquely racist state, in that all other states are the states of their inhabitants, but Israel is by law the state of that one racial group worldwide. (Even racist South proclaimed itself a white state but not a state of the "white people worldwide.") Since the illegal occupation and the racist settlements (only for Jews, not for all Israeli citizens) in the Occupied Territories seem not about to end, so long as Israel is backed by the US as its permanent aircraft carrier in the Middle East, we should demand what was necessary in South Africa -- an end to apartheid: one person, one vote from the Jordan to the sea. --CGE ----- Marion counters: "Ever hear of the Jewish Multiracial Network? - then cites a founding rule for guess where: "Ingathering of the Exiles;" -The rest of this post (africans marrying askhenazi and teaching alongside rabbis) make clear that she pitches mindset harmonizing and unity over the kinds possible on a purely traditional, soft, slow and biological basis --

She in short and fact, glorifies the leaven theory (diffusion of entrepreneurial, high cost, high risk, large scale transformative, in other words expansionary variety). I remember my younger days during which the simile of God's promise to Abraham, the one for his offspring to become more numerous than stars in the sky and sands on the shore prompted mystification rather than my present value judgement and diagnosis (MEGAlieMANIA)

::: in-, re-, per- and diversions teat for thought angie? What shall we do today, correct the Bible a little or Hitler a lot ... or both at the same time? The 19 of july 'Trouw', a dutch daily carried a little article on the translation of genesis 28 about Jakob's taking a STONE for a pillow and not only finding replenishment of rest on/in it but being promised his descendants/progeny would grow to be as numerous as the DUST of the earth as well! ----- In my mind this emphasizes the sort of hard/soft dynamic / dialectic / dichotomy / duality / polarity I have developed a sixth sense for over the years bycause when rock, dust and earth are mentioned in one breath with (success of) generations I become very alert. see remineralize.org and championtrees.com (soil section) for more. ----- Over a decade ago I realized that (probably a different verse or translation which mentions the sand on the beach rather than dust of the earth) the conventional interpretation bespeaks not so much the (fool)hardy optimism against all odds caused by oppression but is more the bright side of that same sattelite moon loon a symptom of the most immodest megalomania imaginable. Similarly do the jews generate anti-semitism (accusations) and (champion) humanism at the same time to cash in on the victim status, it's a matter of team sport tactics applied to labour division and social engineering. Could this biblical text, like so many others, also be but a patriarchally perverted truth dating back to much much earlier, greener (dustfree yet also more dustconscious) and happier times? I think Vine Deloria might have helped me to (establish and/or reinforce) that insight with his emphasis on most people's ties with a territory (their chosenness was limited and clearly circumscribed, mostly wilderness reverent and modest enough to leave plenty of no man's land too). And so here we are righting a privilege formula into a generally valid one: what was to be the personalized leg up for jews exclusively turns out to be a simple terrawide principle: fresh dusts incorporated in composts and fruit grown with it will keep the doctor (lawyer and possible the banker too) away. So I made a breakthrough, what I considered some of the worst admissions by and evidence against the jews carries elements of the most common and best for all of the world's untold family lines.

SD: The Age of Awareness is about building community and re-connecting with our divinity -individually and collectively - yet we live in such a fractious, segmented social, spiritual and community situation. What dynamic is lacking the most in our society?T.Hartmann.: Connection. The loss of connection to tribe is probably the single biggest cultural psychopathology we have. We Americans of European ancestry were de-tribalized by the Celts 3,000 years ago, de-tribalized by the Romans 2,000 years ago and de-tribalized by the Christians 1,000 years ago. We've become the hungry ghosts the Native Americans refer to as people without a tribe. The peoples who have managed to maintain their tribes, such as the Jews and Gypsies, are consistently and aggressively attacked. We crave tribe so much that we can't stand to see anyone else living it, so we become jealous and violently aggressive. ----

Mmmm, that's partially true and largely false, the mentioned strains of humu(su)nkind are equally famous for globalizing in favour of their tribal 'Knacktion' in a runaway train fashion that is setting us up to overtake bees, ants and whatnot. It's fans and lackeys have plenty of places to go read the lies and distortions that support their sick, evil beliefs and vile, despicable forces of darkness that benefit from them. ----- Speech is free. This website is not. It requires a great deal of time, energy, skills, talent, effort and money, just to exist at all. We who make the place possible refuse to allow our time, energy, skills, talent, effort and money to be hijacked by our enemies and used to provide a soapbox for them to use to promote their evil agendas. To do so would be for us to willingly submit to enslavement. No, we won't do that. ----- These miscreants are lucky we let them appear here at all, let alone in a part of the site where the naive might mistake them for us. But do they even thank us? Do they put out the time, energy, skills, talent, effort and money it takes to produce a site of their own? Hardly. Instead, they whine like little children who can't reach the cookie jar. Pity petty piet by Critical Thinker Tuesday, May. 18, 2004 at 5:11 AM If Zionism is far worse than racism and a "greed creed", where does it leave you, a racist anti-Semite and supporter of Palestinism, a terribly racist national liberation movement?

never said 'palestinianism' was any better by piet Tuesday, May. 18, 2004 at 6:41 AM all the more reason to apply honest fight rules. But I am not gonna get dragged into speaking to the likes of you quick shooter slur slanderers. I have unsuccessfully spurred zionists and racially speaking pure semites into sharing the term anti-semitism to denote excessive focus on faults(which in the absence of positive proposals --- be sure there's plenny of that at me site ---) and in the light of what I formulated above, see the falseness and futility of it, ... but that doesn't mean the most difficult lesson for Middle Easterners, no matter what creed and/or race, is not STILL to learn SHARING ...

I can try setting aside the slurs by Critical Thinker Tuesday, May. 18, 2004 at 7:54 AM That was quite funny - first you make disparaging, disrespecting remarks when you addressed a Zionist; next thing we know, you don an anti-slur cloak. Glad you've determined that Palestinism isn't any better than Zionism. The other significant question is, do you consider other national liberation movements "greed creeds"? This is an important point; I have yet to encounter someone who isn't anti-Semitic that attempted to peddle a refrain that Zionism is a "greed creed". There may be such people, but they are most probably excruciatingly ignorant and suffer from a dirth of hoest debate skills. Another point, are you positing a polarity of Zionists on one hand and "racially speaking pure semites" on the other? If not, who do you consider "racially speaking pure semites"?

correction by piet Tuesday, May. 18, 2004 at 11:48 AM 'racially pure semites' should have been 'racially pureR semites' intended was to convey the sense that relatively more pure strains (read: traditional, not necessarily good and when so to the point of inbreeding, positively bad of course) get pitted against those that have traded off and compensated some tolerance in matters of lineage, some hybridizing slack for all the more cultural (mindset) rigidity. Whenever cultures get close to, clutter and cramp, to ultimately collide with, each other to greater and/or lesser degree this happens clear across the board and has therefor as such nothing to do with the Middle East but the latter sure are Premier league (honour division as top league soccer is ridiculously called in Holland). Here's a little

June 02, 2004 -- THE VICIOUS INSTAPUNDIT BLOGROLL CONTEST ----- Re jealousy: Glenn has much less hits than Kos. Not sure where Max is in that. And the "Americans" Kos said "screw them" in regards to were filthy unforgivable mercenary scum, living off murder and lawlessness, screwing things up and then requiring real soldiers to clean up the mess they made. By which they are a living constant chant of "screw you" to the real military over there. It is to be doubted that they were even Americans since 1) everything they say is to be doubted and 2) a lot of the mercs over there are from South Afrikan White Enclaves, Chile, you know, centers of peaceful democracy.

By the way, too late for this but we finally found a case of a spat-upon veteran Perhaps you're familiar with the old Nazi myth of the vets spat upon, "on their return from a war we could've won had the [Jewish] liberal intellectual peacenik [Jewish] self-hating enthusiasts of [Jewish] international law not poisoned the minds of our youth against our own country". It was resurrected noisily for Vietnam [replace "Jewish" with "liberal" or "intellectual"]. At Misha (scroll down) there is a bit about John Kerry molesting children while sacrificing them to Satan, and it ends with Misha "spitting" in a rhetorical gesture on Kerry (or possibly the memorial or the kids), thus as with the myth of a "self-hating Jew" there is spitting on vets and (as is to be expected) it's by brownshirts. "The real differences around the world today are not between Jews and Arabs; Protestants and Catholics; Muslims, Croats and Serbs. The real differences are between those who embrace peace and those who would destroy it; between those who look to the future and those who cling to the past; between those who open their arms and those who are determined to clench their fists; between those who believe that God made all of us equal and those foolish enough to believe they are superior to others just because of the color of their skin, of the religion of their families, of their ethnic background. DER DOLCHSTOSS, --- featuring jews putting their best foot (in mouth) forward ---- Max, aren't you getting sore from all the back-patting? I've always thought you were pretty cool, but lately you've just lost it. I'll just point a couple of things: 1] When you criticise someone else's "scapegoat rhetoric", you should probably avoid saying something like "Every new wingnut column might just as well be another bullet or piece of shrapnel in the body of an American soldier..." IN THE VERY SAME POST! I'd suggest, in future, that a reread of the potential post before releasing it upon the world at large might prevent such schizophrenic outbursts. 2] So my only possibilities are: a] launching an unwinnable project, or b] abandoning a doable project? Allow me to propose: c] perhaps the "doability" of a given project is unknowable. d] maybe a given project is doable, but the ongoing work on the project is being presented in such a way as to make it seem unwinnable. e] maybe it's impossible for anyone to determine the winnability of the project based on that presentation. f] maybe some those who present the info on the project are doing so with a particular agenda in mind... I could go on. I won't. The gross oversimplification is pretty obvious. This post is crap. What the hell happened to you, Max? You're better than this. On with the back-patting. Posted by RC at May 31, 2004 07:03 PM ----- By all means let the congratulations continue, but I'll respond to RC. You're right -- my intention is to invert the scapegoat rhetoric. The people responsible for stupid wars are the ones who propose them, launch them, lie on behalf of them, etc., not the people who object to them. There are two different historical frames here. The stab-in-the-back discourse has been accurately elaborated, here and elsewhere. It is fascist rhetoric, and a continuation of the Fifth Column crud. I've been on this since I started blogging, and I won't be stopping. You could say it's one of the main purposes of this site. People have tried to get me off this by being nasty, by being nice, etc. Ain't gonna happen. The other frame is the onus of responsibility for getting the country into an ill-conceived war. The peace movement is well-advised to relentlessly press this point home. Those who got us into this should pay a political price. Fixing responsibility accurately is not scapegoating. It is accountability. Re: your proposals, the unknowability is precisely what I allowed for, in suggesting either feasible or infeasible. In either case, scapegoat rhetoric is rubbish. Your variations are irrelevant to the argument. If the liberation is feasible, the president has no excuse but to go forward. He or his toadies cannot reasonably blame someone else for his own failure of will. If the project is not feasible, then you should be throwing ticker tape parades for Michael Moore. You mistake rigor in argument for simplification. Your comment is crap. But thanks for visiting, and come again soon! Posted by Max B. Sawicky at May 31, 2004 08:49 PM --- snip this article and recent experiences in the community scene of germany convinces me that collateral damage excused by boogymen hunts and other "lesser evil" schemes are just the outflow of gresham's often completely misunderstood half a law, which left out a qualifier, a clause to clear the condition up under and on which his 'law' rests, namely distortingly monopolistic ones (artificial emission freedom scarcities, etcetra and so on). ---- A podium, platform and/or pulpit gets everybody upset by the same big lies instead of dealing with littler, perhaps more, perhaps more real but certainly more managable ones.

Toward a Single State Solution: Zionism, Anti-Semitism and the People of Palestine 144654 vancouver:

this is what happens when mentioning the/any military to an israel sympathizer: "HAhahaahaha!" it brightens their mood and makes their day cause being (pro)semites, they like fighting on their own turf as much as make foreign turf theirs through such means, graciously allowing supporters to contend for being a becomingly high bid placin shottaker at the privilege of doing some of that higher and higher tec fighting, in other words, it brightens the days they waited, plotted and sweated for, the one they could meet and make out to be facing better prepared than opponents from very very far off already and this, the triumph of military is it, cause they have studied and funded weapon development starting way back, worshipping firepow(d)er with an enthusiasm matched by no other folk (the old testamentian cloud the handy shadespending device the dutch translate as 'wolkkolom' and various tricks of early crowd-awing chemistry attests to that).

----- Israel truely is meat nor fish, it looks undemocratic from europe and not arabic enough from the more immediate vicinity. Rest assured though that they will use the nastier tricks from either side to advance their aims which will be exactly as exclusive as they can get away with given their long (suffering) practice of taking pride in that; remember, these guys are the original souped up lionlore worshippers funding the technologization of it's brutal tactics wherever they could.

----- Chamberlain was ambivalent about blood and meme strenghts, he emphasized them each in turn. But there is no doubt both amounts to more than either. Of course the Jews didn't poison wells or smear doorposts and bake ritual bread with christian blood but they most likely did derive a sense of superiority in no small part from the population densities they managed to support (fool proof of their chosenness coopted by christian that cshwould never catch up), their ability to keep ghettos clean enough to stay pestfree* while neighbours who lacked the knowledge and/or discipline to do so did succumb adding darkest suspicions (starting innocently enough from a mere bad example one should look away from, a habit that soon became institutionalized as tolerance) to the same and already scapegoated people who happened to be overrepresented in an essential and indispensable aspect of communal life: taxation/government and credit/finance, public honesty perverted to serve the dominant, all the while succesfully and effectively keeping the slewspew of pretense they were left no other choice up (heavily undermining the strong praise Robert Graves has for jews as the people who started abandoning human sacrifice of blood relatives). ----

---SUBLIME 'PREGRESSION': One constructive way of dealing with agression (symbolized in the gospels which hybridized the euro hero and pagan deity Cernunnos' torqued and ramsheaded snake/tool/wand [[with a way of dealing life from death, the EBullient part of the cycle]] into a cross and his antlers into a thornecrown) is, however haltingly, found and propounded by the few assimilee's descendants that turn out fine enough to find each other and connect a few more than average, less obvious, elbowed aside, shunted, shunned and shoveled under dots. The way (and best karmasolvent) of bringing death to life and rock to bloom is ignored, disavowed, lied down till it dies down, and when it comes to the fore to be at stake most (breakthrough at breakthroughpoint), gets fought with largest musterable and amassed inertia (using legal getawaywithits) in an open conspiracy kinda way (Cynthia MKinney ousting tactics is but one) put down, sidelined, ignored, tabooed, passed up/by rather than on and around, the practice suffering accordingly.

Toward a Single State Solution: Zionism, Anti-Semitism and the People of Palestine ----- by NOEL IGNATIEV • Monday June 21, 2004 at 12:25 AM ----- Unlike many countries, including the United States, the Israeli state does not belong, even in principle, to those who reside within its borders, but is defined as the state of the Jewish people, wherever they may be. That peculiar definition is one reason why the state has to this day failed to produce a written constitution, define its borders, or even declare the existence of an Israeli nationality. Moreover, in this "outpost of democracy," no party that opposes the existence of the Jewish state is permitted to take part in elections.

In my mind this emphasizes the sort of hard/soft dynamic / dialectic / dichotomy / duality / polarity I have developed a sixth sense for over the years bycause when rock, dust and earth are mentioned in one breath with (success of) generations I become very alert. see remineralize.org/ and championtrees.com/ (soil section) for more. -----

Over a decade ago I realized that (probably a different verse or translation which mentions the sand on the beach rather than dust of the earth) the conventional interpretation bespeaks not so much the optimism against all odds caused by oppression but is more like a symptom of the most immodest megalomania imaginable. Similarly do the jews generate anti-semitism (accusations) and (champion) humanism at the same time to cash in on the victim status, it's a matter of team sport tactics applied to labour division and social engineering. Could this biblical text, like so many others, also be but a patriarchally perverted truth dating back to much much earlier, greener (dustfree yet also more dustconscious) and happier times? I think Vine Deloria might have helped me to (establish and/or reinforce) that insight with his emphasis on most people's ties with a territory (their chosenness was limited and clearly circumscribed, mostly wilderness reverent and modest enough to leave plenty of no man's land too). And so here we are righting a privilege formula into a generally valid one: what was to be the personalized leg up for jews exclusively turns out to be a simple terrawide principle: fresh dusts incorporated in composts and fruit grown with it will keep the doctor (lawyer and possible the banker too) away. So I made a breakthrough, what I considered some of the worst admissions by and evidence against the jews carries elements of the most common and best for all of the world's untold family lines. -

Mr. Wanzala: Bob Dreyfuss tried real hard to construct a criticism of Christian Zionism, Israel, and the Bush Administration--and the failure of Moore to address these issues in his film--in a way that avoided antisemitism.
Dreyfuss did a good job of this, which is remarkable and to be praised because it is tricky terrain. The post by "xymphora" is peppered with historic antisemitic language about tribal loyalties and Jewish financial power and Israeli manipulation, etc. etc.--all stirred together into a toxic stew of bigotry. That you cannot tell the difference between principled critique and antisemitic conspiracy theory is very troubling. -Chip Berlet

"If Bush is so 'in the pocket' of Saudi Arabia, why is he Ariel Sharon's strongest backer? Why, when he had Saudi Crown Prince Abdullah down at the Texas ranch a few years ago, did he flip off the Saudi's peace plan? And most important, why did he invade Iraq -- since Saudi Arabia was strongly opposed to the U.S. invasion of Iraq? Why did he launch his Iraqi adventure over Saudi objections, with many of his advisers chortling that Saudi Arabia would be 'next'? Why did he stock his administration with militant neocon crusaders who see Saudi Arabia as the main enemy?" (Dreyfuss, June 30, 2004).

Kerry: "I believe that I can run a far more effective war on terror and do better by Israel. And I'll tell you why," he said, according to excerpts of the call circulated by his campaign. "Because I think the sweetheart relationship between this administration and Saudi Arabia and the lack of willingness of this administration to hold Arab countries accountable for their newspaper articles, for their antisemitism, for their conspiracy theories, to stop the funding that goes to Hezbollah, to Al Aqsa Martyrs Brigade, to Hamas, has not made the world safer and has not protected Israel."

OPEN EMAIL TO OAKLAND "ANTI-SEMITISM" CONFERENCE! - by Joseph Anderson by JA Saturday, Aug. 21, 2004 at 1:22 PM Jews are NOT an "oppressed" minority group in the United States. As an African American I can say this as a matter of fact, while still opposing incidents of real anti-Semitism, which do exist, and exposing real anti-Semites, which I have done. To say that Jews are oppressed in America is anywhere from an insult to a joke to those traditional minorities of color in America who really are oppressed.

ishmaelreedpub.com/june_2004 Back in February ('04), I attended a book reading at Cody's by the predominantly white liberals' feminist hero, Bell Hooks. During Q&A, I morally and intellectually challenged her, civilly, about her grossly stereotypical, anti-Black male statements and eccentric behavioral theories. Her basic idea (confirmed by her in response to my very specific question) is that, indeed, Black men are particularly, virulently, and pathologically misogynist -- exceptionally so, above any other men.
----- Furthermore, this is all due, she categorically asserts, to rampant childhood sexual abuse of boys in the Black community. Yet another psychosexual theory -- typically invented by racist white pundits -- to exclusively explain and pathologize Black male behavior. Hooks further lashed out, with great indignation, that any Black male who disagrees with her (of course, especially moi) is "a prime example" of a totally unreconstructed, patriarchal Black male misogynist.

Alrite, that does it, I'm henceforth taking Marx to have been topdog directive amongst nonsecret in your face zionist elders, the kind you read so much about these years. The kind from which you know not whether they prescribe or diagnose nor whether they are degenerate or generous enough to allow us making and taking it either way, faking compliance. Guess you'll not succeed helping the masses stop being foolish but for goodness ache fool, stop amassment, dilutory clonage. Here's the quotes (from pkt jan02) that prompted this resigned/indignant outburst:

The only wheels which political economy sets in motion are greed, and the war of the avaricious — Competition. marxists.org/archive/marx/works/1844/manuscripts/labour.htm

Ted:
How the multiplication of needs and of the means [of their satisfaction] breeds the absence of needs and of means is demonstrated by the political economist (and by the capitalist: in general it is always empirical businessmen we are talking about when we refer to political economists, [who represent] their scientific creed and form of existence) as follows:

(1) By reducing the worker's need to the barest and most miserable level of physical subsistence, and by reducing his activity to the most abstract mechanical movement; thus he says: Man has no other need either of activity or of enjoyment. For he declares that this life, too, is human life and existence. (2) By counting the most meagre form of life (existence) as the standard, indeed, as the general standard - general because it is applicable to the mass of men. He turns the worker into an insensible being lacking all needs, just as he changes his activity into a pure abstraction from all activity. To him, therefore, every luxury of the worker seems to be reprehensible, and everything that goes beyond the most abstract need - be it in the realm of passive enjoyment, or a manifestation of activity - seems to him a luxury. Political economy, this science of wealth, is therefore simultaneously the science of renunciation, of want, of saving - and it actually reaches the point where it spares man the need of either fresh air or physical exercise. This science of marvellous industry is simultaneously the science of asceticism, and its true ideal is the ascetic but extortionate miser and the ascetic but productive slave. . . . Thus political economy - despite its worldly and voluptuous appearance - is a true moral science, the most moral of all the sciences. Self renunciation, the renunciation of life and of all human needs, is its principal thesis. The less you eat, drink and buy books; the less you go to the theatre, the dance hall, the public house; the less you think, love, theorize, sing, paint, fence, etc., the more you save - the greater becomes your treasure which neither moths nor rust will devour - your capital. The less you are, the less you express your own life, the more you have, i.e., the greater is your alienated life, the greater is the store of your estranged being.

Everything which the political economist takes from you in life and humanity, he replaces for you in money and wealth; and all the things which you cannot do, your money can do. It can eat and drink, go to the dance hall and the theatre; it can travel, it can appropriate art, learning, the treasures of the past, political power - all this it can appropriate for you - it can buy all this: it is true endowment. Yet being all this, it wants to do nothing but create itself, buy itself; for everything else is after all its servant, and when I have the master I have the servant and do not need his servant. All passions and all activity must therefore be submerged in avarice. (Marx, in Engels and Marx, 1975B, pp. 308 309)

"Accumulate, accumulate! That is Moses and the prophets! 'Industry furnishes the material which saving accumulates.' Therefore save, save, i.e. reconvert the greatest possible portion of surplus-value or surplus product into capital! Accumulation for the sake of accumulation, production for the sake of production: this was the formula in which classical economics expressed the historical mission of the bourgeoisie in the period of its domination. Not for one instant did it deceive itself over the nature of wealth's birth-pangs. But what use is it to lament a historical necessity? If, in the eyes of classical economics, the proletarian is merely a machine for the production of surplus-value, the capitalist too is merely a machine for the transformation of this surplus-value into surplus capital." (Marx, Capital, vol. 1, p. 742)

----- "As the conscious bearer of this movement, the possessor of money becomes a capitalist. His person, or rather his pocket, is the point from which the money starts, and to which it returns. The objective content of the circulation we have been discussing - the valorization of value - is his subjective purpose, and it is only in so far as the appropriation of ever more wealth in the abstract is the sole driving force behind his operations that he functions as a capitalist, i.e. as capital personified and endowed with consciousness and a will. Use-values must therefore never be treated as the immediate aim of the capitalist; nor must the profit on any single transaction. His aim is rather the unceasing movement of profit-making." (p. 254)

----- In a footnote to this passage Marx quotes MacCulloch making the same claim.

----- "The inextinguishable passion for gain, the auri sacra fames, will always lead capitalists." (p. 254)

----- He then goes on to say that when MacCulloch and others get themselves into theoretical difficulties, as, for example, in their treatment of over-production, they forget this insight into the true nature of capitalist motivation and transform the capitalist "into a good citizen, whose sole concern is for use-value, and who even develops an insatiable hunger for boots, hats, eggs, calico and other extremely common kinds of use-value." (p. 254)

----- "In so far as he is capital personified, his [the capitalist's] motivating force is not the acquisition and enjoyment of use-values but the acquisition and augmentation of exchange-value." (p. 739)

----- "Money is not just an object of the passion for enrichment, it is the object of it. This urge is essentially auri sacra fames." (Contribution to a Critique of Political Economy, p. 132) Ted

Since y'all like riddles and I don't have all the time in the world I'll point you to places you could dig for what I mean (remember it myself but vaguely, has to do with E R H's argument that Jews turned away from constellation gazing [[read: krick in the neck even before stumbling sorta haughtiness]] and became earthy - pretty much [[taking our minds of a presently very real rather than]] off the wall theory of course but still, Christians [[like him]] deny the massive calendrical and wheeling constellation references in jewish writs en masse). ----- sorry about the aMAZEing errors in my riddle. Rosenstock-Huessy from ../kroesenbos..pdf 2 page brochure:

"When the tribal society ran into a deadlock, the Empires of Egypt and Babel (compare China and Mexico) have made possible a new and hierarchical and more universal social order. When the hierarchical social order of Egypt suffocated life and justice, the Hebrews left Egypt and established for the first time in history a future oriented social order. The church has inherited this orientation to the future and bridges the gap towards the former social orders from the future as its departing point."

-- What with all the idiot savantism I keep running into (Dolf Boek, Patrick Mulcahy, Adreas Szabo, Bill Meegan etcetera etcetera) there's no sign of letting up on and go of macro navigation in favor of the much more profitably practiced micro kind (far ahead of it actually, if you can allow, gainsay, believe, validate, credit, go along with my reading of cernunnos iconography and if nolt I have more recent examples to point to, the soil chapter of treechampions.com find the brown link)

ableever.net/Apologetics/Theomatics/theomatics.html a criticism of theomatics.com yet another gematria scheme, they offer an article on els and bible code els.html --- In sacred_geometry.html he goes after jesus8880.com from whence this quote (just to riddle you rudely):

"The word "gematria" is mistakenly equated with the word "isopsephia" but gematria is actually a higher level of isopsephia. The word "gematria" comes from the Greek word geometria having the dual meaning "earth-measure" and "geometry." Gematria is Sacred Geometry. The definition of gematria goes way beyond adding up the numerical values of the letters in a word or pointing out that the-number of one word, phrase or verse is the same as or 2, 3, 4, 6, or 10 times more than the-number of another word or name. Gematria is the union of the number value of Greek words with the dimensions of geometric objects such as the perimeters of circles and squares or the lengths of symmetrical groups of lines that converge on circles and squares. The power and mystery of gematria is only unleashed when it is used in conjunction with geometry, graphs, and/or diagrams."

-- well, most of the diagrams look inherently unstable, 2 dimensional (emphasizing their flimsiness) and just absurdly pretend to offer the opposite (stacked balls within balls), it's enough to freeze your brain. Cleverness is indeed something one can breed for and a little too much causes a holodda trouble!!!! -----

They key to understanding autism is that autistic people have grown only little practical understanding of facial and bodyly expressions. From there result communication trouble and weird to awesome different organisation of any other experiences in the mind due to the layout of the brain, e.g. where you think the brain was like a bookshelf. Actually the lot of any experiences of life is deduced to forms and colors that are stacked over the basic ones that are the shapes and apearances of the human body and surrounding nature. The result is called language. To grow a language that can interact with other human beings their basic structures must be taken as seed, as given clearly by Anime series. As the late Israeli professor and Nazi Holocaust survivor Israel Shahak pointed out,

"I don't think the Jews have suffered any more or any less than many other persecuted or minority nations. We have suffered like many other peoples have suffered...There were some periods when we suffered more..there were periods when we suffered much less....."

Any looking at the position of Jews in the US (as well as in other Western societies) would have a hard time denying the incredible political and economic power that it's organized factions wield over its governing institutions and the media, even without considering the tiny percentage of Jews in the national population. The fact that some people are anti-Jewish for one reason or another [ANTI-SEMITISM] DOES NOT [AUTOMATICALLY] TRANSLATE INTO OPPRESSION OF JEWS unless those people are in a position to act on it and desire to do so. THERE IS NOT THE SLIGHTEST EVIDENCE OF THIS [OPPRESSION OF JEWS TODAY] IN US SOCIETY. [(caps, by JA.)] Now, of course, that foregoing statement is considered a classic example of anti-Semitism (or, self-hatred in my case) when it comes from one of Israel's critics, such as myself, but not when it comes from one of Israel's supporters such as JJ Goldberg, editor of the Jewish national weekly, Forward (forward.com) whose book, "Jewish Power" should be required reading for the paranoids who will be gathering at the Oakland Marriot this weekend to complain about "anti-Semitism on the left." I will add to their "evidence" of such by repeating a statement made to me in 1988 by a Native American leader (who, for his safety and reputation, will go unnamed) after the so-called left and peace organizations, Marxist and non-Marxist, of the Bay Area refused to issue a statement condemning Israeli occupation during the first year of the first Intifada. What he said rings true today: "The problem with the movement is that there are too many liberal Zionists." To which, I add, Amen!

Disaster looms even under conditions free of govt oppression which, as we all know, makes the result look like rise and fall of highrises and prizes from babylon to WTC and back again, iow, the perfect opposite of self sufficiency no matter how much that was targeted as evidenced by that same man Franz Oppenheimer about whom i am about to blog thusly:

Oppenheimer's theories aroused the interest of Dr. Theodor Herzl who introduced him to the Zionist movement at the sixth congress in 1903. However, the "smallholder settlements" (Moshavei Ovdim) with their numerous marketing and other local cooperative institutions - as well as the fully cooperative farm with separate households (Moshav Shitufi) - agree much better with Oppenheimer's intentions both from the standpoint of economy and social psychology. The Nazi secret police has destroyed his books, and his pupils were dispersed everywhere by the disaster of European Jewry. ----- yeah right! Not many books allow a glimpse through the half open/closed shutters (although these blinds are better known as lines of text) as the ones by FO on the way oppressive taxes caused the income gap, displacement, land loss, exploitation, erosion, migration and of course lots of war, the middle men holding themselves up as scapegoats but catalyzing the process by choice ... etcetera. It's jews rather than nazis that refuse to read between lines such as the ones by FO. Perhaps his words did not fall on deaf ears in the case of Jewish ones, they might have made them feel guilty, prompted, pumped and primed them into action, made them promise themselves (and perhaps others like their new neighbours) to behave better in the future. Reality turned this idealism into farce and tragic step up in cruelty and its hell spawned capacities. --- see more on his ideas

Wendy Campbell: The Secret Relationship Between Israel and Oil: What US Media Hides - (Becky makes a recent appearance here and I go): my favorite thinker of all times is Beckerath even though I am very aware of his flaws; I would not dispute your right to be heard but speaking of contrast and disparity in the same breath is mere hot air if it doesn't drive gardening of the sort zionist like to associate with their reputation as much as they prefer to allocate characteristics like terrorist to their opponents exclusively ... anyway. ... I would like you to ponder the following: As I finally start to read the <http://santacruz.indymedia.org> pro-zionist teacher Becky's answer to a counterpunch article by the family Christison in Palestine (linked to a while ago) I am immediately struck by a parallel one could hold up along side her and the frequent complaint that accounts of Palestinian hardship leave out the prime cause for it: their very own terrorist activity, the REAL and Draconian Action Justifying injustice done to jews. . bla splutter bla bla splutter splutter tuut tuut ... she no doubt means well and scores many points but doesn't acknowledged the illegality of propagandistically manipulated public opinion sanctioned encroachment (in a word 'poppressure' I'll be famous for this one to the degree you mark my word) as insidious way semites tend to spread their memes - ... I find it hard to believe that only the Palestinians are obsessed with prime cause (wholly other than their own), even those who stop far short of conspiracy paranoid theoritis tend to invest in this very selfmaiming disownment heavily. They project much of their own unacknowledged automatisms, dependencies and rationalizations to a remote yet (re)moving place in time .. and yet the future also ... as I penned yesterday in response to: 2004/10/812508.shtml

Aggravating and accelerating a trend in the name of stopping such activity, business of a type that is not done, that they don't do (unless they are 'forced' to but palestinians live in such a thoroughly voluntarized world, nobody is forced to do anything there, let alone resist, their violence is gratuitous, unprovoked) but, as I said, long suffered and has already been turned against them (so they can never have started it or be starting it, not now, nor tomorrow). ---- Suppose we said: OK, Becky, you have a point, and I will go along in condemning terror even if it is a desperate nothing left to lose last resort ... but conversely, the price of permanently and chronically associating terror with palestians is this: I want you please, to pledge not ever to speak of jewish suffering, pogrom, holocaust and whatever other cherished term that may have served in deeper sections of the past (again, look up Bernard Lazare for a one major damn riot after another throughout the last past millenia; don't let a revisionist site location hold you back) without mentioning some form of real, possible or even merely perceived provocation in the same breath or even sentence. OK? Deal? Do you think those amongst the amalgam of races who like to call themselves 'jewish' would like to be exposed as perfectly capable of bringing forth exponents of parasitism so singularly powerful and decisive in their extreme exploitation and despotic disposal of all within grasp that is is a wonder, unjustifiable and a baffling paradox that such exceptional (ly smart) criminals manage to conjure attitudes of holding the entire club collectively accountable? Everybody can see that not even close kin could have controlled such towering defiance right? Or conversely, we could call it no wonder at all that high demographic demands on their turf and beyond it the world, is needed to remedy balance and counteract such periodically inevitable shakeups and downs, the repercussions of the fluke errant rocket that overshoots target and partly turns against its senders. Should we justify israel and at the same time point at the paradox that their (self-determination and other multicultural 'blessings', non-complementarities, disparities and asynchronies rather) spawning rules of conduct were seemingly a form of isolation but tended to slowly take-over with such alarming arrogance that provocation was weak description of what caused the, as I said regularly recurring prunings, musical chairisms, obstacle courses and hurdle race (a few major ones every lifetime)? Would they like to be closely examined if it meant being exposed as (all the while appearing to profess 'faith', and indeed spawning other worlds and continents destroying spinn off faith) being the ones who, not quite to the contrary, prove perfectly capable of perversely bringing forth exponents of patent imperialism, interethnically speaking pure parasitism antithetical to the theoretical Messiahs (their own and the christian one cast in supporting role; both can be taken as thinly veiled symbols of their thus punctuated and radically tidal demographic success by any means necessary and all means possible, damn all ethics, full phallus ahead). One can imitate nature unquestioningly and unreflexively (Nietzsche's desperate rather than wet dream) or ameliorate nature by carefully picking role models, my vote for which certainly won't count the chosen few, too much like the filthy few anyway, where are the permacultural hells angels to post a parallel to kibbutzims I wonder???????

Becky: That protest march in Rafah recently where 8 people were killed [possibly by IDF rocket fire] had children at the front of a breakaway march going into a war zone defying curfew. IT IS THE ORGANIZERS OF THE PROTEST WHO PURPOSELY AND CYNICALLY PUT CHILDREN IN HARM'S WAY TO PROMOTE THEIR OWN CAUSE. -----

I go: Yeah, OK, . . . listen Becky, what do you call moving thousands of miles to have lots of business, foreign aid, nuclear weapons and more trouble with the neighbours than where you came from besides having children at a rate second to none but the new neighbours? I'd say one might more justifiably be upset with this form of, discounting the difference of those thousands of miles, 'putting children in harm's way' no?

The phrase 'market Stalinism' is absolutely right for Blairism, even though the combination of the pretence of marketization with quotas and five-year plans means that Blairism has the none of the benefits of either markets (low bureaucracy) or Stalinism (let's not forget that, unlike Blairism, Stalinism actually did produce things in addition to statistical PPropaganda). Naturally, I'm with the 'Dissensus consensus' here on the question of present popular culture: I don't see how most of it introduces any incongruence or discrepancy into the Blairite simulation.

At this point, I really have just one question: what could k-punk's 'modern naturalistic religion' be? If we examine the following claim:

The only way to destroy theism is to reject all forms of transcendence, personalism, and dualism. Thus Theism might always be about meaning, but what religion would look like if monism were asserted AGAINST theism is an open question.

What seems to be proposed is a form of Pantheism (though what makes it particularly 'modern' is not clear) - the denial of transcendence, supernaturalism, the refusal of the notions of persons as free self-conscious moral agents. Also a refusal of any Cartesian physical body/non-physical object separation. So far, so Spinoza. It's not clear why one would need Lacan, Badiou or Zizek to bolster this classical, if perennially subversive, naturalistic determinism (especially as k-p further objects to what he considers to be 'Badiou's voluntarism and crypto-phenomenology').

So, the final statement, that 'what religion would look like if monism were asserted AGAINST theism is an open question.' But is it really an 'open question' as to what this religion would look like? Monism has been asserted 'against' theism many times, not only by Spinoza (but also e.g. Hinduism, Buddhism), and not always in, er, 'progressive' ways (and if you object strongly to 'crypto-idealism', consider that one could perfectly well be a idealistic monist). Why monism? And what kind of monism? substance? attributive? What relation does this monism have to the kind of religion that would believe in or depend upon it?

The second part of my question concerns the use of the term religion. In time-(dis) honoured-academic style, here are the OED definitions:

1. the belief in and worship of a superhuman controlling power, especially a personal God or gods >a particular system of faith or worship.
2. A pursuit or interest followed with devotion.

Obviously we can set aside the first definition, as it's quite clear you don't mean that, but what of the second? Apart from it sounding like someone's dedication to building model airplanes, we could understand it in Spinozist or even existential terms as a commitment to a certain set of axioms/principles/beliefs and the life lived in accordance with these. Spinoza's determinism permits, of course, room for an increase in the level of knowledge reached: 'The highest conatus of the mind and its highest virtue is to understand things by the third kind of knowledge.' (Ethics, Book 5, Proposition 25). Whilst everyone knows that the historical reception of Spinoza oscillates between deeming him the 'God-intoxicated man' sive the most profound atheist, it's not clear at all the retaining the term 'religion' is going to add much to a Spinozist naturalist monism.

So, from a Spinozist, or k-punkian (!) standpoint, where lies the real difference (ontologically, existentially, politically) in having commitment to religion or having no commitment to religion, if one is already convinced of Spinoza's framework? Without immense etymological knowledge, I can't be sure, but one definition of religion appears to derive from the Latin "religio" used by the Romans, before Jesus Christ, to indicate the worship of demons. Do we really need to perpetuate such a black metal mode of existence? (stop nodding, effay - and cheers for the Venom! favourite line so far: 'do you believe in God/he's chained up like a dog/and every hour he screams'.....!!!!).

"Chances are that all formal agreements with non-Jews were simply deemed unreliable, and history would support that belief."

Since most words and arguments refer to stories from the past and most of those are partial, subjective and short of being 'clean' ones of complete annihilation, chances are too (by reverse of same inherently bipolar token) that, more often than not, they will evoke/have/allow/make diametrically opposite interpretations / experiences possible and more than likely forthcoming. But that's not my aim and point*. I like to show that impartiality by way of formality is hard to come by and tht form of polity usually implies discipline, coercion and force rather than civility. ----- Considering that your non-reciprocal assertion must be so, I mean, subject to the sort of subjectivity that is purely reactionary compared to taking up the most objective upchuck superjective surface rock in a value judgement free fashion in order to process it in a value projecting way I shall soon refer to more elaborately I conclude your statement is not matter of (f)act but a vile accusation you have open publishing to thank for being allowed to make.

I prefer to place emphasis on radical changes of perspective that encompasses these false polarities and discards them in favor of better and more productive ones.

Can voluntarism be institutionalized, can it oust the coercive dominance oriented kinds? -- I can't think of more important questions than that. Most powerful institutions and religions have a violent base which the heirs later 'verniedlicht' (add fabricated but justifying context, presto: cutyitized and cutotated curriclae) which by the way constitute cores that allows themselves to be traced by the inevitable militants who are not waylaid by peaceful initiations such as a manuel or anecdotal history of slow soft and subtle way of building a 'dynamite' compost through the liberal addition of mineral powders for example.

Muhammed for instance, even if he had intended such a thing but got violent out of 'justified' frustration that things were moving to slow, lost his patience and gained power through the use of violence, would be disqualified from earning the confidence of his audience with a mere message .. unless he renounced being a messenger long enough to deliver on promise of principle and had thus obtained results to show for himself, they'd have to be good enough to dissolve his bad reputé first too. It's the old means and ends conundrum. . . . again and again. . . . stop the nazi they use horror to stop the naziuse horror to stop the Nazis where did 'they' go????????? ---- I did more than go here: WardChurchill.htm I made it. ---- Let's have less 'dues' and more 'dews' instead. The egalitarian atmosphere at Taliesin West-everyone was expected to share in the house and yard work--was not to her (Stalin's daughter) liking. It reminded her of Communism, she said. . . . "Much of Svetlana's anger came to center on Mrs. Wright, who ran the residents' lives at Taliesin West with what she proudly called 'invisible discipline' [Mercy-manipulation]. Mrs. Wright decided what they wore, what they discussed at dinner and whether they should have children. 'I detested her power over others,' Svetlana said. 'The lady bore such a resemblance to my father's worst qualities that I shrank from her.' " "Svetlana's hostility was viewed a shade differently by her new brother-in-law, S.I. Hayakawa, who is married to Wes Peter's sister. 'She and Mrs. Wright were like two empresses in the same empire,' the semanticist and former US Senator recalls.

 Peters married Frank Lloyd Wright's adopted daughter in 1935. They had two sons: Daniel and Brandoch. In 1946 his wife, son Daniel and unborn child were tragically killed in an automobile accident. Soon afterwards, Frank Lloyd Wright's widow, a disciple of the Russian-born mystic Georgi Gurdjieff, became obsessed with the notion that the Russian leader Joseph Stalin's daughter was the mystical representative, possibly even the reincarnation, of her own daughter—also named Svetlana—who had died in the accident. Mrs. Wright was spellbound by coincidences between the living and dead Svetlanas. For one thing, her daughter had been born in Georgia, the region from which Svetlana Alliluyeva's father hailed. Somehow it followed in Mrs. Wright's mind that Stalin's daughter should marry the first Svetlana's widower, William Wesley Peters. Svetlana promptly went along with Mrs. Wright's desires: within days she was calling Taliesin West's matriarch "Mother." She also fell in love with the distinguished-looking, 6-ft. 4-in. Peters, then 57. Soon Svetlana was pressing for an early wedding, and three weeks after her arrival in Arizona the two were married. ----- Svetlana Alliluyeva deeply disliked life at Taliesin West, where fellows and their families were required to share housework and gardening chores. She tried to persuade Peters to leave the enclave, where he had worked since 1932 as Wright's disciple and chosen successor. Only 20 months after their wedding, the troubled marriage ended, having produced a daughter, Olga Peters Evans.

The beliefs of the Zaddikim present some of the most intolerant and hateful ideas ever spawned by the human mind. Both in language and content, the Dead Sea Scrolls literally seethe with hatred. In passage after passage, these sectarian writings incite racial and religious violence. They are blatant testaments to virulent and genocidal rage. They alternately scream damnation and plead for retribution. They call for the destruction of the world by supernatural powers so that those faithful to the ideal of Tzaddik can be "culled" from the lot, rescued from the well-deserved damnation of the human race. The Tzaddikim resemble a combination of the Branch Davidians of Waco and the Heaven's Gate suicide cult, with all the worst features of these sects magnified to the tenth degree.

metahistory.org/Gaia_Sharing.asp

Part One, Fallen Goddess (Episodes 1 through 16), opens with a company of gods called Aeons, divinities who dwell in the core of our home galaxy. It tells how one of these immortal powers, the Aeon Sophia as she was known to Gnostics, departed in a reckless way from the core, producing havoc in the outer region of the galaxy, then falling into a swoon. It recounts how Sophia, in Her shock and disorientation, gradually realizes that She has precipitated an anomaly in the cosmos, giving rise to the planetary system in which the Earth She embodies is captured. Complications involving an inorganic species called the ARchons put Her in a rather tricky situation with the human species.

Part Two, Gaia Awakening, recounts the long sequence of moments in which the Fallen Goddess awakens to her new identity as "Mother Earth." It describes the geological epochs of the Earth and the emergence of the kingdoms of nature in terms of Gaian "morphic feels."

Part Three, The Gender Rift, describes a curious affliction of humanity, manifested in malice between the sexes, that arises due to Sophia's plunge, and explains how humans are involved with Gaia in healing this condition.

Part Four, In Tomorrow's Light describes the future of the Earth and the possible role of humanity in view of Gaia's own purposes.

The myth of Sophia's Fall was taught for centuries in the Pagan Mysteries and recounted in Gnostic writings that survive in fragmentary form. It is distinct from the Judeo-Christian-Islamic story of the Fall (the Genesis narrative), and, in fact, reverses the values and beliefs encoded in that well-known scenario. The Gaia Mythos is a close reconstruction of sacred teachings lost to humanity for almost two thousand years.

"A cardinal considered a candidate to succeed Pope John Paul I delivered a strong message in favor of Jewish settlement in the Holy Land on Wednesday night, rejecting the claim that European Christians' support for the State of Israel is based on Holocaust guilt and saying that all Christians should affirm Zionism as a biblical imperative for the Jewish people."

Ben Gurion & the Labor Zionists collaboration with the Nazis -- Barry Chamish 13 Apr 2005 01:21 GMT ----- In 1954, Malchiel Greenwald was sued for slander by Ben Gurion's Labour (Mapai) government. He had printed a newsletter accusing the Industry Minister, Rudolph Kastner of collaborating with the Nazis to murder a million Hungarian Jews. As the trial went on, Malchiel's attorney proved that Kastner was merely following the dictates of Ben Gurion and his cronies. It would not be long before the trail of collaboration led right to the doorstep of the ruling Labour Party; and this Israel's leaders would not allow. So the following steps were taken as described by Ben Hecht in his brilliant, suppressed book Perfidy. The first to be murdered was Dr. Moshe Keren, one of Israel's leading political journalists: After writing seven installments on the Kastner case, Dr. Keren flew to Germany. His intention was to interview Kurt Becher (One of Kastner's partners in genocide. Others included Himmler and Eichmann. BC). A few days after his arrival in Germany, journalist Keren was found dead in a German hotel. The diagnosis was "heart attack." Dr. Keren was clasping a book on the Jewish extermination in his dead hand. Just days before Kastner himself was to stand trial for collaboration, he was shot three times outside his house and rushed to hospital. But after ten days of continued improvement...a bulletin announces that Rudolph Kastner has taken a "sudden turn for the worse." The dead Kastner will continue to haunt Israeli politics. The government of Israel and its train-bearing press will work constantly to restore Dr. Kastner's good name and its own... The actual confessed killer was Zeev Eckstein, age twenty four. Until a few months ago Zeev Eckstein was a paid undercover agent of the Israeli government's Intelligence Service. Uncanny, the parallels with Rabin. The same government, the same methods, the same murderers. And, I claim, the same motive. Why, any sane person must ask, would Ben Gurion and his hoodlum government conspire with the likes of Himmler, Eichmann and Becher to assure the mass of murder of practically all of Hungary's vast Jewish population? For the same reason Rabin collaborated with the mass murderers of the PLO. He was under the control of the Anglo-Saxon branch of the New World Order. Ben Gurion's proto-government, called the Jewish Agency was established by the British in 1923 to "facilitate" its rule over Palestine as mandated by the League Of Nations. The British government asked the leaders of Zionism to submit for British approval a coterie of Jews who would be acceptable as chiefs of the new Jewish Agency...a sort of caricature of authority to which Jews could give their loyalty...There is one fact in the complex business that is obvious to all - Ben Gurion's flair for obedience to anyone resembling an Anglo-Saxon. While the Holocaust was taking place, British policy forbade Jews to enter Palestine en masse. Saving Hungary's Jews would mean a million new Jewish immigrants to their only possible safe haven and this the British would not allow. So they used Ben Gurion and his factotums to delude the Jews of Hungary that rescue was on its way and sent them unmerrily on their way to the ashpits of Germany's murder machine. For exposing Labour's dark, recent past people had to die. Hecht himself may have been the last victim. Shortly after Perfidy was published, he too succumbed to a most suspicious death. A week after Rabin died, a young student at Bar Ilan University, Yitzhak Newman was found dead in his dormitory room. He had supposedly committed suicide by shooting himself in the stomach. Newman was a close friend of the Shabak provocator Avishai Raviv. A friend of Newman's told me he was about to "tell what he knew about Raviv and his role in Rabin's assassination." Next to go was Yoav Kuriel. He was buried at midnight in a closed funeral on Nov. 17/95. Traffic outside the Yarkon cemetery was redirected away from the cemetery for ninety minutes while the burial took place. Within a day rumours spread that Kuriel was a bodyguard of Rabin's who was permanently hushed up. Even Rabin's accused killer, Yigal Amir, lambasted the media for not investigating Kuriel's death. The Labour government's loyal police reported that Kuriel tried to join the Shabak and the police but was turned down. He was depressed and committed suicide. The same story as Newman's. It did not take long for Labour's puppets in the media to sanction this version for good. Unfortunately for them, I was supplied with Kuriel's social security file and his death certificate. Kuriel's salary was paid by Israel Police, Sheikh Jarrah or Intelligence branch. He died because of nothing. The reason for his death remains blank on his death certificate. Last May, through an interlocator, I was informed by one of Kuriel's gravediggers that his body suffered seven bullet holes in the chest. The bodies are piling up in the wake of Rabin and I dread to think who might be next. We are obsessed with boundaries. Places are divided and sub-divided in a complex web of overlapping patterns of 'ownership', 'sacredness', 'historic interest', 'outstanding natural beauty' and much else. A simple car journey will take us past signs marking the entry and exit of each parish, less frequently past county boundary signs or through the portals' of National Parks such as Derbyshire with its prominent millstones. Leaving the the road (note, again, the sense of boundary) will take us along rights of way allowing access through otherwise private property, perhaps with distinctive 'Keep Out' signs.

Help Protect Uncensored Satellite Television for the Chinese People
Michelle 14 Apr 2005 16:46 GMT

The TV Station that broke the SARS story in China and pressured the Chinese government to admit the crisis, will go off the air in China on April 15, 2005 due to pressure from the Chinese Communist Party.

The pioneering US?based channel, New Tang Dynasty TV (NTDTV), is currently the only independent Chinese?language satellite TV station with a significant audience in the People's Republic of China (PRC). NTDTV reaches tens of millions of private satellite dishes across China with broadcasting that is free of Communist propaganda. The flow of such independent programming, including news and important cultural and entertainment content, helps promote democracy and freedom.

Unfortunately, Eutelsat, a Paris?based satellite company that transmits NTDTV over Asia, has apparently caved in to pressure from the Chinese government to stop beaming content that is uncensored and sometimes critical of the PRC.
ntdtv.com/xtr/eng/eutelsat/petition.htm

If decency and responsible forms of capitalism would be taking hold in China instead of sweatshops and pollution I would not be signing this petition, as it is, we need to allow the junk that slips in with the good in order for the latter to have a chance.

Not least in light of 2,000 years of Christian anti-semitism, the so-called Judeo-Christian Values (JCV - stopactivistjudges.org/) make for the same logic as cat-mouse values. Contrary to popular impression, JCV is not a religious creed. It is rather a doctrine to, in passing, vilify whichever ethnicity of brown people the U.S. military is bombing this month, and, as ultimate goal, solidify the growing dominance of the Anti-Christ in American politics.

THE WALTER ZANDER WEBSITE

Introduction

The purpose of this website is to make available the writings of Walter Zander, who was born in Germany in 1898 and who died in London in 1993 aged 94. His writings fall into several distinct categories.

In the 1920s and early 1930s he wrote on law and on economics, mainly in the sphere of monetary reform. Those writings, which were originally in German, are represented here by several that were at the time translated and published also in English.

In the 1940s, after emigrating from Germany to Britain, and having experienced internment by the British as an Enemy Alien, he wrote on aspects of 'the Jewish question', including the relationship of Jews and Christians. In 1947 he published SOVIET JEWRY, PALESTINE AND THE WEST. In the post-war period he wrote a number of articles about Israel in regard to various aspects of international relations.

The third tranche of his writings concerned the Holy Places - and especially the Christian Holy Places - in Jerusalem. They include his book ISRAEL AND THE HOLY PLACES OF CHRISTENDOM (1971) and two lengthy articles in The Israel Law Review - 'On the Settlement of Disputes about the Christian Holy Places' (1973) and 'Jurisdiction and Holiness: Reflections on the Coptic-Ethiopian Case' (1982). Probably his best known publication was the pamphlet IS THIS THE WAY? A CALL TO JEWS published in 1948 shortly before the establishment of the State of Israel in which he urged that the attitude of the Jews toward the Arabs was morally as well as politically wrong. (Over fifty years later, in 2001 The Jewish Quarterly published four pages of extracts from what it called 'this extraordinarily prophetic pamphlet'.)

The website includes all his publications other than those on monetary issues and economics that are not available in English translation. There is also a complete bibliography.

The website includes a brief biographical note written for the funeral, a memorial essay by the writer and obituaries published in The Times, The Guardian, The Daily Telegraph, The Independent and The Jewish Chronicle. Please address any comments or inquiries to zanderATlegalmusic.u-net.com here's 2 sentences for ya: Given that Hitler co-opted, stole, perverted and hi-jacked (you name it) loads of great causes and genuine concerns, in other words, given he was the worst possible person to claim to represent and further some of the best possible causes we should always give nazi sympathizers the benefit of the doubt until it is irrefutably clear (and in a rarest of cases [[seeing that among nazis as among activists {{{not excluding their equivalents amongst other races}}}, the purest violence worshippers {{{ideologically motivated fighters who get busy for what they perceive as the still far off and prized freedom which retrogressively legitimatess their presently taking and talking up such - as yet purely hypothetical and chimerical - futures}}} would a: simply be a minority, b: not hang in coffeeshops to chat about atrocities nor be ready to commit them there unless you help surprise themselves with the most reflexive of rages but remember it will be you who pushed that button]], too late perhaps) these guys see violence as the only legit, first and last argument. Until then, chatting and dousing flames as humorously as possible seems to be the way to go. Most of them are at kid level mentally and only a good example will inspire them.

Patai's book is one of the many I bought years and years ago (because he worked with Robert Graves who is anything but a racist, no matter how much you put him in that camp by implication) and has been in (out of reach) storage ever since.

If anything Graves illustrates untiringly how during the pre-Biblical part of the expansionary (race) phase throughout the eurozone, when its demographics got/were just as out of control as they are (in terms of many a ruinous term) in the most contested ground on the whole present world, violence, the concurrence to conquer could be triggered by narcissism of small diff that typically exist between neighbours. There's nothing racist about such battles. It's a matter of bursting at the seams, the tale that tells of noman's (but much more everybeing's) land buffer erosion, such corridors were and are the only remedy and insurance that can turn war to bloodless ones among sports.

On the whole I agree with your argument but it's not complete. Take Holland for instance. No matter how stupid and yes torturesome it is to leave (ex-migrant) people to breed in neighbourhoods that were intended as little more than barracks occupied temporarily in succession, to be blind to the fact these people were with few exceptions (physically and mentally and culturally) unable to work themselves up to operators rather than just owners of dutch prospects, prides and prejudices (official papers and amenities were given in a time when lefty cheating of biological limits concentrated once again, as in the times of Stalin, on people though it has since 'retreated' its cheating life and death circus to crops and such).

Unsustainable demographics characterizes unbelievably and paradoxically enough those highly contested grounds I mentioned already; if one didn't know better than to say that woman are never warlike, one could be tempted to say: behold woman's realm degraded to an aspect of war; either way, this problem leads to running out of places to run to and go run (which hasn't stopped the restless part of that illustrious teeth of [s]times [[aanzien; regard; eyecandy; repute; royal blood, stardom, liberatorfame]] defying semites family thus far, so much/little so that they make a great show of fencing themselves in [[at the expense of ageless orchard just to leave nobody any room to make a mistake about where that gesture is coming from]] as a token off/in denial no princess will come 'fish them up' from - as the dutch have it) --

I know I am harebrained if I plead for a complete redistribution, [a] repatriation incentives, [b] redrawing of the map to autonomize brandnew villages in the middle of as nowhere as we have left in Holland (honouring the man who led to my moniker, a statesman who planted orchards in the dunes) and resettle those who absolutely want to stay; grab a whole earth catalog, sprout little seeds from and show the glory of the middle ages, drainage of the concrete deserts and so alleviate encroachment and proximity that got to be too chronic, too close and so frustrating that youngsters consider it sport to rob and hurt old people in exchange for the dirty looks they get when their culturally conditioned differences become too hard to overhear, -look and -see tranquilly.

ps: if a focus on the dynamic territory/demographics is too or not intellectual (enough) in your book forget I said anything, forgive me for speaking up (, over) and out

Apropos that contest some more: 'Topscoring demographucks' *as some certain semitic ones tend to try remain despite severely eroded resources and running into territorial limits. Whatever delusion delivering drug it was that made humans believe high birthrates were easy to swallow if you consider violence a luxury you can't, won't and need not even do without when no enemies are in sight .. firstling sacrifice anybody? .. it is still the most deadly one. Graves argued they were the first to stop this crossracial practice, that's probably, and certainly in the light of what haps these days, as you tirelessly attest to, too much honour.

let me lay into and butcher this pr stunt of space exploration plotters with the aid of a man claiming to be an angel: this is the devil shifting gears folks; whole multinationals are soon falling for the idea we can do the age of discovery and exploration over again if only to try forget about the aches, pains, wounds and disfigurements it has brought, such as pollution, colonialism, exploitation, mongrelization, multi-culturalism and erosion on a scale that rivals the astronomically caused ones .. and so watch out, move over, multi-dimensions here we come!!!!

This post concerns Pat Robertson's Fatwah over Chavez

----- Here's the much improved version of what I posted at 8.13 AM the 24th of august: /monies-mystics-and-marksmen.html A commenter there brings up the Protocol canard; I go: look, 'jews' are the more venturesome part of the semitic family, 'one' of the wishest washiest of races bycause pretty much most of those that went 'stellar' (massive[[ly numerous]]) are rather mongrelized at the edges (if not the very core; which certainly seems to facilitate the clean consciousness, different drum, terra nullius types). Unrestrained pride regarding the 'guarantees'* for demographic prowess ' (be)gets that (way) more than most.

The premises of a-S are non-valid cause 'jews' don't 'plan' stuff so much as they simple and implicitly make selfexamination on certain levels taboo. They 'are' pretty damn unreflective and spontaneous, not to say impulsive or even reactionary type folk (they have a nose for ...eh .. springboards that help set themselves apart the furthest, roam the widest, cover the most, etcetera. It comes with the [[pursuit of]] territory).

The present retreat (ingathering) is laudable and deserves all the help it can get and that's why I try perfect penning my pieces again and again, that is to say compose them with such hopelessly complex density that it becomes a true mirror for what happens in the 'holey' (hold out, hollowed) and surrounding lands.

Yall 'jews' have nothing to feel guilty about, ya should be welcome everywhere; the arabs in holland france and everywhere will welcome you (who are happy to relieve demographic pressures in fundamentalism's breeding grounds). Both sides of that infamous 'line' by the way; see the Pynchon scholarship that ends with these lines:

"Pynchon has used language to project a world where everyone talks to God, and to each other. Perhaps it's not too much to hope that in our own world, some clshr listening to the fabulists and counterfeiters, Ballad-Mongers and Cranks, whose inclusive motto might well be omnia in verba, would foster more healthy skepticism toward Lines, and less toward whatever lies on either side of them."

columbia.edu/~wbm1/snovian.html - 57k; don't try to share an already way too long and way too hotly contested chunk of land with your own but share the world with everybody else!

-----All bright prospects cast a shadow, one kind in particular remains all the more shadowy cause they, deserts, creep without casting them in your face enough to be alarmed (unless you are fortunate enough to be inclined and have the means to sharpen your wits on those subtleties - most americans remained oblivious of the century long holocaust at their expanding periphery); I think zionism's ideas of greening the deserts are great and it's time we help them match their ecological footprint* to their impact and not get side tracked into .. .well .. we all know the horror stories .. .

-----down with semitilitary patrism and slily secretive pahchutz; stop the motor of antropocentric desertification; permacultivate! pleach! down with holy books, up with live leaves!

-----My grandmother was one of the most beautiful half assimilated dutch jewesses you'll ever see; I love them sorts of people but am not part of them so much as to lose all ability to be critical of this input for and part of my geneticocultural baggage.

'are'*1: Replace 'are' with 'tend to gravitate to', 'are inclined to' or any number of such tone downs, fact remains that ethnicities have undeniable and differently weighted characteristics and cultural traits some of which are even unique and unshared if not unsharable. The more common ones work both ways (when you're a major league player you get granted a game with the champs and met halfway).

-----You want hi returns without scruple or shame, no troubled consciousness, no blame? We've got just the right investment opp here for you: the arms industry!!!! -- You all wanna call in the American full employment miracle? Be my guest and the earth's until we blow you off our backs in unison. I'm prepared to take her lead while she still has any of the good humoured stuff left, are you?

'are'*2: When it comes to searching for transgenerational and collective motives (semites seem to prefer getting lost in those, that is, be well buffered with brood as a tangible measure and confirmation of their success and earned privileges), extent and flavor of collaboration, etcetera semites are reflexive rather than reflective; Freud helped obscure this field of enquiry by placing emphasis on individual aspects at the expense of them. Once you declare the scary depths off-limits, too powerful to probe without backlash, hold them at armslength for awhile, they will grow, fuse and fill all space with all that is too holy and unspeakable, nonpronouncable and what have you. Meanwhile, your very own worst characteristics will hide, find refuge and do (from) business there, etcetera.

-----You may be aware that some people lately saw fit to declare Marx most important philosopher. It might repay our efforts to flesh out what he merely said too cryptically and abbreviatedly to sink in (or else all this tiresome confusion would be gone by now), namely that, and I paraphrase: in as far as we deal with money we are all capitalists and jews now. He omitted the vital specifications that would help differentiate between facilitatory and parasitic types of social traffic lubing money. The centralized sort that has even just about managed to do away with the distinction between state and open market money (*feminine types geared to the satisfaction of immediate and intimate needs, non-profit and local vs the fast boy high risk stuff that have in the past managed to keep each other honest as long as there is some naturally incremental standard that keeps pace, I would suggest using [\[\[regional\]\]](#) photosynthesis rates and diversities for that soon).

sd, no, not 'up my sleeve' but certainly plenny relevant stuff sprinkled throughout my site (gliberal I admit); I don't feel called upon to fingertiptapspoonfeed you with it here, so let's see how far your 'love to see it' goes and comes; you might dig (for) it . .. you need not; dig?

ps: perhaps the zionist initiative was parrallel to and maybe even the antecedent/innoculant that started the whole sick Nazi epidemic (shem and shaun; cheggen Q); Ward C certainly makes a mistake when he suggest the ghettos came about bycause of the Nazis unless you wanna give them very old roots indeed.

My regular reading schedule just happens to have crossed cited passage yesterday and I must say, the whole book makes more sense than I suspected it would judging from reviews (workingforchange) and polemics (Carol Moore) against it when it came out. I also happen to have looked up some relevant things this morning which I can warmly recommend .. snip .. not much about Palestine yet still curious why Karl Kraus used philistine as adverb etcetera so often and why his conception of it changed over time; have to go get to use one of them expensive CD-Roms of the 'fackel'; asking politely ain't getting results for me either.

hyperstion blog post: Intuitive Economics - 4th comment: you keep sounding more like that rocket developer in gravity's rainbow all the time, so watch out sd, the proof of your obvious dedication may be the death of you. The pure individuality you worship may be as fleeting meteoric spectacle. Those lovegames are fine with me but I'd rather see the individuality applied to ways and means before the big event you know. Instead, hypocritical as hell your kind yokes, cajoles and cheats all and everything into co(r[[r]]e)lation of collectives damaging schemes (cheapen and downgrades your singularity into one made by mere contrast); typical case of denigrate what can't be done without, what one must depend on yet refuses to appreciate. Kinda like jews refusing to examine why they rile Nazis up so much (preferring to dream their robot dreams). To conclude here's a little calculous: sf = the left x the religious

--- As a "contribution to overflowing toxic spew" (probably referring to the wikipedia linked timeline of evolution posted by sd) Northanger posts some pages on the dollar, quotes Zander and (something [\[\[else\]\]](#) from this):

Latter-day detractors of the RBD have obviously missed the contribution of Ritterhausen (should be Rittershausen) who in 1934 published a paper Zahlungsverkehr, Einkaufsschaffung und Arbeitsbeschaffung in the journal Annalen der Gemeinwirtschaft. In it he makes a defense of the "Banking School" and the Real Bills Doctrine against the inflationists, deflationists, and adherents of the "Currency School". He also discusses how the first departure in 1909 from the RBD by Germany was later imitated verbatim by other countries, which was the major cause of unemployment world-wide in the 1930's. It is not fashionable nowadays to read papers that have been written and passed by the Nazi censorship during the Third Reich. Yet you may ignore them at your own peril. Economist and monetary scientist Rittershausen survived the Nazi witch-hunt by a fluke. He continued to teach after the war until his retirement as Dean at the University of Köln in 1966.

I am visitor 13529 somewhere else and 192078 where you can buy his book (he takes [[100% backed]] e-gold). No wonder Northingy gets the hots for this guy, he attempts to unify and reconcile the mutually, emphatically and pertinently exclusive. Of course people like this are likely to see paradox where there isn't any:

However, "Jewish Bolshevism" was not the only anti-semitic theme of tirades against political opponents. Paradoxically, "Jewish plutocrats" and "liberals" were also seen as effecting a parasitic drain on the German worker.

Ruling out ruling by Sharia (as in Canada) rules out other flavors of religious arbitration too, hence jews join muslims on the diversity of justice front; a similar effect and less twisted reason for something similar that happened in Holland recently (wrote about it in last issue).

Robert Fisk on Iraq ----- Why did the Bali bombers target westerners last weekend and back in October of 2002? This is a question that must be asked, and must be answered if we're going to try and stop it from happening again. That what Robert Fisk argues. Neo-Nazi posting on Pro-Palestinian blogs is Outted
An entity disguising himself as "Gerry Hiles" has been discovered to be a closet Nazi. He was first merely a suspect because of his posting canards such as Arabs being unable to be antisemites because they are semites, the disproven Khazar theory, and palagerizing the work of White supremacist's favorite antisemite Israel Shamir.

Then the link of his name came to light. Gerry is slang for a German national, popularized during the world wars. Hiles is a homonym for heil's. And just what does a German heil? From 1933 through 1945, they heiled Hitler.

So there you have it, the zundelphile posting on <http://peacepalestine.blogspot.com/> (italian lady) and umkahlil.blogspot.com/ is nothing but a nazi who has just been outted. posted by Ibrahamav piet: both are digital stalked by this blog: umkahlillies.blogspot.com/ no not lillies, LIES . . . quite obsessively even, the two sites are the only ones he links to.

Naughty thoughty CIDI and CJO = dutch jewish orgs bent on combining and cashing in on modern popular sentiment and ancient guilt inspired/guided a national poster campaign with slogans like 'who has to get on the train now', reminding of the shameful deportation of jews as well as dangling bait of the widely wished for booting of the other/next semites, the archrivals of the earlier undislodgeable earlier arrivals, their siblings, who skillfully split coherent and consistent focus on both kinds of semites. If pc type equal treatment is as conspicuously absent as necessary and sorely missed anywhere, it is here in this vital and so/yet tabooed area of ethno-demographic awareness.

Elsewhere AIPAC at the head of yet more serially zionist manifestations of the shameless nothing to fear and so slightly less weasely kind are aiming to subvert sizable enough to be decisive chunks of the world with multiculturalism so that by the time everybody is screaming and damn near rioting against the pretending to be non-token lefty/bolshy jew inspired globalism variety (the one (split) at several but no less fractally subordinate branches removed from judaism and christianity), they can just and finally boot out the palestinian without deflecting the outcry onto themselves.

Plausible explanation for the unhappy north african immigrant's even unhappier descendants' compulsion to affront and irritate their host society in Holland chronically and invasively: An immigrant is by definition more aware of his routine disrupting presence cause he notices such changes whenever he enters a picture he first sees unobserved, quite often however, he enters not to learn but show he depreciation for what his cultural baggage tells him is offensive; visible human skill, etcetera.

If Africans could put paid for what we western seafaring nations have done to their continent, namely broken it, we'd have more to deal with than the telltale token tentacle in the form of some semi-relatives who have managed to wrestle and muscle out from under Mongolian and the original Aryan influence at the expense of their cultural standards and environments to the point and brink where it now so sensitive (and if not for oil, marginally supportive) one would think a choice between patriarchy or permaculture is easy to make, but alas, cultural heritage is as resistant to change as its operational scale is vast.

Many eyebrows in Holland are raised lately cause the Dutch equivalent of AIPAC (representing a handful of jews suffering disproportionately from 'imported anti-semitism virus carrying semi-semites') has seen fit to launch a national anti-xenophobia campaign with slogans that explicitly remind the Dutch traintravellers of the transports (deportation of jews in war time).

I wrote about some twisted reasoning and insane hope that may be behind it yesterday, then thought differently:

... a more powerful line of reasoning runs and fires along this trajectories of hopes and fears but the other way, the ricochet and echo of hitting the distant bell of truth ring so to speak. Those church bells by the way are eulogized by Nick Szabo in his superb explanation of how the pars- and apportioning of time (by bell) made bargaining and contract law as well as the rift between private and public, self sufficiency and earnings possible. Zionists are classed as migrants as well but instead of supplicative they did everything to become dominant. Perhaps the dutch orgs extend a salute to siblings/archrivals on a fast track to follow in their foot- and repsteps and thus adding to and extending the lifelike echos of WW2 which Zionism has been mining for every bit of guilt induced looking away (from crimes in the Middle East) that is in them.

Exploiting them is a tasteless and low realization of Nietzsche's worst nightmares but irresistible cause the echos are unmistakable apart from the territorial turmoil and heavy industry hype (the latter having migrated to the States [[zionism's present hinterland and {{{seat of eternally migrating}}} headquarters]]) but people are realizing that the harvest of climatic disruption such neoconjunctures sow is a almost ripe. Many chickens whirling on their way home).

Yesterday BMR wrote: 'That is, the left who will probably wish to live in an inclusive homogenising humanitarian paradise, and the right who will be looking conserve racial purity and religion.'

Eerily enough, just yesterday I was reading something, downloaded a week ago, by Rowan Berkeley (known to me from live [[indy{{{main}}}}]wire days):

"I think all the above views are wrong because they fail to realise that American Jews reflect the illusory bifurcation which is characteristic of American politics in general, and indeed of all so-called 'democracies' based on mass political parties. The correct comparison would be the 'hard cop' and the 'soft cop' interrogation team : one specialises in threats and the other in inducements. The 'democratic' party system is exactly like that, and American Jews replicate the pattern. Consequently, Jews allied to the 'Democratic Party' evince a tacit support for the deracialisation of the state of Israel (but since this sympathy is tacit it has no effect) while Jews allied to the 'Republican Party' evince a tacit support for the expulsion of non-Jews and the expansion of the jewish-racial state to enormous dimensions (again, fortunately, this sympathy remains tacit and has no direct impact on national policy). The advantage of this illusory bifurcation is that it allows constant tactical sidestepping of any concrete issue, by thrusting the more obstructive faction to the front. Of course, the state of israel has exactly the same system. Said may have been a pioneer, but this is another example of the shallowness of his views I'm afraid."

ROBOT WISDOM ANTI-SEMITIC?

JDS - Your website links to Robot Wisdom, and with good reason - it collects a lot of entertaining URLs. None the less, I think you ought to delink.

I've been uncomfortable with his strident tone on some issues for a while. I'm not the sort of person who thinks that any criticism of Israel is automatically anti-Semitic, and I guess any weblog owner is entitled to have a hobby horse, but the frequency and phrasing of his comments seemed a bit unusual. Now he's confirmed what I had come to suspect: he's frankly anti-Semitic. If you visit the site right now you'll find it headed with "judaism worships fraud." It isn't a link or a header for some sort of editorial about atheism: it's just a bit of text that he wants people to read.

There's a lot of stuff on his website (that is, stuff he wrote himself) and some of it is pretty clearly anti-semitic. I don't see any need to go digging through it; I think it's clear that his political position and his anti-semitism go hand in hand. I don't think it's appropriate to link to him just for the entertainment value of the URLs and I think it's especially important to keep anti-Semitism out of progressive political discussions.

[If I were to accept your premise, we would also have to delink the Washington Post and NY Times for being anti-Muslim and Aljazeera for being anti-Christian. The Review, however, practices reality-based journalism, part of which is an acceptance of the fact that ethnic and religious antipathies are common throughout cultures and history and that not talking about them doesn't make them go away or even lessen. This is especially true in a period when various religions continue to claim special protection from criticism even as they engage in violent acts against other religions and ethnicities, suppress other groups' freedoms, and generally cause an inordinate share of the world's problems.

I do not understand what Jorn Barger was talking about when he said "judiasm worships fraud" but the articles on Israel I read on his site include those from such notorious sources as the Nation Magazine and Noam Chomsky. Further, the tiny little message you found has been replaced by one that reads, "Patrick Fitzgerald: Drain The Whole Dc Swamp!" - an anti-capitalite reference to Washington's geography commonly made by outsiders. Washington does not have, and never had, swamps. What it had were marshes of the sort people now pay a lot of money to build their condos next to. So you see, Jorn

He even listed one of my essays the other day with the following: "Curmudgeonly wide-ranging Sam Smith think-piece (long) I vehemently disagree that the arts are in decline." Note, however, that he didn't delink me for my conceptual failures. -Sam]

Mmmm, today (the next) Jorn Barges on about the fraud and tells us to go to the Jacob and Esau story if we can't grasp how statutory this mercuriality is already. Plus he blubbers on about how us bloggers oughtn't be intimidated Judy Millerlike. ... The G-String / SCHATUP IN THE NAME OF LOVE ---- By AMY WOLF ----- Premarital sex didn't make the short list of sins, at least not in the prayer booksat Kolot Chayeinu, a progressive Park Slope congregation. This is because in all sects of Judaism, love and sex are integral to God's commandment to be fruitful and multiply. Everything God creates is good, and God made sex, so therefore, sex, when done well, is divine.

"I took my goy Neshumeleh (Yiddish for "sweetheart") to Yom Kippur services this year to fulfill his curiosity about this ancient religion that turns out these well-stacked, sex-positive Jewesses. He felt nervous about wearing the free yarmulke, but stuffed it in his pocket as a keepsake."

Very interesting; doesn't it seem fair (as far as being schizoically compensatory can be applauded; personally I prefer old-fashioned clearing mechanisms for goods and goodwill rather than blood flow) that the most violence prone societies are 1: neighbours 2: sport the 2 highest birthrates among people collections (israel being far from a normally indiginous one and if the original canaanites [[along with a host of tribes one here and there and meanwhile lost most everywhere]] suffered genocide the palis aren't exactly originary either)? You trying to distract from such facts? The patriarchal prowess and cunning of keeping wives fed and preppers to distract from growing desert and mercenary blood flowing in it. Just wondering. Thanks for the contrast between this and what I had just read in a different part of the universe and yet a window right next to it (as the remedy/deeper truth grows near the poison/dangerous deception .. or is that the other way around .. .I can't discover the role of demographic deviltry in this ethnosupremating call).

They will leave millions of northern countries disrupting arabs alone who are probably much less nuanced about the whole deal but if the ingrates only rob, traumatize and cripple old ladies and the occasional completely innocent scapegoat (for the fact they aren't GIVEN jobs and status like the leftylanders all say they owe them) on the fly, they are after all much less dangerous than an internet user who can find things on a map miles away.

More sorcery: Subject: Are the pro-government issued money people Borimer from LOTR? (ijccr group) - In the Epic trilogy, the Lord of the Rings, Borimer was the valiant warrior who was seduced by the power of the ring. "Let us use the ring for good!" he said. But clearly the message of the story was that the "ring of power," and apt metaphor for the power of fiat money, was that nobody should have that power for eventually it will be co-opted for the true owner of the ring which is the dark lord, that is the lust for omnipotence and control itself. Those who pursue power for good are eventually over taken at some level by the power itself. Sure, the government money folks say that this government will be democratic! But it will still consist of the layers of bureaucracy, the distance between the elected officials and the electorate--even if it were a benign power, it would not be allowing for what is possible out of creating a more decentralized monetary system that emphasizes the power of a community of self governing, sovereign individuals--not of the corporate state. Such power invested in the state will be corrupted and will result in its demise (or of its original intentions--just like poor Borimer). --Chris

The Church has to decide what is more important, self-preservation as an institution or preserving the Covenant of God and fighting for Islam with Jesus against the Jews. Muslims need the Christians to convert to Islam in order it is only in our mercenary times that such an egregious coinage like 'embedded journalism', on par with 'ethical prostitution', could achieve legitimacy both in practice and usage. amid this encircling gloom, when instead of exposing the foulest lies of rapacious neo-colonists, the media cowers under the ghoulish wings of these raptors, a rare breed of newsmen stand out for their integrity and clarity of vision. fisk leads these passionate seekers of truth voyaging in a sea of half-truths, spin, yarn and brazen lies, among whom can be honourably counted pilger and jamail also.

The Great War for Civilisation: the conquest of the Middle East, By Robert Fisk Making history on the front line Reviewed by Phillip Knightley Published: 14 October 2005 The Independent ----- This brilliant but enormous book has been 16 years in the making. Its obvious ingredients are 328,000 notes, documents and dispatches, and Robert Fisk's 30 years' experience of reporting the Middle East. But there is also a hidden element - the author's ethical, philosophical and moral approach to his life's work.

w-h-o should of course read w-h-i-c-h if you're not intent on breaking the logic in sentence construction here. Either that or leave out the 'allegedly'. The latter solution would jive better with the first 7 words in this quote which are in bold, by whom I don't know.

What he is doing here is quoting the jpost on Ken Livingston, mayor of London who

"charges that Sharon "continues to organize terror" by combating the current intifada, that Israel is engaged in a campaign of ethnic cleansing against the Palestinians similar to that of the Serbs in Bosnia and that the government is trying to frame Muslims for European anti-Semitism – all of which were outlined in a column published Friday in The Guardian."

I had an interesting book by a certain Rabbi Schonfeld of the Satmar or NK persuasion which collected all the old articles by ultra-Orthodox polemicists of the '50s accusing the Lubavitcher Rebbe of fraternising with such G*dless zionists as Zalman Shazar. At that time Lubavitch was regarded as selling out to the marxist-atheist zionist state, and now of course Chabad is part of a global imperialist network which is as much at home in the corridors of the US Congress or the Kremlin as it is in those of the Knesset.

Previously, however, it had shared the ultra-Orthodox abhorrence for all modernism, whether assimilationist or nationalist, and it would have been quite content with the sort of wild and wacky statements that we hear now from Rabbi Ovadia Yosef.

rasputin.gnn.tv/...Cut_outs_moles_patsies_and_provocateurs

This rasputin article link is pretty brilliant, though it seems to be based on Webster Griffin Tarpley's new book, "Synthetic Terrorism", which I suppose I should try to get hold of. Now Tarpley, like Larouche, holds to a theory of 'synarchism' which I find frankly absurd, namely, that Likud Zionism is an equal partner with top-down Nazism in running the NWO. I have simplified this equation by leaving out other Zionisms than the Likud one (which after all did start out as an ally of Mussolini, so that much is known) and also leaving out non-top-down Nazism (i.e. all the non-ruling-class white power organisations, which are basically diversionary, except in so far as they may provide patsies - just like the corresponding far left groups). BUT, even having said all that, I still think the idea that any sort of Jew is in bed with any sort of Nazi is a priori somewhat absurd - Mussolini's early philo-judaic form of fascism is a mere anomaly in the light of the broader and now incontrovertible antagonism between Jews and Nazis worldwide. israelshamir.net/./NonViolence.htm a long document at the end of which Rowan goes:

I regret that ISH simply brackets my views with those of 'zionists and hitlerites' but he is not really being very frank. He knows Catholicism itself has a hollow center and two very lively extremist and potentially schismatic 'wings' just like practically everything else does. He also, I'm sure, realises that people like Rowan Williams can go on quoting Dispensationalist passages from Paul to neutralise Substitutionist ones until Kingdom Come (which itself is a notion which will take diametrically opposed forms depending on which of those views one subscribes to). The best sites to get the gist of critical New Testament studies are: depts.drew.edu/jhc/jhcbody.html and hermann-detering.de/

You will see that these critics tend to pursue on the one hand the question of the historicity of Jesus, and on the other that of the authenticity of Paul's letters. Actually these two questions are not intrinsically related to one another. Whatever the real origin of Paul's letters (and the argument in a nutshell is that they contain a core of proto-gnostic material rejecting the Old Testament altogether and claiming that Jesus was an emissary of a different and better God than that of the Jews - this is their 'Marcionism'), it is obviously not based on any reliable traditions about the 'real Jesus', who cannot possibly really have been anything like this, but to judge from the huge number of anti-Pharisaic statements attributed to him, seems to me to have been a sort of proto-Karaite, no more and no less.

In other words, the fact that early Christianity was not based on the most reliable Jesus traditions, and that the more pro-Jewish, Roman-Christian recension of it does get marginally closer to what the 'real Jesus' probably taught, is actually irrelevant. The power of Christianity lies in the fact that it is able to ignore the 'real Jesus' and posit a complete rejection of the Jewish God. This is the power or potential power of Christianity which everybody longs for, flirts with, and through various mechanisms either pursues or runs away from, even though it has nothing to do with what the 'real Jesus' taught. The power of Christianity lies not in Jesus at all but in Paul (specifically, in the original core of Paul's letters, minus the proto-Dispensationalist additions - in lines like "who shall deliver me from this body of death?" which are clearly proto-gnostic). Because we naively assume that fidelity to the 'real Jesus' is the key to understanding the power of Christianity, we always miss this point.

A certain Rowan Berkeley from the UK: He writes, "At first glance, or second rather, I already discern a lamentable pattern in your selections and your judgments. On the one hand, you endorse the muddle-headed views of the French-Jewish Catholic Spinozist Benda, who tells us that 'civilisation' has appeared, disappeared, reappeared, etc., strictly in accordance with European-Hellenic canons, showing not only no awareness but even no interest in 'civilisation' beyond those parameters, i.e. anywhere in Asia. On the other, you endorse the judgments of Malise Ruthven, who attacks in the Muslim world the very religious seriousness of which Benda laments the disappearance in Europe. Doubtless, the catena of thought which connects these two antithetical positions is too long for your mind to encompass. Jewish thought in all its phases remains narrow." ----- Fine, no problem, that's a fair comment. Can I have Mr. Berkeley's city of residence? Asked him twice. Did not even bother to respond...

I think that your analysis reflects a certain unreconstructed leftist theory which is more a hindrance than an asset. Let me offer these criticisms of it: For the last 160 years or so the basic oppositional ideology has been Marxism, which has targetted industrial rather than financial magnates for the role of villains of the global drama. This in turn has led to an anti-anti-opposition, financed by industrialists and targetting financiers. This latter anti-anti-opposition has been harnessed by the status quo, especially in the USA, and rather than being directly controlled by genuine industrialists a la Henry Ford it is now controlled by clever financiers who use it as a 'right-wing individualist' or 'libertarian' stalking horse. This is why US politics is so lacking in coherent grand theory. Two footnotes to this thesis: (1) while industrialists have tended to be ethnically indigenous to the countries in which they operate, financiers have ended to be Jewish. This creates another red herring. (2) libertarian economic theory is based on the writings of Mises, which are actually pretty sound. However, the economic think tank established by the Misesians, which is called the Mont Pelerin Society, was hijacked in the 70s by followers of Milton Friedman, who is not a Misesian but a sort of reverse Keynesian who uses fake Misesian arguments to destroy non-metropolitan economies (Chile being his masterwork), while applying only the most preposterous pseudo-Misesian arguments to the metropolitan countries. Similarly, the libertarian economist Murray Rothbard produced a preposterous exaggeration of Mises containing such ideas as that the judiciary should be controlled by market forces, all of which obscures Mises' original points about fiat money and fractional reserve banking. I hope you find these little observations regarding the intellectual problems of the 'left' useful to bear in mind.

Cindy Sheehan is repeating the new First Principle of the Left: Israel is the Problem. Which, by the way, is just the new way of saying that the Jew is the Problem. Same old Same old. Nothing changes except the uniforms. What's remarkable is that her handlers were so damned clumsy. They must have figured that the Running Dogs in the media would give Sheehan an infinite free pass. Prominent Jews in the news media are going to start getting a mite bit uncomfortable with all the Jew-baiting that's coming out of Camp Casey these days, disguised as it is as a pro-Palestinian solidarity effort as well as an anti-Iraq war campaign. I sort of agree with the guys over at LGF-waiting as they are for the huge puppets and the Palestinian flags to show up, along with the commemorative shrine to Rachel Corrie. I actually don't believe that Cindy Sheehan is an anti-Semite. It's not like she's a subscriber to the Stormfront. Most of her handlers are, however, as anti-Semitism, disguised as "anti-Zionism", is one of the new fads of the Left these days. The minute you hear, "war for Israel", a little lightbulb called "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion" should start going off in your head. The fact that it doesn't tell me just how far the Left has fallen. It also tells me why this Cindy Sheehan tale will have a bad end." ----- He is like, if you don't want to conquer the entire planet, in order to make it safe for Jews, you are a Nazi. woah, piet! you be da man! (my chicago background coming out), your summary of these comments was a hoot, really fun! Out of your various and sundry blogs, tell me which to link up here. I am getting lost in the dutch shuffle.

I also DO notice lby doesn't dare respond to the questions. This is duly noted..... He knows it's going to define him once and for all as a racist (thug) or slug, since bugs offend him too much. thecutter | Homepage | 12.02.05 - 5:32 pm | #

See, it's OK, it's NORMAL to just diss any other religion, but you can't touch the Jewish one... That is pretty handy, conflagrating religion and culture and race and ethnicity, just so that way everyone has to shut up or else get accused of being racists.

Designed for 756 people, with food storage for seven years, the cavernous underground city had generators, communications equipment, and room to store semi-trucks and armored personnel carriers. This was built at an estimated cost of $20 million.

What I said earlier goes for zionism too, it needs to pay attention not so much to its roots as its plans of creating new roots (as in the permaculture movie I posted a few weeks ago), it's communitarian secessionist, autarky oriented rooting instead of hassling the Palestinians out and away from theirs. If all money on arms had been spent on earthenware waterpipes we'd have paradise on our hands and about ours ears already. Cedars of lebanon rather than rubble and shockwaves around the world.

Piet, Thank you for the link to <http://gatesofvienna.blogspot.com> . Some of the posts are very interesting. Especially grappling with the hatred invoked by terroristisc Islam and how to approach moderate Islam in its wake. Of course there is no split as antisemitism is exclusively meant to define hatred of Jews and not those who speak a semitic language, in general.

yeah, like there is no split between farmer and soldier cause they are both human?

Islam may have had sections and fractions that displayed and pushed imperial agendas all along (I think they did in fact) but only recently have they emulated and been infected by traits put to use by their sibling/rival using intrigue tactics moving world champs patriarchal desertification drive not just around and around in widening spirals but with spot point pin and node mode, more leapy and linear cell constellations. Unless we get some footprint awareness and permaculture productivity going this problem will keep on spreading as it has since patriarchy began tackling and shackling free beings.

my contribution ended up being in the middle of it since another 30 comments were posted on this thread, running 3 day total -- there's practically no copy pasting nor flaming in it either

A minister called Nawijn who sailed into a gov seat on the wind of the dutch martyrvote (for Pim Fortuyn's posthumous party) is as good as ostracized now, specially since he started a thinktank in Pim's old Rotterdam home with Flip the Block bloke (the latter did appear once on dutch tv in a black sheep program, him against a host with the program hostess trying to be neutral).

The right has lost touch with their green roots as much as zionism has with theirs.

Another fella was ousted from Rotterdam city council after stigmatizing the religion predominant amongst migrants. Nobody is tackling the economic precipitates of monotheisms various gearshifts and surges.

Last week i listened to an interesting audio interview on cultureshocks (dot org?) with Dalrymple about prisons as fundamentalization aids. Secular criminals wander up the road to roots revival.

<http://sociologyesoscience.com/groupsinasia.html> wherein he claims the asian theatre will feed jihad and roundly condemns claims referring to the peaceful essence of it.

I do not condemn rescuing valuable bits from large movements (empire aspirers) notorious for going or having gone awry, splitting their preaching and practice, for warmongering and glorification of violence, since they usually use (read abduct, subject and in the end destroy) green rhetorics as well as gentle metaphorics to get started and grow in- and onto their powerabuse.

I do it (faultlinedetection) myself all the time but really, somebody ought to try make folks like James Demeo (Saharasia) and Jose Arguelles connect and bundle forces on fighting wars and (patrism caused) desertification (and desertification caused patrism, all the stuff islam [[and other monotheisms, and .. and]] has tried and failed to get a handle on), restriction to things in common would surely eliminate a lot of ballast.

There are those denying poverty is a factor that makes people gravitate to Islam, I am not one of them (EPW, the author at cited link is, goes to show I pick people over and apart as much as I re-array my own puzzle pieces to suit incoming .. eh .. whatever.)

But all this cube stuff is fine setting up gatherings but as mental excercises they evoke Merlin frozen into a crystal, at least for me. Don't let me spoil your fun though. Go ahead explore your 'Ibn al-Arabi's sevenfold 28-part cosmology'

JCT: Sad to say but Tom Greco's one of the worst influences on the currency reform scene I know of. I first met him at my 1997 TOES presentation on World-Wide LETS timecurrency in Denver but he's never endorsed the Time Standard of Money always suggesting valuation of a "basket of goods" which keeps every country's money complicated so they need people like him to run the system. Time is the same everywhere.

As I said, JCT (bit of a conspiracy suspecter though he takes it 'i can handle them' kinda lightly too) definitely not a team player (though he praises Heloisa Primavera Verne Warwick, people active in SA), and insulting poor Tom is not the way to my heart either.

Av:

Poor pavlov's dog. Don't you realize that Israel is full cognizant of International law, when plied with equality and in keeping with the actual wording of the law, not some misbegotten interpritation by some islamo-fascist ideologue.

An Israeli normally follows their orders because the state is normally morally correct in its stances.

Most Israeli citizens believe that safety comes from a strong defence and kicking the ass of your enemy every time he tries to get up to do Israel harm.

Anywhere and at anytime.

Just like your sorry ass gets kicked around here on a regular basis.

! Killing the Dark Bodies: Execution as Market Sustainability & State Redemption -- by Lisa Arrastía -- From: Sam <xxx@xxx.com>
Subject: Re: The Soul of Money

To: Lisa Arrastía<arras004@umn.edu>
Good morning, chica, Mom and Marty hosted a brunch fundraiser for "Death Penalty Focus" on Sunday, which was uplifting. Mike Farrell (Captain B.J. Hunnicut of M.A.S.H. fame) spoke at the fundraiser. He's a long time death penalty activist. One thing he said really stuck with me. The criminal justice system and especially the death penalty is based on the premise that the "animals" and "monsters" locked up in our prisons are reduced to the worst thing they ever did. He asked the room how we would all like to be reduced to the worst thing we ever did. Now, I haven't murdered anyone (yet) but it's a profound question.

I have been visiting sites on it, and really think it is an important thing to promote.

I find it sometimes challenging to read Piet, but that forces me into reading it twice, and I actually enjoy it! Gerry, you wear your heart on your sleeve, and you are enjoyable too. and I hope both of you can contact your kids again as soon as possible. Never give up!
thecutter | Homepage | 01.05.06 - 4:43 pm | #

answering gary hyles: I said 'is' and should have said 'would be', but either way, I, of course, meant to imply the general rule of thumb I honour, can validate, apply and stand by, but not, of course, since I know next to nothing about you seeing you don't have a huge website up like I do and frankly this kind of tedious 'assuming the worst possible' is all well and good to drive profit rackets and 'defense' industries forward but not for me, not my cup of tea. Bottom line for me regarding you Gerry is 'those who can't play sabotage the game and cry foul'. As deportation is the only remedy in real life, so I just might decide to ignore you if you keep this up. Driven to drink eh? There is never an excuse for that stupefactor. I won't even grant Native Americans this dull hastener of hateful fate, this expressway to oblivion, let alone a whitey who has gone too far and filled his feeling faculties too full to be fair.

Piet; I have never had any state handouts and if you care to study where I stand with/on it you might like to google vadercats + "state money" (as different from 'normal' money as female is easy to distinguish from male though work is being done on that too, cause, in the light of prevailing policies, gender difference has become an 'ugly' reminder of less 'liberal' [[more elaborate and labyrinthine]] times) to catch just the most recent stuff, better yet, go straight to Ulrich von Beckerath (I am only writing this to counteract your misdirection and slanderous deflection of possible and prospective interest from third parties reading this blog, no hope YOU will, really).

Mary: oh ger!! i think you misread piet! he referred to drinking being a good reason for being incomprehensible to others!

Piet: Yeah, i did, earlier, the first time I mentioned a suspicion drink might be 'at play' in GH's at times drowning drunklike declamation

He was referring to what some might say of himself

piet: I have been digitally suspected of drug use (not alcohol) plenty but not nearly as much as I have been searched (in the US) by the side of the road, during a long hitch-hiking career, can't say both counts were baseless since most of my early work grew out of inspired moments high on cannabis but I stopped consuming it altogether in the late 80s and never did worse than sporadic in the first place.

, and then continued to say, but i was only using microfiche ... at least that's how i read it!

If it is the way you understood it, it is indeed the height of rudeness. but i don't think he did that.
thecutter | Homepage | 01.06.06 - 1:54 am | #

Nup, I didn't misread it my friend ... and it wasn't just rude, it was sadistic ... as one would expect from a person who condemns human virtues and who admits to having associated with "right-wing" groups by preference.
Gerry Hiles | 01.06.06 - 2:39 am | #

Ger, it won't take much more to start calling you an outright liar when you keep writing stuff like: admits to having associated with "right-wing" groups by preference. I admitted to seeking them out voluntarily yes, 'by preference'? No.

If you are curious, I did this after I met a man hitch-hiking who praised my arian looks (my grandma is assimilated early adopter line jewish looking [[as I found out a few months ago and had long suspected]] though all that is taboo since jews with that sort of dilution DO seem to have a conscience and sense of shame; distance from and perspective on where and what the hell they came from/for blesses you with an awareness of wrongdoing as well as doing wrong, usually drowned in a libertine deluge of lascivious washups, did yall read about howard stern's daughter, he will do to anybody what he disallows done to his daughter) and showed me an apartment full of national vanguard and assorted newsrags stacked up along every wall of every room covered in greasy pipe tobacco ... anyway, lefties and righties are lateralists, I prioritize the work that lies patiently waiting along the bottom end of vertical/radial trajectories; just last night I sorta dreamed of buckets full of fresh dust carried away from base/source in order to extend a path made with it (apply thick and narrow so 'traces' of distribution remain visible quite some time before trace assimilation starts a new cycle of noticability, attraction and history in the making, write landscape right).

Have I ever been incomprehensible to anyone on account of me having a few bebies? Nup. I had a few over Christmas, said I had and said that I was in no fit state to comment on what was going on at the time ... surely everyone understood that. Only piet and Av have tried to smear me about the fact that I have a few sometimes ... Av used to go on about it and so does piet. Fucking brilliant sister.

Note that he has "parroted" my reference to Australian magpies. Note that Av also claims to be HUGE.
A sicko, in any guise, is still a sicko. PS Of course the guy cannot help possibly being some kind of schizophrenic but, FFS, just don't imagine that he has something profound to say when he goes into an 'episode' of whatever he goes into when he writes in riddles.

MID JANUARI

last sunday night a scientist was telling all of Holland how to help Malawi: send fertilizer.

what better term of art (artarm) than 'kunstmest' (literally artdung or artshit but a very respectable thing in Holland, namely) artificial fertilizer, recently in the news a lot cause the 18 y o Moroccan extraction Netherlander who tried to go to chechnya 2 years ago, create a bomb with mentioned subst. 1 year ago and is part of the beheading video inept romantic would be martyrs in Holland standing trial these days.

woops, ... video beheading is of course terminal propaganda art and the "Hofstad" group must (even on nuptial nights).

Holland all upset about the violence/impulsiveness/ SA early kids early death, great poppressure style of life (shoot me preppers beg the girls see if you can get me taunts the criminal) adopted by the dutch antillians (20% of killings in R'dam goes on their account) ... but they are not (as) upset about their professional killing machine though hesitant and deliberating about sending off to afghanistan which will provoke a lot of employment ... eh, slave labour, ... in the mine placement branch I bet.

restraint, skilling up and setting out to participate in imperial ventures causes a gap and places distance between homelands and the various services (sequestered, sent out and otherwise making sure civil life is like a lala rainbow land) until those with patrist cultural strategies are slipping through the tolerance, multicultural sanctimoniousness and selfdelusion of lefties who like to not only enjoy the luxury of believing what they say but implement policies based on their delusions. In other words, they conveniently forget that their bread is buttered on the right side (their own inadmissibly right half).

Funny enough the openly right leaning parties (if they'd not be ostracized) would probably show more restraint regarding 'meddlement' (and admission of reverse missionaries [[who infect rather than absorb lessons]] from) far away.

Piet, as always I cannot make head or tail of your train of thought, but I have recently received a document by the supposedly 'New Right' Guillaume Faye which contains not a word of criticism of our Jewish masters but merely an enormous amount of anti-Islamic scaremongering. In other words,

Joe, sorry not to have answered these questions before:

1 - is there a world Jewish Conspiracy, which centres itself on controlling the world's only military superpower ?

2 - how is it ordinary people influence and change the dominant political culture ?

2a - have ordinary people ever managed to bring about political change outside of disciplined military style fascist-type regimens/political parties ?

I think the answer to (2) is, they don't, but they are necessary to the illusion of the popular will, in other words, the real rulers have to recruit 'spontaneous revolutionaries' to make their operations look desired by the masses. And the answer to (2a) therefore is no. But regarding (1) I recommend this medium length text which says everything I want to say about power:

There you go piet, Rowan has no further use for you and does not give a toss about what you try to survive as best you can.

National Socialists, like Rowan, would just as soon toss you into some camp, but no left-leaning person would do that, like I have never done it with others I have met who, like you, lapse into "word salads".

Everyone is different, but one guy I knew decided to lock himself away for as long as it took him to somehow face his demons. And, so he told me, that worked for him ... but maybe not for you.

just to return the deprecatory flavor Rowan, that site is chockablock on technical trickery trickyness or hi-tec trickle uppityness as the case may be from one to the next but the fact that their diagnosis of psychological sleigh of mind in the field of economics is elaborate but left without solution, no alternative offered (leaving it most inexcusably incomplete) prompts me to lose confidence and interest in the hands on stuff ('museum of unworkable machines' anybody? Their 'teckey' solutions are often borrowing and stealing the thunder of real life working principles and arrogating the right to mimic, meter and pollute them into the bargain; that batch of edge blurbs I read recently has a nice example by a nanohead).

My writing style is off the wall enough to make it easy for me to forgive those unwilling or unable to spend time and/or brainpower to decipher them but if you point to low grade writs rather than telling me what's wrong with my pointers to Fekete Rittershausen, Beckerath et al I fear our dialogue on economics is aborting.

Piet, I don't know which site you mean. If you are referring to "The Occult Technology of Power", which is not a site but a document dating from 1972, then it is not supposed to offer a 'solution', if by that you mean some sort of strategy for defeating the existing world power. It is simply intended to explain how it works.

Rowan Berkeley | 01.11.06 - 4:38 pm | #

90% of that site is about technology, right. But based on and judging by how they go about economics (practically wallowing in wiley ways with some detail) and having zip to say anything on how it came to be that way (let alone whether collective inadvertent u- and sub- conscious pressures played a role there or not) is pretty pispoor medicine to me and makes me fear the worst for the ways they go about stuff in the field of their expertise (though one can't know it all can we now?) .. just a hunch ... oh and by the way, if you put up a list that exhaustive Tom Pawlicki shouldn't be missing; hugely entertaining keep it simply stupid cleverness.

The fact that I found it on that site (which is mainly devoted to fringe science and prophecy) isn't really relevant to its contents as far as I can see. You can find it in various other places too.

Volkisch Myth: The Hitler Gospels P.1.

Fascism may be defined as a form of political behavior marked by obsessive preoccupation with community decline, humiliation, or victimhood and by compensatory cults of unity, energy, and purity, in what a mass-based party of committed nationalist militants, working in uneasy but effective collaboration with traditional elites, abandons democratic liberties and pursues with redemptive violence and without ethical or legal restraints goals of internal cleansing and external expansion (Robert O. Paxton's The Anatomy of Fascism, 2004: 21).

I want your impression of some beckerath before giving you the link (fresh, no googlink yet) sure ... sure ... the ijccr yahoo group spouts it from a carousel with rotating besatzung and the endless ways the rightish ferret non- and unbacking of monies get fresh updates all the time; check the discussion on lbo around www.ksg.harvard.edu/cid/cidpublications/darkmatter_051130.pdf by the way, bundling of sticks is as far as i want to see fascere happen; the 1830 forest folk uprising against furnace feeding clearcutters in the south of france lived that way, dressing up as ladies (matriecho) during the revolt, striking at night. Their more and lore allowed them branches only, see; never trees; they were my kind of fascists.

Echos of that happened at Schinveld; the locked on up high protesters got massive support from locals but the need to fuel up awacs all the way in the near future (?????) spelled doom for the trees near where they take off.

Gerry wrote:

Neither you nor Rowan really give a stiff shit about Iraqi nor Palestinian suffering, so long as you two can have your "telegraphic means of communicating" that you both favour a fascist solution.

Mary: I can't speak for Rowan, but for you to say this leaves me speechless. I scour the internet to find material and I have people write things specifically to put up, and if you say I have no compassion for Palestinians, I am speechless. I would expect that from Av, but not from you, Gerry.

SECOND, and more important point - Outside of this blog, I have a life. It is quite complicated as I try to juggle a restoration laboratory and I am also a professional translator, as well as being part of a very active translations collective. Add to that, I have a daughter who is still young and needs a lot of attention. The time I have left isn't a whole lot, and I try to keep up with the blog, but I can't always follow the comments threads. I see them as a space for OTHERS primarily to participate. My presence is frequent when I have more time. Right now, I am translating a 657 page book that has a deadline. It keeps me working 16 hours a day including weekends and holidays.

I do not try to direct discourse, I leave that to others, I limit myself basically to trying to keep those who insist upon violating the very simple rules, OUT. Whatever else goes on here, I just haven't got time to follow now. ---- cont:

Gerry: You sucked so many people in Mary and have dumped them all, e.g. ALL those you enticed into your private email group, which you just unilaterally decided to dump. Yes, folks, Mary started a little sideline to this public blog ... but lately it hasn't quite worked out her way and so she has diced it ... well "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned/frustrated in her drive for power." (Well look at Margaret Thatcher.) You are being used Rowan.

Mary; THIRD and quite important. You might have realised that the private list I started I did not dismantle, I stepped out. This list did not "entice", it was a list of friends who I generally wrote to anyway. I did not DUMP anyone, and this is the first I have heard of THAT at all! I had to leave the list I started, Gerry, because our security was violated. Do you realise that somehow some Guy named Chris Barel (who might by Av) got on that list? Do you not realise he is a troublemaker and I had written in three emails for people to cancel him off, but people were not doing it? Have you not noticed Av here is talking about friends of ours who were on that list, Chris and Ed? Do you not realise that in conditions of that sort, we risk getting viruses?

You may not know that another (famous) activist wanted to publish a shitload of my email writing because he thought it made him look good in an argument we were having? I had to raise hell to make him stop, preventing my private email from entering into a public forum even more than it already is... I don't have a lot of money to fix up my computer if I get a virus.

The list could go on, without me, I just could not risk my security since I use the computer to work. I did not say, the list is Kaputt. I said, I cannot be on it any longer. The difference is macroscopic. I was the founder, but just a member when it comes down to it, and nothing in heaven or earth is preventing anyone on it from continuing! Get real Gerry.

Now, how am I using Rowan? Like I said before, I know Rowan from the JPUK days. Rowan has always been on his own trip, and sometimes we agree. Sometimes we really disagree, but it doesn't matter. I've never found Rowan to be mean, and on a certain level, I really like him. He isn't brother material like you and Joe (well, Joe is almost husband material hehehe), but he is a friend, and I don't like when I see the two of you pushing one another around. There's no need for it.

Hey "sister" - everyone - we sit at our computers (all of us probably looking for some kind of "community" of likemindedness) and sometimes it works for a while, albeit that we will never meet and find out that I, for instance, have a tendency to fart quite freely and find it funny ... like the time when I and a mate were competing for the best blue flame (never try it if you are not wearing underpants).

So joe is probably better "husband material", but I fancy that neither of us want you to end up with Rowan ... not out of possessiveness and certainly not jealousy, but as a matter of integrity and humanity.

Yup I have given you a bit of a hard going over, but there has been no malice in it ... just a desire to see if you don't want Rowan, the avowed fascist, reducing every post to his jewish conspiracy theories and "the failure of the left, liberalism and humanism". I suppose that we all have some kind of axe to grind but, aside from the zionists who have obviously ground their axes here, Rowan is the only person here who has ever had a particular, ideological barrow to push.

"the failure of the left, liberalism and humanism" is a bogus quote, a la Iblis. Odd how much like him you have become Gerry.

As for "a particular, ideological barrow to push", I suppose this is a peculiar way of saying that I am the only person posting here with any actual ideas in his head - an uncharitable view, I must say. Rowan Berkeley | 01.12.06 - 8:00 am | # well, Gerry, whether or not there was malice in it, I once said NO ONE on this blog has to explain his or her life to others. It is not something that is fair, and also your lamenting about "off Blog" behaviour of mine, and distorting it as if I were out to corrupt people was highly inappropriate.

OK Mary, I take your point and I am sorry for the offence.

As I am not likely to basically change and as I can never get along with Rowan - who you have known and gotten along with for far longer than you have known me - the best thing for all concerned is that I leave.

I wish you all the best ... everyone in this troubled world, but especially those I have somewhat got to know via your blog Mary ... but I am reminded of the poem of Robert Frost, about the fork in the road in the forest.

Who knows which road will lead to a better world (if any) ... but I do have reason to doubt that National Socialism will ... but as I can no longer be bothered to argue any point with Rowan (and upset you in the process) needs-must we part company.

what are you on about Gerry? I don't see why you have to leave because you don't like what rowan writes. Rowan has always been interested at looking at political movements in a historical perspective and doing comparative analysis.

One does not necessarily have to agree with the thesis one is studying to find that the evolution of it and especially how it is comprehended with time and space difference is quite an interesting little hobby.

Neither Rowan nor I nor anybody was pushing you off this board. I think you are a valuable contributor who I really love, and wonder why you cyclically get so irritated! Take a deep breath, and start over again, mate!

What, ICH? It claims to be, but it's hard to believe that it really is, all the work of one man, viz Tom Feeley.

He reproduces an inordinate number of items by leftists, all saying that the worst thing about BushCo, and/or IsRealHell, is that they remind them of nazism and/or fascism - which are of course by definition the worst thing in the world.

As you all know by now I am fed up with this sheep like reasoning, or pseudo reasoning. The day the West stops regarding nazism and/or fascism as by definition the worst thing in the world will be the day our opponents begin to worry. Until then, we are about as dangerous to them as fish in a barrel.

ICH is just Tom! But, a Tom with a difference: he gets suggestions, takes a look (I can even see him come take a look after I suggest an article to him), and if he likes it, puts it up.

I'm planning on doing an interview with him. As I always say, I'd be lost without him!

thecutter | Homepage | 01.07.06 - 9:47 pm | #

Glad you put the record straight cutter - about Tom.

I was going to, but the attitudes behind the criticisms were such as to make me wonder if it was worth bothering.

BTW: did you know that Tom had a heart-attack a year or so ago, which put ICH out of action for a few days? Anyway it wasn't too serious and said he's OK now, when I inquired not long after.
Gerry Hiles | 01.07.06 - 10:45 pm | #

Yes, I knew about the heart attack, Gerry. His friends sent news about how he was doing. I am surprised he got back to the aggregator so quickly. He really is a splendid person, who has defended so many causes (Padilla) and has been a strong voice just with the work he does. The quotes on the daily email notifications alone are so wonderful to read. Long live Tom!
thecutter | Homepage | 01.07.06 - 11:30 pm | #

Ah, so now we know why Rowan is a fixture here now, i.e. he closed his own blog ... maybe not enough hits ... and why his partner in crime came with him, i.e. piet.
Don't say I didn't warn you.
Gerry Hiles | 01.07.06 - 11:44 pm | #

Here is an example of what I find so irritating in Tom's selections - and I don't dispute the fact that Tom is accurately reflecting the tendency of the leftist op-ed blogosphere, which is full of this sort of political illiteracy:
<http://thepoliticaljunkies.net/A...Wk3-5/ Jonas.htm>

"corporate determination of economic, fiscal, and regulatory policy..."

-- anyone who read even one serious history book about Italian Fascism (or for that matter German National Socialism) would know that this is rubbish. Perhaps the author is confusing the merkin "corporation" (a capitalist firm) with the fascist concept of corporative government (collaborative decision making by combined bodies of entrepreneurs, workers, and government experts).
Rowan Berkeley | 01.08.06 - 7:36 am | #

Let me add, the objective facts are not the point of my complaint, valid though they are ; the point is that this endless moaning about how much the zionists remind one of the fascists and/or nazis is a symptom of mental enslavement, and mentally enslaved people are naturally extremely easy to manipulate, being in themselves incapable of thought proper.

your quote sounds like a synopsis of work by Michael Hudson, Anne Williamson and Eustace Mullins, so this line of analysis is certainly no stranger to right wing thinking either. Your defence of fascism is as un- and if not quite yet at least not done as is calling attention to the non violent varieties of anarchism. The effective forestallment of violent development is priority need for all bodies of thought with mass appeal and potential. I tried but failed.

Mr Winkler, why should the US feel like making up to the Arabs if 'it', by your very own admission, need not do so back home with respect to its not so remotely displaced neighbours, and what's worse, keep on displacing them by welcoming Jews?????

If you argue: 'ah but that was too long ago', as you may be doing with respect to the zionist claim, I'd furthermore ask you this:

why not go back a very long ways? One may delve up a humbling dose of shame and modesty inducing evidence of genocide and desertification. If Israelites exterminated and displaced Palestinians thousands of years ago (hear Av and the like deny there are any) they deserve having taken thier spoils away at least; losing conquered lands rather than life is a mild punishment no? All semites and those touched by their unsustainably monomaniac ways must be sent on a scramble for ignorantly and/or impulsive-/opportunistically, in any case namefully exploited and deserted roots In the case of Jews, workterrain stretches out between Egypt and Iraq; the trick is to fill it with trees rather than rockets.

I don't think that it's very intelligent to make judgments about "feminism in general" - the contrast I have just drawn between "bourgeois feminism" and "proletarian feminism" is intended to suggest that the interests of women in "bourgeois" (i.e. modernised, developed, plutocratic) countries (or in the corresponding middle class strata elsewhere) can be opposed to the interests of women in "proletarian" (non-modernised, non-developed, etc.) countries. The opposition is one of class, but in terms of the international division of labour rather than just the domestic one. Feminism as I recall went through a phase of at least pseudo "proletarian" or radical analysis in Britain in the late seventies then became embourgeoisified and "right wing" in the Thatcherite sense during the eighties.

the same thing happens in the states;
<http://blog.pulpculture.org> goes on and on and on about sexual titillation variety and freedoms that ought to never ever be waylaid and these rants are counterpunctuated with leftist rhetoric about underpaid women and working class, totally skipping and ignoring demographics when bridging that gaping divide, fissure, crack, cleavage. ...whateva.

I tend to think you all make the mistake of going after semitisms with extreme bias (no doubt e- and provoked by the equally reactionary opposite number). Zionism and Islam are too vast to be briefly general about unless you don't mean to do them justice. Well meaning people shoved around by necessity, pulled hither and thither by opportunity crystallized around an unexamined genocidal, desertifying bloodlust core can't be praised or condemned onesidedly.

Yet, Zionism = racism and the occasional vague nod toward Capitalism = classism get defended as fervently as Islam = genderism is ignored.

thanks to Jeff Blankfort for sending the complete and unabridged version of this important article which appeared in Counterpunch in an edited form.

Israel's War with Iran: The Coming Mid East Conflagration --or-- Israel Bombs Iran: The US Suffers the Consequences

Israel's political and military leadership have repeatedly and openly declared their preparation to militarily attack Iran in the immediate future. Their influential supporters in the US have made Israel's war policy the number one priority in their efforts to secure Presidential and Congressional backing.

To Rowan: Indeed, the term "nazism" is utterly overused. Speaking as an Eastern European whose country has been occupied by BOTH the nazis and the commies, there is no contest. The commies were infinitely worse than the nazis ever thought of being. Eastern Europe has had to shut up for 50 years, but they are beginning to tell their story. One part of the story is that many of the atrocities committed in Eastern Europe by the commies were committed by Jewish commies. And many of these same commies are spending their dotage as honored citizens of Israel.

Dispensationalism's Pain Revelations

----- by Virgil Vaduva

Emil Cioran (1911-1995) was one of the greatest European philosophers. While he was never a Christian, I still feel national pride when talking about him. Just like me, he was born in Romania. Later, he moved to France in 1937, and with friends such as Samuel Beckett and William Gass, Cioran wrote and researched many topics, including Christianity. Throughout his writings, one can easily see the despair and pain of an individual confused by a never-ending puzzle of misunderstandings of God's word and prophecy.

S.C.: To come back to that which separates you from Chomsky on the Palestinian question, could we say that you want the Palestinians to win while Chomsky doesn't want the Israelis to lose?

Jeffrey Blankfort: I wouldn't put it exactly that way but I do believe that the Palestinians have the priority to decide what happens in Israel and Palestine and that Chomsky is more concerned about the future of Israel and the welfare of Jews. He opposes a one-state solution and I believe single state is the only answer but I don't argue here for that because we are not the ones to determine that. But I do give the priority to the Palestinians and he gives it to the Israelis. And that's the difference between us.

mirrorreverse of supremacy sowing is the supremacy seeking semite; in Holland jobless Berbers are often, perhaps even mostly seen as the victim card pulling (semi-)semites (and why not? Pampering [[getting jobs making it rather difficult to save, especially if you insist on status symbols like 'merkkleding' = fancy clothes]] is torture and suffocation) living in the 'achterstandsbuurten' = sections of a city with a lag, full of 'kansarmen' = poor in choice - illustrating the all or nothing mindset that makes egoism lucrative and trying to reckon with/be accountable to all affected damn near prosecutable.

Palestinians better dig up the healthy secular permacultural roots (and/or) better yet point to the permacultural shoots[?] of Zionism (Palis were shown singing in greenhouses on dutch tv after the gaza evacuation) in the same way Beckerath had to sign letters with heil hitlers to ward off moronic questions about them. Nearly 2 years ago I noted that a certain similarity between soviet days and us policy was evident (rather late really if you've seen Eustace Mullins' work nearly 20 years ago).

Yesterday, a beautiful man (world champ in some martial discipline) gets to say (*in beautiful and real dutch, none of the rebellious intonations, no cutting gestures or anything. ... that's not to say I would like to speak a word or two with him about aggression) that a neighbourhood on the edge of amsterdam (where I considered buying a garden 6 years ago) has 70.000 2nd generation immigrants and only one youthcenter.

Right after that, our stupid ('keep us all together') type of platitude spouting Amsterdam mayor mouths a few more and more ex prejudices as we go along being so richly supplied with illustrations of (to the chagrin of the semi-ts who claim this happens to the exclusion of, in unfair proportions, are fearmongering of a kind they completely dissociate themselves with, etcetera) of the right but don't take any such measures; keep telling them all at once to go to school.

He be da type jewdilate enough to lose some of the ugly features; same type they sent to holland to bring us the 'suit yourselves, miss the boat if you must' message regarding afghanistan missions [[the aggressive ones are political unfeasible; the haggling is over clear differences between de- and constructive invasiveness all such deliberation delay caused a threat of sanctions by way of Bremer, yes, the Paulian, former dutch ambassador]] was given precious monopolisticclique mass media time to yet again apply what I call the 'thunder stealing strategy'.

More useful would be a course in autonomy; Dutch life in the simple handtool brandishing settler days of self sufficiency and communal stuff like dyke building (to be replaced with fun rock grinding). ... there's a slightly differing version of the following at the blogpost of Thursday, January 19, 2006 - godawful zioviolence

I'd not force a person without aptitude due to little or no cultural background in intellectual pursuits to stay put in school benches; I'd give all folks in the mentioned concrete deserts a garden sorta the size of the schrebergarten in the Viennese garden quarters (big enough to have a family fruit tree or two) and always a choice to spend time in wellstocked libraries rather than follow obligatory courses.

Same goes for Shamir, who's defence of tactic diversity, similar to that of ChuckO the infoshop starter and and Ward Churchill's, consisted of illustrations from early christianity: male and warlike half bringing justice, compassionate one bringing mercy, side by side (bull of course . . .) I tried to theorize about such, and for all I care named christian, types crisis solving while NATO and Soros hit socialism: send out women with carriers to distribute handtools, knowledge whatnot (guarded sufficiently to pounce and punish if waylaid); I agree a dual course must be sought but this bloodshed bilge isn't any better than the stuff 'anglospherians' spout, about the wars between free and slave armies; all crap really cause the question is not just where and when to be soft or hard but must also and for completeness sake include what you will be soft and hard on/to (hard to the rock, soft to the seedlings); If luxurious times (some of which I call mine, making a near as possible perfect website about it) aren't used to draw the attention of present bloodshedders away from pre-emption of future flows (supplement, with an aim and eye to completely substitute, bullets and bombs with muds and mists; bring back the 1000 year old cedars of lebanon, greens of the sahara, etcetera) we aint using them 'rite', peezy easy with guys like me around, at least and even from my as yet unauthorized perspective. Lacking this fundamental peace chore ingredients, all talk of it remains distraction, spark, glamour and groomery notwithstanding, in practice mere misplaced goings on, missed chances and waste.

I think my interpretation of the gospels is as valid as those that hammer on whatever Jesus might have done with a sword if he used that word at all meant by it (never mind the monomyth aspects now cause heroism IS a very tangible thing as anybody with a half way decent father knows.... wish my kids did/will).

Destructive idiots (pyromaniacs, chronically dismissives, dissers i think they think themselves proudly and other reactionaries) are up for the chaingang ball park like the ones I have in mind if you ask me but for starters or else, send the worst of them to the dutch or maroccan armies (their choice on a 3 strikes you're in basis) but give the others a real stay/anchor root, the type that privileged folks like me never even got cause church, commerce and parental authority rules and kids must follow gardening orders before inheriting anything.

#nobody never did nor does nuttin; they are not responsible for each other except when impunity/opportunity calls; nobody knew nuttin about the real threat to van Gogh ... a real soap on which passed through short media circuitry last week, a fella who said lots knew and were involved denied after a few days and claimed he was put under pressure. I find it real odd none of these idiots knew any of the maroccans Theo van Gogh worked with (LOTS) and vice versa. Wish he would have found the support from the circles round the fella I first mentioned.

Wish my exquisitely deep dutchness would have culminated in a change of mind on Bush and life for as well as movies with Theo.

there are those who defend marxism as a value universalism (boddhi or boddi and woztek at lbo) and my idea of creating indexes based on photosynthesis rates x price x soilbuilding practise is THE eminent unsurpassable ONE (and only 'righting'?) WAY :: I :: AM bound to keep on harping and carping about, like a maya footpath with footprint conscious practices scurrying and cabling around on it, like the manmaker the perfectly inclined path is, wider than those which leads to intolerant speed(up)s, insurmountable chill between folks too far apart to be placed in fake neighbourly positioning and hierarchalized voluntarization destroying roadservise relations.

I have suspected Spinoza of Zionism but not (yet) Hegel (whom I have read even less, am I missing something?). States won't properly reflect their gender functionally until they retrieve and/or discover the decency to keep their armies 'binnenboord' = on board. and half of them learn to stop growth of deserts which they may practice on an individual basis according to institutionalized non-profit supply and demand.

hey, . . . now that I think about it, Spynosey may have been responsible for the sedulous, seditious, sanctimonious slide from properly dynamic dualism and polarization crystalized as antagonistic aspects of the monoliths that states were to the monotheistic version and practice wherein agglomerate, global and corporate forms of capital subverted weakened and co-opted the left leg it stands on even though it praises it into high heaven all the while. 'links lullen, rechts vullen' = leftz whinin', righty pocket linin', since he never explicitly recognizes nor acknowledges those former aspects but of course in his day and age these virtues were self-evident and 'ongoing without saying' enough but if he'd anticipated and been worried about the cannibalistic and coercive aspects of capital gaining the upper hand he should have said. All this can be seen in the same light that shows up 0 results for "spinoza on weaponry", "spinoza on war", "spinoza on weapons" agglomerate, global and corporate forms of capital subverted weakened and co-opted the left leg it stands on even though it praises dim doomocracy into high heaven all the while.

hi ken, I tried to post this on the german indymedia site but it didn't even make the trash can FUCKING LEFTIES!!!! probably in part bycause of my commenting on their incredibly intensified reporting (to the point of obvious obsessiveness) on Nazi gettogethers and gatherings.

As if Hitler wasn't the worst possible man to pretend to stand for what he supposedly stood for (the best is thus conveniently smeared by those who subverted him). Soon as he started investing in arms industries (nor would he have gotten his loans for other purposes probably or understood how to do without that sort of 'support' altogether, for all his, again, supposed genius). Of course most present day neo-nazis might pay attention to and be nostalgic for bad practice rather than say the soft and social side of nazism (not that I think anyone can claim any such thing managed to make a mark, freeways don't quite count in my eyes ... though I remember our plans to run across 'm; i am in germany now, the lower eifel near aachen, in the home of an alcohol and fume afflicted rainbow with a natural amphitheater ex rock quarry which fills with water a few months every year. How are you? I miss our chats).

<http://mailman.lbo-talk.org/pipermail/lbo-talk/Week-of-Mon-20060116/029649.html> salon article by Sherer on Osama's book endorsement (quoting from a bill blum one "...liberating to death" before the one he mentions "rogue nation")

"Rogue State" was originally published before the attacks of Sept. 11. BinLaden, perhaps lacking a fact-checking department or easy access to a library, actually never quoted from that book. In his video, he used words from one of Blum's later works,
"Freeing the World to Death." The inaccurate citation doesn't bother Blum, who stands behind the writing that caught bin Laden's eye: "If I were the president, I could stop terrorist attacks against the United States in a few days. Permanently," reads the section quoted in part by the world's most notorious terrorist. "I would first apologize to all the widows and orphans, the tortured and impoverished, and all the many millions of other victims of American imperialism." In that passage, Blum goes on to explain that he would end American support for Israel and reduce the military budget by 90 percent. "That's what I'd do on my first three days in the White House," Blum writes. "On the fourth day, I'd be assassinated."

It's easy enough to see why bin Laden chose Blum -- despite the fact that Blum grew up in Brooklyn, N.Y., the child of Jewish immigrants from Poland. In the first line of "Rogue State," Blum writes, "Washington's war on terrorism is as doomed to failure as its war on drugs has been." This fits securely into the singular theme that Blum has pursued through four books. "The U.S. government does not mean well. It doesn't care whether it does good or bad," he explained. "The second lesson is that anti-American terrorists are not motivated at all by things cultural. It's what we do. It's American foreign policy."

As for his newest booster, Blum offers no apologies. "The people who have interviewed me in the last few days, they keep pressing me to say how repulsed I am to get a plug from Osama bin Laden. I am not repulsed." That is not to say he has any sympathy for bin Laden's brand of violence or religious extremism, only that he is not surprised that bin Laden agrees with his writing. "I hate any kind of religious fundamentalism," he says. He did not support U.S. military actions in Afghanistan or Iraq, but he says he would hate to see bin Laden and his crew in charge of either country.
"The oppression of women," he says. "The whole thing turns me off."

Spielberg's lies and cover-ups
"Munich": The Humanization of Israeli killers, and the Dehumanization of Palestinian civilians Who is retaliating against whom in the Arab-Israeli conflict? That is the question
This film reminds me of a line that comedian George Carlin used in his comedy routine that went roughly like this: "Why do we call Israeli terrorists

'commandos,' and Palestinian commandos 'terrorists?' His question never got a laugh the two times I saw him use it with a live audience.

The thrust of the Spielberg movie is simple, fanfare notwithstanding: Israeli killers are conscientious and humane people, while Palestinians are always--no matter what--vicious killers.

"Profoundly Flattering to Israel" ---- by Michelle Goldberg

"Spielberg's movie bears little resemblance to the piece of mushy leftist agitprop its critics describe. It does not suggest that terrorists and counterterrorists are morally equivalent...many of those [Israelis] in Munich are, if anything, slightly unbelievable in their constant self-interrogation and closely guarded humanism...'Munich' is about... vengeance and violence...necessary, justified violence...It's about the struggle to maintain some bedrock morality while engaging in immorality.

subjectivity as in embedded, in place, local is far from an oriental trait, philosophical or otherwise; on the contrary, their insistence on patrist cultures caused them to constantly shift if not enlarge territory due to desertification. Universality is this sense opposes absolutistic semitic claims in the sacred texts but when they double as accurate records; looking at the numbers behind them should bring the whole caboodle full circle but in practice this is where fanaticism (defending an aura of import selflessly set afloat) finagles it's fuel.

Best-selling author and Muslim dissident Ibn Warraq argues that freedom of expression is our western heritage and we must defend it against attacks from totalitarian societies. If the west does not stand in solidarity with the Danish, he argues, then the Islamization of Europe will have begun in earnest.

<http://astuteblogger.blogspot.com/2006/02/danish-imam-caught-lying-to-euro-media.html>

A religious leader of an Islamic group in Copenhagen - Abu Laban - has been CAUGHT speaking with two tongues:

- In the Danish media he is quoted as saying he is against the widespread boycott of danish goods in the middle east.

- An hour later on Al Jazeera TV he says that he thinks it is a great thing that the arab nations and people defend islam through the boycott.

Fabricated cartoons worsened Danish controversy - The Counterterrorism Blog

http://counterterror.typepad.com/the_counterterrorism_blog/2006/02/fabricated_cart.html Why have the protests erupted from Muslims worldwide only now? The person who knows the answer to this question is Ahmed Abdel Rahman Abu Laban, a man that the Washington Post has recently profiled as "one of Denmark's most prominent imams."

Piet: I would have said 'found' rather than 'fabricated' but oh well, damage done anyway. Instead of problematizing rapes perped by their faithees they decided to make it worse. And since the majority of good arabs aren't organizing vigilantes to stop their own offspring from giving them a bad name collectively (like 99% of decent jews didn't control their war racketeering bad apples) I say repatriate them all. Bring 'm back home and give 'm a chance to fight for their happiness and oilspoils there. Set them free from our devilishly decadent western mockery and mirth.

the Danish Muslim delegation showed much more than the 12 cartoons published by Jyllands Posten. In the booklet it presented during its tour of the Middle East, the delegation included other cartoons of Mohammed that were highly offensive, including one where the Prophet has a pig face. But these additional pictures were NOT published by the newspaper, but were completely fabricated by the delegation and inserted in the booklet (which has been obtained and made available to me by Danish newspaper Ekstra Bladet).

"...It's being reported that newspapers in various European countries have reprinted the cartoons in order to make a statement about freedom of speech..."

particularly hilarious, and disgraceful, in Germany, where that "statement" has two guys in prison for daring to speak critically about the Holocaust... oh well, double standards are vital to our system... ---- fs

For all the guff about "the new antisemitism", it has never struck apologists for Israel that this is the new antisemitism. It isn't about religion any more than the vilification of Jews was about religion. Of course, the value-significations are reversed: Jews were accused of introducing cosmopolitanism, liberalism, capitalism, communism etc; Muslims are accused of opposing all of these things, of being insufficiently liberal, too traditionalist, too rooted in organic communities, not atomised etc. But Orientalism and antisemitism were never separated at birth. They are conjoined, two forms of the same sickness. --

Early Zionists as Pioneers. posted by lenin
So, anyway, I knew something wierd was on the way when Jonathan Freedland suggested a comparison between Hamas and the early Zionists:

Hamas's best bet might be to learn not from Fatah or the IRA, but from the early Zionist movement. Living under colonial military rule from the 1920s to the 1940s, it focused its energies on building the institutions of statehood: schools, bureaucracy, even an embryonic national health service. When independence came in 1948 they were ready. Israeli rule is not the British mandate, I know. But there is a lesson there all the same - and Hamas would make a revolution by seizing on it.

Okay, replace "living under" with the phrase "colluding with"; replace "building the institutions of statehood" with "expropriating the Palestinian peasantry"; replace "When independence came in 1948" with, "When the Palestinians were murdered and driven off their land by the hundreds of thousands" etc., and you begin to have an inkling of what Freedland really means. He's saying that what was visited on the Palestinians should be visited on the Israelis. He's saying Hamas should drive Israel into the sea! (Even as I write this, I hear Professor Geras' gums beating together in the distance: "Apologists among us!"). Either that, or he's eulogising about the "early Zionists" while carefully excising the more - ahem - embarrassing moments from their history. Yes, Freedland looks like an idiot, and writes like an idiot. But don't let that fool you - he really is an idiot.

Look Seth, it's hard to age and engage with grace. Old and fondly frequented concepts, locations and narratives get polluted and are used as cover. Human forms of predations 'evolve' from brutality to sleigh of hand. Yesterday I listened to M Bouyeri's 3 hour plea in front of the judge for the murder I mean slaughter of the most pleasantly passive rotund (tavern/pub/cafe past) sharptongued warbly filmmaker columnist in Dutch media history trying to tell all he did it in the name of Islam.

Sounding like a regular Dutch Christian preacher wordwise, his intonation tried to put as many explosively pronounced syllables into his sermon as possible. He mixes Arabic and Dutch and quoted from encyclopedias available to him through prison library.

I'd be happy to volunteer executing folks like him, perhaps the more prudent pursuit would be to prosecute the AIVD (little CIA brother) for negligence. We have loads like him free on the streets as is.

I mention him cause he has gone to the source of and taken Islam to its logical consequences. Monotheisms tend to be intolerant, violent and genocidal right from the getgo (nothing to do with race in as far as all are in- and affected but semites [rowan indeed unfair to some but not the way you think]) are worldchamps at it)

. If you prefer more neutral descriptions I can call this 'viciously circling' complex of climate and patrist pomp, quickly incubatable cultural legitimacy trick traits transformative, leaning to secretive centralisms, surveillance and a steady rise of punitive powers. All helped along by the mixed blessings of gold at some stage.

Luckily as Kummer's work with baboons shows, this whole sorry show can be reversed and I spend my time suggesting we start.

Freedom for blasphemy ? or Freedom of speech ! ...
Freedom to Insult ? or Freedom of speech !
Where does Freedom stop and when it becomes blasphemy ?
How can one insult the Western-cultures ?? when a Porno-Star became Member of Parliament in Italy when the famous Amsterdam-Red-district is built around a cathedral (between two meters of distance, up to 350 meters) when the society publishes in the local-news-papers its sexual-preferences , if not its sexual -perverseness when the West has no more Taboos no more self-respect even to its own values

How could the West respect an Arabic-speaking-Prophet ?? when the West does not even respect their own Aramaic-speaking-Jesus !

Where are the Taboos and Ethical-decencies when Lady "D" the mother of the UK future-King declared openly on Camera about her love and ex-lover(s). When the President of the USA speaks (live) in front of the Camera about what he did with his own Cigar.... and even under oath , and nation-wide. How can the Occident respect the Orient ?? when the Occident does not respect the Occident Why would Danish or Norwegian publishers insult and provoke a one-billion-man-religion made of 30 nations ?? except for the pleasure of insulting (this was a premeditated-insult)

My brothers the Muslims may not and shall never insult my Christ because Islam forbids them to insult any religion moreover Jesus "was also a Muslim," according to Islam and to the Koran
Here in the Netherlands a pseudo-intellectual, a pseudo-social-critic who was also , a pseudo-film-maker (Mr. Theo van Gogh) paid the highest price for his untanned-arrogance .

His murderer is refusing even to defend himself.... and you may guess why ?? Why would anyone insult another person and provoke him ?? unless he ,himself, is the aggressor !! Freedom of speech, is it a shield or a dagger ?? Raja Chemayel .. noticing that Islam respects my Jesus more than any Western ideology or attitude.

Apparently, it was not Danes who commissioned the cartoons, but an ardent Zionist Jew by the name of Flemming Rose, who is 'Cultural Editor' of the Danish paper concerned. Apparently, though I do not have an ultimate source for this, it was quoted in another email. Rose acknowledges that even his liberalism has its limits. He said he would not publish a cartoon of Israel's Ariel Sharon strangling a Palestinian baby, since that could be construed as "racist."

Halper's hackling of collective responsibility I find silly and absurdly liberal of the sort that preludes neocon fast lane loss of conscience, and incomplete besides, it takes effectively concerted effort to find guilty parties.

Are Europeans responsibly for grocing out part of their own so much the latter went awol and chose uncertain adventure? Yes. Euros should be accomodating even if a miraculous remorse should strike turtle island citizens and they all went back. Better yet and more urgent is the discovery of a Bible twice as old, thick, true and good, full of whatall glorious feats were done by Abraham's forefathers and where (with liberal emphasis on how holy these places will one day be again, a most understandable patrist sentiment and worthy of strenghtening enough to conciliate semitosibs) sending jews migrating throughout the greater middle east to rebuild the soil there. 8 pages -- Zionism and the 'self-hating Jew' ----- Mick Finlay --- Note: this article is a summary of a more detailed paper to be published in the British Journal of Social Psychology --- 2004
The notion of self-hatred and anti-Semitism among Jews began to be discussed by German writers such as Theodor Lessing, Fritz Wittels and Otto Weininger in the first decade of the 20th century (Baron, 1981; Gilman, 1986). This was followed by a number of German publications on the subject, culminating in a book by Lessing in 1930, Der jüdische Selbsthass (Jewish Self-Hate). In 1941 (republished 1948), Kurt Lewin wrote an account for an English-speaking audience. This article critically reviews Jewish self-hatred as a psychological concept, examining in particular the criteria used to identify its presence in individuals. A lack of clarity over this issue means that the term is often used rhetorically to discount Jews who differ in their lifestyles, interests or political positions (particularly with respect to Israel) from their accusers.

I was mightily much more impressed with 'homeland, the text' by George Steiner than I was by the man himself but my excuse is I only learned to recognize him many many years later; this section is in the same o so wishy washy romantic parvenuian vein:

'If you ask me whether I have a Heimat (Homeland), and where it is, I reply in classic Jewish style: evasively. I think I have a Heimat, but I can't localize it. It's the odour of gefilte fish and potato pancakes, the taste of borscht and pickled herring, the melody of the Hatikva and the sound of the Internationale, but only when it's sung in Yiddish by old members of the Bund in Tel Aviv on the first of May. It's the Marx brothers' night in Casablanca, and Ernst Lubitsch's to be or not to be. It's Karl Kraus's Torch and the autobiography of Theodor Lessing. It's a spot on the Aussenalster in Hamburg, a little stairway in the old harbour of Jaffa, and the Leidseplein in Amsterdam. Isn't that enough?' p101 (Henryk M. Broder Heimat? No, Thanks!)

What has celebrating problem children in the middle east got to do with it? I for one never knew the Sabbatai Zevi cult had such ties to porn, so I imagine I learned something new.

Not even the person who passed me the link has a problem with joowz, he tried to become one and still listens to Hebrew radio all time, most fascinations are problematic but what do you call yours with porn, other than a way out of your money problems. Hannah Arendt's ideas on private/public are not emblematic in either money, migrant, home nor regional turf and certainly cannot be when it comes to bodily fluids, her take on this line was too rigid anyways and can only mutually invigorate if gets shifts is playfull and subtle once again. This earth has a long way to go yet, there is still time but we won't see it.

The more ancient thoroughfares become, the more contested grounds which impoverish and lose diversity; the fungible mentality becomes mo(ro)noculture and the whole affair polarizes; for all their pretense at difference they work as one and to the same ends with identical results (birthrates anybody?) and the more they become each other's mirror image, a- and reversion (the leninologist at lbo last night, in an extraordinary feat of figure denial) regarding rapes in denmark, the lefty equivalent of holocaust denial illustrates this expertly with a comparison between the repote of present and earlier semitic influxes the less the mirror exercise (along with everything else) remains meaningful to them. Behold the semites in the world's deathdriver seats.

Rowan's partition is understandable 'partificiality' (given the supposedly deserts [[between the nile and euphrates]] greening zionists [[their karma for sure]] are destroying olive orchards, symbol of the earthiness they ostensibly strive for themselves and for which there is ample opportunity room well out of reach from handmade and in that case at any rate hypothetical and unnecessary rockets nor do they succeed duping and deceiving anybody into believing the wall .. sorry, fence .. is a sign of their sincere and succesful self-containment unless you've let your defenses down enough to catch a case of semitism that allows that sort of severity)..

If you're referring to the fact that the term "Semite", insofar as it has any denotation at all, refers to a language group to which Arabs, Jews, and some North-East Africans belong, then certainly I accept this, but I have taken to using the terms "anti-Semite" and "philo-Semite" in their usual artificial denotation equal to "anti-Jewish" and "pro-Jewish" whenever it seems simpler to do so.

My concern is with the peculiar nature of the idea of "being Jewish", not with the broader comparisons except insofar as they illuminate this.

-- come to think of it, North West Africans, in so far as they speak Arabic, could be described as members of the Semitic language group. But I was thinking of an older implantation of Semitic languages, namely Ge'ez and Amharic and so on. Perhaps this illustrates how, even when one tries to be accurate, the relative age of a language implantation takes on a sort of quasi racial aura.

what you accuse me of, a phrase my mother taught my 9 year older mongoloid sister to make me think my teasery over) which is, however, only accurate and legitimate from the mouths of those subject to and victims of aggression. For the aggressor to do the old eye for an eye retaliation spiel and say 'I can lie about you too' is not done in fairness.

Lebanese immigrant crime in Sydney, described by vet policeman Tim Priest lamenting the lefty and soft education officers got in the nineties, are comparable to those of rape in Denmark by the way, not that you or Mary would care right?

Internet in Gaza: Sexual Liberation as Political Control

by E. Michael Jones --- Editor, Culture Wars -- February, 1997

The role which the Marquis de Sade played in the French Revolution is well known. It would not be too much of an exaggeration to say that he caused it, if "it" refers to its first major event, the storming of the Bastille. The Marquis de Sade was a prisoner in the Bastille in the summer of 1789, held there at the request of his mother-in-law who felt this sort of custody was in his own best interests as well as the best interests of her daughter and other French women. De Sade spent his time in prison writing pornographic novels and growing fat from the food he paid to have brought in. Beginning in July he fashioned a primitive megaphone out of pieces of paper and incited the mob outside the prison to storm it and liberate him and the six other people there. Thus did the revolution begin.

So laissez faire and porn are twins according to MJ, male and female I guess (judging by that freeper post addition), and the former 'weeds out the weak' (he means the morally strong but has no clue how the open consensual non-profit caring and sociable economic techniques can build soil, create community, preserve diversity and prevent egotistical indulgence in lust and flying of the handle before any works gets even done, which explains why he is all the more obsessed with denunciation for lack of such constructive knowledge. Christianity is culprit demonization). Judaism scapegoat sacrifice and Islam a deathsqueeze around the devil wall. The Marquis was just a Bonobo.

Keeping public money open, responsive and clean, feed for all up and down the foodchain so parasitic forms marketology don't even develop (and risk ventures will confine themselves with true surpluses, be playful, experimental and innovative and small scale until they prove themselves to the commoner side of it, bingo, new crop of strike it richies) amounts to a socio-economic reversal of values. further down we find this (wherein Rowan calls Bob Pickle an esteemed friend):

Was Stalin not a Jew?

In the Georgian language "shvili" means son of, or son, as in Johnson. "Djuga" means Jew. Therefore Djugashvili means Jewison.

So Joe Stalin's real name, before he changed it, was Joe Jewison. It gets better, his name was Joseph David Djugashvili, a typical Jewish name. During his revolutionary days he changed his name to "Kochba", the leader of the Jews during one of the anti-Roman uprisings of the Jews. Russians don't change their names. Georgians don't change their names. Jews change their names.

Stalin had three wives, all of them Jewesses. The first was Ekaterina Svanidze who bore him one son, Jacob. His second wife was Kadya Allevijah. She bore him a son Vassili, and a daughter Svetlana. His second wife died in mysterious circumstances, either by committing suicide, or murdered by Stalin. His third wife was Rosa Kaganovich, the sister of Lazar Kaganovich, who was the head of Soviet industry.

Stalin's daughter (who in 1967 fled to the USA) then married Lazar's son Mihail i.e. her step-mother's nephew. Svetlana Stalin had a total of four husbands, three of them Jewish.

No, Stalin was not a Jew. But it wouldn't matter if he were, except to antisemites who could then dance like palestinians did on 9/11
Anonymous | 02.10.06 - 4:52 am | #

It would so matter, if I may use a piece of american playground jargon.

The question of whether Stalin really turned against 'the Jews' as such, or merely authorised a purge of one bunch of Jews (the bunch that had ridden to power on Lenin and Trotsky's coat-tails, so to say) in favour of another one that he imagined would be more loyal to him, is a genuine one. So is the question of whether the 'doctors' plot' to poison him was real, and indeed the question of whether he was assassinated, and if so by whom.

See:

Incidentally, much as I would like to believe that Putin is finally standing up to the US/Israeli axis of aggression and terror (by inviting Hamas to Moscow), this person brings strong evidence that, contrary to appearances, Putin is just another Jewish controlled puppet:

<http://oag.ru/library/hodos/js3-32.html>
Israel not to allow HAMAS leaders to fly to Moscow, by Nikolai Kerzhentsev, TASS, 10 February 2006
DATELINE: TEL AVIV, February 10-- Israel will not allow HAMAS leaders to fly to Moscow, even if they receive an invitation from Russia, Israeli Minister of Transport Meir Shitrit said in an interview with Radio Israel here on Friday. According to Meir Shitrit, the cancellation of the item of the HAMAS programme, which denies the State of Israel the right to existence, is the minimal condition for the visit.

Maybe the religious zionist factions (Chabad Lubavitch, etc.) which control Putin and Bush, want Hamas to gain power, because they want to smash the remains of the secular zionist system which is currently in power in Israel and install a religious zionist system instead? This is the theory of my esteemed friend Bob Pickle, who refers to these two factions as "Aholah" (religious) and "Aholibah" (secular) respectively, on the basis of some Biblical prophecy or other.
Weird quotes from the press dept.:

"Rushdie put it well in a recent television interview. Islam, he suggested, was at a crossroads. Will it fall prey to the fundamentalists, or will it, like Judaism and Christianity, evolve into a (largely) peaceful inquiry into the nature and meaning of existence? Only Muslims themselves can decide."

----- what I wrote last september has drastically changed, the ijccr group members are civil and productive now.

All's not well on the ijccr front, Greco away in china all month; WBRyan attacked one of our Italian pace setters quite viciously during the last and no sign of Todd, so I decided to look around the next nearest neighbourhood and found this:

<http://blog.pulpculture.org/2006/02/14/are-men-necessary/> The Bitch likes reading collectives (calls them 'fabulantosity') and the Maureen Dowd title "Are men necessary" is up.

I go: Afflicted as I am with cultural backgrounds, hazy though they be, that obviously did great harm through letters and laws I was inhibited and unhopeful about biological fatherhood to begin with. Much to my suprise the coping mechanism by the childbearing sex has slid off the deep end in its own inscrutable ways. I find BF this daze n stage is as taboo, repressed, belittled, PRonounced unimportant and all round DENounced as is, you know, RACE, at least for lefties and lots of 'mothers'. As you know I get quite delirious over P words and the association or dissociation between permaculture and patriarchy I find usefully illustrative if you are ready to take more into account, like it's feed rather than just love's fickleness (women beat men hands down on that no doubt); gender is all about contrast, differentials, drops, dilutions and 'verval' (=decay, also used for waterlevel differences in locks or between regions, denoting potential).

Do you like agnation better than patriarchy?

Andrew anonymity and universality unite in dust and gold (rather much better in the former), this is the basis for left and right politics, the right is always peeled boiled, sifted, sweated and distilled out of the left and never the twain shall part and get some reprieve from each other until some damn mongrel not only manages to show the world how puzzlionism must be done but the whole thing catches on besides.

cartoon war = contradictio in terminis and yet so purely logical it's beautiful. Cartoons are by eminence smile perkers (as opposed to tear jerkers) 'glimlach lokkers' in dutch, but delinquent, disfunctional and deficient line drawing ('draw the lining' = war making), are intentional polarizations leading up to the type of meaning reversal we see so much of all throughout history/language (specially neighbouring ones).

The calligraphic pole positions are as constantly contested as revenues. Consolidation between semites and the west is impossible, regreening the deserts will have zionism to overcome, yes overcome, not overtake. Such luck is about as likely as neo nazism overcoming Hitler soon enough to stop serious trouble, such as more social stratification (khalification, surveillance by means of stuff without an eye for beauty, sanctimony, etcetera).

Euro cactus, this pride at insulting other peoples' faith is pathetic. Let us suppose that the European tabloids manage to work one another up into a frenzy of printing and reprinting cartoons of the Prophet Muhammad in the name of "freedom of speech". ----- Islam, like the other holy (and growing holier/deadlier over time) texts, is an incongruous collection spanning/covering (the only way to actually bind them, literally that is) contradiction and disconnect of the famed loose sand variety (typetip: so far you've read a short version of this: http://www.haloscan.com/comments/thecutter/114098791731716582#114536 tapped yesterday).

The variety vs all of a piece debate wether in blood or ink is very intimate, like gunk and lava ... not last but simply periodic resorts of overwhelming import.

Texts cannot differentiate amongst themselves like people can (contrast, compare, keep an eye out) and so you are right in part, one must differentiate between peoples and chapters, and yet, you totally discount and/or are oblivious of the fact that reactionariness can lurkily lie in lazy wait amongst letters for fresh adoptees to flesh and float it once more. You overlook that in a highly liberal and individualized society (due to such spin into centrifugal variety, with the devil may care attitude Drury the Strauss scholar so deplores) conspiracy is easily initiated and grown relatively unnoticed.

Paradoxically and as a reaction, 'whole' ideologies, sectors, guilds, races and faiths are held collectively responsible cause for ...not being collectively responsible enough, for the non-policing liberation that gives the splinter faction time, leisure and room to search out reasons for agravation to spawn and spin opposingly and oppositionally (*with more of the very same thing that drew their attention and annoyed them enough to start fighting .. but really stimulating it. Reckless Rites: Purim and the Legacy of Jewish Violence By Elliott Horowitz <http://www.pupress.princeton.edu/chapters/i8213.html> March 2006 Introduction BETWEEN REPHIDIM AND JERUSALEM ----

Piet: this excerpt starts of glossing over the conquest of canaan (being as 'biblefast' - D: bijbelvast) himself as those he blames for the at least lateral and often literal violence of the Purim revelers and their justificatory fables but makes up for it by describing incidents from the late 80s and 90s in painful detail. They all bear the intense horror of say the equally semi-semitic Theo v Gogh slaughter (but once you realize the folks doing it have lived in and learned about lots of cultures yet chose to go for a collective regression to religious fairy tale entitlements for unspeakable stuff, it becomes clear just how insecure and tenuous a toehold desert cultures have on anything but loose sand and illusory shimmering whipped up by celebratory fervor).

If I were still blogging (backlog hundreds and hundreds of K by now but I've decided to focus on finding a home for me that's big enough to get my books out of storage) I'd go: one of (so far) 126 hairraising splitclever detailfocused and cleverish comments . . . that proves those hooked on keyboards pay a price: utter naivety . . . even in their very own chosen field. The comment in question concerns a cocity-ziozoician (antizionist prosemite, in his case a milder than most splitaffliction applies) my readers got acquainted with early on: Louis Proyect who indeed thinks of himself as a first class 'model' as Chabert has him, fire fighter who 'has been running the maxmail listserv for years and I don't think anyone's ever really complained'apart from dumbitudinous expression '..anyone's ever really. . .', applied to LP who cares little, even if it's not just anyone but some specific body from amongst those he pretends to champion and protect, such as me, trying to complain. . . but that water has long since doused flames, flowed beyond all damns and sunk down to wash the deepest octopussies.

In so far as I can make sense of your word salad, Piet, you seem to be saying that Muslims scare you.

All I can say is that they don't scare me. I do not mean by this that I am too macho to be scared, but that I know enough about Muslim culture to know that it is no more frightening than any other culture.

Zionism and Judaism can and do employ mob or gang violence against unarmed civilians just as easily as they can and do employ international deception and intrigue. You have no objective grounds to scaremonger about islam and not about Zionism and Judaism.

Rowan: Are you saying that usury would be a legitimate subject for critique if it was ethnically neutral?
It is, though. lenin | Homepage | 26 Apr, 07:40 | #

marxists.org/archive/draper/1977/kmtr1/app1.htm

It is though, what? Ethnically neutral? Then what is Nathaniel complaining about? All I said was that the churches should return to the classic Christian (and Muslim) critique of usury. I didn't ethnicise it, Nathaniel did, with his gratuitous, nudge, nudge, wink, wink, we-know-who-you-mean innuendo. That Draper article manages to prove that Marx was no more 'anti-Semitic' than anyone else of his time, not that he was lacking in 'anti-Semitism'. Incidentally, the reason I use scare quotes around this term is because I regard it as offensive doublespeak which denies by implication the oppression of non-Jewish 'Semites' (i.e. Arabs). Rowan Berkeley | 26 Apr, 09:31 | #

Piet: wow! what a beautiful acceptance (and quick double inversion of) my point Rowan! This marks a watershed in your thinking -- equating different flavors of semitism. What a feat, congrats. Letting you in on saharasia once again [[but this time successfully . . wasn't sure if your thank you was sarcastic or not]] did all that? Wonder if it'll stick -- at least as far as I manage to keep up with it. All manners and types of folk manage to feel 'oppressed' sooner or later (without acknowledging they set themselves up for just such a decline with/by their own success. The craven victim role makes all sorts great in quick succession, jews christians and now it's that 'last' monomania's turn, all doted upon updates of capitalism's greatest products, the ones catering to the seduction/betrayal theme, beads and mirrors, rags and wheels.

Disappointed with the hypersensitive hypocrisy around here (though I acknowledge a heckle is soon raised by repetition [[disguised in remarkably inventive formulations]] of acerbic dry and accurate but all too partial truth, no matter how much enviable pith it gets couched in), it's not like the left can boast of a clean conscience, no matter how (much they congratulate themselves for the) many brilliant jews they managed to admire and (let themselves) be seduced by. Hell, I am one as much as Ward Churchill is Indian and my interest in both is longstanding too. I understand my heritage/disposition could get me in with the most nazi-like blue eyed jews in the promised land (but unlike Rowan I always had a great horror for all that, though I worked in SA 3 months when 18 years old and after that crossed many a desert) and Ward is burdened by the transference and still hugely compounding guilt towards his and other native americans no matter how much he exemplarily tries to verbally massage that collective (knownot)knot into relaxation.

We'll be back after a commercial break by the held in check, restrained and carefully dosed alterego (legalliar, sponsor, scapegoat, washblacker): Somebody please rival the permacultural 'enval' (that despicably dispersive rallyrouser), or we're all gonna live.

Recalling roads not taken and routs not given leaves nobody without/free of terminal self-mutilation acknowledgement needs and chances.

I'll give you all one more reason playing the sinless thrower of stone here (seems to me by the way, that there is an odd inversion here [[something all polarizing stress leads to]] jesus must have meant that picking up rocks and laying them down ever so gently and wohltuend [[rockdust metabolism consciously traced right along{{{side/with}}} the birth of the green movement - a big gaping sore in the left's aura which tried to drop (mineral) and overcompensate with (human) migration issues, aggravating the problem - is a teutonic accomplishment of worldclass rank]] cleanses and heals): Rowan is the ultimate lefty with his non-essentialist choice mode and morph spiel, the point has been made that he thus aims to gain leeway to be all the more blunt and shorthand (ish, -ed and -changed) about terminology, but indeed the word jew is about as meaningless (and/or -full) as 'money' is, can/should be. manifold (quali pre quanti) that is, naturally, methinks that da point of the Marx (regarding religio-bureaucratic massesmanagement and musical chair scramble ramble roam migrate and fish, fish, fish away) screed.

Lenin wrote that usury 'wasn't specifically Jewish' I would add: ... anymore, 't was a preview of the no-osphere, the singularity, 'des mensen maakbaarheid' = moldability after the lefty faith, cross-culturality, the critical mass, the 100th monkey and all such sudden switchfliplike checkpointpassages people tend to make so (much too much) about lately but it's all the same old say mold euphemystics for force (brought to [[bear at]] encounter) dependent signifier fascistibilating the conviction to trade and give up, give in and accept . . . shackles straight from the central screwTmiser. -----piet | 27 Apr, 09:10 | #

- UNPOSTED: down that thread a ways (which is, by the way, called 'Albright on Iraq/The Dems & the Divine'): after watching the moneymasters (google)video on a range of EU megalolmaniacs, US presidents and the decency of wardebt honouring yesterday (boy, that Jackson, and Abe too, didn't they clamp the lid down on them old time warchest[[stuffer]]puffers?). It's OK to let such archaic impulsives run around all they want (when everybody has the right/luxury/common sense to ignore 'm). Voluntarize that shit! Divorce technical assistance from the fighting aim, all the better to focus it on the mating game. Couple and combine the right to return with the duty to restore. One of the most disgusting creeps (be assured, the distaste is mutual) in the world of dutch lawyers lost a lot of family in the war, being jewish. He claims this taught him to relativate (only 738 uses found by google which has to do with the ending, the last 5 letters in the dutch version form the word feathers which is a lot closer to pointing at the distance than 'I've ate', never mind Dan Winter's talk of 'consumed perspective'). I am always very wary when Jews pose the holocaust as the measure and most indicative episode of their involvement throughout the lower than middle eastern latitudes. over the past 2 weeks a Dutch media highlight took place. 'Offers' = Sacrifices Jacob Derwig en Maryam Hassouni play in a 2 part Dutch tv-series about terrorism, set in Holland and showing how impenetrably interwoven justice, police and national diplomacy (blackmailed by paedophilia caterers who feel they are freedom fighters) are, helping each other save face by hiding behind these people who are also, of course, terrorists, in particular by succesfully branding a dutch/lebanese cop, their exposé, as one of the bad guys. This production was nominated for a Banff Rocky Award in Canada so there is most likely a subtitled version you can order. WELL Worth it. Of course by contrast the jewish broadcast club shows calls to conscience that are really much more fairly looked upon like stolen goods are, pawned off and put to use at only a fraction of their capacity. The makers go on about the ownership loss suffered in Saloniki (once a thriving jewish stronghold, probably the WTC of the Onassis era) but this admittedly dramatic and abrupt episode reveals itself as a token mimic once it no longer distracts from the displacements their talents were honed to perpetrate and make folks suffer (chokeholds [[almost imperceptibly]] tightening over centuries making these disownments no less progressive than imperceptible, which explains why the constant reminder of their token talisman coined as it within just about to die, barely, but still, nevertheless living memory). --

Colbert brilliant Shamir bad?

I beg to differ unless the latter doesn't try hint at that good side of the typically christian split: remotest homesteading in all modesty (letting the ambitious folks draft, cart and tax their sons and surpluses away, whatever this godfearing lifestyle can't self generate and/or gets rewarded with/for, being mere tokens of worldly vanity anyways), removal is just deserts for such failures/successes. apropo HE's 'theatricality of colonial justice' ... got a ferry farcical fersion for yall:
Hirsi Ali, dutch parliamentarian islam basher is about to embark and get in bed with zionism outright (AEI). That decision comes right at the heels of our stern minister of immigration affairs Verdonk declaring AH's passport invalid on grounds that were known widely and a long time (public knowledge practically) but the 2 lasses belong to the rightmostwing party that can still take a seat in govt (close to the christians of course) and the pecking orderfight for 'lijsttrekker' = partyleader is on. I personally suspects facts of the matter might have the sequence reversed and Rita V is putting up a face saving pretense of initiative after being jilted. She is disallowed to and booed for being stern with those who do so try to see if the Zionist victim role can't be played convincingly enough but she couldn't possibly hurt anyone several times her size speaks in very concerned tones even as she is bound to apply the law etcetera.

Hirsi Ali .. eh sorry turns out her name is Wagan really .. was once a refugee and like they all do, lied about, in her case insignificant, stuff.

One of the smarter dutch blogs notes HA is really running into zionism arms but the (lefty) mass media decide to make it look like Holland is heartlessly chasing her out (including HA's neighbours who just won a courtcase to lose her due to the inconvenience the constant guarding this multiply threatened Islam exposereess [[she dictated the submission move v Gogh made]] practices [[which i think is great until it turns out she exempts jews from her semitocriticism. Likewise we selfdamning dutch are cutting her lines with a speed that is incredible compared to the naturalization process of less famous folks that can take up to 6 or 7 years when the plaintiffs appeal their cases]]. Lots of time and energy has already gone into 26.000 dubious and difficult backlogged cases - I'll have a word on that in a minute).

All this is just a see saw thing after a footballplayer from ivory coast slurped up practically all media attention last week. He failed his citizenship exam and can't come play our team at the world cup.

wrote the sections that follow yesterday (they says much the same damning things after the first one seeming to confirm PJ's high praise for Dutch culture);

the 14th of may vpro night was great for 3 solid hours

the politically pregnant part:

vpro.nl/programma/tegenlicht/afleveringen/28255515/ (english mostly, except the segments with Keppel, highlight was Harvard's Mohamedou who will be in Amsterdam next week) 'talking to al-qaida'.

Earlier npsarena.nl aired a docu on Sibelius and early evening on a different channel (ikon I think) had a docu about Therezin on (a settlement north of Praque with room for 5000 but Nazis kept it stuffed - 60.000 at one point) and sluiced 140.000 jews through there in total. 89.000 of those were sent on to various concentration camps. Not quite half that number died there and 142 of the 10.500 kids into there survived. All the footage shown came from a prop film whose maker and actors were all sent to death to keep the secret they were all groomed with the one day visit/inspection by the red cross (Rossel) in mind.

I don't really doubt the numbers I just cited but suspicions of censorious bias and manipulation rose nevertheless cause:

1: During the little explanation of the nearly worthless monopoly money circulating no parallels were made to real life. Another npsarena program element (besides the one I mentioned) showed 2nd or 3rd installment of a series on jewish comedians, this time showing some who repeat nazi accusations loud and in your face in order to ridicule and make light of them (quite successfully at one point by anecdotically proving the antisemite lives in the semite's head), all of which ought to make it much easier to just laugh off thousands years of group evolution, survival strategy, selected traits and reputation. A Therezin survivor euphemistically referred to the bills showing Moses (unfavorably in her opinion) holding the ten commandments as 'a nazi game', as if nazism is childish and as transitory as childhood.

2: Sure enough, there was little in the stores and everybody starving as an oft repeated element of the narrative had it but that appeared more and more absurd while the prop film fragments ran since no malnourishment could be seen. Piles of emaciated dead were shown in silence but they must have been from somewhere else cause aside from the successfully red cross dupin prop film this docu mentions that no other footage survived.

On a related note, Leon de Winter wrote (nov 5th, The Free West's Weblog) that islamogriffyants' chronic demand for respect is really a in(contro)vertibly veiled command to dhimminitude, in other words the same old saymold semitism that comes in various wonderful but always cryptic and addictive flavors sold at the edge of voracious anthromorphocizing appetite. Of course he wants arabs to carry this load but I can trace a passive almost dreamlike version in myself, from my days hitchhiking and hoping to be picked up by the saviour in shining charmo (to)r to another decade dedicated to florallifical pixelation of my page subliminally screaming 'merits high estimation, wonderful enough to deserve massive assistance'. Of course being the formalityphobic i didn't put so much as a paypal button on there despite my admiration for microcredit and ledgerism (there is an antidraft video with Todd speaking on google by the way). Your pity is very welcome but don't overdo it, I've got enough to buy an acre in the cheapest corner of Holland and set a yurt up on it (just might do that).

Meanwhile, in the REAL news, hundreds of travelweary african refugees have been arriving in Tenerife in record numbers after a 1500K trip from Senegal!!!!

Oil palm industry is the excuse Chinese seem to manage using succesfully for a (clear)cut of the Borneo forest. While the population is distracted by Christian missionaries www.ntm-nl.org

-JP expressed admiration for dutch culture last friday on chabert, time to set him right:

Perhaps it's not my call and just about impossible to verify but I believe I can claim credit for the popular will and desire, leeway (speelruimte) and presently available govt budget dedicated to (re)creating nature (I prefer not to though cause granted it would constitute shocking proof of being misunderstood more than implicated - wrote stuff in Dutch on that after a visit to Tiengemeten and to Northanger's blog). Anyway, permanent fallowing of agriculturally used acreage and then nudging contours as if water had the free play it once did is a billion dollar business that boomed a few short years (as did subsidized conversion of grazing land to forest) until the great big immigration and integration problems exploded into public awareness and screamed for attention.

Of course nobody besides me seems to have suggested the refugees asylum seekers and lying economic opportunists be given permaculture courses and handtools to use and own since knowledge about compost and soil can be applied anywhere on earth and people who come after them may then be all the quicker cleansed of their patrist (war and desert) trauma better and better for it, instead of the depressing isolation these people suffer (with or without being rescued off the street by the far left of church after failing the years long legal hurdle). speaking of which Ayaan Hirsi Ali the somali parliamentarian muslim basher has admitted lying during her naturalization process (if we werent all small time jews at least since Marx [[2008: who dignified himself to proclaim such a state of affairs {{{in the footsteps of a few oddballs like philip cohane and a(n ana)chronologist i read recently, judaism as a first global fashion/fad conflagration}}}, money being 'its' medium, as if there is only one kind of symbol/faith, the ideal, perfectly standard, non deviating, sitting ducklike ticket to freedom and the land of freed spirit, come on yall, don't you wanna come go visit Jesus?]] we sure are now since victimhood exploitation has taken off like the offense industry) and discussion of her case quickly reached the extremes of wether we must change the laws to take her passport away again. Today's rumour has her moving to the states where jews and Times just lurv her.

see also <http://lecolonelchabert.blogspot.com/2006/05/yerup-and-race.html#114779554377128434> 43rd comment to an item that's run the gauntlet of pretend fresh and fragrant for the reg'lars but not quite off the front page yet.

yesterday the farce I began to write of there, continued and took on shakespearean dimensions in the wee wee hours. Shakespeare slowed down with a millenium of lowland regentesquery that is. I actually listened to the govt ('urgency') debate from 11.45 to past 1.30 (first time I did this long ever – It was becommented by media [radio in this case] pundits) and after that they went for a 3rd round.

I still feel they are all together covering Ayaan's retreat/advance (depends wether one focuses on past or future victims and i don't just mean the ones she alledgedly pioneers standing up for/as) but seem to be entirely and all alone in this. Either way, person in question wasn't there (rarely is apparantly and being accused of princesslike behaviour for just such 'won't bother to be pc' absenteeism – which is not to say she didn't patiently repeat a rather limited repertoire wherever the fuck she did wend her way) and hardly even mentionend by name.

The biggest buzz word was 'room'. The whole room (we have a 1st and second 'room' in our kind of congress), usually opposing each other parliamentarian party members insisted 'there IS ROOM to interpret the law less strictly' than Rita kept stubbornly wanting to, maintaining there was 'NO ROOM'* and exploiting this unison, forced her to let go of her toutly impenetrably lawfilled stern-, strict- and hardness, to relax and let'm in, allow 'm a say and gradually grade and fluff the rigidity up to fertility.

* = RE: NO ROOM .. to do other than take Ayaan's dutchness away due to her false identity (widely and internationally published according to Leon de Winter ... who wrote on Sartre and Voltaire yesterday says Manji just now by the way) --- I once gave one too, young and very close to home, mad for being stopped cycling without light and given a ticket, ignoring a call to a real accident to do so. It caught up to me months later and fattened their prize --- Lack of private yet public space is one of THE biggies in my life, seeing public spaces of the ag uni being emptied over the last few years (while/as entire blocks of gm labs go up) and kept that way by the anti-squat practice [[implementation of which starts with as low as a mere goddamn poster of that accursed nationwide agency {{{vastgoedbeheer.com check out gelderland/Wageningen}}} in the window]], allowing them to go to waste, one suspects in order to keep idealists [[these totally undisciplined disgrace[r]s]] from having any.

Ruimte = 1 space, 2 leeway. 3 spin and momentum driven machinery rattling is said to have 'ruimte' on this that or other part; intolerable tolerance produced by wear and tear. When living beings and/or spaces (not vrooms but rooms!) wear out from rough use we say they are lived out and use a word derived from habitation (uitgewoond) piece. If you understand the wide road and narrow path parable you can certainly differentiate between decent dutch and those who got cowed and allowed being drafted into pioneering colonialism (disrespects collective spaces by definition, forcing a hook up/in to the more and more monolithic monstrem money was and still is fast becoming) by just such forces as seem to have precipitously recruited Ayaan, you should know all about the difference in refs to time vs space in religious experience as Vine Deloria does so wonderfully. Now, we have a govt member who threatens to be popular enough to be able to reach for leadership position amidst and despite them all (the voter decides remember?), who harks adheres to laws more than to colleagues and who therefore represents the world of hard (to sway) currencies, valid contract and kept word. Rita is like the rock recommended as building material in the old portion of the bible but as growing material by the man who presumed to be entitled to amend it. Manji (Dutch/Paki) whichatmacallher says Ayaan may have not been able to book successes yet but the lag, sprout incubation timer is tickle tocking away. 'She planted seeds of realism'. Well, combative meritocracy and bellicose mercenariness comes to mind too.

3nd comment: Rita (the metamommy of fresh blood, the rise of intelligence, prestige and glory; she is certainly popular with those who look upon pc multcult reign as an Augean stable too stuck in rutting to come out racing, a weak and inverted version of zionism) sees/has no opening (in/as her defense); the others have loads and need to bring Rita to believe them at their word, even take it as a command and say thank you ---- then be af- and infected by, adopt some of the inept unapt non-appurtenances about wishy washy belief gangersuponher want to seem cheap enough to start being given out free. The dogmas of dignity and dilution clash but meet in ashlike dust. The whole world looks for the winning bomcination between flex and stretch. In my view Rita tries defend - and manages to not so much explicitly as unconsciously - that the social realm is not the place for it, as indeed it isn't, rockbottom is and the stretch (verstrekken = provide, aangelengt muss es langen) dust be made must be made and seen as the easiest and smartest way to easy tensions all the way up the fractally 'enchanted' (encahiert, entrained dogged unfoggit) (f)LADDERing finery of beings (it's not a calendar but a lifespan change), opening and entry points of/to all of which are way down at the bottom (where enticements to turn the next corner, burn the next ship, narrow new memoriy triggers into even grander selectivity and finer guage, and reverse roleplay into grotesquer pantimime will be concocted in perpetuity) – funny enough a truly cultured man at the very end of the village I grew up in ran a car battery shop for decades, now it's taken over by a view obscuring big billboard business which takes up a lot more space. You can be sure they won't mention rock, footfall or any thing that could give regular folks, their subjects and objects the idea a hold is finally in the making that will hold them dear (conversation turned to france where a rightish commenter remarked upon the anti-globalizers that they are as conservative as powerful); he takes their latest ruckus to mean a desire to hold onto the very first job .. the way I do??. Just did. Done (overtones with first loves underscoring his point) but the lefty granted the last repartee said the protestpoint was aimed at unapplicable assesment leading to a misguided lawchange. Not misbehaviour at work but not getting work in the first place is the problem.

Oh wait. CAPitalist hierarchy is indeed open at the bottom (species crossing rights implementation by way of microcredit down to the clocked and metered nano in regional currency a business not quite open yet though) but in as far as it does reflect natural processes (never mind stimulating rather than offending for a minute) it's not those who screw down their vital requirements to a bare minimum but those who cater to the vastmost metabolic activity, the one that turned old oxides into burnables way and I mean aeons before even first breath was drawn, that are truest to life love and liberty. Communism and commerce can only meet in this flexplexchangeeful confrontation. Your choice could, should, may, can and at (REGULAR) times must even be to open (problems and promising presents alike) lest it closes in on you, sucker you into detention or a vastloper (seize-up) somewhere up and/or down the lines of (f)light sped and led into darkness, density and dough dickery. ---- if only to show she is a team player but childish parliamentarians pounce on the moment she grants the request (disdaining to explicitly take it as an order and stubbornly referring to future - rather than present) info (impact) pursewaysuave enough to change her dirty mind, to pounce on her with a claim she vascillates, wavers and wishwashes, thus neatly depositing their own laundry in disownsme loathsome lustrelessness (Vieze poez . . eh .. Loesewies (wie z'n poez?) v/d Laan deed dat). A phenomenal entire half of all viewers tuned in to the debate on tv.

If I had any vestigial doubts over whether Eric Wijnants is a rightwing semi-zionist nuthole this is it: "However, stripped from her Dutch passport now, she will not be able to enter the USA unless Immigration Minister Rita Verdonk reconsiders her plans for Hirsi Ali's forced expatriation to Africa." -- He hypes this sentence to an expatica article (MPs order Verdonk to reconsider Hirsi Ali's status - 17 May 2006) which is nowhere near this inaccurate. They ought to sue him for false attribution. --- Much as Rita can be, like AHA, accused of not being too friendly disposed to keeping on allowing hordes of ungrateful, moronic and nonfriendly immigration to overheat and altogether seize up the integration apparatus (never much to be proud of to begin with, those dirty jobs didn't seque into small scale intensive low tec fairy tale farming as it could and should [[have]]), a process that hasn't despite claims above, hardly slowed down [[especially if you look at ratios of sensible and/or cowardly whites leaving due to the cuddle puddle pc ineptness of dealing with this and related issues like resurgence of native fundamentalisms]], due to flawed and loopholable and route-aroundable measures .. and perhaps attempting to persuade the likeminded lefties to come out and turn right just like AHA did. --- Piet | Homepage | 05.22.06 - 8:39 pm | #

Heroes of Jewish Comedy. shown on Arena (NPS - dutch tv) offers a rather biased and unbalanced account of Jewish humour (the one before last show had this pretty woman telling us Jews are soulsearchers and dare look at and delve into themselves real good). I'd strongly recommend contrasting this with accounts of harsh reality, to wit, the joseph story, a wonderful illustration of the ruthless scheming meant to enlarge parasitable pools and subject them to the appetite of power as well as of the lenght of time this has been practiced and perfected. The ruler of victims makes the best and/or most indisputable victim.

version 2 (posted to xymph): Heroes of Jewish Comedy. A series just (about) shown as a segment of Arena (cultural program by the NPS.nl iow dutch tv) offers a rather biased and unbalanced account of Jewish humour (the one before last show had this pretty woman telling us that Jews are soulsearchers and dare look at and delve into themselves real good, much bedda, bla shrinketythink bla). No matter how much I love Rickels loving Freud it's hight time to contrast this lady's comfortzone catering belief and hypocrisy with accounts of ancient and perhaps not as much suppressed as not yet realized dishonesty -- to wit, the handsome Joseph of the many coloured coat, sold into slavery by his brother yet rising to power story, a wonderful illustration of, again, perhaps not so much ruthless scheming intent on enlarging parasitable pools subjected to the appetite of power till the last lengths of time this trick can be practiced and perfected -- as the edge (poles 'aparth' driving rather than bridging wedge) self-preservation sharpened by sociostratificatorical (rendering of most work futile and a fraction overpaid) ownership concepts that set chain (gang)s of wheelgeared remotage in train constitute. Is their a place for tools in constitutions? For fake in life?

check Joseph story at Jewdas and then realize that Jews just might have been the arch accountants and bureaucrat-rats, masterminders of colonizers, conquerors (I read somewhere that Egyptians gave them Palestine to be rid of them, seeing them for the plagues they were and conjured) arms development, domination, slave labour, exploitation, conflict and exhaustion. Not unlike other (desert[[ifying]] patriarchal) people but early adopters, jealous guardians and cherishers of their precious edge.

give Jews the fair fighting monetization monopoly and they'd be happy to let go of all lands, media and governments put to gether i bet.

the first media hit of a cabinet carryin on into the small hours (mere weeks ago) was basically to (give) cover (ing fire and distract from) AHA's promotion/defection to a Zionist tank (anti-gay righttolifers to boot). I haven't seen captured eyeball figures for the media bespectacled cabinet session we might call AHA-ID II (mine been rather painful over the past 12 hours) but this time they are similarly distracting from an onset of NA(tional)ZI(onist) seizure in the middle east.

July:

The weeklies are on about how AHA has been a femme fatale for Theo in the type of literal sense that is quite rare. I wasn't really smitten with her like he was. Apparently US media speak about her being his muse and him quite worried about her. But she was used to making up stories about danger to get ahead, ergo, she was heading straight for the Zionoid trenches all along.

----- I am reading 'The secret war on the Jews' (John Loftus, here's a short review: http://www.john-loftus.com/bookreview.asp) right now (the book is misnamed of course cause war takes 2 fighting parties, it should be called 'wars on and by Jews' or sumtin) and it is full of the most notorious spies in history (a mere few handfuls of people), weaving back and forth between media, business banking and government (inactivity when it comes to anything decisive towards peace) Philby, Dulles and John Jesus what's his name (Angleton or something) who altogether prove that whether one is or is not wholly or partly Jewish, whether one wholly or only partly loves or hates them, results are indistinguishable, one bloodily contested monopoly after another. -----

Loftus talks to a conspiracy/alien cook regularly on WFMU (dot org), - ps (2008 april): one of those Potemkin things that have to deceive the innocent and naive blood about the hell places like NYC (where this very complete including the outlandish Siren song sing away Soothingly) so that they dare allow themselves to be attracted, approach and are invariably well received on the sliding scale from being employed to getting sacrificed fast or slow, roped in, ravaged, robbed, raped, cannibalized, assaulted or kept in turmoil till a ripe old age and be held up as an exemplary docile who can take it).

today 4 years ago Theo v Gogh was slaughtered. 'Free' paper front page poll says half of Dutch folk don't think he needs commemorating anymore and only a quarter sense some loss of pressfreedom (rather than gains in politness) due to islamic 'discipline'. Schizophrenically enough page 19 is devoted to the man good for 7% of the overal vote who issues warnings about an islamic tsunami. The killer attended sermons of a double speaker. This thundering preacher in the most radical mosque of Holland is still here and stil double tongued. He defends his wishing ugly diseases on vGogh and Ayaan HI as strategy to blow off steam and release pressure. Every sane person knows that quite the opposite, just as with equally problematic playacting (non-consensual)sex and violence these hollowoodies work both ways; one each at either (extreme[[ly entangled]] end and not at all in the middle).

Mak tends to be a dhimmitudian with his dick stuck in a mediocre wishywasherette. ----- Legit complaints of Muslims are not heard. ----- Bush is the worst homo globohomo so far, in that he blatantly derives pleasure out of his ability to fuck everybody over, singling out some to demonize, being silent about others, the enablers behind his helpers in particular. That fits with his bid for blessed player of genuine Christianity rep. His father probably thought he had a way too sissily soft and sensitive son. The therapeutic strategy was to scare him stiff a few times. And as we know, resistance to and resentment of what transpired can block examination and digestion of, then subsequent moving on from the suppressed memory which becomes a generator of reminders, more and more grotesque, brute and in your face as the aeons are sliding by are continents are set adrift. So, instead of somebody with more capacity to do what John D Hamaker, penetrationwise the only worthy disciple of Hensel in a century, recommended, we are left with a man who can only leave us the rigid frigids of fright; Bottom Line constructural crunching strength to free all (for mineral metabolism purposes) too tight gone horrible wrong, a trick as taboo as imperative for all who want to maintain sustainably, stimulate simple garden variety continuity for all species. Not, like Bush, leave the lessons of lesions but leave the type of fully formed and informed leaves that can only be fed with/from 'ground' (we help and are god in as much as we can enhance our presence by reaching back and repeating in any case ongoing beginnings) and from ground on up: making and wetting dusts, reducing their oxides, weave the weatherweaving chains of life. ----- Suppose all the Palestinians would agree on a survival strategy reasoned as follows: the jews are traumatized and hold this trauma for ransom, cashing in, famously, and more and more shamelessly, from royally to imperially and still, they have plans. They will never agree if we suggest: look, manipulate .. sorry, i mean, lobby the UN to give us the desalination infrastructure and coastline desert territory someplace and we'll get out of your hair. Our kin is in you all's pockets or under severe assault and it's time to prove we're not collectively suicidal. Even if this entirely fictitious scenario were to be suggested, it won't happen. The reason has to do with those plans. The state of israel is gonna do still worse than it has. As much as 'their' subjects hold on to internal traumas and use them as weapons, they will hold on to Palis, 'their' external ones, to wield as a shield against anybody able and tempted to get violent on them once again. correction: Theo was murdered 2, not 4 years ago (Pim F was). Xymph, 'racist' is a term that obscures facts.

Here is a lovely quote, with it immediate source:

"The situation between us," Dayan creepily informed the Palestinian poet Fadwa Tuqan, "is like the complex relationship between a Bedouin man and the young girl he has taken against her wishes. But when their children are born, they will see the man as their father and the woman as their mother. The initial act will mean nothing to them. You, the Palestinians, as a nation, do not want us today, but we will change your attitude by imposing our presence upon you."

Xymphora, it would be helpful if you could elaborate on your notion of American Establishment in contrast to the Zionist lobby. Given the overlaps, convergences, symbiosis and bi-partisanship of the Lobby, these analytical categories seem anachronistic.

They seem to belong to a pre-WWI Wasp America. Bien entendu, the word 'Wasp' itself is anachronistic since it was created in the 1960s, when the white establishment was already in frank decline.

It occurs to me also that the Turkish 'establishment' has strong pro-Israel proclivities, a club to which Turkey's own PM Tayyip Erdogan seem not to belong.

It would be interesting to see a sharper conceptual contrast between these two cases of pro and allegedly anti zionist 'establishments'.

@ righteo re: 2001 Space Odyssey

Kubrick's spaceship designs for 2001 came straight from v. Braun's sketch books, and he managed to tap an astounding amount of cutting-edge 1960s space technical knowledge. He was known for his accurate and thorough research, but the uncanny detail may betray some good-will on the part of the guvmint. Not only for 2001, but also for Dr. Strangelove.

Some conspirologues argue that after 'participating' in the moon landings, Kubrick feared for his life, and for that reason became a reclusive. They add that Eyes Wide Shut was his subtextual (and testamentary) affront to the Jewish billionaire's club.

There's a famous line by Kubrick in which he said:

"Hitler was right about almost everything he said about the jews".

Rowan Berkeley | Homepage | 06.08.07 - 1:30 pm - This site is great! I read the part on The British Eugenics Establishment/Societies, it's such a tangled web but it all ties together. "Upon this revolutionary base, Sidney Webb, his wife Beatrice and playwright George Bernard Shaw built an organization which educated the intellectuals, bohemians and disillusioned clergy of England in the art of "permeating" and using the machinery of government for their own socialist ends." When she talks about the international Bankers; " 30 May 1919. . .We have already indicated that the experts of the British delegation at the Peace Conference were almost exclusively from the Milner Group and Cecil Bloc. The American group of experts, 'the Inquiry,' was manned almost completely by persons from institutions (including universities) dominated by J.P. Morgan and Company. This was not an accident. Moreover, the Milner Group has always had very close relationships with the associates of J.P. Morgan and with the various branches of the Carnegie Trust. These relationships, which are merely examples of the closely knit ramifications of international financial capitalism, were probably based on the financial holdings controlled by the Milner Group through the Rhodes Trust." - This is absolutely true. The heads of the New York Banks, J.P.Morgan, Jacob Schiff, T.Lamont, P.Warburg, Vanderlip and a few others had the Treaty of Versaille before the Senate had it. In fact the Senate couldn't get a copy of it. This comes from a Congressional hearing manuscript. It's absolutely amazing. The only thing that wasn't mentioned which I find curious is Cyrus Scofield and his Bible, the first American book publish by the Oxford University Press.

If so, I am glad to hear it, since I admit to a weakness for Kubrick's vision, no matter how dispeptic. Each of his movies that I saw had at least one element that was embedded in my memory, which is way more than can be said for the huge majority of movies.

Israeli troops shoot Hebron family

<http://english.aljazeera.net/NR/...6D419BEF2BE.htm>

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=M...h? v=M_CRzdlA5To	I would add, for 2,500 years, since the IDF killers only followed the letter of Talmud.
Israeli soldiers have killed an unarmed 67-year-old Palestinian and wounded four members of his family in a raid in the West Bank town of Hebron. Yehia al-Jabari was shot dead by soldiers who raided his home on Wednesday to detain one of his sons. An Israeli army spokesman said the army was searching a house in Hebron for wanted suspects. He said that its troops were attacked by residents who threw a gas canister at them and one Palestinian man tried to grab the weapon of a soldier "who was forced to open fire". Residents of Hebron disputed the army's version of events. One witness said: "They [Israeli soldiers] came like wild dogs and when they did, they opened the door and started shooting. The soldier killed an old man, the head of the household. His wife came out screaming so the soldier shot her and then he shot his brother and then the children. Go and look at the house. It's a pool of blood." One relative of the victim said the shooting was indiscriminate. "He [an Israeli soldier] shot the boy inside and then the two girls and my wife in the other room. In every room he opened fire," he said. Witnesses at the scene accused the Israeli soldiers of firing at young children. Al-Jabari's daughter was still covered in blood when she described what happened. She said: "My mother told the soldier to stay away from him, from my father. And then he shot him and my mother yelled 'you bastard' and then he shot my mother and then shot and wounded my brother Rajeh. They shot my brothers and the children." VANCOUVER - Today media activists eclipsed the Vancouver Sun's Zionist line. This week CanWest papers have been running celebratory pieces extolling the great Israeli victory in 1967 with no mention of the hundreds of thousands of refugees caused by Israeli ethnic cleansing nor the more than 50 Security Council resolutions over the last 40 years condemning the illegal Israeli occupation and its colonisation of Palestinian land.	Fritz 06.08.07 - 10:03 pm # ----- :: ----- :: -----

It seems Blair and Putin had that meeting after all, which i thought had been called off.

Tony Blair told Vladimir Putin yesterday that the world was becoming more and more afraid of Russia's behaviour at home and abroad. And as he left his last G8 summit in Germany Mr Blair predicted a lengthy period of deep freeze in relations between Russia and the West. The two men, who have been sparring with each other from a distance for weeks, had a tense, hour-long encounter in the Caroline Room at the Kempinski Grand Hotel. Mr Blair emerged alone, a fixed smile on his face. But when he spoke to reporters later at Rostock airport shortly before flying home he did not attempt to disguise that it had been a hard encounter or that he had been frustrated by the outcome....

The issue here is acquiring the capacity to neutralize Russian nuclear second-strike capability; the basis of a stable system in a context of nuclear deterrence doctrine.

When you neutralize second-strike capabilities, mutually assured destruction stop being a deterrent. This shifts the strategic situation from one of deterrence, to one of unilateral
'compellence', to use Thomas Schelling's barbarism.

Compellence is the capability to coerce anyone else through nuclear blackmail, i.e., first-strike capability.

Juan, this is a very good try. But you are carrying a lot of holoschlockian baggage that's been hardwired into you, it's in your subconscious, and that comes through even in your haiku.

Zyklon B fumes are not "nasty". They are positively lifesaving. Zyklon B, the commercial cyanide-based pesticide, was widely used not only in every camp to decrease the risk of catastrophic epidemics in the pre-DDT days, but also in military barracks and industrial facilities ever since the 1920s. It is still with us today, through normal over-the-counter sales.

My parents and I were ourselves "Zyklon-B'd", like most refugees put into work camps during WW2. (That is, our ragged clothing was). The Germans also gave us facilities to wash ourselves and saw to it that we kept our wooden barracks spotlessly clean. All this saved lives.

Incidentally, it is perhaps not widely known that personal hygiene and cleanliness were not part of the culture of the Eastern European Jew.

In the Babylonian Talmud, 1934-48 Soncino Edition, Volume I, Tract Sabbath, page 20, the wisdom of the Sages teaches thus: "One who searches his garments and finds a louse shall not crack it, but simply rub it with his fingers and throw it away (on the Sabbath). Says R. Huna: This should also be done even on week days, out of self-respect".

With this kind of religions teaching, how do you suppose ignorant superstitious people react, when given a bar of soap and required to go wash themselves and their clothing? Is it any wonder that Anne Frank died of typhus or of whatever other disease is transmitted by lice?

It is only a fable that bug spray was massively used to kill human beings. There are better ways for doing that. But, eventually, you'll get the hang of it.

Poland was very forthright about those proposed missiles. Several of its spokesmen said that the Iran story was nonsense and they would accept them only if they were pointed towards Russia. And given its history, Poland has reason enough to be concerned with its neighbor. As any and all of Russia's neighbors do.

I find it rather anachronistic that some of the people who comment here still think of the world in black and white, good Putin bad Bush. For starters, Putin did not get rid of the oligarchs. He just replaced one group with another, with a group that is utterly loyal to him. Take a look at <http://templetonthorp.com/en/news1461>

"Under Puting's rule, the balance of power between the state and the oligarchs has shifted beyond recognition, as the RSPP (Russian Union of Industrialists and Enterpreneors) has gone from setting the agenda to following Krlmlin's lead."

Regarding Azerbaijan, the Soviet base there is a big thorn in the side of the Azeris. They do not want it there, and negotiations have been going on for some time to get rid of it. There is no love lost between the Russians and the Azeris.

The Azeris are closely related to Iranians. Their languages are close. They would certainly not favor any attack on Iran. I seem to remember that the US has some facility in that country, but it is doubtful that the Azeris would let the US use their territory for any operation against Iran.

There are a lot of national interests at play here. The world was easy when it was just the Soviet Union and the US.

Juan, just to be brief: there is a big body of literature out there on the subject, digging up some old threads here will give you all you can handle.

In essence, Noahide laws are slave laws drawn up specifically for gentile brown nosers (also known as Righteous Gentiles, such as the ones who worship at H-C altar) and are equally specifically non binding to Jews.

According to Talmud, a Jew can, and is in fact encouraged to break any Noahide law with impunity since his is the master race, and the reason Salman has trouble distinguishing between the two concepts.

Truth to tell, so do I at times.

Azeris speak a Turkish dialect, as far as I know. Their spite is reserved for Armenians, who don't get along with Russians either, so who knows?

A kind of Farsi is spoken in large parts of Afghanistan, Uzbekistan and Tajikistan, again to the best of my

The definition of racism is pretty fluid, is it not? I see it used primarily to stifle debate. So scholarly dissections are not racist, but Salman's inchoate rage, is racist and non-muslim? Funny how I see the opposite here. As someone who grew up in the Muslim milieu, they are quite capable of being as racist as any one else, regardless of what they say about Islam.

Personally I see that Islam at its purest is not racist, but some who read chapter 17 of the Quran, Bani Israil, might argue otherwise.

And dot, there are many Muslims who disagree with Sharia, or interpret it their own way, but that does not make them non-muslim.

lobro, you're probably right about the language. I thought that since part of the country was part of Iran at one time, that there was a language similarity. Some guys have misconceptions here about what I said. I think lobro understands where I'm coming from.	and if implemented in some of our crime infested neighbourhoods would definitely do a great job of social action.
1. I am not diametrically opposed to Shari'a in most instances. It's rather the Judaic elements that I consider to be un-Islamic and fabricated and not part of Islam. This is a theological discussion. I've even suggested that cutting off the hands of thieves is not necessarily a bad idea for certain times and places - and if implemented in some of our crime infested neighbourhoods would definitely do a great job of social action.	Yip. Nip crime right in the bud. Just like the death penalty has practically eliminated violent crime in the US.
2.lobro is right, it's not a crime to be a "Jew" as no one chooses which parents they are born from. By making the "jewish" identity become an ethnic problem - it became impossible for Jews or Israelites to get out of their mindset...it was the perfect entrapment setup by the rabbis - God's Chosen. One can easily get out of the fold of Christianity or even Islam if they don't have basic faith in God. BUT here's the most important of issues: identifying Jews involved in criminality and connecting the dots and their network together. Chris Bollyn and DBS and Eric Huffs Schmidt has done a great job at that.	Where is it working? Iran? Sharia law has the same problem as justice everywhere, a terribly corrupt application of the justice system, fraught with dogma and political agenda.

	Xeno, I went to one of the most judaicized universities in North America bar none, McGill University in Nontreal - Bronfman country - in the late 50s and early 60s. Believe it or not (I hang my head in shame) I had no awareness of the sense of the propaganda at the time. No kidding, guys!
	I was as much a sucker for it as, say, Juan is today. Likely even worse. I was studying engineering. It was hard, it was serious stuff, and politics was the farthest thing from my mind. (Is that a valid excuse for me? NO, NO, NO!! What a Dummkopf I was: what a truly dumb guy!)

But, in my time in academe, we heard very little of this bs. I graduated in 1962 and, at the time, the term "holocaust" signified zilch. It took a huge propaganda schtick, probably the "Shoah" bit plus a whole lot of coercion in the right places, to burn this horseshit into the goys' conscience.

When I was an undergraduate, our engineering profs were . . . knowledgeable profs who socked it to me with exquisite brutality interspersed with my frat parties (and did it elegantly, technically, very personally and far more often than I thought absolutely necessary) - which was actually their job.

Afterwards, as a practical result, I never designed a bridge or structure or electronics or power transmission system that failed. But then, afterwards, that grade of outstanding prof or Dean - what a Dean we had! - went "elsewhere".

What makes me so rueful upon thinking back on it is that, through my passivity, I actually aided the change for the worse and helped the world to reach the helpless state in which we are right now.

Look Juan - maybe you don't read the right stuff. Otherwise you wouldn't forever be asking questions on this board, would you?

Let me assure you, the Talmud is the very last thing in the world that I personally would want to read. For boredom and shattering nonsense, it is truly impossible to beat. But, when you realize that within that irredeemable mountain of shit, what they are talking about is the future of your very own life; your life and that of your loved ones; that ought to make your ears perk up. If it does not, that is your own loss.

In any case, I take it seriously. Jews do, too.

You should certainly appreciate, by now, that I do not write really to answer your posts. I know perfectly well that you will retain nothing from my remarks. You are simply too dense to be able to do so. But in responding to you, I am not really addressing you in person. I am addressing others who read my postings on this board, including lurkers who read the comments and may never participate in the discussions. Of these, there may well be many.

I believe amongst these people are those - there must necessarily be - who are quite a bit smarter than you are; and in any case, whatever their intellectual capacity, they will be able to test out my comments fairly and put them to use as they see fit. That test is as much as I would hope for, in my own quest for Truth. It is to such persons that my remarks are really addressed, and not to you.

As far as I am concerned, you are just a useful sounding foil, a tangible measure of invincible ignorance. From your position, intelligence-wise, the only possible way to go is up. And that is how I see it.

No question about it. You would think I read all the wrong stuff.

I have a bit of good news for you, however. The jews are not going to rule the world. Not in their present condition... the only question is who will still be around to see that.

"that physical production is needed to generate profit". - Fractional banking makes profit for the Bankers. The reason military production is useful is that it requires the State to borrow; this was the genius of the Rothschilds. Because the State has the power to tax, the real money can be made. Asking the right questions is the start to learning the right answers.	No, fractional reserve banking as such does not make profit for the bankers. Fractional reserve banking allows them to extend credit to customers up to a total of, shall we say, ten times their immediate liquid assets. These loans are intended to allow the borrowers to engage in business and to make profit, out of which they will pay interest to the bankers.

"In 1989", recalls Leviev, "my business wasn't going as well as I could have hoped for... I must say that at that time was considering starting up business in the USSR, though I understood just how risky that could be. As I always did in such situations, I went to the Rebbe to ask his advice. ...From him I heard the following: "Don't forget your family traditions; don't forget who your grandfather was; remember the Torah, which teaches us to concern ourselves with others. You must help other Jews living in the Soviet Union" And he," continues Leviev, "named all 15 republics, adding: "God willing, you'll have a business, too." Armed with this advice from the Teacher I arrived in Moscow 11 years ago and opened up two programs, one related to business and the other to helping the [Jewish] community. Today there are already 345 such organizations in the CIS, with synagogues, institutes of learning, cafeterias, libraries, and large centers... One of the most active is "Chabad Shomrei Shabos", which is run by my friend, the Head Rabbi of Odessa and the Southern Ukraine Avroom Wolf. I consider him the most successful and reliable businessman..."

used for acquiring assets and not for mere consumption.

Interest is also necessary, IMO. It covers risks to the lender, e.g. possible default & inflation; cost of administration; and reward or profit. Otherwise why lend?

The question is when does interest cross the threshhold into usury? Germar Rudolf wrote an interesting article arguing that compound interest is usurious, simple interest is not.

I've always been impressed by bookmakers. They pander to a human weakness, the thrill of gambling. Bookies who last in the business operate on tiny margins, about 1%, and have an uncanny ability to calculate the odds. Yet bookies drive Mercedes, and punters drive Minis.

By the way, I read where the best performing superannuation fund in our neck of the woods is run by the bookmakers' for their retirement. Their investment strategy was very interesting, and it was no gamble.

Here we need to pay attention to two things. Firstly, who in the conditions of the still-communist USSR would think of opening up a private diamond business? And it's just this sort of "business-related program" which we're talking about here, because by that time Lev Leviev had already established himself in diamonds in South Africa, Angola and India... Though after reading the above article one might get the impression that "Diamond Lev", in seeking the Rebbe's advice before expanding into "Soviet" territory, was thinking about opening an atelier for the sewing of women's blouses or a small factory for the production of jar lids.

We can only draw one conclusion from the fact that Leviev received his Teacher's blessing and decided to "take the risk" after all: that by 1989 no risk existed for Chabad "businessmen" in the Soviet Union. Though within the USSR itself there were probably very few who could have guessed that... By the way, the main characteristic of Jewish national "risk" consists of just that -- of "coming out" only at such time and in such place where no one and nothing can possibly threaten the "chosen ones'" business.

And the second point. We've seen once again from this article that Chabad rabbis are able to combine, "with no qualms", active religious activity with the conduct of "successful and reliable business projects". I wonder how relations have developed between these rabbi-businessmen and local fiscal organs? Maybe a special paragraph has been introduced into the Tax Code entitled "Rabbinical business"? Or maybe the business deals of the Chabad rabbinate are handled by the Committee for Religious Matters?

<http://www.haaretz.com/hasen/spa...ges/867699.html>

The wealth of Israel's 500 richest individuals increased by approximately 25 percent last year, from $65 billion to over $81 billion in contrast to the 2007 state budget of $70 billion. According to TheMarker Magazine's list of the 500 richest Israelis, in its fifth year of publication, Israel's wealthiest individual is Lev Leviev. Leviev took the title from the Wertheimer family, owners of the Iscar company bought by Warren Buffett who until that point had bought solely American companies. Leviev is the controlling shareholder of Africa Israel, which has shown impressive growth achieved by making significant investments overseas. Leviev's net worth is now valued at over $6 billion. The Wertheimer fortune stands at around $5.5-6 billion, however it has not seen any significant growth. Eli Reifman of Emblaze placed at the bottom of the list, after another year of losses and management changes. He lost his position among Israel's the top 500 companies.

There is this peculiar relationship between the Lubavitchers and Tzarism. Basically, the first Lubavitcher Rebbe held that the Jews were better off under Tzarism than under any sort of Western European liberal system. He felt that Tzarism would keep the Jews Jewish. I don't think the question of what it would do to the Russians really arose in his mind. But his hasids acted as a fifth column behind the advancing lines of the Napoleonic Army, thus helping to ensure its defeat. This conditioned their entire sense of historical mission, it remains the paradigm to this day I believe. So you can speculate on how Putin would react to this.

thank you, this is again a chance to think about this theme, myself get into this conflict often. The biggest demonstration of mass- deception was 911 of course, a shocked patriotism turned against Afghanistan and even Saddam.

But from another view it would not be wrong to have some respect for your country and the people who worked and have even fought for it in wars. If they were at times misled, one would have the more the duty to find out and let this not be repeated. Because the soldiers were acting in good belief. In Germany the MSM propaganda is aimed, to look at them of the past war, as criminals, to make todays people despise their country and be pushed into egoism, entertainment and looking for profit making as new values, definitely not very promising.

It's probably the best idea to get outside the masses, especially if they're so stupid as today, but the common opinion has a magnetic attraction.

The racism card. How about "spiritual" ideology that reeks havoc on all positive human qualities? The racism card being played again? How about Judaism having at its core an antithetical ideological construct against the "other"? Are you saying that the two are unrelated or just weakly so?

It would be welcome news.

However, the fact is indisputable that without Talmud, there would have been no Holocaust, real or imagined, and without Holocaust (real or imagined), there would have been no Israel. They are fully cognizant of it and play it to the hilt in all their correspondence with the rest of the world.

The first thing to grasp is that, in lieu of a territorially based state system, jewry developed a form of social organisation which is neither territorially-based nor geared to the operation of any sort of state.

The simplest description would be that the ruling stratum of jewish society was formed out of a constantly self-renovating and competitive series of coalitions between the richest jews and the most prestigious ones (these latter being rabbis, who considered their responsibility to include everything from education to the regulation of marriages).

This is a pretty oppressive type of rule, and one of the less widely acknowledged purposes of zionism was to escape it, in favour of something more like a western european liberal state with a correspondingly liberal and pluralistic society. All this, of course, without allowing the laxity to go so far as to dissolve jewish society as such altogether.

However, the state which was intended to achieve this is now reverting to something that looks more and more like orthodoxy and ghetto thinking, because they world-wide alliances between rabbinical leaders and rich jews have by no means given up - they are taking over the zionist state - via the USA which they already control - observe that control of the USA is child's play compared to gaining total control of israel!

By the sound of it, it was a typical man-of-war naval type organization, except that the rebellious crew intentionally ran the man-of-war aground, with the absurd result that they are still trapped inside it.

It would be funny, except that the whole contraption is radioactive and poisoning everything around it.

If it is true that Zionism arose out of wish to confront and escape the clutches of Talmud, then it lost the fight since they are becoming more merged and indistinguishable every day (sort of like this <http://thumbsnap.com/v/0zfQcCBy.jpg> except that protagonists are still very much alive).

I think that the day approaches when our respective foci will likewise merge into a common front.

Certainly, the difference is quite academic to Palestinians and what are we if not Palestinians-in-waiting?

The time to get ready for intifada is now.

a book about: Physics and Transcendence, ed. by Axel Dürr, with articles by the great physicists (quantenphysics). Beginning with Max Planck around 1900, who already said, that physics and religion are not antagonistic but complementary methods. Physics is viewing the world of objects from outside as spectator and religion from inside, subjectivly. Physics can recognize God in the simplicity of the mathematical laws and in religion God is recognized immediatly and language is a parable for the objectivly not seizable, transcental.

Later quantumphysics developed so that the difference of object and the spectator disappeared, who does influence the particles by watching them and pairs of particles have a telepathic connection.

Anyway this is much theoretical, so that I appreciate Tiger Eyes insight: the Irish monks ventured beginning with St.Patric in the 5.century to the Germans and had it not been our celtic brothers and sisters: we would never have become oriental Christians. Don't believe a talmudic rabby would have had any success.

The Pharisees teach the materialistic ghetto with no escape (Matthew 23.,13) and hate Jesus who showed a way out. This is also later Talmud. As is to see the great Physicians have been concerned with this question. Also in the common unconscious these myths or realities play a role: the present entertainment and political propaganda are based upon them too, no?

It actually goes beyond that, Fritz.

The entire materialistic notion of solid "being", i.e., something "tangible" that lays claim on a chunk of space over a period of time is challenged.

One may argue quite forcefully, following the theory, that existence is nothing but a form of vacuum, nothingness, thereby giving a big boost to ancient Hindu precepts of world as illusion spun out of nothing at all.

Rowan my friend,

"Tigs, you are an intelligent man, do you really think that the abstractions of philosophical Judaism have the slightest significance as such to ordinary Israelis?"

It's that abstraction of philosophical Judaism that is kicking everyone in the ass.

I have been around Jews all my life. They are far more predictable than not. I'm amazed how many times while having conversations about WW II without mentioning Jews, the token Jew at the party has often interrupted the conversation by hysterically saying something like this: "Of course we had to enter the war they were killing the Jews!". Their nuts! Articulate but sick!

While dating a Jewish woman, who was very sweet and kind (and not practicing the "religion"), I went to pick her up and while there mentioned I just got ripped off for $8,000 dollars.

Her very first question was, was he a Jew!? And he was!

I've been told by a Public School Jewish guidance counselor who stated "We get all you Catholic school trash", another Jewish teacher who live in our apartment house would go to her window in the morning as my sister and I passed her basement window with she would yell, HONEST!, "You fucking Nazi's" because we were in Catholic school uniforms when we were only 12 or 13 years old. These are just some experiences. We never ever made any derogatory replies.

That's the American experience. It may have been different in Britain. I can only imagine how Palestinians must be treated.

actually, lobro, myself knows just a bit about quantum physics, I only wanted to point to the fact, that those great rational physicists also thought about religious myths and transcendence.. and how the world appears depends on how the perception of the obsever is conditioned (will think about it further).

Rowan: ...the significant term is "wanting to be a nation like all the others." Obviously the bible is full of curses on any jews who want this.

Rowan, you think about the ´socialist` Kibutzim of the 1960s. But as a nation the Jews did´nt respect the Palestinians, Lebanon, others., international laws, were not independent..

Perhaps you believe in the sentence, that the french revolutionaries wrote on the walls of desecrated churches: Temple de la raison. A purely rational society, without regarding history as well as religion or old philosophies has then as well as in Bolshevism failed terribly.

But do they have a rational order in Israel? the first comment on this thread shows the outmost digusting attitude of the famous Jew:

"Just a quick and preliminary suggestion (it may be wrong but it's worth considering):the difference between spirituality and occultism is that the former, being filtered through ethics, has some (perhaps even solid) connection with logic, whereas the latter, without the said filter, quickly deteriorates into nasty mumbo-jumbo."

The spirituality mythos I'm talking about is tied to the soil, the community. Cults, for the most part, are intellectual exercises in ego centric withdrawal. This is why they seldom last as a community. Contrary to what non-Catholic think and don't understand is that Dogma and morality is not faith, it's something more fundamental that is the really religious. That being celebrating life, beauty, wonder and universal truths. No one has a monopoly on suffering. To be alive is to suffer. To realize this one can have compassion for others, that is, to suffer with your friends, families and especially the wee ones When they need you. They need it the most. I sense that it is a quiet realization of the profound mystery of life that then begins an inner and outer dialog where all things are possible and reconciled when objective reality becomes sacred. That's all. Even Jewish people have it but have shut it down tight because they are waiting for their liberator, an external event, rather than it coming somewhere in the area of the heart. Our accepting even death in life (small deaths and death itself) as sacred and eminent is one of its gifts.

Even the great St. Thomas Aquinas, before he died said that his great tome The Summa Theologica, which he never finished, was nothing more than "straw".

Hope I was helpful in some way, lobro?

Sorry to disagree with your statement, lobro: "the difference between spirituality and occultism is that the former, being filtered through ethics, has some (perhaps even solid) connection with logic, whereas the latter, without the said filter, quickly deteriorates into nasty mumbo-jumbo".

First, i suggest that spirituality and occultism are governed by the same laws, especially "you reap what you sow", cause and effect. There also is a code of ethics in both fields which some follow, some do not.

Then when you talk about magick, in what way is it different than miracles? Isn't that what the Talmudists say about Jesus, that he practiced magic?

I think the Divine Essence is manifested both through the manifest external and the hidden internal, which some call occultism. I think spirituality and occultism are one, btw.

Fritz, I second the above sentiment. You are a wonderful man, not because I agree with you, but I think you understand that True Science and Spirituality are One.

Let no one think that I either divorce science and metaphysical reality or place the former above the latter.

In fact, my background is not so much physics as mathematics, i.e., a pure game, not unlike chess, making no claims to parallels with "reality".

So, in no way am I qualified to make sweeping pronouncements regarding matters of psyche. Moreover, I find that works of CG Jung resonate with my temperament.

However, at some point I admit to fatigue when confronted with innumerable competing and clamorous claims by a bunch of occultists, all claiming the throne of unique insight and wisdom and precious little weight given to matters of justice, compassion and selfless humantiranism.

Such attitudes invariably regress to crude materialism, which is precisely the historic downfall of Talmud, although they are not alone there, many fat, venal practitioners of other religions fell through the same trapdoor, Catholic, Hindu and others.

But Talmud as a wholly perverted system of thought is entirely unique in scope and magnitude of corruption, it glorifies and wallows in it in Darth Vaderesque fashion.

Accuse Jesus of magics all you want, but he made eminent moral sense, and that is why he carries the day as far as I am concerned, all his "miracles" are neither here nor there in terms of persuasive force.

Had it been only the miracles, his fame would have lasted as long as Michael Jordan's.

Psywar is the keyword here.	lobro,
In war, the purpose is to gain dominion over another individual, group, society or resources and maintain this dominion by use of force and intimidation.	Wow! Well said!
The victor convinces the loser of his supremacy and futility of resistance.	Something in man's psyche changed historically and radically with the Christ mythos. I agree completely.
What is Israel if not a shining example, more psywar even than a hot war?	What does the Talmud have to say about love? Being? Transcendence? Sacrifice and service to others? Nothing that is complimentary to human integrity. If it was written for and kept as the "Book" for Germans today they would be condemned as outlaws and "Nazi's". But the Jews get a free pass. I even believe that the Torah is soft Talmudism. It establishes them as "chosen" and their enemies are many, even Christ.
What is the Jewish entity through the ages if not an even more overarching case in point? All their pressure groups, worldwide control of media, endless boasting, wheedling, propaganda are just psywar ploys.	Old Testament Christians constantly quote from it at the expense of the "NEW". The Old gives justification to ignore the New. Who are the primary players destroying the U.S.? Protesters calling themselves Zionist Christians and the Zionist world view itself. Its all about justification based on God's chosen without the Christ.
This is Talmud, all else is ... supply your own smartass remark.	There were debates in the Church against having the Old Testament tied to the New. Even today it is questioned.

A magic(k)ian employs either the ability to defy (known) laws of physics or create an illusion of such in order to convince the target audience of his spiritual supremacy, i.e., I am the leader, you follow or else, and that is the reason for my caution.	I don't agree at all. I share Thompson's view that the actual contents of the 'new testament' are pretty much like the records of many other similar teachings from the period. However, various features of this particular tradition made it seem to the orthodox jewish hierarchs, on the one hand, and to the interested roman officials, on the other, that, given time and a bit of polishing up, these stories could create precisely the apparent contrast you are all talking about - 'eschatological tension' in the jargon - the intended reading is that Jesus promised the end of oppressive jewish rule over non-jews, but that by killing him 'the jews' postponed the great change, which we will now have to expect only on his return. Thus, everyone learns to live in the 'tension ' - which lasts indefinitely.

And therein lay the deadly danger to Talmud, this is the reason for the everlasting hatred of all things Jesusian.
Over and over again, over many centuries, we, the goys have been pounded over the head that they are inferior to jews, dumb, blind and only good to serve, that no matter what, we shall lose in any attempt to wrest ourselves free - just like Palestinians today - read the statements of the Zionist leaders, what they are saying to pals is what the diaspora jews have been saying (in so many words) to the rest of the West.

also is a great deal of borrowing of the Eastern traditions, but totally jumbled.

I also know for a fact that many New Age groups have been infiltrated by the CIA, so think of them as just another exercise in mind control, as were many of the cults that appeared in America in the 70's. And New Age phenomena like crop circles and UFO's are just another distraction, I feel.

I appreciate Jung's honest attempts to understand the metaphysical elements of psyche, and just feel he didn't go far enough. You may want to look at the enneagram as another way on understanding human archetypes btw, it seems much in vogue in Catholic circles.

I'm a physician, in the field of mental illness. I'm interested in the fact that almost every child seems to go through a metaphysical period around about the ages of 5-7, after which they become more left-brained and forget their early occult and spiritual experiences. I trace the genesis of many psychological disturbances to that age, and my interest is of course in prevention and cure.

Astrology and Psychism then become tools of understanding the human condition, and I am quite happy to concede that Psychism is imperfect and the horoscope may not make the person, but the person makes the horoscope.

But in the course of my travels, I have observed some truly magical things, like Psychic surgery and Kahuna magic. Yes most of it is showy and fraudulent, but there are genuine practitioners, content to remain obscure yet still keeping their tradition alive, just being.

I also see that magic and the occult exists inside each of us, and you can see it as hard wired in our psyche; where we were, and where we're headed.

I prefer to explain this in simple terms, but understand it for myself in a scientific way. I would love to write this all down, since I've been studying it for more than 40 years, but there are many things I'm doing concurrently. Suffice to say there'll be a website, to cover all that.

Here's a sample: While some believe there are 7 chakras I believe there actually are 12, divided almost evenly between the material, psyche (soul aspects) and spiritual (the need to surrender to something greater than our ego) and the chakras are not only energy centers (batteries, memory depositories) but also doorways into other realities. If you can visualise Hindu mysticism combined with the Tao and Hermes Trismegistus, you'll get an idea.

As to the supposed discordance between religion or spirituality and metaphysical science, I think they are all part of who we are, and however we define the soul, the after life, Bardo, Karma, alternative dimensions and multi-universes, there is room for all that. We can focus just on what we know, or we can venture into t

I think that tibetan buddhism contains some of the most interesting speculations regarding the decomposition of consciousness at death into its (many) component parts, but this is mere theory. To experiment practically with this sort of thing you need either decades of arduous yoga or a few years of less arduous but more dangerous tantra.

At the same time I consider all institutionalisation of this sort of thing to be harmful - I have yet to see any indication that 'the OTO' is anything other than harmful to crowley students, for instance.

My point is not so much the person of Jesus as the grand idea of freedom, which may or may not have originated with him.

Therefore, the "eschatological tension" is illusion. Whether they killed him or not, whether he was ressurected or not, whether he plans a grand comeback or not, it is all irrelevant and may in fact serve the purpose of maintaining the desired "tension" to perpetuate their profane power, a religious glass ceiling so to speak.

The point is that I am free now and don't require some Cirque De Soleil show to instruct me on how to escape the bondage.

But I do grant you that "eschatological tension" is a useful concept in theory of mass control.

And finally, consider this: for all our blather, our presence is extremely lightweight and inconsequential.

Massive ignorance is our lot and recognizing this fact is the first baby step, we skip it and immediately fall on our faces.

Is there a universal justice, in terms of what we call suffering, etc.?

Damned if I know (and damned if i don't)

But to write it off simply because there is no easily accessible evidence is shortsighted if you subscribe to the notion of ignorance and therefore potentially dangerous.

The blind should not attempt bank robbery.

Continuing with Rowan and Juan's themes, this Christ vs anti-Christ meme is, quite correctly a recipe for permanent tension, while we all wait for the Messiah to appear and solve our problems.

So if the 'Christ' is a 'mythos' construct upon which we can project all our anthropomorphic fantasies, perhaps we should see the Anti-Christ as a simple man, who could be any of us, even if his name be Jesus, Lao-Tzu, Krishna or Buddha, offering simple moral solutions to those of us who would choose.

I'm a physician, in the field of mental illness	protestants have more a problem with guilt.
Atlan, but ... but Foxman called you a retard. How do you manage to wear both hats, was Honest Abe lying?	As today Catholicism is most original, and M.Luther and maybe Orthodoxy. The ones of Calvinist origin really have a problem with the OT.
At any rate, a very interesting post, I need time to read it (being a fellow retard).	This probably is the reason for many atheists, that they refuse this tyrannical JHW of the OT, who looks like an invention of the pharisees.
Again, as a visual, rather than verbal thinker (people, including my ex-wife often accuse me of dyslexia, not to mention ADD), I had some trouble slogging through Jung's work.	The OT would mainly be good for to see what Jesus liberation was from. The same could be said about some others, like a tyrannical calendar of the Mayas (perhaps).
However, one single statement, which I now paraphrase struck me as the philosopher's stone:	People who strive for freedom are unlikely to be interested in subdueing others. And accepting the joyful message would relieve us from the propaganda to discard our whole history and to follow new stars (egomaniacs) from media and pseudoscience.
Unconscious as a continuum that moves away from the frenetic center of confusion, doubt and fear that is ego, away from mere subconscious that provides agar-like nourishing substrate to ego, is ultimately the World.
Or something to that extent.	lobro, could have met you about 1972/3(?), but I was only in Rishikesh near Hardwar.

I think Jung's entire oeuvre is all about obscuring the distinction between the biologically innate and the supernaturally intuited.	At one point he describes the human existence as a rhizome of a plant.
For instance, I am prepared to believe that the reaction of the fieldmouse when shown the silhouette of a hawk is biologically innate ('hard-wired').	The rhizome shoots up in spring, flowers, wilts and dies but the life-giving roots remain.
But - either the human reaction to the appearance of an anima figure, or whatever other archetype, is innate, or it is supernaturally intuited. Which is it? Jung will never tell you, because his role is to confuse the two.	In this vein, was the flower product of rhizome's own activity or destined in the design of the root?

Not independent nature but social and individual experiences more often then not are the primary cause. How ever oppressive or liberated a culture is it becomes the only show in town in which to adjust to for the simple dynamic of survival. One can't never overlook conditioning as a primary source of mental illness of an individual, a community or even a nation. Why are western cultures (especially U.S. and U.K.) the largest user's of anti depressions? You have to see the whole picture (history in general and personal history) to determine what is natural and what is illness on an individual bases or national level. I think that all of us are held together with the same glue, its just our cultures, emotional and inviorments that mold our obstructed relationship with the world around us.

I wonder where you get your preconceptions from, smekhovo. It certainly isn't from the actual people in the field, whom you can ascertain quite quickly even without reading hebrew include a good number of lubavitchers, and others, who believe that 'god' actually wants them to nuke amalek, and that this 'god' will make everything just dandy again afterwards - 'a new heaven and a new earth' so to say.

people used to wonder how serious reagan's use of the 'madman tactic' was in negotiations with russia (he liked to encourage the idea that his government really was full of 'better dead than red' types, and it did contain a lot of the same genocidal neocons as dubya's).

neocons are to some extent game players, so it is possible that they don't really view the idea of an uninhabitable planet with the equanimity they pretend.

not to be overseen, behind there are lieing now 200 years of discussion, beginning with the "enlightenment", Kant.. about the role of reason and morale.

Religious is inasfar justified as pure ration has´nt succeeded. Had people followed Kant, there would be "eternal peace" between countries. A moral law would have to be applicable to everyone., no double standards.

But this law must be on a basis of "love thy neighbor or at least respect". This is the christian basis.

The Talmud is mentioned occasionally to find a clue why we in modern time have: double standards, lies, fraud, robbery almost institutionalized. If the Jews were merchands like the Phoenicians, Levantines or Armenians, they had the same role to play as them.

But Xenophile, how can you let the Khazars dissapear so easily? never mind, good trick.

I don't think lubavitchers actually disown izzy any longer. They were chosen just to piss off the 90s jews.

I don't take rabbinical firebreathers at their own valuation, that's all, I think they are cowardly as well as vicious creatures.

smekhovo | 06.13.07 - 11:42 am | #

what the lubavitcher method is is this: they maintain like the traditional ultra-orthodox that zionism was a mistake, but they also maintain (the last rebbe established this line) that once any part of the supposed 'land of israel' is in the hands of jews (not, not in the hands of the zionist government, but in the hands of jews), it is forbidden to relinquish it to non-jews.

Thus the government is in reality being condemned for not being zionist enough, but the trick of saying that 'zionism' is merely secular and thus no good anyway hides this fact.

Avrom Shmulevich, the gun toting rabbi of hebron, as he likes to be seen, is more honest : he describes his doctrine as 'hyper-zionism'.

what I am trying to get across certainly includes the idea that it is in the interest of the jewish right (I mean, the rabbis, the theocrats, and their hangers on) that jews should be treated with the maximum of nazi style hostility - all of them - so that they are driven back into the supposed security of the ghetto.

the state of israel is not (yet) a ghetto in this religio-social sense, but throughtout the history of the state, the religious parties have controlled such matters as marriage and conversion, which allows them to prevent any challenges to their power among the ordinary population by means of the implicit threat of blacklists.

Each time I read Lauren Mauret she sounds a little bit more cracked, which is a pity because half of her facts (the ones concerning the effects of depleted uranium) are at least close enough to being accurate to make it clear that the planet earth is being turned into a death star(as she puts it).

The other half of her facts come from the well known conspirological trash bin.

But there is the "justified" war scenario where one has to be responsible for the destruction of human life and not just sit back and watch it all on the 6 O'clock news. Many Jews are borderline faithful. There not the problem.

Do you think that they would want Islam and Christianity united against a historical enemy? Contrary to what people think, there is a shift away from Christian Zionism as it gets closer to the "end times". In other words, they have the courage of the dagger but not the blood.

All of this is so macabre and senseless, isn't it?

Didn't completely answer your earlier question, Tigs. The present negative connotation about 'cults' in the West only came about when too many Jewish girls ran off to Indian ashrams and the whole cult deprogramming business started, by a rabbi no less.

In the East there is a long tradition of mystery schools and religions with a progression from followers to discipleship. If that fulfills one's spiritual needs, fine.

Early Christianity was denounced as a cult by Jews, and persecuted by them before the Romans ever got into the act. Funny how it's come full circle, no?

Man,

"And even if the Vatican were to disappear tomorrow, Christianity would survive, even be stronger perhaps."

True Man.

If you want a faith revived and strengthen - attack it. Catholics, ex-Catholics and even non Catholics would rally around the "Mother" that spawned them. Ironically it would probably be the best thing that could happen. Christians know that the faith doesn't dwell in a building structure. It dwells in the temple of the most Holy of Holies, that is, the human being.

Tiger Eye | 06.15.07 - 9:38 am | #

When a faith is not recognizable by humanity it truly will stand alone, isolated. This is the problem with the "chosen". Exclusiveness, "I am above you", apparently has it's own worst rewards.

All are invited to the banquet, even Abu Foxmen. He choses not to sit at the table of humanity. All the great faiths have more in common then not. I'm afraid it's that simple.

"Will you, won't you, will you, won't you, will you join the dance? Will you, won't you, will you, won't you, won't you join the dance?"

Well Rowan, if you're truly stuck between a rock and a hard place or a choice between horrible and more horrible, perhaps you could shift your perceptions slightly? I find, when you look at something indirectly instead of 20/20 vision, that helps to get into other dimensions. Sorry, but the metaphysical works for me, and I suspect, that's where you're coming from too, otherwise why study Crowley? It isn't all just Psychology.

read: prevent jews from being good neighbours, on equal terms, cooperative, etcetera. Even after noting the similarity of the seekers to jewish sentiment, the competition is depicted as trap setting hunters and they, the innocent prey.

I certainly would cure pyromaniacs if i could and help rainbows generate flameless heat (compost piles?) gladly if they wanted to ... but is it a matter of life and death? Would the word prey be appropriate? I find using it a little zealous, polarizing and creepy, considering the undercooled tone of the narrator, all in all, a typical tool of a TothAllahtAryan trade, any which one of all the monotheismz, perfect target for ridicule and exposure. on Joseph Massad

That is wildly optimistic but the bravery is as empty as abstract. I certainly won't deny America was full of natives but now in the hands of mad jews*.

I would jump into the sea and set myself adrift a refugee on the double. But no, we did not abduct your semitic brothers and teach them dirty tricks to unleash upon you in blatant betrayal of blood and regional bonds. So, on the contrary, euros are victims too, though by now in a decidedly more comfortable bind than you Gazans are is all.

Maybe 20 of you get to stay and run a few museums if you are lucky.

.... However, let me try a little optimism too, more in keeping with a grounding grind i am attempting to derive enough joy to keep on living on/for from, watch me ban arms all by my lonesome, already managed a clampdown on smoking pretty much.

Since Race is as empty a term as class and gender, or if one were to insist on calling them full, one would, to the substantial question as to what of, not manage to claim much beyond fluid. Watery stuff's property is to yield, be flighty and fleety unless frigid and otherwise rigid riggings prop stuff into a semblance of structure but only real solidity, never solidarity (a lazy meandering, multilevel, at most periodically tumultuous thing) can lay fameclaim to resistance worth any salts and to imperviety against assaults. Hence, the only mud that sticks gets to be thrown by the Rockist. On top of that the term racist is meaningless in a fraternal struggle.

Ascribing, as Massad does here, 'integrity and noble principles' to a suicide in London, a leader of the Polish Jewish resistance, cannot do a rockist cause a lick of good. That takes dealing with death in a different manner. -----

Massad again: "He also felt that he had no right to live after his comrades were killed ... In the case of Zygielbojm, he blamed world powers for their indifference and inaction, in the Palestinian case, world and regional powers are co-conspirators and active partners in crime."

What's a rockist like? What rock don't he like? He meshes with all of creation thoroughly, early and quick, re- and immeditation with and without bare hands, respecting life and respectacling death, turning rock into light effects additional and closely syncopated with the ones the aforementioned and sibling wet oxides do by default (that 'other', complementing one's 'own' jubilant# gray, rubble, rub all, ribald remedy for fraternal and all 'other' type rivalry) not before but preventing the proverbial 'muddle through', that is, recapitulate a few stages of evolution before your psychology becomes it and more (volutionizing, volitious, volunta raising) failing that I see no 'right to live' in the sense of yearning turned (l)earning.

Yes, palestinians clearly have the rootedness advantage in the local sense. In fact, reading the jeremiads (a biblebook filled with lamentations) the passage therein that speaks of a wall cannot fail to remind of the one standing now and make one wonder if it wasn't a prophecy coming true only lately and turning nice modest farmers, nice guys really, protagonists of the weirdly twisted and tangledy crisscrossing Biblical storylines, into a bunch of Jobs all over again.

How nastiness like that can be kept under the hat so long is only slightly less amazing than the factual delay and lag we, us, general, run of the mill, average rabble joe sexpickpokers [[[sexpocketpickersnpokers?]]] pack in the lies, stack up the debts and can't seem to find just the right time to riot quite yet.

i penned, quoted and slapped snippets together to the tune of 2.77Mb. This 106K file is a selection from sections concerning race relations (white, red black, mixed and desert coloured ones, you know, the ones with the noses that come and go with dem dustdeals to show for all the temple trampling) in august (the 10th) i wrote a very beautiful piece that transcends all of the misfiring i mean to recount below it. i hope yall can see and appreciate the difference:

The thrust that is firm enough to make rock subjected to it go bust creating and liberating finest dust (preferably under and up to the edge of socalled rainy conditions, wet spells and other euphemisms for life bringing vital and heavensent water) will and can feed thus tolerated (in the sense of loosened, particulated, fluffed and effluviated) rock to micro-culture.

This minute and therefore seemingly insignificant fact is older than the hills, older than night and day and most probably older than the earth. Don't mean we must go look for long lost brothers to missionarize, plunder occupy of diffuse into. Simply must be the most (recognized, acknowledged, implemented and enforceable as) commonly carryable mental beacon (sense of riches and blessedness) so that in and by the guiding light of work that honours our terrestrially speaking most ancient ancestor: busted up rock dusts (that is, if you can manage to stretch a sense of identity slightly beyond bi-pedallism, down the evolutionary ladder ... do not try go back up into trees or you will not get there .. leave that for a next round) schemes that try to make sense of life in the manner of the Cube of Space by psyche.com for instance -- this type which do a catch, domesticate and process into categories that stack up neat enough to reach precipitous hights routine will lose their parasitic lure and misplaced trust in toxic (displaced, inherently displeased, therefore unpleasurable) macroculture -- will be instantly rendered very ludicrous, parasitical and sterile by comparison. Doubt, dis- and replace, then prevent pharaffia, chemystery, army secrets and patents. The Whole Earth Catalog never had a chance with the likes of JPMorgan, Rothschildishness, KKK, CIA and MKUltra.

<http://www.culturewars.com/2008/Mammon.htm>">culturewars.com/2008/Mammon.htm Michael Jones on Israel Shamir, quoting the latter:

"The point is to liberate Jews from Jewishness, which is the enemy of mankind." he is "daily grateful to Christ who saved me from the Judaic paranoia of hating and being hated and brought me into the world of loving and being loved" and that "every Jew who has come to Christ by the way of rejecting the Judaic ideas, by upholding love for the nations, is a portent of Salvation" (Cabbala, p. 310).

Like Nicholas Donin and Joseph Pfefferkorn before him, Shamir did not come back from the dead to become Eugene Fisher's successor at the USCC. Shamir came back from the dead on fire with zeal to liberate Jews from the bondage of Judaism. To do that, Shamir must first explain what it means to be a Jew:

a Jew must first understand himself and war against himself. Only steady resolution, united to the highest self-respect, can free the Jew from Jewishness. Therefore the Jewish question can only be solved individually; every Jew must try to solve it in his proper person"-by discovering God's presence in the world, that is Christ (p. 19).

For the anti-Semite, a Jew has inherent and unchangeable inborn qualities, while anti-Jewish thought analyses and fights Judaic tendency.

Instead of admitting that there is something wrong with being Jewish because the Jewish rejection of Logos disposes Jews to act in a way that antagonizes everyone they come in contact with, the Jews fall back on outdated theories of racism as a way of exculpating bad behavior. "It is because of what we are, not of what we do," a slogan recently appropriated by President Bush, has become the mantra that excuses bad behavior and hides from Jews the core of their essentially negative identity and why they have faced antagonism among every group they have lived with throughout history.

There has never been a "paradisus ludeorum" that has not ended in catastrophe for the Jews, and there has never been a catastrophe that has not been rationalized into one more link in a long chain of anti-Semitism by Jewish apologists determined to ignore the toxic effect of Jewish behavior on native populations and the inevitable reaction which it brings forth from them. Shamir cites the Jewish delight in using terms like "hook-nosed" as "a clear sign of the Jewish effort to turn anti-Zionist or anti-Judaic polemics into racist ones." Racism is the simplest way to deflect attention from the source of the problem. Hence, the Jewish delight in discovering racism even where none exists.

both + 5, the latter (jpost) cites Wilders opponent and Shamir friend Nazir Ahmed: "In 2005, Ahmed hosted a book launch in the House of Lords for a writer who frequently uses anti-Semitic stereotypes in his work. Russian born Israel Shamir claimed the blood libels against the Jews were in fact true and that all political parties were Zionist infiltrated. Shamir is a citizen of Sweden, where his legal name is Adam Ermash."

am i an anti-rotsemiet or an antirot-semite?? The word rot in Dutch carries the connotation of psychological nastiness a lot stronger than its Anglo Saxon variant, interestingly enough, a 'jodenstreek' (jewish strike, trait and/or region predates worldwars) and may have been said of Stalin, once he started paying attention caught on and gave as good as he got though it is not obvious that he cared differently about either variety of victimization.

That Goebbels was a full Jew is very easy to believe. Apparently, he was called "Rabbi" at school. Another full Jew was Adolf Eichmann, who visited Palestine in 1937. Palestine became Israel after the Jews drove the original inhabitants (the Palestinians) from the land. Before the war, Eichmann was responsible for the resettlement of about half a million Jews in Palestine. In 1936, Hitler's biographer Konrad Heiden stated that Hitler's grandmother's maiden name was Salomon and that many Jewish families with the name Hitler lived around where Adolf was born. His work has been called "remarkably accurate," but he is apparently another Jew, so look for the hook.

The newspaper Österreichisches Abendblatt published (July 14, 1933) photographs of graves of various Hitlers from Jewish cemeteries. They also mentioned a cookbook written in Hebrew by one Rosalie Hitler. It is of interest that Hitler had all the villages and cemeteries of his childhood torn down for a military training ground. A very unusual thing to do.

theuglytruth has a 30 Cs item on the catholic vs jewish faith (cross or holocaust??? what the fuck is the diff? two gaffs that keep on gaffing).

christians have seized the books of jews out of jealousy, suspicions about core beliefs that showed no respect for corner or border stones, bloodlines or anything. They decide to audit them but get taken in and adopt much instead. not without adding a tacky, no ... attacking no .. /tacking on a rescue plan though. Yes. The criminals resent being stolen from since reciprocity is a nono. Their formalized and fake bipolar on/off dominance and ache faking faith does no allow it

Here is Joachim Martillo's wife on this topic:

The Jewish state is the ultimate threat to humanity and our notion of humanism. Christianity, Islam and humanism came along with an attempt to amend Jewish tribal fundamentalism and to replace it with universal ethics.

JM: "To believe that Jews of all people could not develop their own Nazi ideology comparable to German Nazism is itself a racist belief in Jewish ethical superiority to the rest of the human race."

-- Wow, far out, or perhaps too clever by far. Let me see, so you're telling me jews have to go nazi (or at least rescue and redeem whatever is good about it and certainly the part they inspired) to prove they are not racist towards racists, immune yet infected, or as you argue, affecting? I'll hand it to you, this offers an unbeatable (but surely not unbreakable) way to reflect on the (multiply) doubled (and redoubled) bindfolds (ancient in fact) any however minute difference, let alone preference, brings with it. Muster as many mirrors to this task as you can. And since i am at it, i gotta tell you too though, your pages are so heavy for the outdated box i am reduced to using (since i stubbornly persist trying to engage my fellow man in providing access to not just me) that they hog all the cpus it can muster. I am in fact (though admittedly very intermittently) dedicated to you and you will likely experience some of it by way of my will executioner if not beforehand. A zionist contention is that to act against racists cannot by definition be racist also and yours is a call to qualify it? Perhaps a good way is to not call every response reactionary racism unless you do it to avoid the vaunted 'ethical superiority'. A search for proper racializing brought me to study www.neoteny.org closely. Can you join me there?

I believe in one Holocaust®, conceived in Hollywood, born of the New York media: and in Six Million Judaics, who suffered under Adolf Hitler and were gassed, made into lampshades and cremated. In the 21st century they arose again, to haunt the living and the dead. I believe in Elie Wiesel and the geysers of blood, and Arnold Friedman and the color-coded crematory smoke, the holy Shoah biz Church, the communist saints, no forgiveness of German sins, the resurrection of lies, and the shelf-life everlasting of the Auschwitz gas chamber stories. Piet: What israel does in gaza is worse than what Germans did to youz

First of all, they were home trying to round up and find a destination for a foreign element, good enough to prevent the need to repeat the excercise, not people who fucked off for thousands of years, picking up all kinds of pollution and dilution, not to mention that quite mad mad specialization in so far succesfully monotonizing everything it comes in contact with. I do not agree with Chris Brown on this point, writing stuff down doesn't neutralize or even relieve burdens at all, it causes a delegatory system to transfer trauma at a distance and moves us in insectoidal dominion directions with horrors way past those in the halfway houses of dildoid lesbianity and chillgel dildominix.

Second of all, Germany's own were starving, unlike tiny Israel subsidized by the entire US and beyond. Third, though Israel would prevent all the publicity they could block, their doings are out in the open, but since they manage to poison the minds of those who threaten to become the sort of leader that could go do something about thisRaHell on earth, they can afford to ignore any mere media offensive with fire powers far inferior to their own.

Peter Myers certainly is a mail/male star, AND a self built homesteader, almost perfect, if only he wasn't just one of these way too many out of place whities. A colonialist and occupier despite himself. If I acted in ways I shamelessly expect of others -- let all those celebrity and succesful carriers/escapees of maroccan blood return to the cultural vomit they feel justifiable proud having struggled with and escaped from and waste their valuable time in the thankless and costly task of trying to reraise their lesser fellabrethren's brood --, in other words, if i felt as responsible for what folks with more than my 1/64th or so of jewish blood were doing in their, ... eh ... our supposed homeland, i would be there now, on display, with subliminal full on beam: look at me, assimilated, not hated, not haunted, threatened, segregated or otherwise 'antied', ... just ignored, marginalized -- or treated like a sacrificial king at best ... in this northern pagan territory, the most wellwilling gesture the originaries could make towards regions whence hot spice dark eyed beauty, was to grant a be all end all version of of their endlessly annual string of crucifieds, be jewish genius! Mondoweiss:

Iraq war comes home, war of ideas

don't believe he mentions WC much but his awareness of occupationalism, a step up and aggravation of tired old controversy-overwrought nationalism speaks of an awareness that echos the same 'pet pieve', namely, that just bycause your immediate ancestors suffered untold hardships to bring a salvation of mechanized monocultures that looks more and more clearly like, in fact IS insolvency should make one wonder if all of the americas do not qualify as occupied territories ... much like that baton of war preps n threats perping overtaking shitty little izznotreal kike cuntry

Naeim Giladi (Hebrew, born 1929, Iraq, as Naeim Khalaschi) is an Anti-Zionist, and author of an autobiographical article and historical analysis entitled The Jews of Iraq.[1] The article later formed the basis for his originally self-published book Ben Gurion's Scandals: How the Haganah and the Mossad Eliminated Jews.

The narrator is an ozzie and maybe Toben I am guessing

Harold Channer (Manhattan neighbourhood network) has 610 vids up, most of them an hour long

Harold is totally going apeshit on this meme and keeps kinda shouting her down. She mentions the genesis continuous idea but not by name.

the indisputable pinnacle of anti-semitism has been happening in Gaza, easily pinpointable, neutralizable by all those energetic whities guilty and ashamed to see admixture of their blood go so awry .. but no, since that traffic was 2 way their appetite for a remotable scapegoat has risen accordingly and so their lovely bliksemafleider gets sponsored by them instead, in thrall and filled with stupid credulity as they are, to the bad semites and not enough people rise up against it so the pinnacle peaks and escalates. I expect it to prick God in the butt some time soon.

The distance for europeans to cross before they feel responsible for what choozion jewzions inflict on closer siblings becomes greater the more horrible these 'antiing' semites act towards them; in complete denial about the fact they are part of, yet departed from and upon return aparting (and 'anti' inflicting on their unacknowledgable more staid and stay closer to home) siblings-/P

Joachim Martillo's yahoo group is an easier load than his blogspot (sidebar extremely heavy) but he stopped it in feb09 after nearly 500 messages -- there is a youtube with him (and Bishop Riah Abu El-Assal of Nazareth) appearing may 24 on Iranian PressTV at the end of may. P:The problem with these type of sites is poor proofing of the assertion whities are heavily manipulated and fully harnessed by tax raising colonial imperial displacement and migration complotters. If whities are complicitators without effective immunity to semite meme, despite popularity of best sellers like jud Süß, i suggest the documentation depots, departments and depositories, as well as the time to read liberation fronts could use a little reinforcement.-/P

P: Re: Max Forte snippet on single cell (he means individual) action - you guessed it, his paronoia about tracability and confusion on how anonymity and salacious secretion tie the deal down, toe the line and keep the tallies adding up is quite extreme ... actually, it is more like an epidemic, a whole conf on the militarization of ethnographic knowledge and Lee Richards, who MF claims constituted the exception, talks about israel!!! Tough making out any exceptionality there right?-/P

Jesus!!! Leave it to unsavory types like Louis Proyect. He will mess with land issues, smear Kant with Judaism and have plenny of time left over for the moVice:

Both Ricardian economics and Reform Judaism can be seen as partisan self-promotion for the entrepreneurial and professional classes. Their wealth, ease, learning, and power are allegedly the result of privilege and power rather than divine and scientific revelations of truth in cosmology and sociology. There is inevitably a degree of self-justification involved in the mutually interactive Reform Judaism Haskalah-Kantian theology and Ricardian economics.

mail veers off into music (laurel canyon) with a snippet from the 22 of july (in part since Grugyn was on about music quite a bit):

i cannot see how, for all the allusions to dark designs and the overproportionate amount of explosive incendiary and homicidal mayhem in TLC The Laurel Canyon (to be expected from the type of backgrounds McGowan justifiable focuses on often) the subjects, countercultural stars of the post Edison/Schauberger/ Russell/ Tesla era ought to remain aloof from, untouchable by, let alone remedial of it. Come on. Just bycause they are so angelically anti-war they get to escape all the regular mainstream's crowd nemeses? Like riches and its leisure induced idealism and self-indulgence, miscegenation, bribery, subversion, good intent, bad exection and counterproductive results? Step up to the counter boy (no, not the one on your website, the hard bitten touch luck and blessedly solid currency one), it is your turn.

Military family offspring who have witnessed marital clashes are hence suffused with pro-active imprints by most likely - b-o-t-h - hi-test (hence active/clashing) parent and tried to change location, congregate and build some type of alternative, did so in or near places those very parents were hard at work on destruction of far more than marriage. The Laurel Canyon was beneighboured by a secret(ive) center for the documentation of nuclear explosions (the material versions of mental ones via synthetic psychedelics).

very noteworthy for this year is the cessation of Herculean efforts by Joachim Martillo:

thenation.com/blogs/notion/438863/ --- Roane Carey: How can a state that imprisons 4 million Palestinians behind ghetto walls, bypass roads and a blockade, and treats another 1.5 million as second-class citizens, be democratic? BGU geography professor Oren Yiftachel calls Israel an ethnocracy (the title of a recent book of his); the late Hebrew University sociologist Baruch Kimmerling called it a "Herrenvolk democracy." Whatever you call it, if Israel continues along its current path, the repression will necessarily intensify, and the avenues for free expression will become ever more constricted. The old joke about Prussia was that it was an army masquerading as a state. Is Israel destined to become Prussia on the Mediterranean?

Joachim Martillo: Because I discussed the nature of the German Nazi state with Kimmerling, I can safely state that he was aware that the German Nazis were much more democratic than generally assumed and that they loved to hold elections and plebiscites as long as the right people voted in terms of race or ethnicity. He agreed with me that Claudia Koonz's The Nazi Conscience inadvertently provided a perfect description of the Zionist conscience. Kimmerling called Israel a Herrenvolk democracy because he could not bring himself to state publicly that Israel is a Jewish Nazi state.

And besides, lobro is indisputable funniest man on the whole world wide web as far as i am concerned.

hurryupharry - Radical Antisemitism -- may 12th by Michael Ezra --- ME quote is from W. H. Chaloner & W. O. Henderson, "Marx/Engels and Racism," - Encounter, Vol. XLV No. 1 (July 1975) pp. 18-23 --

a commenter (zkharya) posts the whole thing downthread which is a good one yet does not, at least to my liking, exhaust, even fails to begin actually, making bones about the battle between claims on the future vs those on the past (real vs speculative bills, bibles vs securities, etcetera) but at least a few other aspects and properties of the mercuriality of jews is established in a barrage of evidence pro and con for sure. Serious candidate for thread of the year, about a third of it playing out on kin190 tone 4 galactic dog.

i pledge to schlepp 200 boxes of worthwhile books into this or any similar situation you manage to manage at your earliest opp forthwith. Had half a mind to take them to a friend in Appenzell anyway but that's not a situation where i'd have prospects of finally starting my 'ambitioned' (that's envisioned in anglosh [[anvisierte in DJ]] i think) career as a librarian.

a 3 hour job, the second comment i made on the Bodensee thread (see the location section here: new-shangri-la.org) and tried pointing to >here< (not suprised that failed) after 2 of those hours, it was in the right hand column but became draft 4 after the third hour.

A response to tunej on the Bodensee thread:

I tend to find 'people eating in silence' no 'phonier' than whiteys calling tropical places 'back home' but that's me, both phenoms being perfectly real, real as a host of sequential reversals along equally endlessly variable radii and faultlines, no doubt, depending on where and when you look. I get over to Lecolonelchabert and read about whities in tropics (haiti mostly) if i feel like picking up yet another remote change of picking up an against all odds remotation removal cause.

Owing to multiple cycles in place and aspanning, bottom line up blessings do and don't have to exclusively go/start right back to, past and/or through the earliest origins -- not that i would forbid marriage with monkeys (literally and on their terms like Fossey, Hubley and .. what's that gentle lassy's name did) or would not applaud coercing real estate mafia to plan for thousand year old treehousing projects funded with the type of small change one could call compost.

Lessay, anybody's bottom line is a matter of life and death since we all have to shoot down that shedshute, but poop and poison is exsacklay one whole hellhole of a difference to make or break. Tempting as it is to compose manifestos of human rights and universals in common, no agglomeration of stut, strut, scaffolded, staged, tiered, staggered and graduated affair is quite the same, no more than eye balls are - in other words the sameness (all id identity and getting lost in the get lost game of identification) reaches a limit at relative levels (that's close enough for anybody, relative), with many a nuance and buffering paraparallel spliced, grafted and plastered onto this whirlywide stirblendmix to the horror of and denied by absolutists, monocult-convherds, mass producers and uniformorions who can and do scold, in an attempt to dissociate and extricate, then exploit, to the precise extent they misunderstand, some part or other of ... themselves .. and rave about 666 .. devil .. obama .. gonna kill my mongoloid sister .. euthenasia, UN invasion, FEMA-BLA-BLeUS-town hall cryers . .[[we are better lefties that the bungling ones in power, we kill theirs not ours]] the response to failed war stoppers. .and personifyers of stars rising and falling galore .. since the dawn of empire, abounding in the alternative realms also, Niqnaq has been posting some passages to illustrate this last week -

type of bottom line that is radia, radical and far far more universal than even the best of isms (beats repatriatism by lifespans) but have little to show for it. Not every rockbreak gets followed up with gardenmake. The whole movement 'fencing with' (wielding) this concept --- of blending specks of the freshest of dusts with the finest of mists, rains, drizzles and downpours and thus finally making it possible for the mixing of traces to gain populogistic traction and advantage over mixing of races --reverting to latest common denominator --- didn't even take note of it (my time) much .. (that's 3 hours on this pile upon pile up of impenetrable keytaps i hear Goldman Sacks wants to be left holding all bills without having to bother sending any more so i will charge them: hold this up close enough to study for reflection just in case you are bored with routine deflection$. Hmm, never mind, autism loves routines and automation cause it is 'IT') and still, i stand, firmer than ever to and under the conviction that such a (change you can compost) move is one that ought to be accorded as much weight as possible (if we're gonna have machinicisms, let'm have a gentle macho flavor, brain with muscle to help women have heart), even becoming most of the taskpackage and chore duty we think we work on when we think we are working, not just a tiny part of it. Wether in providing care or more primary health facilitation, the lowliest and underdoggiest goddamn substance is us (and all, in no time nor distance), we become it as it becomes (all before and after) us in this perfect world, more that we imagine, let alone manage to use our lifting gift on. $ = check 1608 book (by Julio-Iniguez de Medrano) quoted below, the Protocols prototypified and foreshadowed in 6 bullet points.

After all that ground work crushing the rigid fullness out of rock to a treelimbbered uppityniche i might as well go ahead and finish the thought that started me pushing the reply button and i will suprise and reward you all still reading ... it CAN, yes it can get even more rotflol ridiculously funny.

Piet: The Protocols are not false, they are extremely old hat, and not so much a case of plagiarism as it is one of betrayal. Nowadays the good guys keep mass media firmly in hand and they don't care about more truthful alternatives since they are more fractured also. But an astounding thing happens in times of crisis. People's conscience and awareness starts to function a lot better, the consumption of organic basics like bread and meat has risen 40% over the last half a year

Quoting from incogman:

The investigative stories of Robert I. Friedman (1951-2002) appeared from the early 1980s. Allegedly, he died of a tropical blood disease. But many had their doubts and believed he was poisoned. The daring Jewish journalist made headlines exposing politicians, bankers and mobsters who preyed on the powerless. The ADL maligned him, death threats poured in, and he was badly beaten by West Bank thugs. Friedman warned the FBI of the threat posed by the first World Trade Center bombers and delivered vital reports on the long arms of the Russian Jewish mafia, which offered $100,000 to have him killed. --- RAPHAEL JOHNSON - ENDNOTE:

I comment on MH a lot around this time but left those notes on/in the great heap for mentioned reasons

News from the West (a blogspot with fast pace posting) undoes the credit amassed with taking sharp looks at 'jews' by focusing on black crime (without even the minutest admission the whities are every bit as migrated hence [[leaving aside the coercion factor involved for the moment, .. i have said enough on all that already]], assuming the perps are americans of course).

<http://newsfromthewest.blogspot.com> posts up about 700K worth in a week's time but gets or allows practically no commenting (the reverse of the incogman) ---- comment written at the end of the 3rd august week:

http://incogman.wordpress.com/\(hi+dumb+wranglish+C+numbers,+infrequent+postage\)) ... moved down from prospective topnotcher, this, like the NftW site is too torn to make slugging through their frenetic production anything but frustful. Still the recognize brilliant pointers as they find them and hoist them into staple posish and prominent view so it is not necessary to waste a lot of time with/at this sort of site. I think I found the pointer to Robert Friedman here by the way. He hits harder than either Blankfort Hoffman Shamir and Xymphora but as long as these types remain exceptional, they and all the rest (readers and aware beings as well as the blissfully oblivious) remain lone and leaderless ... and ..errrrhh, 'elegationless' (took a minute but mint coinage no???) lacking the type spread that spreads truth and stability for a change (instead of risk), a good enough and attractive rep to clear and clean desire (kindling more of same afresh) is what we (alone with each other, as Les Visible puts it) are all hungry for more than ever. Why does it take even seekers like me so long to run into folks like Robert Friedman? Cause i have been shunning whities who yell and scream that the red man's continent is theirs too much??
Cause the suppression of ordinary and simply popular sentiment (cordon sanitair, etcetera) of all native people's (including the whites that bear their oppression in the places a long line of their ancestors did) has been successfully tabooed again, put under censure much like during heydays of Soviet imperial whirlwind hottrot pre-zionism but only just and by the very same type of mindbend shall we say??? Yeah, thaddit. I wrote an essay in dutch comparing Robert Friedman to Jesus about a month ago.

Rowan actually published a comment of mine .. then changed his mind and removed both it and the quoted line.

I feel no hesitation at all in pouring contempt upon CounterPunch, since there is nothing they can say about me or to me that will affect me in the least.

George Gilder, I can tell you right away, is not Jewish.
He does appear to be some sort of religious crank, though. "Gilder believes that capitalism properly understood is altruistic and dependent upon faith in God. Ayn Rand was so disgusted by what she took to be Gilder's perverted sentimentality on this point that she devoted the last public speech of her life to denouncing him." (according to Larissa MacFarquhar). I think this means that Gilder believes that he himself dutch talk radio inspired sentence:

it got posted someplace .. the whole thing is much longer - see pile

you're all sick .. from nothing worse than hearing half the story, not knowing any better from your nonstop living in double standard territory, .. but in the split seconds that remain between drills, abuzz and a beam with that chronic christallization of 'threats to israel' which demands attention .. attention you can't remember having begun to offer, .. try and see if you can start to understand why some one like me, some 'loners' less absorbed, integrated, adapted and assimilated with immediate environment and acquaintances, often as not, equal parts bycause of being blocked and bycause having wrestled free from strictures and rituals like those of the church, in order to free up time and see if another, older and forgotten perhaps, another type ritual cannot be worked out that fills everthing that needs filling fuller, doing so at the risk of 'earning' the un(der)status of being suspect .. are not in reality quite engaged examiners of thoughts and dispositions, tries to quietly warn if not remind you of the 'judaïkehalim' (See F Roger Devlin's reviewing Solzhenitsyn's '200 years together' in The Occidental Quarterly [[part 1 fall 08]]-online), attempt to co-opt, take over, direct and lead all threats, the whole range and reach of them, from empty to crude, from cruel to genocidal.

Pure individualistic, sterile, i- and desolate tendencies result from these disparate focuses, this split focus, that is all they have in 'common' ... oh and that means overblown, mystified (check the increasing infantilism of the synchromystic folks, mindfucking like rabbits) and hyped results. You know what gets results? Group strategy, marrying young and feeling entitled to highly disproportionate this that and the other. A jewish 99 year old married not even that young, not at the age the kehalim set their congregations up to .. which proved no guarantee for learning to love farming though, despite Stolypin's best efforts, they gravitated to their preferred professions: to keep books, to speculate in and distill grain, lathered with peddling of intrigues, Stolypin was murdered by a Jew a cousin (made illegal recently in Holland) and had 1400 descendant. That is what i call the type of result all else flows from and blows bycause of.

get part 2 of F Roger Devlin's reviewing '200 years together' from the occidental quarterly, part 1 is easily one of the best i have seen but he does not mention early marriages as a great big factor in the problems .. at least not in the first part, though i think that covers the period about which Solz mentions this to me very very revealing fact, i bounced it off Andrew .. but he claims i confuse him.

Even though it is true the native americans are no longer suffering the type of collectively and therefore openly, blatantly imposed physical oppression (which, mind you, never ceased and does still happen but is now, in this, its next ratchet of a dreadful torque, imperially imposed on Palestinians), their suffering has to a great extent continued culturally (due to the internalizations ... and loss .. of autonomy ... etc). I have a documentary about native farmers from/in an arid state (idaho?) who went for growing fibrehemp only to be attacked by the DEA with helicopters.

i am dividing my listning time between max keiser and them annoying conservatives who love scolding blacks and manage to never mention reds let alone desert memes, in the service of which they do what they do and are where they are, their anti-semitism is self hatred. semite influence via the mississipi was what made the south as craven as cabeza de vaca found it (*as per Cyclone Covey in between his lines .. oh boy the tomes, miles and generations in between that man's lines ... somebody ought to make that Rixton man happy with this ref, from a quick look at his place i gather he likes ancient america. 'the eternal jewish spirit' (petty, temporal, fascist fanaticism) – September 23, 2009

I am very well aware of the fact that they don't like being called fascists, or compared to the Italian fascists or German nazis in any way, and that, because this upsets them, and according to their propensity for newspeak and mass media manipulation, they have declared that anything that upsets them as a "religious, racial, ethnic or national group" is "racism, bigotry, hate and anti-semitism," and should be made illegal anywhere and everywhere. This is an assault on freedom of thought and expression so extreme and hypocritical that in fact they only ever achieved it in Soviet Russia – RB

Last august Michael Hudson wrote:

Instead of imposing the kind of austerity programs that devastated Third World countries from the 1970s to the 1990s and led them to avoid the IMF like a plague, the AI thing is changing the rules of the financial system. It is subordinating Iceland's reimbursement of Britain and Holland to the ability of Iceland's economy to pay:

In evaluating the preconditions for a review of the agreements, account shall also be taken to the position of the national economy and government finances at any given time and the prospects in this respect, with special attention being given to foreign exchange issues, exchange rate developments and the balance on current account, economic growth and changes in gross domestic product as well as developments with respect to the size of the population and job market participation.

This weekend's pushback is a quantum leap that promises (or to creditors, threatens) to change the world's financial environment. For the first time since the 1920s the capacity-to-pay principle is being made the explicit legal basis for international debt service. The amount to be paid is to be limited to a specific proportion of the growth in Iceland's GDP (on the assumption that this can indeed be converted into export earnings). After Iceland recovers, the payment that the Treasury guarantees for Britain for the period 2017-2023 will be limited to no more than 4% of the growth of GDP since 2008, plus another 2% for the Dutch. If there is no growth in GDP, there will be no debt service. This means that if creditors take punitive actions whose effect is to strangle Iceland's economy, they won't get paid.

Piet: seems flawlessly reasoned but MH taboos the primal crime of invasive capitalism and demographic incontinence that vies with refugee status, inflicting guilt over fabricated prosecution deflecting from ill will generating underhanded group strategies, etcetera: buying and selling whatever breaks contiguity and integrity of basis for cultural integrity and tradable surplus generation: territory, wether grave or factory sites, wether thermal or frozen areas, wether magpela or aluminium ore. Funny, he never makes a point of the unethality of occupations past present and/or both ... yet tries to point to the indecency of a medium that has lost its moorings and gone extraterritorial for centuries already after shedding the weight of gold which at least provided a drag on moving, in order to speed up trade as much as trade volume and stretch distances across which they get done to boot.

Michael taboos the sale of assets implicitly, and tacitly implies they might be a great alternative for whoever is concerned as little about home turf as those on whose hooks one finds oneself and one's constituency dangling. Govt pawns are reduced to whoring themselves after the favors of market forces as whose pawns they do duplicitous rather than double duty. Why should not Nations lose sovereignty and local ties piecemeal the same way monies have, or rather, the same way they allowed their monies to (slip away)?

In the middle of the middle east a bunch of hybrid, bastard make overs and Madoff beneficiaries are a foreign body that sucks up to the very vitals of all unfortunate enough to posses the pride of place that makes moving out of the way in time a non-issue, non starter and simply not done. Their sham show of ties to the land started with commodification and commercenarization that continues to foster, fuel and favor all who like to join the termite like hyper demografucks so totally in love with themselves and voracious that nothing else, be- and outsides it counts, appeals nor registers in any other than their prey- and fodderlike potentials. Slapping a lightweight New onto an Old testament with plenny momentum aint gonna accomplish anything but being taken for a ride. Therefore a consistent anti-semitism must include anti-christianity and in as far as Islam is inspired on and/or a failed reaction to its parent centralizing forces also, the anti-version of it (in the sense of being critical of most of them, specially their most critical flaws) and it follows from this that such an anti-semitosian cannot be accused of, disqualified and scolded for practicing racism. To be sure however, he might have to employ a good deal of coercion before semitosis afflictees manage to busy themselves making dynamite .. compost and repair their bad carma without it. Tis a long ways before they consider that a Jehovial honor and privilege, a true distinction.

A little MH fragment to conclude with:

But loan officers are paid bonuses simply on their loan volume, not their quality. They got rich making bad loans and sticking the US Treasury (aka 'taxpayers') with the junk. Once you take over the government, you're in a position to clean up. That's what an oligarchy means.

slide show with comments .. it really only shows text and the tone is just a bit too vehement ... not to mention ridiculous, considering the man is trying to posit an unbridgable gulf and ditto diff between talmud and bible (clear and closable case of the narcissism of miniscule type distinction surely). How the fuck are you gonna heal a 'let me steal this, i can use/understand this way better than you' tude with one that that goes 'let me steal this, i can use/understand this way better than you' too? Fuck word without deed, song without dance, value without backing ... and the empty empty splinternet too!

This shamshow is just about as genuine as applying the re-, de-, in-, sub- and perversions (and -versals) of meanings that occur regularly, habitually and as a norm to the extent they resemble clockwork, to that other type of clockwork, planets. Linguistically apt des- and assignations, characterizations what have you, usually start out being scolds and vilifications but change polarity when/once taken and picked up by targets and worn with pride, a recipe that is bound to lend enough charm to whatever underdog astray and about to propel it into uppergodly status, the slow growth and intergenerationally long tail till tipping is reached makes the association all the more tempting, but quite assenine. The airheads (zweverigen = floaters) are wont to worry about crosses formed by the earth's pole and that of our galaxy to the point it is a new faith (waffle much energy gets directed to and spent on) and sure enough axes are always on the move, studying torque and gyroscopes along lines Walter Russell applied those to cosmogony are instructive and sure enough resemble clockhands but like clocks, they do not jerk about a lot, let alone reverse completely ... though i recall tricks with spinning tops that show something like it ... not more than once though as i remember.

This morn i looked at pages all the way back to march on a blog named 'lines and colours' - a very diverse art collection sampled there. Found "The triplets of belleville" there, which is a swinging french feature animation about 3 grannies and the tour the france on dailymation in full

Last night i was phantasizing about posting the passage describing the misogyny and cruelty meted out to both sexes equally by Tarzan (the [[Russian Jewish]] Red Mafiyaite hard drugs and big arms dealer as well as serial fucker and proly spouse killer) on Drew's blog with a request to stop pussyng around, quit stirring distractive jargons together and face reality soberly. Learn german, russian or french and read Solyh's '200 years together' and jewdas.com to learn the truth of efforts to appropriate rather than just standardize and preserve values (wrest them from a [[tree{{{housing}}}based]] commons basis and perverted into a project for personal gain and all the short circuitry suffering that entails, or in two words: distill grain), wheedle peasants off of their real estate with the aid of resulting 'spirits' (not to mention destabilizing entire, less manipulatively populated continents) besides automation, industry, progress, and where space for grain gruwelikalities was lacking with plan b (Bibles)

By the way, the 'nothing' song (song 'nothing' rather) played on my dad's birthday edition of the 2009 wrir Edge of Americana show (out of Richmond) fits the book Red Mafiya to a T totally - wretched refuse (refuge) stringband - eponymous album 1994

A place that links to a free version of Robert Friedman's book: S&S (big lass of rite wingnut variety) expends a lot of colouring work on that Elizabeth Dillinger crap (i chanced upon and scanned the part about tree worship, and did not like what i saw any better than the first time around a few months ago, it I S C R A P!! To be more specific, the hunch is good, the nailing [[specially on mentioned subtopic]] extremely poor, not to mention counterproductive).

When mental processes—particularly those concerning the genetics of kin identification and reproduction—are up for grabs, the GOD hypothesis predicts genetic omni-dominance will override the mental processes of individuals of lesser GOD producing behavior that seems bizarre if one does not consider the externality of the genes being served by said behavior.

Five Pebbles from the Brook (1824).

The publication of the former book provoked the Christ Church in Cambridge to excommunicate (George) English in 1814. Subsequently he became a newspaper editor and may have learned Cherokee. He served as a Marine Corps Second Lieutenant in the War of 1812, afterward traveled to the Mediterranean, resigned his commission shortly after arriving in Egypt, converted to Islam, and participated in Ismail Pasha's Nile Expedition with distinction as the artillery commander. English described his Nile adventures in his 1822 Narrative.

David Petersen & 1946 .. hear it at their very heavy myspace page This truly is a case of historic irony ... a song that fits 'the life of trouble' by Grugyn Silverbristle (Stephen McCutchan, a clucketycliquer of the first water) to a T.

DP = Jewish, totally assimilated, while GS wrote up (up to 01, his website must have died alongside him), the unassimilated variety of Jewish involvement, to a T too, except for one big huge flaw, he makes no distinction there whatsoever, but surely jewish variety is, though one may argue lots of them and hordes besides, monomaniacally labour for the nontransparent and therefore counterproductive centralizations of all sorts till one gets blue in the face, as diverse as Buddhist, christian and islamic. The better splinters of each remaining obscured and dogged or at least underdogged, marginalized and at best ignored.

Readers who might still doubt that the Old Testament is a political program for World Dominion, consider the following excerpts from The Unified Conspiracy Theory, by Silverbristle. - 27K perhaps the man who stands in for and inspired the character in the tale with Trouble (if that section was a fictional flourish), or more dramatically, his brother (i intend to ask this fella, who seems to be in mexico):

20-August-2001 - Stephen McCutchan wins first book award from Presbyterian Writers Guild by Jerry L. Van Marter ---- LOUISVILLE, Ky. - The Presbyterian Writers Guild has awarded its annual Jim Angell Award for the best first book by a Presbyterian writer to the Rev. Stephen P. McCutchan, pastor of Highland Presbyterian Church in Winston-Salem, N.C.

Stephen P McCutchan (Presbyterian pastor in Mexico) i have a 509K file with sermon notes by the pastor and if that proves too biblical and all i will try this: smccutchan.com/?cat=5 Theological fiction. So i will soon be capable of informed judgements, upon style comparisons, they will probably be along the line: wrong one died ... which would bring us back to semites if we had meanwhile suffered the illusion of having got away from them.

Let's take time for definite and indubitable break then (with proof that Robert Graves heavily inspired our precious Grugyn) before returning to where Grugyn almost gets into the calendric studies:

Herodotus' remarks actually support my theory: that the Pelasgians had split into two separate cultures. The seafaring men (the Fir Bolg, the Tuatha de Danaan, the Gael and the Sons of Mil) who were displaced migrated along their ancient trade routes: northward through the Bosphorus and then up the Danube into central Europe, or else westward to the Rhone river and into western Europe, or further west to the Atlantic coast of Spain and Portugal, and from there to Ireland and Britannia. It is recorded in Irish folklore that the Tuatha came from a land of magic learning, and that they were skilled in art and war. They were ancestors of the Druids and Bards. The Sons of Mil were said to be descendants of Noah who came to Ireland by way of Spain.

Meanwhile the Pelasgian women had remained at home as concubines to the invading Greeks, and their religion was absorbed into the Olympian Order. The story of Pyrrha and Deucalion seems to bear this out: they did not repopulate the race by procreating with each other: the casting of stones implies that each went their own way. Sailors and prostitutes, navigators and priestesses.

Is it possible that Deucalion had been fooled? Was the Oracle giving secret instructions to Pyrrha, outlining her strategy to deal with the Greek invasions: that she (Pyrrha) would be released from betrothal to the men of her own race, that she should veil her head (against Olympian propaganda), but that she should physically submit to the invaders' lust in order to perpetuate the matriarchal bloodlines, and that she must outwardly renounce her ancient Pelasgian ceremonies, i.e. pretend to know nothing about them?

from notes to Vergilius Maro, Roman poet 70BC (the time when semites invaded an overran half of the mississippi and the southeast with very nasty results lasting a millenium - Zappa spoke/sang of the past, that past)

The aloofness that we had encountered at the Bethel Presbyterian Church had not so much oppressed me as raised my ire. I feel a righteous brooding anger at our treatment, and smile at the thought that we hadn't so much as beggared a canteen of water from that place. There had been something about the way the Parson had snubbed us, so conspicuously avoiding contact, that it was closer to an insult. It was more than rude: he had treated us like "white trash" in a condescending manner that the negroes often complain of. This is not to say he would have treated anyone else any differently, but I think that money must have had more influence on the man than conscience. Such an attitude towards one of his own people -- whose ancestors' bones lay buried beneath his Church -- was astounding; contrary to everything a Church could stand for. It was utter pretention that this Parson, a paid professional "man of God," should have refused to acknowledge our approach, nor inquire how we fare.

"Come out of her, my people!" ... the words of Brother Stair echo through my thoughts, as I smile with newfound contentment. "We are coming out." Yes, Trouble and I will make it ... with the help of God, and not a whoring Church. I reflect on my Clansmen, cold bones buried beneath the church, their spirits freely roaming the little hills of Middlebrook in the faintest moonlight while the Parson, locked in his household, sleeps uneasily in a worried, rumpled bed. 'Tis a pleasant thought.

Something quite profound had indeed happened back at that place, in the sultry afternoon heat. I had quietly received a gift of grace. My confidence had been restored, and without my being aware of it until now. The thought suddenly occurs to me that God's grace does come when we least expect it, as also does a helping hand. God is guiding us along on this journey. I had arrived at the Church nearly broken in spirit, and we departed with a fresh resolve. I no longer fear that we might not make it to Nantahala; I know that we shall, and yet this lesson I am destined to forget.

he spends even more time describing how he listens to a chopin performance, finds the pianist a hack and blows his top squared when he finds out the performer is a black person AND from his own hometown, where he found his own composer ambitions frustrated by city hall: "...my culture is being stolen!" - white man in red country does not speak up for but AS, usurping red culture, accusing those he forced to help him DO rather than suffer such a thing. A musical chair sequence if you ask me.

"But there was a difference. While Schubert was writing his songs (with words) in a cold drafty garret, Mendelssohn (of the great banking family) was composing his Songs Without Words in a luxurious townhouse. Both were great composers; and yet Schubert's music has warmth, while Mendelssohn is cool and remote ... while"

quoting Jesus out of one side of his mouth while incapable of seeing himself done to as his ancestors did to others and as he has every intention to keep on (tabooing this very) doing is evidence of a pretty clean split: In the face of this view his complaining bitterly about hometowns and -turfs being taken over by aliens on top of an exile which was bad enough raises no sympathy, let alone admiration for his place on the know thyself scale, no matter how vast his website, lots of it wallows in the cultural residues of jews he manages to condemn just as often.

But the people on the left side of the way had not the seed to plant, and they grew impoverished even as their neighbors across the way grew rich, until they were forced even to sell their land and become servants and laborers for their new landlords. But never did they lose faith that someday the Sower would return, that they would be given a second chance, to do right where they once had failed. And so there sprang up among them a cult of the Second Coming, and they prayed mightily that the Day should be soon.

* = Attesting to his 'carriership' (of the semitovirus) and ambivalence ... just like his account called 'life with Trouble' (thus named white wolf) never once speaks of him letting her go free, even into the second week of mountaintop roamsomeness. Seems he has a plausible explanation though:

"You always keep her tied?" ... "She's an alpha-female. If I let her run, she'll go off and scrap with the other females in the valley."

"She doesn't look aggressive." ... "She's not," I try to explain. "The female dogs don't understand her ... it's like they're talking different languages." The Professor raises a brow. "You see," I continue, "there is only one breeding pair in a wolf-pack. With dogs, all the females go into heat ... and so they don't understand how female wolves are different ... wolves are celibate, so to speak, and compete with one another for the right to breed. The alpha male brings the alpha female into heat, and he will only breed with this one female, the alpha. So Trouble will get along with the males, but she will fight with -- and possibly injure -- the female dogs, who are clueless. I guess you would call it a 'culture-clash.'" "She doesn't seem to mind being tied," the professor observes.

The man was prodigious ... which explains why his wolfdog is so lank and skinny. That and the fact he would not let it off the leash for reasons quoted above, of course.

Grugyn has two pics in this file, at the top is twofaced lady in bright green attire feeding a lion and eagle from a cauldron she pours something into, with a golden disk as back ground (from the Crowley pack) and at bottom a christian equal beam cross (dunno what their names are officially but saw it yesterday in a Potsdamer church with lots of symmetry and circularity). A Rock Culture for the Proletariat

"The nations are not bodies-politic alone, but also souls-politic; and woe to the people which, seeking the material only, forgets that it has a soul. ... A free people, forgetting that it has a soul to be cared for, devotes all its energies to its material advancement. If it makes war, it is to subserve its commercial interests."Albert Pike Morals and Dogma

----- I will never forget the first time that I saw Irish step-dancing. It brought tears to my eyes, and at first I couldn't understand why. I began to recognize the role of the Jew -- http://web.archive.org/web/20010619174025/http://zog.to/3/antisemi/ij_ch11.html -- in shaping cosmopolitan entertainment, miscegenation, and the cheapening and exploitation of folkish culture. It was tantamount to rape. A thousand years ago, my Celtic ancestors would have simply scalped those half-bald pates for their crime against humanity, and had themselves a good chuckle afterwards over a barrel of mead. Today we are supposed to laugh at our predicament and feel gay, pretending it's all just a joke, like The Three Stooges. I mean, so what if they're Jews, how can anybody hate Moe, Larry and Curly?

The last week of October Nick Griffin, leader of the most rightwards leaning party in the UK (BNP) said the very same things GS did in the nineties and his equally ostracized, demonized ignored and put down dutch equivalent (refused UK entry before attempting to, which he did anyway pompously enough, summer09) does too (and more besides in disastrously split and inconsistent manner i might add - see my work in dutch) and so these probs are by no means over yet. And won't be till neoteny.org gets its politicized and otherwise acculturated versions that manage to ridicule and oust targets that deserve the transference and emptying of autonomy ... like Anneke Groenteman whose politics go only skinddeep (the stuff best left to fend for itself on fairly to very local in your face levels and certainly not left opportunity to usurp public places and publicity, compensating what it lacks in vision and solidarity with commodified exhibitionism). Emancipation by all means, but it means extent of self-sufficiency rather than steepness of the stacked glass stories one has piled up and/or surmounted .. only to lead movement that gets all of us too far away from basics. ... Next time, for the sake of completeness Annekut, say something about the relation of fat to testosterone, jewish demography ... Red Mafiya ... i dare you.

i get a mail from Ivy with a link to createspace where he put his book up for 39 dollars, i asked him about Robert Friedman since he is a hockey fan.

Hello Piet

I just now went in to this e-mail address. Sorry about the delay. I haven't worked on the site this year. Interesting situation. I've been with this server since 2002. It used to be a big operation with technicians there all hours day and night, office staff during the day.

In May 2008 I got my annual renewal bill and I sent in my credit card number. They didn't take it. I sent them a few e-mails to remind them. Nothing. Then January 2009 the daughter of the owner called and wanted to know why the credit card didn't work. I said I got a new one and gave her the new number. I said, are you in business? Yes, she said. Take the payment, I said.

But they didn't. Comes May 2009 not even a bill in the mail. I told the guy who has the wolf site piggybacked on mine, get ready to bail out because I'm not paying two years to stay on there. Meanwhile their e-mail address didn't work nor their telephones. Next thing I know they kept the site up but I have no access to it.

From the summer unto now I didn't care because I was working on an actual book. Up to now I couldn't decide whether I was a comedian or writer. I was always trying to be funny or satirical and but I found when I got to the Internet people were taking seriously what I thought were jokes. And there was a lot of half-digested junk there as well. Now I'm being serious and if I get a laugh, it's the old dialectic proving itself once again.

I put the book on a place on CreateSpace, affiliated with Amazon, POD. I'm now waiting for for the proof copy, a period of three weeks, and if that's okay, the book should for sale first of December maybe. The book is called: PROLEGOMENA TO THE FOURTH EXILE OF THE JEWS.

This book finally tells it like is. It describes how the Russian-Jewish mob is threatening American security, but it also shows that our own politicians, in their immense ignorance about foreign manipulations, threaten American security even more. The book shows how the Jackson-Vanik amendment of the 1970s, which was supposed to force Russia to release its "suffering" Jews into America in return for world trade credits, inspired the Soviets to get even. The Soviets dumped their Jewish criminals and mental defectives (along with a few legitimate Jewish dissidents) on America. (A stroll down the streets of Brighton Beach makes their success all too clear.) Along with the criminals, they also sent their Afghan war vets and KGB thugs as a fifth column, after giving them false Jewish identities. So much for the "wisdom" of the "Jackson-Vanik" economic arm-twisting. America's naive, clueless politicians are America's worst enemy.

amazon.ca/Russian-Mafia-America-Immigration-Culture/dp/1555535089/ref=cm_cr_pr_orig_subj Anything that exposes criminal elements in our society is worth reading and analyzing. The Russian Mafia, however, with its' fierce reputation throughout the world and dabblings in everything from prostitution, gambling, stolen merchandise, and even rumored nuclear technology, is not to be feared. This book exposes the Russian Mafia in America and how they are controlling whatever they touch and goes into great detail in examining the illegal immigration and citizenship schemes, overseen, yes, by the Russian Mafia. Personally, I believe the Russian Mafia has weaknesses in organization, structure, and even leadership which will eventually weaken these Siberian slugs to a hard downfall. Further, from reading this book, I think the Russkies are enjoying capitalism just a little too much.

Given the information now pouring out of Russia, including Vladimir Putin's attempts to handle kleptocrats in his country, and the existence of deep and broad interconnections and money transfers with their U.S. counterparts (think e.g. global prostitution), the assertions made in this work seem surreal. The dense and pedantic narrative seems almost to be designed to hide the fact that the content offers no insight into the topic.

I found this quite well-researched book too clinical for a juicy subject of the organized crime. More than anything it is a consolidation of previous works of journalists and investigators presented in a tone of a laboratory study. Few interesting historical backgrounds in each chapter are outweighed by bland data analysis that seems endless, and in this respect the book, in my opinion, is of low literary value to the general public. Spare yourself time and money and look for authors who interview the subjects firsthand, such as C. Freeland, P Klebnikov, R. Freedman, etc.

Red Mafiya: How the Russian Mob Has Invaded America. New York Review of Books, November 16, 2000 [book review, posted at Center for Defense Information/Johnson's Russia List] "Whatever the American laws, a successful campaign against Russian mobsters will require the cooperation of other governments, particularly those of Russia and Israel, the two countries that are now the principal residences of most Russian crime bosses ...'Of all the nations where the Russian mob has established a presence, none has been more deeply compromised than the State of Israel,' [Robert] Friedman writes, adding that the Russian mafia has 'become a grave threat to the stability of Israel.' Although this may be a bit hyperbolic, the Russian mafia does have a strong, safe base in Israel -- a story that American and Israeli journalists have largely overlooked. One FBI report observes, for example, that most members of Mogilevich's criminal organization have Israeli passports. And Jonathan Winer told Friedman (when Winer was still the State Department's crime expert), 'There is not a major Russian organized crime figure whom we are tracking who does not also carry an Israeli passport.'"

So you lost close to $400,000 a year -- almost. That's quite a market bomb. Still you were rich at first -- you should have bankrolled me man! haha.

Too late now we can commiserate together -- alienation is when a magnetic bliss has permanently resided in your brain so you can't eat normally nor be materialistic. The aliens have to convert the Vatican not the other way around.

Abe, both sufism and buddhism are anthropocentric -- notice how the above link states only humans can discriminate between good and bad.

There's this biologist who wrote a book about how god is dog spelled backwards -- how human society is the same as dog society or wolves. And wolves -- when the males fight -- don't kill each other - the neck is displayed and then the dominant wolf stops the attack as a gesture of mercy. Zizek is big on this too -- how the King shows his real power by not using it. There's something very simple yet deeply moralistic about that. That's why I like taoism -- Chuang Tzu saying that human speech is no different than animal communication -- and should be treated with as much importance. All this typing online is just a distraction from real meditation -- just a cover-up because the computer is the new confessional booth in the church.

What about Piet's Finnegan Wake a la Norman O. Brown. Abe have you read Ulysses? It's the sound of the words that matter in Irish prose. Same with Samuel Beckett who even more emphasizes the silence between words. I'm not much for poetry because it reifies words as the end in themselves. Dead tree zen. Music on the other hand goes deep into the subconscious -- hence the haunting melody -- and psychic music in our dreams. Nonverbal music.

Last night it was "monkey and the engineer" by Grateful Dead with my other brother-in-law, the east coast blueblood.

The night before it was this piano piece from my dad's car radio -- an Eastern European Latvian I think from the 1950s but the style was a cross between Schumann and Brahms. The composer was blatantly reworking their music style. But when we listen to music with such intensity that the music is inside us -- or we go into the music -- there is a dream state created that then shows up in our other dreams -- just as loud as when we heard it. Only in the dream we exist within the music itself. So the esoteric tradition should be based on sound-current instead of reason. Buddhism and even the alchemical models -- it's all about what you're supposed to experience, with the goal of increasing your spirit for immortality. So you survive death as spirit and then choose your next birth. And do so forever. Where's the mystery in that? Whereas when Poonjaji created multiple physical bodies without being aware he did so, in buddhism that's considered a lower path, not true enlightenment. So the real rationalism is only logical inference -- just repeating the I-thought as a process of LISTENING. All these secret models of chakras, etc. are very fun tools to describe the experiences but all of them are not the path itself. --- November 26, 2009 2:10 PM Abe said...

The members of Ultra-red submit the following text as a preliminary statement toward a praxis of what we have termed, militant sound investigation.

In a desire to put into circulation a collection of ideas, the text asks that we think rigorously about organizing rather than rushing headlong into activism with its predetermined end-points and self-righteous festivals. In asserting the priority of organizing, Ultra-red herein -- as so often over the years -- invokes the procedures of thematic investigation developed by Paulo Freire.

Additionally, we wish also to acknowledge the more recent interventions into a praxis of research militancy by collectives such as Precarias de la Deriva and Colectivo Situaciones. Contributing to a dialog already advanced by these agents past and present, Ultra-red offer these theses for militant sound investigation for testing in the crucible of practice and reflection; the pillars of our constitutive utopias.

"Here's a video of a Silverman skit celebrating the "chosen people" and ridiculing Jesus – Silverman indicates that, like most Jews, she's jealous that Christians have the blessings of God in Christ that the Jews refused as a nation when they Crucified Jesus and rejected the gospel preached by the apostles."

On the Contrary (name of notoriously anti-talmudic blog by the way):

If SS attempts to distract from the complementary opposite exegesis she is delusional, if she pretends that, she is devious. In that scenario jews allow christians to use, update and slap a new one onto the old testament -- not so strange an effort at all ... if the OT is but a set of Talmud side dishes, in turn mere prose to liven up purely calculational calender stuff, see www.elcappuccino.ch for that all to rarely heard reality -- in order to punish them for it with subjection and tribute exaction. Jud Süß was a big hit and not for no reason - urban legends are called indian stories in holland, as if native americans exxagerated when they predicted the future of [semitosis ridden] westerners in red territory.

Christians were required, commanded beguiled and guided to renounce earthly harmony, exchange all values for purest hope, a futile cerebral aircastle of purest possible imagination if need be .. but better still and better yet: to renounce even that, hence protestantisms (pilgrims for spricket24 to turn into fanfuck ...ehrr, fun facts) as ramification of the icon loving catholics.

In exchange for fondling, fooling and feeling part of that old and venerable, tenderly regarded cradle of civilization, even handling, adopting and fondling its lit (cheekily tweakily for sure), that symbolic precipitate of neotenous, heterochronic cattle colour, hormone levels, timing and numbers of offspring manipulating cultural 'literurture' (clit clutter nurture) they would have to suffer consequences and pay a price.

That price was simple: selfdelusion, 1: fool themselves about the real desertifying purport of upping social density and steeply stratified hierarchy of command lines and levels, 2: even indulge the illusion to be improving upon and completing it (OT, the stuff of the protocols, precursors of which circulated in the 15th century), 3: be not bi- but tripolar, become wholly, and that includes virtually enslaved, equal parts rebelious, servile and grateful.

are like the black and white legs and wheels our nights and days walk, run and roll circles around us on. The fronts of that weather are closely monitored, as closely as sports and like a sport (local, regional and global along potlatch lines) highly attractive, spectacular, light effect enhanced attention and fiercest effort magnets, except that instead of bodies hounded with compressed air the competents (rather than competitors) will pass along and release volleys and bursts of the finest dusts into the biggest storms (over land and water). From oil and bomb to soil and gravel.

The push for size, scale and centralization does as of yet not serve harmony and synchronization but fistmaking, fear driven double standards and split personal splats plot, serve and seek safety in numbers yet instead find elitism and run ever greater risks of scapegoatation as (long as) they stubbornly persist in perpetuating a sophistication process that started mechanically as the shaving of coins but meanwhile shaves ever tinier fractions of still just as common (s) related sorts of coins, except, ever faster from ever larger pools of ever more ghostly hosts with a seemingly everlasting impunity. What better confirmation of godly superiority can any person choose? Ask Geraint i guess. He drives at a similar point but with a music video wherein one sees his bare back as he pumps an (implied and invisible) whore under (/be?)neath him.

Sarah S seems quite capable of a Goldmanically sexy commercial posthaste, an amendment and postambel (or update, twatev) for the remote protokillers of old, that mother of propagagolemisms must meet match and face her own spawn and cede the crown so whoever is underneath it can take over the match meet and what's more, mate at the cost of host immiseration and further glory of insect sectAridity. Silversop is in that sense just another chapter/pawn in the game called 'make the christians believe' (make believe ad infinitum), a protocollette touretteketet ching boem shen bang, all of a piece with (futzoen) 'fatsoen moet je doen' (decency is trendy/hip). If not by bible, multi- and PCcult the govt sponsored PC propa 'propped' (tucked) between commercials will stagger your changes for a timely conversion, demise rather, succumbing to on the hour onslaughts that go: "We are becoming impatient with reprimands, without us realizing, we are becoming more and more asocial" Who that 'we' is here? Well certainly not the notoriously shortfuse import, stated stigmatically. Relatively shorted fused import, if that makes reading easier.

disclosure: i never watched more than a few seconds of SS (months and months ago, perhaps half a minute more years ago, via Peter Breedveld, a polemical battlesite i used to go in 0304). Now sprickety rockety racklass is a different story. She soothes and cheers me .. at least until i succumb to the temptation to try put words in her mouth. I am listening to Alex Linder (via majorityrights radio, a commenter called 'uh' made me look for him). He counsels 'his' whites to ignore black crime and focus on jews who are to blame for the 'overvreemding', mexican neighbours and such.

He should instead be blaming jews for the betrayal abandonment and flight from, allowing (suffering!) themselves being chased out of europe!!! -- Consequently whites forced themselves on reds and dragged blacks into it during this process. A focus that starts from that perspective would strike closer to the root methinks. A plus to me is his opposition to Christianity.

Are jewish women often so incredibly attractive cause god is merciful and gives em some value to trade themselves out of their predicament or as the only compensation potent enough to overcome all the nonviable aspects, the perfect bait for swift recruitment.

no recipropump but push and pull over feints to off the real balance and make off with value ex- and abstracted from it, james bowery says local exclusion and global inclusion will help folks vote with their feet and join some experiment or other shades of Ulrich von Beckerath the forgotten cause mildest of goldbugs for sure. UvB (Bth his paragraph) admired mao for disbanding the army, giving them gold to take home and 'disperse'. Europe should give all gold to the native americans and take all whities back.

sept. oct. nov. december 3rd: .. don't like this color we'll do 'april color' .. since there weren't any entries from that period you haven't even seen it yet ... Soren Renner is a White National outspokenness frontpet/mascotte from Chicago, in his thirties. He is a grotesque looking fella, hair on head millimetered but his beard is 'sprieterig' radiating out in the kinky ways lots of beards do, (other/further) telltale cultward tendency: likes dressing up, A: in nyc, resembling jewish garb to discourage beggars, B: in the UK, he can be seen on youtube with a brightly coloured shirt logoed with a mix of a swastika and chrysler logo (fits well that eh? THE brand for machismage and weapon 'branchery') and a Hitler pic at the back of him. Should i go into the early vaudevillainy stages of Nazism? Naaahhh. Even more grim and grievously grotesque i find the fact that he is in London in front of a big brownish painting of Hitler, and explaining his pet day and night diff metaphor, a polarization process that culminates via dueling dualities in the inevitable or 'ineffable' some one thing or (an)other ... all of which gets poned, put and posited in such over excited tones that one readily believes his assertion about putting people off to the point of getting no reaction (but to wholly discount his presentation as a defense mechanism would not do since he is in front of a BNP type crowd, alledgedly) ... possibly motivated by a desire to juggle ultimates, absurd extremes, as a limbering up to and ulteriorly motivated by achieving the pleasure of imposing ultimatums, even.

Speaking with Radio Free Mississippi drawlin suuuuurtherner (first 10 minutes are music) he praises Alex Linder in comparison to Jared Taylor who allows right wing jews to affiliate with groups who care about the race/colour homogeneity/purity alongside'm.

What jews have done to europeans in europe (in comparison to what they managed to do WITH them to redskins, infiltrated with semites since christ), is turn them into stoogelike, footstool, stupid asswipe versions of and brute slaves for themselves.

Thus(properly primed = deluded), euros went to infect with adn inflict that very fate on redskins AND escalate their own suffering of alienation by a great many orders of magnitude though also quite delayed in comparison to their victims in the americas (who's prophecies and visions are only now coming to a head).

I wonder if there will ever be proof that jewish migration brokers directed a preponderance of pilgrims and settlers who were well drunk on the bible enough to be allowed over (equal parts crazed and sedated), instead of those who realized what a few folks, like Franz Oppenheimer would later be on about (not his zionism, that was well after he soured) and would have thus been able to warn and mobilize redskins. A first big attempt to appeal for help in the americas in order to liberate Europe thus failed and aborted hundreds of years ago. But all awareness has, as if by birthright (and entitlement syndrome, a grave lacuna in the psychologization hierarchies) melted away from the awareness of White Nationalists as easily as an unbiased and inclusive regard for the Middle East has been tabooed and placed out of the Zionist's mental grasp. (Yes, i am saying that white pride is like zionism).

Quoting 'Uh' (october 25th 19??):

Because “strategy” is taken from political rhetoric, which indicates that White Nationalists are romanticizing themselves. White Nationalists have no right to “strategy”. They are all clackers on keyboards, just as in the seventies they were “nutzis” marching in the streets. The scene has shifted, and this shift, because it is the ultimate neutralization, has allowed White Nationalism to subtilize its ideology—allowed it to refine the rhetoric of its delusions of mass-enfranchisement, revenge, etc., which all boil down to the old laughable formula, “tomorrow belongs to me.” You may strategize as an individual. You may strategize as friends, or as family. But when you start talking like you “are” a “group”, with a “need” to “strategize”, you’re playing a therapeutic language game with political rhetoric as stage-dressing. Klar??---Community does not exist?---Not in the idealized WN sense, obviously. Your ideal communities do not exist, that is why part of your ideology is obsession with “creating” them. You populate the barrenness of the world with your idealized relations.

For the record, “uh” is a well known figure in White Nationalist circles. He used to post on the VNN frontpage years ago when Linder still ran it. He posted as “Marshal Lentini” on The Civic Platform; Sudaka on VNN Forum; and here (i think) as GenoSnipe.

I have noted the Robert H Friedman Red Mafiya few times already. Just got round to perusing the Amazon reviews:

Excellent review, but the reviewer maligns the book in bad taste (simply cause his dictates context sacrificed to detail, not THAT's bad taste)

EXCELLENT!, May 23, 2000

26 of 43 -- By Kirill Pankratov .. finds it 'laughable'
13 of 26 -- Factually untrue, May 14, 2000
26 of 36 - I returned it, May 11, 2000
20 of 39 -- Highly offensive, April 21, 2000 By Y. Gitlin

2 of the reviews are duplicates but with different vote numbers:

9 of 13 and 4 of 6 -- America, Zionism, And Russia: Links in a Global Crime Web, October 16, 2000 By B. Lynch

- the low numbers of votes on this review show people shy away from a judgment call regarding zionism - the only review to focus on and hilite it positively, the one that denounces it is next:

I don't know, personifying good and evil seems like the start of
Someone is faced with a moral dilemma and they could do a good or a bad thing. Whether these two forces are injected into our consciousness via an outside influence, or whether one of the two is more attractive than the other, the hypothetical person could pick either. We either have free will or we don't.
It's this person's judgement that will eventually lead to a good or an evil action. Once people get someone else to blame, they get to go "Aww shucks, devil made me do it." And then feel satisfied that once again, the problem is out of their control.
Then again I also believe that I am the burger, but also that I already was the burger and the burger was me long before I ate

corporate waste Humor me for a minute. Imagine polluters who spoil for a chance to bail from (shed, toss, drop, hide, pawn off) or at least delegate the clean-up. No funding forthcoming or not quick enough and the waste piles grown uncomfortably large, they hit upon a brilliant if devious plant. Managements get together and decide to toss their several toxicities into a cocktail, entertaining themselves with epitaph and mythical property endowments, etcetera. In short, they name these deadly mixes pretty fancy ways and slap a commensurate price tag on, multiples of the type of money it would take to try break each of its components into their original constituents again before mixture, as if to subtextually taunt and convey a punishing message to the fraction and remnant of the health inspection authorities that stubbornly refuse to be bridled and also to practice their schizfaith: rising cost is rising worth.

Tossing their fate into a collective reflects that split (unity/community - union/communion) as well. Their idea of one integer whole is always radically undermined by their faith in (and being after) becoming the lucky one winner. But boy did they collect(ivate the score) big this time.

Sell by vs Ban by date:

Our band of hi-wage conspirators had to force a sale/use of their fantasy product Corexit before publicity, outrage and protest about it being a toxic waste cocktail would lead to withdrawal of (carefully strategized, pawn-positioned) and licence to use/kill.

Their pawns had bargained for approval succesfully but it was a stealth operation as many of these are and not 'stable' enough to allow nature to take its course.

Bribery is oldfashioned and although positioning pawns requires more patience, much longer planning trajectories, etcetera, the corporate world sees itself as a collective in matters like these, it feels like it is fighting fair, pitting one of them against another and they are the much smaller one so deserve a little advantage to equal things out and fair the fight. Hell they will even grant us the internet, knowing full well it nets us splinters and we become that much easier to pick out and off, contain, isolate.

Hell, i can rant all i want but not a stinkingly unthinking cunt is gonna read it. they (especially) are all busy looking in the mirror and hoping an admirer will jump through and out of it any minute, any second even. every second 4000 more fotos land on facebook servers

Hitler allowed his target to dictate terms and set conditions as if he expected a miracle, proolly took to his grave if so.

He even adopted the (top-down) 'world' meme and perspective (though attempting to verbally deny [[transfer, projec]] its tantrum-like impatience back to sender, the franchiser, who proolly allowed him to, it's called spoiling for a fight). This plaque precipitation component (of monopoly friendly and therefore monoculturing money) is as impossible to refuse as a bulletrain (witness Lenin carryin - that very version of fauled n filthied lucre - on - just such a bullietrain), given the sell-out and treason triggering source, traitors to the compost pile, invariably and yet terminally turning and feeding on bad making it worse.

Everything has a price. If you are not getting it you haven't offered the right price yet. After the reconstruction years (my youth) an insurance company next to central station Rotterdam (you could make out its colours from the top of the busiest bridge in holland) will borrow a poetic phrase to light up on top of the nation's first hi-rise: 'alles van waarde is weerloos' - all (not valuables but lovable) that is lovely (and valuable) is vulnerable. Besides being a play on 'the weathered is worthless' and a cocktail made from basic denialist half truths i submit generalizations, commons, and sharability are no longer taught and understood like they should be, not even to and by insurance company.

In days where compost building and food itself are beset by commercial attack and obscurantization (exclusive, we are the only ones to offer, ... morphing into a phrase used by/on every other pop-up: you were chosen.....), we need not wonder phrases Jesus supposedly uttered can no longer be understood and seen in a Cernunnos according to poetpiet sort of light. Same goes for stuff like this:

Old folk and indiginous wisdom (along with its 'framings' infra and culturally instructive micro-climatic heirloom complexity) is disappearing, not understood or restored and reinstated, even this late in the day.

Phrases, gospeltruths, proverbs and adages like that can only be and remain so misunderstood bycause a not yet, up to a moment from now, spelled out meaning and implication remained hidden and lacking or bycause they are already a symptom, a tell tale residue of a fading practice and implicitation, despite it's prominent (and lofty) position (ing, -otion, -ation), reason enough to have a go at it NOW, time to cross the undead wastelands towards implementation:

taking pride in vulnerability implies avoidance and abhorrence of investing in 'defense', the very steepest and most precipitous 'let-down gradient' containing euphemism on offer in this day and age of DU 'enriched' ammo and the sports hysteria to overshout the deepest possible and least sportsmanlike damage dreamt up by minds that bring you 'hellishness is addictive' today.

Even before the socalled world-wars almost all flavors of money left standing on a battlefield thereof (off-shoreable) were designed to somehow sponsor & stimulate corruption and bellicosity, well past the stage of shy emulation, no longer just consequence following but cause provoking them (rapidly uglifying wars).

Politics was born from the diseased heads of economics like they in turn sprung from severely compromised priesthoods. The latter were of course, first headwear necessitating hoodlums cause their admirers, rivals and tributees were stacking and staking up hi up enough around them to need a little buffering against more than just a denudation dictated 'severicization' of sunshine.

Money gets crowned king from a certain density ('success') forward ... and indeed celebrated. Listen to the fresh and brash propaganda for innovation ('developed' [[really hi-jacked]] by the military and funded by porn - next stop 3d) on the BBC book review for 'Sex, bombs and burgers'.

Innovation and autism are front-line toxicity and toxic front-line phenoms. Mainstream dynamics polarizes them: The unmolested sorts can help disperse - john galt-like and for the most part equally fictional, rural '60s whole earth' adopting adapting community .. dispersed so successfully, it is a chore ... well, a pleasure really but not exactly a pilgrimage anymore as it feels more like navigating swamp, shifting sand and breaking ice by the minute. Those hi-jacked or otherwise recruited into a struggle for dominance facilitate dangerous concentration on the other. (see the little priest rant)

The worldwitness of transnationalized militarization. Hitler's very own success up to the conflagration point was the exact opposite end of that spectrum (guaranteeing the stackability would not be a mere gamble and bluff, getting to such pinnacles as surely as slow: local and regional circulation). It's as if a very small part of the world's population agrees to fight amongst themselves if in return they can carry the moniker 'world' WARriors forward into 'memory' land.

Back to the U$A That 'we', the undeservedly suffering, are not going 'to hell in handbaskets' willingly -- taken (in) by people summoning, banking on, abusing and exploiting that smidgen of autistic calculistic talent in family and psyche alike -- without putting up a fight, malaudial as right wing shrillity gets, is understandable.

But try this on for size 'reduction' (inside joke): What if your sentiments are a simple consequence of your physical location? Is it impossible to come to terms with a burden that lay over your innocence since, indeed even long before your birth (right)? How much time to try understand what occupation (hint: profession of ownership, entitlement, pioneered and made traditional by holy bookies) means do we have left before wars flare up worse than they already are?

I mean, don't you YouEssayian upright virtuous and industrious Americans ever feel you ARE in handbasket hell (do i need to link to pages of indian crafts here or can you see your way there by yourselves, yall victims of human trafficking in wooden ships?), yall DID make handbasket-land into a hell, HAVE turned the land of handicraft (including baskets) into a dying hell. There is no going to anyplace you already am right at. You can go noplac you are now.

More pReview of 'Sex, bombs and burgers', heard about on the worldservice it is not in the supposed, assumed, sickened, occupied, taken over, ceded and sullied extended self-interest of imperialist (emptyromentality) and weapon developers to admit possession of such (social) self-awareness if, while, when and cause committed to continued consolidated misperception of growth in real terms, which were real, enough and good before anything or body had to get real and that getting (more) began to be broached about as being even better than good (enough).

The 'we' of the famous 'we, the people' clause 'adoranters' i refer to in my previous post are not under attack but are an attack. Their situating (invasive and very disruptive, only a very few generations back) is itself the offense.

Anticipation is another one of them very malleable sentiments, a tool of karma and consequence here, but there coupled to personal perception and distorted by (c)ravings, furiously mixing pride and pity. Saw a sample of it last nite as i reacquainted my self with L. Chin last nite, who in 07 had a case of full blown fulltime paranoia which has now progressed to youtubing himself.

By contrast, the other day i listened to a snippet of yet another pre-tea-partyish radio rant (on backwoodshome) from 2002.

The phrase that broke the logjam in my head (and visible below) was:

'we are going to hell in a handbasket'.

It prompted me to unravel what they think and hope to convey when they say 'we' (pure as driven snow) and 'our govt' (too busy trying to bait and catch hot money with hot money, ending in confusions which leave even less time and leeway to notice the upstanding citizen ponying up for the spectacle).

Quick, dirty and short prefigurement of my answer (putting words in their mouths):

we cannot identify with our developers and 'waresofteners', never met a contractability monetizer or agreements banker and never even heard of rocks ungravelers, let alone ...

Fiscal honesty is as problematic as fighting missions these day, but once upon a time, at least to some certain men i have had the luck/honour of reading work by/of, fiscal fairness, vital to a nation's health, wasn't so obscure (d): Knapp, Beckerath, and still alive (in Boeing territory): Todd Boyle (rosehill.net), a man who puts himself in sight of commuting traffic at very regular intervals, as does Berndt (peaceispossible.blogspot.com), 50 miles further south, in Olympia, just below a large naval base in Tacoma.

If this is the shape of things as the state of the arts in efforts to make fights fair (with exceptions like Ken O'Keefe, the only twitterer i follow), it is little wonder we cannot seem to recruit, convert and defuse the wrong way to go about it vitally enough.

2019: begins to grow again (at the expense of the great

back to jan 20: after just over 2 years, i can present somebody matching Grugyn Silverbristle intensity.

My memory 'truegt' mich, i did not actually post on Silverbristle yet, just sent Pete Myers a 131K large file - about Alex Linder for instance and Edwards, that polite sounding man who calls his joint the Political Cesspool and perhaps the Mississippi ranter - which may have been part of what caused him an introspective spell but he certainly hasn't replied or published it ... so perhaps i could do a big blowout soon called:

the right downright confused on which way is upright

The far right USies do not see themselves as victimized by jews quite like slaves. Caught in the middle they don't see how they can should and must somehow afford solidarity with either, let alone both. It is my mission to end that stalemate.

Craig Cobb Adventure Journalist tells us the Democratic politician Jared Loughner (22) shot through the head in Tuscon (just before killing 5 people including a 9 year old) was his co-congregationist in a 140 head synagogue. Tidbits of news the white right absolutely loves.\\

Jared Loughner (22) told a journo that his claim (made on the net i guess) Mein Kampf was his fave book had been designed to annoy his mother (whom he lives with).

<http://www.youtube.com/user/CraigCobbAdventureJ#p/u/7/QmlsvbTXJG0>

CC another 10 minutes on Loughner. We learn he is 1/8th jewish, ancestors name: bliefuss (he says .. it's bleifuss .. and last part not pronounced 'us' either of course .. it means leadfoot!), CC is in a public library someplace.

<http://www.youtube.com/user/CraigCobbAdventureJ#p/u/19/NkmtCLGtBTE>

on this one his front door is a piece of plastic with snow on it, in front of a Montanan cave. He no doubt had designs on that setting as 'the right' one to paint the UN as an occupying force (any day now), the rabider rightie's 'number' one favorite bugaboo.

More than three quarters of rabid righties are not even aware of worse damage, let alone began to fight it: self-inflicted, and for centuries at that, being this: rocking themselves delirious with something known as the bible (*ask Tony Ryan) -- way worse than the (saviour sanctioned or not) unite to smelt and meld in a melting pot (with very limited and restricted access: white dominance) worn out and malfunctioning, dissolution and disconcert of which they (and europe itself, the true home they betrayed and/or were abducted from) surely suffer as well. All bycause of a more organized version that had and has the jump on them: the stockpile disease, bookkeepery, bookie-schizm and book larnin, in short, the fundie, an institutionally undead rabbinoid religiosity, all of which spawned a little something, it's the part of the jewish secret weapon most righties have gotten addicted to and want to hold onto, wrest away from and get rid of its owner/conceiver. ----- Besides Ryan, Grugyn Silvergristle was an exception (and so is Craig Cobb whom i discovered yesterday) to laying claims on the diseased product of a diseased con/professional class somehow materialized, seceded, went out of his way to champion true heirs of universalism and can heal all (the messiah himself of course) now fighting those who keep on building the stage-sets for 'it' to perform (stuff 'he' has used spent and discarded). Not that they do not have the once and for all disease as well. Hint: Dimona. ----- Righties attempt to go after 'jews'* that aim to disown and do without them liddul somethings or others which yes they spawned but no are nevertheless untraditionally universal, ... as a result of them driving their limn, diffuse, assimilate, disguise, franchise, incorporate, ex-territorialize, subvert, bribe into 'sell-outism', assassinate, bomb, and prize-claiming a little too far, their line of command got a little too thin, fragile and dilute ----- * -jews = parts and slivers of the jewish psyche splintered through diffusion, wanderlust and opportunities for filthy lucre in the employ of a far away but trusted uncle. ----- Righties aim to punish jews for letting let go of such treasure, their own best judgement and know betterment but why are they so blind to the fact that the messianism trip is just the obverse of the converse banking on and using abusee status??? Victimhood is the flip of the Saviour side and Jews have whities, their most valued prize by both balls that way and through the latter's still, but only just, ascendant genius, everybody else. These folks were, as i said, abducted, but by now they self-perpetuate the hard and fast sense of self that simply cannot get their head around collectivity. Not the number 1 1worldphobic (2 is a crowdpleaser (though lots of them train as if hellbent on spectre, horror, etcetera)). Who's the 'number' one here? Is the One Worlder 'number' than the 'Number One' numbest one even??? Time will tell. Nato and UN as the right and left hatin and lovin arms of universalisms are indeed a scary spectacle so far and bode ill.

Hopefully OneWorldism evolves (at neat netspeed) into pragmatic and DTE salvation army crushing rock teaching compostage and planting orchards, truely uniting issues, bycause they lay fundamentalisms repellent foundations, guarantee multiversity (uniticty, poly- and pluriformity), enhance disentanglement, boost independence, foster autonomy, defuse tensions, etcetera.

Meanwhile though, One Worlder Paranoids are/get ready for america TO BE occupied, a form of denying it already is (by these very 'themselves trulies' so sure it will happen any minute now, repeating it untiringly for YEEAARRSS) and has been since their ancestors came in .. and has been, also, due to folks like Craig Cobb happening to be vietvets, in part a throwback/regurg of mayhems and haws of nam of course.

by contrast, here he is in a shiny suit on the local news: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xANb7B3xN4k> YouTube - Craig Cobb White Nationalist Teaching Movies Kalispell Flathead Library (where he wears a very shiny suit).

.. no wonder he gets called phony by the very people he hopes are listening, he is pulling too many stops on stage props. A man blessed with wallops of mercuriality that are too mad-hat-heady from a distance, let alone for himself and his own good.

Such a totally sympathetic guy with great genes .. proud of 'm too .. all come to nought from being in the wrong place. Well, ... he IS hugely entertaining and way less phony than the 95% of talking heads he is trying to compete with, ... well, not as an outdoorer, more like a weaner.

That last link is a 9 and a half minute rant on diversity really. At the end he plans inprisonment of all federal reserve employees. He's almost 60 ... and not as unknown as i initially thought he would be.

Cobb shows his ignorance about black history, deep black history HAS had a seafaring reach overreach and spin out stage long long before whites were ready to start building big boats. If anything one might argue opposingly and claim whites followed a stupid example. He needs to read a little Cyclone Covey (East Africa & the Sea in Antiquity 168K flat txt).

well ... i looked and it aint there

Here i am, once again ... holding hands .. in a circle ... no .. i mean .. trying to shame white sickos deeply, of/for their part in slavery (failing to fight the jew slave driver for all i care) and helping blacks back to africa (either way) and themselves to europe (no less)???????

part 2 is a pitiful performance with the prejudice i mentioned showing and there are more like that ... one where he walks a road in yorktown ... and with loads of officers around being extremely patient and passive with him, keeping their distance, even when he lays into the biggest black amongst them with questions about IQ and black music he calls filth (but has to cite in order to show what he means of course. Evidence you know).

a thought i had last nite after turning the buzzbox off: Craig Cobb is a contra-Yid Zealot he fetishizes not the bible but bullets (works out to the very same thing). He is not so much remorseful about Nam (never heard him even mention it once so far) than he is of the opinion those precious guns were wasted there and should have been pointing at blacks and the yids behind them all along and will be.

meanwhile i offer my thoughts on the subject in the light of xenophobia flavors i am familiar with from travelling the US and Oz, right wing websites and my experience in Holland are collected in the attachments.

The attached two articles...Aboriginal deaths in custody - - Stolen generation...should cover your curiosity on these issues. On the Jewish issues you raise, my view is probably unhelpful to anyone. I view belief of any kind as humanity's biggest problem

Now, back to poetry... In 1964 I concluded that Bob Dylan was right, the only way to make people listen is to put ideas to verse and sing these in the musical idiom of the times. Kindest regards Tony

At a neo-Nazi rally in Kingston, N.J., later that year, Cobb antagonized non-white counter-protesters until carloads of them shouting threats began pursuing the taxi cab he occupied. The cabbie was mortified. "Man, you can't just say things like that and not expect people to respond," he said.

But then Cobb is not only expecting a response — he's begging for one, one he can put up on Podblanc for the world to see.

pretty funny, a canadian journalist (Darcy Wintonyk) hopes he gets caught and extradited (from the US to canada i presume) for hate crimes, CC scares up a picture that does indeed makes her resemble the classic wicked witch of the west (on top of tracing her jewryness).

He also cleverly retorts that political crimes are exempt, then pastes a big real crime list. However dearo Craigery, in my view no crime is more political (choked, polluted and damn near strangled as it now is by dirty money) than a meditated (premediated or much rehearsed, same defiant indeference) hate crime. Very nasty words camouflaged by 'zoetgevoosheid' (aint that a jewish talent ... though i much prefer the solitary blackbird over the mobstarling) at that ... all the better to jitter juggle jiggle the crazies loose and cause the (fat Luke type as per SPLC page) mayhem your satanically unresolved, not expurgated, non-purged, activated as well as activating Vet past DICKtating you dictates you to 'leave be' and 'run rampant' (you allow veteran disease to dictate and dominate you). Youghdo try mourn and regret that/tet instead for starters .. behind that lie the reds, then the white brothers your ancestors betrayed lured onto turtle island by semite fables. Are you reading me sunny boy????

Funny though that in the light of what i cited earlier, reproduced on this page: <http://vnnforum.com/showthread.php?t=121576&page=3> (of 7 so far) the accusation that a judge was murdered due to personal info spread about and that CC was the first to spread it, i find that coin not paying but playing up: spinning furiously and sharing the light with the other side in truly brotherly fashion, iow, we find CC was only being new testament (arian)ically generous with what he wishes for himself: locatability .. and he lists the library opening hours during which he can be consulted. Thataboy.

Listening to Linder and Cobb now You guys are victims of your own training. You act imperially, sampling selectively like snipers, condemning 'shitskins', you need to be thrown into a pile of dung with a fire under it like bigmouth jesus ... and come out smelling like roses 3 months later cause your rock grinder drosscruiser works that well ... and we were generous with roses .. as we always are. Ever seen ugly true blood jewish females ... if you've seen any at all?

You guys are violent ... whipped up your own testy levels to heights you cannot savelly get down from ... jews are attracted to (the deals they can do ... sell ammo to. .. nudge nudge ... with the violents ... like you guys. Reread the last sentence till it sinks in).

That AOL theory is a recurring if not The theme in The Lacuna. On page 242 (of my 507p copy) Stalin bandying about that Trotsky, on his way south to seek recovery, refused Stalin's call to return to duty, was a nasty, indeed traitorous, backstabbing lie, in order to take over command via emergency pawn positioning (raping the queen to be, the subverse to the commiverse that is beedom), Lenin's unexpected death came at a very volatile moment. The 3 way chicken run (to the precipice of exhaustion through rallying) left one man firmly in command. If BK is to be believed Trotsky would have required peasant duties out of everyone. Instead we got suicidal annihilation attempts a very different type of jew hiding behind Stalin (before he turned around and got hip to it) may have to be blamed for

Barbara's version does not so much reverse my impressions thus far as formulate and hilite the exception, that one Jew she pits against (the rest [[as i will, in anticipation of a lead i am taking and representing shortly, parenthetically add]], in possession of), after a certain fashion, global media power.

Solzhenitsyn especially helped me decide to pin mentioned Stolypin related sort of crime on the type of jews (who, after amassing masses, manage to rub them the wrong way or even out, commies and judaics waving a dazzling stream of shifting and morphing flagtains and curs ... which which they overenthusiastically lovehug and bearsqueeze to death) I just quoted Rowan referring to on december 18 (but parenthetically distancing himself from, .. unsurprisingly, cause if there is one thing Rowan has little of it is common sense, everything in and about him has to breathe excess for him to feel, as the Dutch put it 'in his element').

Said jews, after amassing masses, manage to rub them the wrong way or even out, commies and judaics waving a dazzling stream of shifting and morphing flagtains and curs ... which they overenthusiastically lovehug and bearsqueeze to death.

Amongst these (parenthetical) type jews Trotsky would have been but a rare gem, a quirky exception, .. though modern means make them last in immortal poster child guise except that, as Barbara Kingsolver and Pugliese, though more halfheartedly argue, Trotsky got turned into a scopeguide of mass distraction .. the hero suffering reversalizing versions under unfortunate conditions ... like when media are habitually violated and irreversibly disconnect, remediation becomes impossible and out of the pipedreamy question at best.

Karl Kraus was exactly right, a little duress is as easy to procure as a stage outfit and usefully perpetuates the type of whoring that spews printed lies relentlessly and lays a deadly siege around every honest intention and teeth gritting determination. The rethinking of borders is disastrously overdue. Nor does anybody make a point of pointing to pointers i made/left among Verdonkists (forerunners of Wildersians) in Dutch from 00-04 in these matters (the one about sparrows vs blackbirds still my untranslated favorite).

I wanted to make a record. That's all. I do not accuse Israel. If there is an accusation, it is in the record itself.

Therein lies the problem. He has come up against the increasingly prevalent desire of many within Israel and without to rule inadmissible any "record" that depicts what Israel or its defence forces do in a negative light, deploying an intellectual sleight of hand to suggest that all such criticism is designed to "delegitimise" the existence of Israel. That it is "antisemitism" of a new and sneaky kind. The irony is that Wiedenhöfer had not intended to return to the subject of Israel and Palestine again after his books Perfect Peace and Wall. Indeed, his main interest these days is examining the nature of boundaries, particularly in areas of conflict or that have been affected by conflicts, something he is pursuing with the same single-mindedness he dedicated to documenting Palestinian life for almost two decades.

.... which, compared to the fuss they make at those places about black - instead of the there pointed at/out RusJew - crime - with their obsessive holding up spectres of weak links in (certainly) their (but nevertheless disowned) charge (former slaves) - shows the mental splitwidth and absolutism that seems primordial and primatist (please please consult Andrew Lehman's neoteny.org on this) so just hammering on the champs and threatening to make an example of them is by no means gonna turn the world back into the paradisial multimillennarian tree filled world we lost when we failed to perceive treecycling. there goes another one, a tree wizcycled right by you but the pretentious will always fail to notice.

'ethnic networking' (Summers (pro)postioning Kagan), an expression used by Kevin Macdonald on vdare.com kmacd@csulb.edu It reminds me of the terminology coinage i thought up the other day*: contra something .. -semitation perhaps .. and i don't mean semites fucking or trying to protect their trees from zionist encroachment (*the on the hour news in holland last nite was all about the palestine papers and i thought it would not last into daylight but it did. The attached file holds lots more on Craig Cobb and the person he reminded me of (Grugyn Silverbristle, found in 2001, looked at more closely after he had already passed). I wonder if i should post it on my blog add it to the pile of never published thoughts. He is bound to feel quite lonely .. with his nuance .. adrift in a rift .. (between whitewatch and NftW)

To return to Hollandish mediascapery for a moment, a word about the PC tude fighters Geenstijl.nl -- in my opinion incredibly dishonest riches and machismo deifying, Wilders praising and sometimes Zionism lauding vanity crowds, those up and coming, ready to replace the reigning middling majority in Holland really.

GS and PowNed cater to superficial taste of the poor but psychomediationally hopefilleds - heaping helpings of digital muscle, denigrating anything feminine and all defense of it, the indiginous, green downscalage, you name it - with stylish and clever bursts of prose and as a returning staple: islamophobia. They make a great show of being against PC modalities but they are in truth the new version, an update of what they came to replace and intensify.

are like the salt/leaven of earth eh? vitally important and you want to celebrate them but in pure, visible and isolated fashion they are eyesores, undigestible, etcetera. Once at work, hard to trace. It's a conundrum. Covington sounds like one of those folks who have the diagnosis relatively sharp but as usual, as per Hitler, it attracts the worst possible and counterproductive 'doctrage'. That militarism seriously puts me off. This is the alternative to empire as usual? Spare me. Yall ought to take a leaf from W J Sidis pacifist libertarian and take 'relocation' to mean this: blacks to blacks land, whites to whites land ... after serving reds by way of reparation of course.

<http://www.youtube.com/user/TheNorthwestHomeland#p/u/7/j2--zX8kMqY> Harold Covington addresses the burning question--how dare the Northwest Front build a White homeland when the Indians were here first? Holy in my soulee sure thing, the word solutrean in the mouths of white supremacist can of course point to only 1 thing: whites got there first and proof of it is being just as supressed as the fact that jews sicked and sick the darkies onto whities cause, brilliant though they be, also prove too difficult to handle.

And then i thought, well, that's exactly why there is that, if not excessive arc ('spanningsboog'), one that certainly exceeds the scores of others (fat at both ends and extremes, very weak, yes, even diseased in the middle), a higher sense of entitlement, individuality becomes advance of collectivity through institutionalization, with all the inbreeding and therefore self-hating dangers that come with it. A further and further refinement of purity casting more and more muttness off and about.

foreshadowing a legal dirt day in the UK less than a week from now:

Israel Shamir (that's me) is a veritable lightning rod for smear jobs. Some folks can't take the heat, and frankly, I don't blame them. The Sweeney letter accuses me of being an "anti-Semite" and a "Holocaust denier". Presumably it will be repeated in the broadcast. To ensure their case is fireproof, the BBC has hired expert "anti-Semitism fighter" Professor Richard Evans; the BBC spares no expense when the game is afoot. Evans was an expert witness in the David Irving libel trial, and walked away with seventy thousand pounds from the court and a grand total of a quarter of a million pounds altogether for "fighting" anti-Semitism. This windfall overexcited the Professor and, eager to repeat the coup, he tried to frame a feminist scholar Diane Purkiss for Holocaust denial as she expressed some unusual thoughts about... no, not Jews but witches in medieval England.

Rowan: i-see-no-particular-reason-to-trust-shamir-myself/ says the man who does like wikileaks .. whereas he accuses Shamir of a 1998 act that foreshadows and preplicates a network he is now a small part of and happy to be associated with?????

note about that 'source': the account has a vid showing pics from some of the 180 victims a well manicured serial killer made picking up hitch-hikers and/or persuading people to make an attempt.

It also features lots of the type which reveal pics and names of white victims and black perps, like this one http://www.youtube.com/user/Podblancsample#p/u/62/yo9SrQ11d_o from effectmatrix.com obvious 'antidote' (in as far as 2 opposed extremisms doesn't simply make 2 instead of cancelling each other out, back to neutral), for the sake of those for whom such inversions suffice to convey a credible impression of dispassion and neutrality let me hasten to present <http://whitewatch.info/> the re-, in- ob-

and perverse of it is here: <http://newsfromthewest.blogspot.com>

... but remember ... this guy is a victim of the imperialism he blames jews for (a vet who saw horrific circumstance) and his extremism is, like i said, easily matched and doubled rather than reversed and neutralized by switching the black and white markers.

I declare both of these takes on white and black to be useless .. to put it mildly. Equally moronic and downright wrongheaded is closer to the mark. Not an equality to be proud of. Black and white as these opponents understand them, are overstretched hypergeneralized and diffusive phenoms/venoms, a fact pinpointishly specific namin and shamin is used to cover and shroud but the conclusions are about as useful as biblical metaphors about good and evil, light and dark, the singular saviour and the semite sufferer, also invertible to parasite and host.

I prefer to interpret weak links in social fabric being held up in order to justify dissociation, secession and repatriatization not so much as anti-multicultural than pro-autonomy, self-sufficiency and (re)localization.

To me black and white make sense in a radial vertical sense foremost. Of the 2 extremes available thus, it behoves us to tackle the bottom biosphere borders of bed-rock below .. or should i say tickle in the garden cultural variety way .. i mean in the sense seercentre.org.uk is doing so, that way the top end will be tickled by tall treehouse projects, give or take a millenium or so. ----- anon

typical retorahtick you got there 03.02.2011 23:48 cruelty comes in many shades but yeah only jews call their slaughter methods kosher and like anything they are wildly succesful at institutionalizing (read socializing) it (*loss of ethics in this case, .. once again. this the point at which i expended the effort to make most of the unwieldy links invisible and sometimes cutting unshort ones to fit the frame (totally forgetting i would have to do a version with specified font colour until the grey on [this] green which don't work). iow ... i still have that troublesome trade off problem between leaving links in vs leaving line break problems out on blogger and so eventually posted this table (reaching back to the top of yesterday) introduced thusly:

Hoo Boy Submitted by anonymous on January 29, 2008 - 1:52pm. Hey gehrig, I know that Indymedia uk get unhappy about these threads, so its great that UC IMC are willing to share the burden.

Reading this i see non-sense unchallenged and a discussion that is sanitized. But hey, they own the building now ... proolly a reward for phoniness. Promised land housing policies in place and firing on all synapses.

Holocaust? Hell they were never even expulsed as often as they just swarmed.

Rightie sites like to list expulsion of jews from various places around europe, but i think migrations might be a better more neutral term for the resettlements that occured spread out across a millenium.

I know few exceptions to semites lacking an urgent sense of permaculturally integrative indigenous heirloom preservation, thus, a self marginalization pushes, inches and nudges them out of their own habitat even if crazed bombing campaigns do not plague them.

... though mind you, even way back, blacks began sacrificing trees to imperial ocean crossing ventures, another fork in the human road that proved capable of installing a tradesman's trait and inherent concealed weapon in almost everyone: splitbrained double standards .. doubling over and over, .. geknakte vergokte verknokte saamhorigheid.

A well known segment of semites not only score high demographically but tend to feed as well as conceal it by swarming, any appearance and/or revelation of over-entitlement compared to fresh host majorities or rival minorities gets turned inside out and called prosecution, their loyalty issues lead to self-culls, calamities as well as overly conspicuous success via a scatter shot network test, a swarmage.

<http://www.ucimc.org/content/prof-stephen-kaufman-sends-letter-protesting-chief-finney>

from late 09 with about 12 comments .. would be hilarious .. if it weren't so sad .. the last ones a year later (*'chief' has to do with the mascotte issue)

REALLY????? Wearing the chief is the same thing as wearing a swastika? REALLY???

I think I could find a Holocaust survivor or two that would strongly disagree with that, Mr. Kaufman. Strongly disagree. The last time I checked the former mascot for the University of Illinois didn't kill 144,000 FREAKING PEOPLE. You have NO RIGHT to marginalize the losses of the Jewish community in the Holocaust by comparing their plight to that of a long-gone tribe of native Americans whose image was being used at football games and on t-shirts (who, by the way, originally AGREED to be part of the tradition of this University but later reneged on that agreement because their grandchildren's grandchildren felt they weren't getting PAID enough, but anyways.....).

No comparison. Not even freaking CLOSE.

Grow up. We have bigger issues than the chief going on up in here and we don't whack jobs like you muddying the waters and draining credibility. The University should seriously examine whether or not someone with such questionable judgement and reasoning skills is really qualified to be a "professor" at this institution.

* = Anybody into comparing Geronimo's skull to the david star? Or how about election media (roepoeter) bore limits to make the race fair? throwing fake and trash money at fake trash flaglets waved once in 4 years, just enough to remind the average voting public they really don't know how to behave in crowds (it's not like a REAL abundance tempted them to come stand and wave.. goes hand in hand with throwing more ephemeral dirt riding any and all waves that come along as long as they are remotable. satellite spy systems is the real trade mark. the clever little plyers flattened and frozen into a symbol, a status, theirs).

as untrumpable bottomline i will add: let all jews become or remain superrich but make it justifiable (and) as result of tackling the biggest growth factor quite literally, that is, through turning rock and rocky ground fertile, into composted deep soil, that would be putting their inimitable to good and common use i say.

head-ache dump more of the same (as in last post) in a 129K attachment here: more white head n wipe outaches
i head out to dump some ache i dump on Ytout white out why doubt i jump on whites, lift some blacks mix, shake, sprinkle and/or blow them greyed ups (greys for sure and short), them dusts across a raincloud, wipe up the spillage and wait for the gar *(E)*den to grow, Eden to be guarded once again.

she seems to think Ken spoiled the market (loophole? .. or corner? .. not sure) for flotilla activity. by trying to kidnap a ship and later claiming to have been kidnapped while he really suffered no hardship at all. My my, how quick ARE women to forget swollen bloody heads i wonder?????

She does not censor, no she stops inappropo inept inane infantile and generally markmissing failed and misfired criticism. Mmm .. kay ...

.. meanwhile this pains me already .. and i have yet to find and read the big screed claimed to exist .. i remember my time at peacepalestine fondly (2006), back when Rowan still went in outgoing mode. Sigh ... bygones.

What i think would reconcile different approaches wonderfully is to take a few ghettoblaster out on Tahrir and play:

<http://listen.grooveshark.com/s/Jesus+Help+Me+To+Stand/20HLCR?src=5>

...while trying to hand out toys nearby ... then a reverential distance away this: chalklines drawn and wrestles organize, rope tugs, rock crushes and fresh mudbaths ... that sort of fun.

If absolutely need be, we can have voluntary matches to the death with really hi stakes to monetize whatever cause is championed and whatever weapons are agreed on (important, it's either both or neither get hands tied or a certain size rock .. whatever, contractuality is paramount to raise the festivity factor as a seasoning for spirited debate - for which space including audience and castage will be arranged too).

Ken's "kidnapping" and convoy strategies (a commenter queries) +31 --- i really cannot comprehend how Mary can let this drivel and slander pass. It accuses Ken of being a Homeland/FBI tool with or without his knowledge (getting a free pass either way, funding for which is questioned) and this:

From everything I've seen this past year, all of his actions, and his continued actions, have all had one thing in common, the capability of closing down travel to Gaza for all of us in the future, be it land or sea. All of his actions have been focused on removing support from countries that currently cooperate with activists. And now we have the Death ship being planned publicly with the premise of attacking Israel at sea.

Well, he managed to get back into Gaza and proves nobody else can?? Is he some kind of actual cycle closer (version of the mystical one Pacal Votan?). They actually manage to do much worse, call him a Jim Jones type, looking for death, not by command but by commando.

Like i said, terminating her grunty abuse by Atzmon might have been smart but if this drivel is what we get instead ...

hmmm, funny, this morn on BBC WS, after the Am Expr fraudulence litigation threat i thought that a lot of the money i had previously thought would be put to good use by the descendants of the now filthy rich through wrongful gain crowd, the one the clever mafiya HUNTER Robert Friedman scribbled about so casually and alone (superheros are real and they wield pencils), on the principle that generational hormone polarization shiftswitchflips would enable future gentle souls to have a better shot at what i tried, might instead be put to good use by the descendants of the now set to career and carambole through the legal systems jewdicial class (split into defenrs and prosecrs ... much in the very same way the present possessors and posseseds are revolving between banks and govts). Similar difference i guess, as i was on about after reading The Lacuna by Barbara Kingsolver. Antagonists using identical methods means they are fighting fair right? No, it means, the victim is infected and succumbs to being assimilated by the invader. Good vs Bad juice, beer or wine, poise yar pickons. Communists and their hunters, early and late arrivals (where have i read about that problem before? Oh yeah ... Kraus in Vienna). Jews out of the Middle East .. cause we simply must decently grant them the pleasure to Conquer Canaan for real. Seducing it with Olive trees would be a start. Only a million (MATURE ONES) to go before we can begin to call such an effort a true gift though. That would merely replace what these moronic satanists have destroyed.

youtube.com/user/heatseekerx51#g/u About half of the (around 40) uploads here shows animations of animalistic wrestling matches from the game world. That got me thinking .. as follows:

only self harming creatures would self-bar (with mental metal, stronger than any prison) and come up with ways to create and tap a market of the (unjustly) convicted and (nevertheless) kept tabs on, very precisely meterable with hi-tecuntroll (make of it what you will .. congenital mutilation is what i had in mind meself) from Tel-Avilifiabylon.

this fever dream commercialization wonderfully shows you what ghettoite tactics aimed at outsmarting subjecting and instrumentalizing natural leadership jostle/dance 'accomplish'. They s(t)imulate circulation by installing a draft that begins insidious preppery waaaaaaay before it comes to signing the dotted line. But before i say a few more words about the Antaeus legend like sterility and quality time (st)ripping game-world i like to pause and let that ugliness rest for a right of way moment: All creatures suffer/feature macho power pact inclinations, band formation, impact and fist making. The reactionary forms put lives, top honours, status, females and salaries at stake. All these burgeoning urges and surges in the lives of young adults are paramount even for the growing youngster, most of which desire to learn about harvest fairs and mating grounds. Before going off the rails made of tradition and innovation taking care to remain in perfect parallel there was a kind of golden age: Co-ordinated task mastering, epitomized for me in what i understand, intuit and list as qualities of those blessed with the kinds of closeness to/in guild of wise forest managers, crisis counselors and the ones animals loved.

mommy: 'oh, the neighbours and their kids are loud and remind me of maroccan dogpacks i did not see but heard on my honeymoon. They roam streets at nite, looking for offal and turf to fight over (practicing what they call the waterbed effect in the law-enforcement fields of Holland, even with none of their demonizers at their heels), let's not allow our kids out to play with scary folk like that.

certainly not this guy: indexterity.blogspot.com/2011/02/indy-

i am a pacifist and have delivered believable and practicable instructions to make it a way of life, satisfying to even the most testosterone terrorized .. ehrrrr, .. ridden macho, all over the net for 13 years.

Didn't happen and so i am now cheering the likes of Paul Watson, Ward Churchill (*see the 2 of them on stage for 1.24m in 2001) and Ken Nichols (O'Keefe is his global stage nym), hell, even Craig Cobb has my sympathy (as long as i manage to blame others for his training).

Ward Churchill, one of the very finest and fewest white men (though he identifies as an indian) who has a clear view on white/red race relations treats Paul Watson to disavowal in a 1.24m vid from 2001. 4 years later he is on the receiving end of such treatment, mostly by men who should be squarely on his side, and of nothing else forgive him and look past his unclarity and limned area in borderland matters of blood and fancy, out of gratitude for his quite singular work. Here's a few specifics.

* = youtube.com/watch?v=spHn7Twt8w8 3506 views since december 09 .. runner up most watched footage on this, for the most part, oregon focused account. Chief Leonard Crowdog vid gets 4 times the views. He figures in the narrative and/or polemic WC holds against Paul Watson (after first agreeing with a major part of his drive). Watson snuck into Wounded Knee as a medic and claims he got the name of a warrior freshly fallen (along with his mission to go fight for the buffalo of the sea) there during a sweat vision. That would be an upgrade of rules on top of rule changes regarding sweats during a siege.

Ward (who's father was closely involved as Paul claims) basically denies it ever happened .. which makes the rucus around his own status 4 years later rather ironic .. or divine justice .. take your pick. Ward's claim to indianness turned out to be much disputed and denied in the mass mediatic turmoil touting him as both a deflector, defusor and milderer of the inside job stuff and the instrumentalized brilliant victim/perp conundrum of a beancounter bureaucrat Eichmannesqity - jewish professionalism turned against itself, amplifying the banality, contradictions and unoutrootable ubiquity of jewishness?

Ward is on much safer ground when (past the hour mark) he harps on the difference between subsistence and industrial whaling and blames Paul for failing to make it. Turns out HE is wrong on that one.

8TH OF FEBRUARI

"Did Israel create the Mujahadeen?"

Sure, that IS ironic ... but also not such a bad question. Think of it as atonement for and distraction from King David hotel, the stuff Giladi (or Galedi ... keep forgetting that) is on about, Palestine, and a few more i have read but need not 'obsess' about to have more than enough vinegar to neutralize the propaganda onslaught DE likes to be so nuanced about (not a peep out of him about the margins of collectivity, sold very dear in the form of punishment for others and bought cheaply as benefit for their own) posted up to here

DE: "You've proven your analysis of world events, Alice, to have no "leftist" content at all. It's obsessed with Jews and only Jews. It's sick."

Mmm, world leftism has nothing to do with an arms race? Obsessing about nuclear arms is 'sick'. Are these bombs the healthy end of the equation? Has Israel provided evidence it is worldclass not being up to the institutionalization of neighbourliness and fair fighting in order to fraternize and forge bonds?

AlicetheCurious: "you're nitpicking the weakest evidence, and ignoring the elephant in the room."

DE: "Alice there is no evidence in this thread that Israel dominates the US. When I do address what passes for evidence you guys switch to talking about bad things Israel is doing." --- piet: sorry DE but a shorter version reads (taking ref to jews out better than you claim to be care so much about for being more factual: bad despite non-dominance, but leaving you the switch you try to pin on the 'you guys'): dominance not bad. This is practically a triple switch: 1 cannot dominate so cannot commit bad 2 cannot associate bad with domination 3 neither must ever, no matter the evidence, be associated with jews or with me.

"It was just too over the top for me."

A region's cultural age is determined by the sustainability of habits but when fueled by bad and more reactionary ones, when fed a mix of fear and entitlement, where fast bio-movements are favored over slow, dead over live ones, then we see things like extremely early marriages --as decreed by the kahal a few rounds before the 'Pale of settlement' era, an attempt to contain and accomodate this demographic incontinence which failed miserably, the required break with old bad habits and installment of so radically new ones as to paradoxically seem alien was quite like the cause of the problem to begin with: too much too soon, too unfamiliar, it destabilized civilization the world over for the reasons pointed to yesterday which bear a repeat, this resulted in and/or constituted the equivalence of a baby face gangster breeding program. No expensive training gear needed, just the type of f0cking that scores early.

brendonoconnell.blogspot.com Kevin MacD defends him +188 and certainly aint as rabidly anti-jewcultprod (jewish cattle prod) as others i have read, he calls Alison Weir an 'honest leftist universalist'

at Craig's place the comments got switched around (due to an edit), second part: i watched part 2 first and at the end of it
Brendon O'Connell compares jewish evil (a trait) to a piece of produce? Yes, a poor innocent piece of fruit is held up to camera for over a minute - objectifying nothing like what it appears to be and is but personifying what it hides and is a foil for, not a piece of jewish goodness but mask for and distraction from its evil, not produce but principle and trait, an extruded strawman and scapegoat, psychosurgically removed by Brendon O'Connell. But what about personifying that piece of citrus as hi-jacked palestinian, sold into slavery. Would you then just toss it in a dustbin after plastic wrappers? Either way, specially that toss instantly came across as outrageously moronic.

Fruit has been my favorite subject of thoughts for decades now so if i seem to go to fast refer to older work i guess. Comparing fruit to a vice is not wise. But DOES the similarity stop right at the base, the choice to commodify, where both can be produced, turned off and on like spigots? Can evil be seen as a product, even produce as well as a trait??? How can it be profitable to select for bad taste? Given the overwhelming amount of the latter on offer we can see a supply and demand debate for the farce it is. A resist and dismantle model would more easily render a greater good (green leaven) meme productive.

A point i have been driving at long before now and lately is this: fruit and produce MUST and yes ARE closely linked to curing human failings, the goodness bred out of any organism (from single cell to transracial faith receptacles like personalia, even if a number is all it is and draftable at that, not all of us are hermit of gully lake material) bred back in, even if it no longer recognized and rejects it as such.

This needs only a relatively short choice deprivation alongside ample provision with compostage galore (compostables, sewage, moisture filtering and storing capacity figures on steady rise, etcetera) and if that takes a little help from my friends who can later be acknowledged to have provided paradisial confinement, so be it.

So, yes, they ought to at all times be moved and held close .. put together (walled garden anybody?) ... and that includes the dustbin. Let's have a closer look/whiff.

There's a perfectly logical and 'natural' reason jews -- people with a weakness for savantism, protective of it and for a good while exploited bycause of and for it ... untill they found way to try stem the hew and sway of the sword .. with varying success ... specially since most savantism aren't well bred and green. Their thanatopic potential exceeds simple hord and sworse play immeasurably.

first part: There's a perfectly logical and 'natural' reason 'jews' like large doses of bigotry, having had to (take note, been forced to) administer great big wallops and chunks of it, the last massively pc tumultiCultural disasters of known history (pyramids, babylonian towers, etcetera ... i mean the ones that did not - for the most part, including every last potential to sprout as little as blade of grass back up - disappear without a trace, like the nenrod debacle did pretty much).

Typical border phenom all around (our sorry clod): turning a suffering into a pleasure, a torture into joy, a shame into a pride ... such as it always goes when unmatched not traditionally neighbouring ethnicities 'meet' (after absorption and/or eviction of the formerly nearest ones) at least one of which has already used to be ridden roughshod over and/or more slowly assimilated their ex-nearest neighbours, by definition impossilbe without irreverence, disrespect, mockery, animus ... before the runaway one after the other takes off.

Come to think of it, i thought last nite, after Willard and the other hermit (the gully lake one) prompted this, that hermetism (not as a propy prop but as the withdrawal and flight from war that it was) has always drawn the opposedly inclined forces to it. Repulsed by yet attracting the buggerers, harassers and generally those lacking what you have and are showing them .. but even their looking ruins it (ice caves in great hollywood style lettering on the hillside around willard's place should be a hint ... along with every other cheap hide-out of hippy, artist and bohemian which gets turned into marketable meaningfulness for as long as such counterproductive bubble bauble swings catches and harvest the mood).

imagine the monastic and indiv hermetism that spread across the middle east ... wasn't it bound to attract the wealer dealers .. bent on weaponizing any and all flowz ... favoring the barely or even better, not nakedly perceptible kindz?????

Arab world is experiencing some turbulence 30 year after the rape of poetpiet in lybia, 30 years after jewstoooge Mubarak, 'het hullepie van rotjoden' can't fool and co-ordinate cruelty any longer, despite a still booming voice, it is ineluctably and unmistakably housed in a too rapidly slowing carcass.

i will be talking about Mary (and comments at her place). i 'found' M Rizzo trying to follow Rowan (XXXXX) around the net (one of the few men who ever answered a comment of mine [in endearingly critical fashion sometimes, more often incomprehendingly] at the indymedia sites i frequented between 99 and 03).

She used to edit and publish Gilad a lot (on her 'peacepalenstine' blogspot) .. but let him go as taskmaster meanwhile. What she has not stopped is posing a picture of herself young and most beautiful, kinda unforgettable and least so to herself apparantly .. but it has caused a distortion in her perception of purity .. it raised my eyebrows even back in october 05 already - when my nearly 2 year spate of her blog started, to banter with a handful of people there - and even more so now.

in march 03 i discovered womenspeacepalestine.org (5 languages at it for 5 years) .. but did not make much of it

Palestine Somoud: Arab Voices of Resistance

» item + over 160 comments - 550K ... Truth Justice and Peace nearly sunk as RTH convoy facts emerge, and as usual, Gazans get the worst part of the deal really loooooooooonng big ass borderline boring post by Mary (with whom i bantered and cantered friendly enough for a few years up to 2006) casting a great big stream of innuendo on Ken O'Keefe' behaviour negotiating the obstacles Road to Hopers found in their way throughout Lybia

.. by the 57th comment Mary gets downrite fishwifey: "...personal soap operatic drama of an adrenaline junkie." there's a few commenters who stick up for Ken, like Eileen, Eric Verlo (who i have had the pleasure of reading in personal print .. though i slacked off .. for over a year already ... my my), Sam, who goes:

Xa is quite solidly on mary's side but with succinct and dehydrated argument (not to mention better language economy ... what a babble box Mary has turned into):

And yet, despite believing (against all evidence) that they would simply be allowed to tag along into Egypt, none of them bothered getting visas to go through

Egypt! Almost everyone on R2H is a person of deep conviction. Those who led it, who lied and conned people – surely not just O'Keefe (he joined in Tripoli, he was not responsible for all the claims about "al quds convoy") xa posts157 as well, a participant account by Sonette is worthwhile (perhaps to many overly concerned with budgeting and funds solicitation. A 'Magic Hat' discussion of a type i know quite well. And Butterfly Bill's yearly rainbow gathering accounts usually have a hat ingredient. I love them all).

It's a harrowing read: >>>snip<<<<

The greatest irony in all of course is this: These commenters display the sort of personal aversion either shipping agents or the captain (or both) most proolly felt towards Ken (who, being so there when there, cannot be missed, overlooked or ignored, ... not even on a very large ship, and not on one that could just repeat a performance on the strength of routine alone) .. or put off by so many flakey do gooders, to the point where they start misquoting the contract to each other just to annoy the bunch of them.

I dunno how many other Mavi survivors were on this thing but the need to resist a repeat/replay/reply impulse, a traumatized reaction wasn't felt keenly (Kenly?) nor dealt with carefully enough and so, all (egged up and on) in service of a people struggling with life and death issues (yet keeping up demographics with abandon, ... aint they insufferably unsuffering????) a little urge and cajole here, a foot in the door there, a (nearly empty) van on a bridge and an all too stern word yonder ..presto .. already we're in 'clashitory' to the point where it may have felt like hi-jacking (or echos thereof) for either party already! Tragic. But the entire Arab youth began to make up for it all quite soon afterwards.

I maintain that this way of risk spreading is counterproductive although i can readily sympathize with reaching into the bag, take aim type dosage fetishes, as long as rules are strictly emulative and imitative of nature rather than reaching in way too deep (inverse of the steep i noted), manipulatively recombinant. So seercentre YES hedweb NO.

The clean reliable and steady embeddiment with little individual freedom practiced by ancient cultures -- nobody at command of very many, nobody singled out, no commanding others to divide labour and help him push his dream forwards no matter how tempting the trajectories that propel a society away from labour in parallel to labour save here and employed there his inventions ... simply cause they are seen as detractions from each and every's autonomization pleasure -- is traded for a far more burdened one, a murkier, more precipitous and anxiety ridden (and hence security obsessed) pressure to improvise and invent. All (the above) due to the shallowing and silting up of cultural memory (multilayered filters which clog and block when the holes increase yet seethroughs and vistas decline), destroying it where they find it and putting propaganda machines in their place.

Remember, the most recognizable forebear of our present day media is the bible and there still is no substitute for it, the McLuhan container theory has proved productive alright, but he discounted side-effects due to bad choices in containment attempts, they all proved way too leaky so far, perhaps he did not quite understand Joyce as much as thought he did, let alone 'content', misunderstood as much as 'organization' is methinks. Here's a hint (or 2): minimally spaced (tight) and timed vs rhythmic swell and pulse audible crumble vs silent assembly of course there is as little vs here as between yin and yang.

I suppose i need to try say some conclusively cutting things about Fof in the light of easter 2010, the jewish outrage over Catholics comparing proportionalities applied to bad apples amongst both Cults going for some dumb book or broke, forever trying to repeat a just as repeatedly failing exercise, (forever trying to) gain equal footing (with unfair players, opposition breakers who sabotage balls in play and going home with a miniscule and cuddly subset).

The judeoZionist response is totally and yet very calculatedly besides the point and compounds the vortaüschung (wool over eye pulling) they specialize in since day one of their propPush (nemrud.nl).

CC (Catholic Church) is held responsible, SZ (ZionoSemite) don't care to be.

Fof (high holiness of the kind Kleps unfortunately failed to inspire others to destroy but almost managed to singlehandedly, relying on Hume and such) has been out in the open for all the world to see and their obsessions and specialisms are being used as a wedge by the media/politics/tabloid climate creators to kindle rather than quell the narcissism of imagined differences (so that profit flows in from all sides, like for that hospital chain owning corp that happens to be into the arms industry also - no idea if they are also ZioSettleSHEat)*.

Cerberus CapitalManagement related quote omitted here CC is not (or as yet un) punished, da summights -- semonotone makers decimators, demi-semi-m/takers, semi(t)ono(moan)makers -- (already are, too much) were, both (and the latter doubly) unjustifiable cause the CC is, but they are not guilty of blowing isolated and small percentages of society up # cause enough to call for endless reparation.

Their precision targeting identifies bad apples before affecting the collective, reserving (saving) crude barbarous collective punishments to be applied to the crude and barbarous neighbours, not themselves.

Thus their self-implication (fess upperhandedness) is properly dialectual- and polarized and also face *(flec)*tated thusly: into self-shelterment (modestly staring at the inside of the walls around them), as if no no no, they are far better than catholicism condemners and catholics covering for their own bad apples, sheltering them under the cloak of collectivity.

They try to distract from their own crime by contrasting its attempt at punishment and accountability stimulus (did i mention Stolypin yet ... again [[....]] yet?) to the impugntiy of catholics, both unwarranted cause them do merit ... but they certainly did not etcetera.

Committing insultingly small potatoe petty crime like that is for youngsters and apprentices (Mossadanger dances and casts deathly glances across the Caucasus, very ancients routes for them, they feel in their element, it's the denudation trail along which they can look back of accomplishments of nemrudian scale), therefore a further resentment is kindled and pride hurt by ignorance regarding the magnitude and success of serious serial semitocrime (demography direction on the bloodiest of scales on both birth and death ends of the [[fully licensed]]) barpaingain), to wit, their bad eggs fucking with a social lubricant like money, which has reached incredible heights of inescapable coinshaving practices since then, was nevertheless already considerable since way back when whereas fucking the sense of shame is a primitive one on one affair, not nearly as effective, collective and sophisticated as their non-primitive sem *(itom)*iddlemanly cementmight-settlement. They want us all to properly see the scope of their crime in order to be awe inspired and pay respectfully while trembling in fear. What does their insatiable hunger for american arms developing in the direction of remotitude rather than fair fighting denote but a thirst for supremacy, a belief in force, a reflection of their own great industry, surveillance and control, force cloaked in user friendly automation? And doesn't the leading Dutch Christian daily showing a huge photo of a palestinian dragged away by 3 soldiers armed to the teeth without any outcry in this regard, attest to their hegemonic influence over areas long left behind but not without installing selection criteria for the succession pawns in strategic places?

the respective degrees of outcry over (Catholic) sexual abuse and (jewish) financialist crime are comparable and the durations of impugntiy are too . . but the scales of the crime are not as i noted earlier. In as far as Goldman Sachsers are taking a few leaves from the handbooks that got jews expelled time after time, age after age, to fuck people over demographically (including their own) is an olympic discipline in which semito-patrist excel, both traits originate from the same corner and corneredness. An impersonal and collectively beneficial solution would be best.

http://www.jlaw.com/Commentary/FinancialMeltdownTORAHVIEW_Jun17.pdf

The Financial Meltdown of 2008: The Perspective of Jewish Law The paper concludes that Jewish law was violated at every step of the way towards the current financial catastrophe. Had the bankers, auditors, rating agencies, politicians, regulators, and mortgage brokers followed the principles of business ethics described in Jewish law, the global financial crisis would not have occurred.

Mmm, nothing about the double standards and mixed messages in that weighty tome? Those attracted to the beatific passages are in for a glacial shower should they thereby be emboldened to probe a little deeper. Nothing on those involved and (/especially to donate to) jewish lawlessness (legalizing settlement against all reasonable objection, rational consideration and ethical intuition). Wonder how much they protested the money that came streaming their way due to condition they now, after the fact, protest. The big holy books are schizotomes, a collection of dialurid and diabolic dichizmoid feigning and fawnings meant to hide the grudge nursery that goes on in passages conveniently passed over and leafed by for such purposes. Offlimit for the uninitiates cause they say so.

In the light of my little cheerful hallway display (lots of candy coloured book covers hovered over by a rainbow umbrella with the stairs spiralling around it so you get to see how the books are covered) i should check this Xymph passage:

Gaza flotilla massacre It is early days, but the Jew-controlled media was obviously issued an order from Israel to suppress information on the mass murder - one which Israel knew was going to happen - to give World Jewry enough time to manage the PR. part of a huge thing i wrote (or collated) the 10th apparantly: economics-and-tactility.html in a long rant about money, of which the below is a part, i left just this: jewdas.org/joseph.htm ... more commentary and quotes in the 'semzio SECTzion'

If you haven't already, please visit (a cornerstone/staple of) my (quickenkinconstellable) time-space parable (from micro extent to perennial, terrestrial, even universal ones) for a cleare see-through: jewdas.com (the joseph story in particular - a first miraculous, totally exceptional rank-rise causing disownment, de-autonomization, ungardenculturation and labour reserves simply by stockpileage and storage on a massive scale, later worsened, extended and aggravated by destilleries and enslaving slavics and whites to spirits). I'll quickly show you what i thought when i first found this page in 2005, during them good old haloscan days at Mary's, (who is now at palestinehinktank.com by the way) .. gone in favor of social networking tweaks buttons, AIDS and choices that require ... wait for itspeedier processors and so less integrity (Robin Dunbar) more siliconhell.com type stuff ... which i should revisit to see if they caught on to the autism epidemic there (bay-area) besides the pollution they used to harp on a decade ago already .. I mention jewdas in the 11th file since then by the way.

Excellent!!!!!!!!!! sticking feathers enemies let fly at you to attempt derogation and bad light painting in your hat is a pride taking process caught in the single dutch word 'geuzennaam' (from the days they fought/inundated the spanish, then very much under semito expansion spell and sponsorship [[ask the forest sprites how lovely they think that word]], pretty irrelevant wether Moor or jew no? They certainly had to learn deal with waves of both since then), an anglo-recent example would be 'queer'.

"Joseph's story teaches that security comes not from aligning yourself with those with power and strength, but from working together with the poorest in society and promoting justice for the oppressed. If you seek only your own welfare, and persecute others to achieve it, you may become persecuted yourself. The text contains a timeless message: none of us are free until all of us are free."

--- typical case of left ziomarxism scolding the left ziocapitalism? Anyway, I was onboard for this part already, it goes a little farther than that thoug:

"Rather than simply a means to survive a famine, Joseph's plan can be read as a self-fulfilling prophecy. By taking away the people's surpluses, they were forced into agricultural overproduction, and the over farming of the land is the chief cause of the resultant famine. The programme is simply a means for the state to take control, to overthrow a localised, autonomous society, and turn it into a centralised autocracy, similar to the use of enclosure in English history."

youtube.com/watch?v=VYf_WriupbM this one made me cry ... sure sign that the universe is balanced ... london, one of the world's most evil hell-holes of co-ercion co-ordination and hellish exhaust up and down chronically clogged main arteries and poisoning the atmosphere far beyond it, produces angelic beings as a matter of course ... but cannot tolerate them for long. Banishment the wages of showing how ugly the banners are by comparison and example.

what should i call this? april09 (huge load of jeward usage in that file and me recommending a study of racialization via the neoteny.org angles - english twisted into savantanglish).

sept09 i sent some letters to andrew ... which i need to mine my mail account for ...but what i do find is close enough to serve as refresher and apend some fresh advancements to (schub schub shubi scoopidoodododoo):

get part 2 of F Roger Devlin's reviewing '200 years together' from the occidental quarterly, part 1 is easily one of the best i have seen but he does not mention early marriages as a great big factor in the problems .. at least not in the first part, though i think that covers the period about which Solz mentions this to me very very revealing fact, i bounced it off Andrew .. but he claims i confuse him.

Solzhenitsyn on the Jews and Soviet Russia
toqonline.com/author/fdevlin/ F Roger Devlin theoccidentalquarterly.com/archives/vol8no3/TOQv8n3Devlin.pdf toqonline.com/2009/05/solzhenitsyn-jews-soviets-part-i/ html version of that pdf and part 2 - 4: ii/ - iii/ - iv/

- very very warmly recommended!!

Andrew's classifier callibration applied to the jewish question -- i tried just that -- is becoming a more and more obvious and fruitful move to me. Take a - their breeding expertise

from hide colouring to preferring the meek inward savant over the outgoing aggressive macho - almost what defines a jew pretty precisely for millenia if you ask me, the dorknopers of babylon from turkey to ethiopia or from russia to south africa, the degrees of slippage and assimilation going out and coming in as tidally as the most ancient of their gods, the insects .. being in a sect ... get it? Leading to demographic make and breakitude, a 'skill' (skizoskill skizos kill skidzios are ill) plied deftly throughout. the breeding programs of the various growers turned inside out over the centuries .. from the realm of spontaneity and volutariety to industrial and economic necessities, grunt sewat and co-ercion using and kindling varieties.

and turning a metaphoric vibe musical type situation into one of measure and meterment, rationation, fractionation, apportionment, an obsession with space and an urge to colonize, investing in any- and everything that massifies and yields momentum to propel one along on the largest scale wave available (sorry surfer but you are a sufferd who suffers superficiality and have to eat some BPee per tise for having ignored me and wessel), causes them to be unsentimental and without scruple if a little resizing can be expedited by sacrificing previous phase and premise stage .. which entrenches their one way mindset even more (back? where's that at? you are wanted hear to s/wallow down/in lies now) keeps them yesterday i said: It is far worse than not ok to prove hitler's diagnosis right .. (good!) but also apply his worst possible cure (bad!). The latter, no matter who applies that individually and/or collectively, is in my opinion, punishable by forced permacultural labour in fact .. look for an international enforcement flowt(at)villa()inz invading many an lzhoo near you soon.

Jewfriendly mediamouths purport to have palis pegged well enough to call them hamas for short. Like we NWEuros are trying to make the immigrants responsible for their bad eggs, or hitler did jews for splintergroup of speculators among and sprouted from them (who did not need hi-frequency trading software cause they could reckon like daniel tammet et al, with their bare head well enough thank you).

fighting spirit left and don't see why they cannot do exactly what Amis did to Indians (aint that the very thing you think you too need to conquer land and make it yours while being the lightningrod and lucrative scapegoat into the sponsor's wake following bargain, effectively reminding them of their past enough to keep their mouths mum about it, lest fingerpointing be outpointable as hypocritical?), add to that the confusion between repatriation and imperialism and deadly deadlock ensues.

brandishing rather than profiting from weaponry isn't such a big deal after all and just the thing you believe calling any bit of land yours (once again) requires of you (once over) after conversion - revelation - aliyah (once more)? The very thing that has cost turtle islanders everything in the course of jew financiers allotting machine guns unequivally (jew were held collectively responsible for on hundreds of occasions in as many cities over a few hundred years) is thus a current and recurrent actuality yet at the same time under the radar.

Hitler diagnosed the soft side of semitism specializing in not care but insidious professions and now yall are hellbent on being hard (though delegatedly, tecced up) without betrayal to being clever, so you compromise and use insuperably superior, top of the line arms .. to punish the type of semite a green zionist or a Bartsch (see the post about swords below, to which as an addendum i need to point to older work of mine about it, from the unsharp pic it is not clear rock soil and plant play supporting roles on that cover) might have made (leaving less for me to make) out of you and admire.

Hilter failed to instill a few lessons about honest work (combine Smith's 30s book called tree-crops with Stolypin) and honest fighting (closely calling animalistic bloodsport) but christianity or whatever, some damn thing or another had made him into too much of the type jew you have become.

I wish you the skill necessary to become a good neighbour to palestinians at least and even better, learn to see them as the admirable, heroic, longsuffering, patient and indestructable semite, worshipping a tree (the olive, ... ok, the most arid variety but still .. speaking of which your arguments are diabolically turftoppling, 'orchards have to go cause hamas hides in there), you like to be seen and think of yourself as ... perhaps a campaign analyzing jewish jealousy is in order.

Either and whichever way around we twist it, an aeon of culture warping and shaping in which finding ways back or (or forth, it does not really matter/make a difference) to more succulence, shade, seduction and celebrations, jubilees and jubilations, the starry vibes happily meeting a starrily steady status halfway, none need yield to others, always another patch of drought dessication and deified severity to remedy is the least even the biggest sinner needs and deserves. Just do not allow them to clump together and organize. Semites as a whole have a bad case of reckoning and wrecking their identity by sheer numbers, the fucking numbers.

palestinians are not allowed arms, they know not how to use them properly though who in the final analysis really uses them against their own interests if not at the same time against themselves entire is an open sore and question.

Instead of help in procuring arms to give them a chance for a fair fight (same amount, same kind and same source of such help would quickly perk the market don't you think?) it is imperative and the only decent to do: PROVIDE THE PALESTINIANS WITH PROTECTION BY INTERNATIONAL VOLUNTARY FORCE i know what i will report below will this is what i mean, what they HAVE taken over/on (and offer, besides free piles in public libraries) is the leafing tecslickiness i first saw about a year ago i guess and know the whole earth catalog has applied to issues which i believe one can not get in pulpmode new anymore (my lousy software set-up blocks access right now). I own only the last let alone much of what gets blurbed there (just a few essentials like 'space colonies' which i tried to run into the ground thoroughly) so hey my collection is not that great really is it.

Hierarchical cults like Soros Conglomeroid and the lesser host of wannabe key charismaticullers lights like euromedfoundation.org (uses De Hoog Dombosch graphics with the rainbow logo) clamour for 'regiebehoud' (holding onto the reigns) once they are cornered lucrative (lucre cracktive inactively corrective and incorrectly active) markets like those for physical security, the police, but it is better to, dare i say it (again?), enforce the market freeing guarantee: automate the tally in a non-meddlable 'read only' way. watery. level indicator. of purest passivity so sheer pressure of informed and therefore (not [[by way of]] proppy power manipulated and conmanhandled) popular as wel as imperative opinion rules. Politicians who have business nor skill with this technicality can fuck off to the theatre or pulpit.

i possess a poster of a numeracy stimulating foundation which shows a fruit stand and entitled 'money and problems'. When the time comes i will show it along with posters of the tree-alphabet mapped out on finger joints.

Palis and sympathizers SAY izzies are dogs (mad ones at that) but izzymouths call THAT hypocritical while they themselves ACT like their neighbours are so many multiples more dangerous than them, they need astronomical numbers of times the amount miraculously received through the odd tunnel. If anybody tries put these people on an equal footing it is an open goal to do so on the grounds of what they say methinks.

editing note: there's a bunch of after dribbles i am leaving on the big pile but i'll double the end that became the beginning: a ramble prefixed to: 'yesterday's repeated and polished up a tad'

fresh thought, might the mythical semitical rejection (by jews) and downplay (by arabs) of jesus (who stands for the sun-gods and sacred kings of yore - passim R Graves, truthbeknown zeitgeist etcetera) have something to do with lichtvervuiling ... nee ... lichtontvangst en verwerking ... refusal of our saviour's mercy is a dangerous personalization of a creepingly collective and intergenerational ailment resulting in erosion to the point of inhibiting sunlight processing altogether. <http://fokkosfotos.fotopic.net/p21460565.html> you want to read the sarantium books by GG Kay and get a taste for the loss of greenery in this region between semite and slav ... the ottoman empire.

regarding the pre-ambel in the rewrite don't remember if i mentioned this on blog before (other than in a comment at Drew's mazbe): <http://lexiline.blogspot.com/> - the relevant post is the last one on the front page. Too bad clever guys like this don't care a fig for the 'permacological aspects of self-delusion and violence. Why is DeMeo such a lone light? Why am i?

a juicy earful or dry and dusty sightings hey .. i am the easy choices man right? the plague seasons and circuses march on to the tune of 85 vids by that christian arms industries laudatiating lassie .. see about 3.33 in the second vid for the lass (in haar sas) betraying the crypto semite strains in her make up with the ululationizing (sound quality is very borderline) and not sounding so mournful as 'they' (only very liminally a group of course) when fighting the impulse or lacking the savvy and opps to escape his wasted habitat and cheerfully supping up someone elses (while singing like angels about suffering). ... the fourth one is amazing ... still dark haired there ... since it has a little muddy truth in it too

now really though, ... cut the sweet holy spirit crap and celebrate the destruction of your enemies like the holy books want you to. sheeeesh
